- b) Persons engaged in investment-related travel within the scope of this Agreement.

Article 10. Expropriation / Nationalization

1 - Investments of nationals or companies of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party may not be expropriated, nationalized or subject to other measures having equivalent effect to expropriation or nationalization, except for reasons of public utility and compensation. The compensation shall correspond to the value that the expropriated investment had at the time of expropriation, nationalization or equivalent measure. The compensation shall be paid without delay, shall bear interest at the usual bank rate up to the date of its liquidation and shall be freely transferable. Appropriate arrangements shall be made for fixing the amount and method of payment of the compensation at the latest at the time of expropriation, nationalization or equivalent measure. The legality of the expropriation, nationalization or equivalent measure and the amount of compensation must be verifiable in normal judicial process.

2 - There will also be a payment of compensation, in the same terms of the previous number, in the case of intervention of the Road in the company that is the object of the investment in order to considerably and definitively jeopardize the economic situation of the same.

3 - Nationals or companies of one of the Contracting Parties which suffer loss of investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party by virtue of war or other armed conflict, revolution, state of national emergency or uprising shall not receive less favorable treatment from that Contracting Party in Restitution, compensation, compensation or other consideration than that accorded to its own nationals or companies. Such payments shall be freely transferable.

4 - With regard to matters covered by this Article, nationals and companies of either Contracting Party shall enjoy, in the territory of the other Contracting Party, most-favored-nation treatment.

Article 11. Subrogation

In the event that one of the Contracting Parties makes any payments to one of its nationals or companies by virtue of a guarantee given to an investment carried out in the territory of the other Contracting Party, it shall be subrogated to the rights and actions of that national or company, Being able to exercise them in the same terms and conditions as the original owner.

Article 12. More Favorable Conditions

1 - If the legal provisions in force in the territory of one of the Contracting Parties or the obligations under international law that may exist or may exist in the future between the Contracting Parties together with this Agreement results in general or special regulations in which the investments of nationals Or companies of the other Contracting Party more favorable treatment than that provided for in this Agreement, such regulation shall prevail in so far as it is more favorable.

2 - Conditions more favorable than those resulting from this Agreement which have been agreed upon by either Contracting Party with nationals or companies of the other Contracting Party shall remain unchanged and shall not be affected by the entry into force of this Agreement.

Article 13. Existing Investments

The provisions of this Agreement shall also apply to investments made by nationals or companies of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party in accordance with their respective legal provisions and which took place before the entry into force of this Agreement.

Article 14. Litigation Concerning the Interpretation / Application of this Agreement

1 - Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall be settled as far as possible by negotiation between the Governments of the two Contracting Parties.

2 - If a dispute can not be settled in this way, it shall be referred to an arbitral tribunal at the request of either Contracting Party.

3 - The arbitral tribunal shall consist of three members, two members and one president, each of the Contracting Parties appointing one member; By common agreement, both members shall designate a national of a third State to perform the duties of chairman, who shall be appointed by the Governments of the two Contracting Parties. The members shall be appointed within a period of two months and the President within three months, in both cases from the date on which one of the Contracting Parties has notified the other that wishes to submit the dispute to an arbitral tribunal.

4 - If the time limits set out in the preceding paragraph are not fulfilled, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of agreement, request the President of the International Court of Justice to make the necessary appointments. If the President of the International Court of Justice is a national of either Contracting Party or is otherwise impeded, the Vice-President shall be responsible for making appointments. If the Vice-President is also a national of one of the Contracting Parties or is otherwise prevented from doing so, appointments shall be made to the member of the Tribunal who is in the hierarchy and is not a national of either Contracting Party.

5 - The arbitral tribunal shall decide by majority vote and its decisions shall be binding. Each of the Contracting Parties shall bear the expenses of its member as well as those of its representation in the proceedings before the arbitral tribunal; Both Contracting Parties shall bear the costs of the President and the other expenses in equal parts. The arbitral tribunal may adopt a different regulation on costs and define its own rules of procedure.

6 - In the event that both Contracting Parties become members of the Convention on the Settlement of Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States Relating to Investments of March 18, 1965, no action may be taken, pursuant to article 27, paragraph 1 of Referred to above, to the above-mentioned arbitral tribunal, since between the national or the company of one of the Contracting Parties and the other Contracting Party the agreement referred to in Article 25 of the same Convention exists. The possibility of recourse to the aforementioned Tribunal in case of non-compliance with a decision of the arbitral tribunal established under Article 27 of the said Convention and in the case of transfer of rights by virtue of subrogation under Article 11, Of this Agreement.

Article 15. Litigation Regarding Investments

1 - Disputes arising between one of the Contracting Parties and a national or company of the other Contracting Party in respect of investments shall, as far as possible, be settled amicably between the parties to the dispute.

2 - If the dispute can not be settled within a period of six months from the date on which one of the parties lodged it, it shall be submitted, at the request of the national or company concerned, to arbitration proceedings. By this Agreement, both Contracting Parties declare their agreement to such a proceeding. Unless otherwise agreed, the provisions of Article 14 (3) to (5) shall apply mutatis mutandis, provided that the disputing parties appoint the members of the arbitral tribunal in accordance with paragraph 3 Of the same article, and failing which, in the absence of other agreements, each of them may, in the absence of other agreements, invite the chairman of the Arbitration Tribunal of the International Chamber of Commerce in Paris to make the necessary appointments. The arbitral award shall be enforced in accordance with the national law of the country in which the dispute arose.

3 - Should both Contracting Parties become members of the Convention on the Settlement of Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States Relating to Investments of 18 March 1965, disputes between the parties referred to in this article shall be submitted to Accordance with the said Convention, unless the Contracting Parties mutually agree on a different solution.

Article 16. Subsistence In Case of Conflict

This Agreement shall remain in force even in the case of conflict between the Contracting Parties, without prejudice to the right of interim measures, provided that they are admitted by the general rules of international law. Such provisional measures shall be repealed at the latest at the time when the conflict actually ceases, irrespective of the existence or not of diplomatic relations.

Article 17. In Force, Renewal, Denunciation

1 - Each Contracting Party shall notify the other Contracting Party in writing of the completion of its constitutional procedures relating to the entry into force of this Agreement.

2 - This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of receipt of the last of said communications and shall remain in force for 10 years. Upon expiry of that period, it shall be deemed to be extended indefinitely, unless one of the Contracting Parties denounces it in writing at any time with 12 months' notice.

3 - For investments made up to the termination of this Agreement, the provisions of Articles 1 to 16 shall remain in force for 20 years from the date of such termination.
