Article 3. Treatment

1. Each Contracting Party shall accord to the investors of the other Contracting Party as well as to the investments effected by and investment returns accruing to such investors, treatment not less favourable than that it accords to its own investors as well as to investments effected by and investment returns accruing to its own investors or investors of any third State.

Article 5. Expropriation

1. Investments of investors of one Contracting Party shall not be, "de jure" or "de facto", totally or partially, nationalised, expropriated, requisitioned or subjected to any measures having an equivalent effect (hereinafter referred to as "expropriation") in the territory of the other Contracting Party, except for public purposes or national interest, on payment of compensation, on condition that these measures are taken on a non-discriminatory basis and in accordance with the procedures established by its legislation.
2. The compensation provided for in paragraph 1. of this Article shall be equivalent to the fair market value of the expropriated investments on the date immediately prior to the date on which the expropriation was made or the decision to expropriate was officially announced. The assessment of the fair market value will take into account the declared tax value of the expropriated assets.
3. Compensation shall be paid without undue delay and in a reasonable period of time, and be fully realisable and freely transferable.

To compensation shall be added interests from the date of expropriation until the date of payment at a normal commercial rate, including LIBOR.
4. Compensation shall be paid in convertible currency at the market exchange rate applicable on the date immediately prior to the date on which the expropriation was made or the decision to expropriate was officially announced. Such compensation will be freely transferable.
5. The provisions of this Article shall also apply to any investment returns and, in the event of winding-up of the investment, to the proceeds of liquidation to be paid to the investor, only in the case that any of them were nationalised or expropriated.
6. If, after the dispossession, the investment has not been wholly or partially utilised for the purpose of the expropriation in question, the former owner or his assignees shall be entitled to recover the investment at the fair market value, according to the legal procedures envisaged in the legislation in force of the respective expropriating Contracting Party.

2. Taking into account the provisions of Article 3 of this Agreement, the Contracting Parties undertake to apply to the transfers mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Most Favoured Nation Treatment.
3. Notwithstanding paragraphs 1 and 2 above, each Contracting Party may prevent a transfer through the equitable, non-discriminatory and in good faith application of measures to protect the rights of creditors, relating to or ensuring compliance with laws and regulations on the issuing, trading and dealing in securities, futures and derivatives, reports or records of transfers, or in connection with criminal offences and orders or judgements in administrative and adjudicatory proceedings, provided that such measures and their application shall not be used as a means of avoiding the Contracting Party's commitments or obligations under this Agreement.
4. In case of serious balance of payments difficulties or the threat thereof, each Contracting Party may temporarily restrict transfers, provided that such a Contracting Party implements measures or a programme in accordance with the International Monetary Fund standards. These restrictions would be imposed on an equitable, non-discriminatory and in good faith basis.

Article 7. Subrogation

1. If a Contracting Party or its designated agency makes a payment under an indemnity, guarantee or contract of insurance against non-commercial risks given in respect of an investment by an investor in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter Contracting Party shall recognise the assignment of any right or claim of such investor to the former Contracting Party or its designated agency and the right of the former Contracting Party or its designated agency to exercise by virtue of subrogation any such right or claim to the same extent as its predecessor in title.

However, in case of a dispute, only the investor or a privately owned legal person to which the Contracting Party or its designated agency has assigned its rights may initiate or participate in proceedings before a national tribunal or submit the case to international arbitration in accordance with the provision of Section 2 (two) of the Annex of this Agreement.

2. In relation to the transfer of payments to the Contracting Party or its designated Agency by virtue of this assignment, the provisions of Articles 4., 5. and 6. of this Agreement shall apply.

Article 8. Transfer of Funds Procedures

The transfer of funds referred to in Articles 4., 5., 6. and 7. of this Agreement shall be effected without undue delay and, after all fiscal obligations have been met by the investor, according to the proceedings provided for by the legislation of the Contracting Party on the territory of which the investment has been carried out.

Such transfer of funds shall be made in a convertible currency at the prevailing exchange rate applicable on the date on which the investor applies for it.

Article 9. Settlement of Disputes Mechanisms

Any dispute arising from the interpretation and/or application of this Agreement between the Contracting Parties and disputes between one Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party, shall be settled amicably.

If a controversy cannot be solved in such a manner, the respective settlement of disputes mechanism, as provided for in the Annex which is integral part of this Agreement, shall apply.

Article 10. Application of other Provisions

On the settlement of disputes mechanisms

Section 1. Settlement of Disputes Mechanism between the Contracting Parties

1. Any dispute which may arise between the Contracting Parties relating to the interpretation and application of this Agreement shall, as far as possible, be settled amicably.
2. In the event that the dispute cannot be settled within six months from the date on which one of the Contracting Parties notifies, in writing, the other Contracting Party of his intention to go to arbitration, the dispute shall be laid before an ad hoc Arbitration Tribunal as provided for in this Article.
3. The Arbitration Tribunal shall be constituted as follows: within two months from the moment on which the request for arbitration is received, each of the two Contracting Parties shall appoint a member of the Arbitration Tribunal. The two members shall then choose a national of a third State to serve as President. The President shall be appointed within three months from the date on which the other two members are appointed.
4. If, within the period specified in paragraph 3. of this Article, the appointments have not been made, each of the two Contracting Parties can, in default of other arrangement, ask the President of the International Court of Justice to make the appointment. In the event that the President of the Court is a national of one of the Contracting Parties or it is, for any reason, impossible for him to make the appointment, the application shall be made to the Vice President of the Court. If the Vice-President of the Court is a national of one of the Contracting Parties, or is unable to make the appointment for any reason, the senior member of the International Court of Justice, who is not a national of one of the Contracting Parties, shall be invited to make the appointment.
5. The Arbitration Tribunal shall rule with a majority vote. Its decisions shall be binding on both Contracting Parties. Each Contracting Party shall pay the costs of its own member of the Arbitration Tribunal and of its representative at the hearings. The President's costs and any other cost shall be divided equally between the Contracting Parties.

The Arbitration Tribunal shall lay down its own procedures.

6. A Contracting Party shall not initiate proceedings under this Section for a dispute regarding the infringement of rights of an investor which that investor has submitted to proceedings under Section 2 of this Annex (Investor-State), unless the other Contracting Party has failed to abide by or comply with the award rendered in that dispute. In this case, the arbitral tribunal established under this Article, on delivery of a request by a Contracting Party whose investor was a party to the dispute, may award:

- a) a declaration that the failure to abide by or comply with the final award is in contravention of the obligations of the other Contracting Party under this Agreement; and
- b) a recommendation that the other Contracting Party abide by or comply with the final award.

Section 2. Settlement of Disputes between a Contracting Party and an Investor of the other Contracting Party

1. Scope and Standing

1. This Section applies to disputes between a Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party arising from the date the Agreement enters into force, concerning an alleged breach of an obligation of the former under this Agreement which causes loss or damage to the investor or its investment. A company that is an investment in the territory of a Contracting Party made by an investor of the other Contracting Party, may not submit a claim to arbitration under this Section.
2. If an investor of a Contracting Party or his investment that is a company in the territory of the other Contracting Party initiates proceedings before a national tribunal with respect to a measure that is alleged to be a breach of this Agreement, the dispute may only be submitted to arbitration under this Section if the competent national tribunal has not rendered judgement in the first instance on the merits of the case. The foregoing does not apply to administrative proceedings before the administrative authorities executing the measure that is alleged to be a breach.

3. In case an investor of a contracting Party submits a claim to arbitration, neither the investor nor his company that is an investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party, may initiate or continue proceedings before a national tribunal.

2. Means of Settlement, Time Periods

a) To the competent courts or tribunals of the Contracting Party to the dispute;

b) In accordance with any applicable previously agreed dispute settlement procedure, or

c) In accordance with this Article to:

i) The International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes ("the Centre"), established pursuant to the Convention of the Settlement of Investment disputes between States and nationals of other States ("the ICSID Convention"), if the Contracting Party of the investor and the Contracting Party to the dispute are both parties to the ICSID Convention;

ii) The Centre under the rules governing the Additional Facility for the Administration of Proceedings by the Secretariat of the Centre, if the Contracting Party of the investor or the Contracting Party to the dispute, but not both, is a party to the ICSID Convention;

iii) And ad hoc arbitration tribunal established under the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law ("UNCITRAL");

iv) The International Chamber of Commerce, by and ad hoc tribunal under its rules of arbitration.

2. The applicable arbitration rules shall govern the arbitration except to the extent modified by this Section.

3. A dispute may be submitted for resolution pursuant to paragraph (1) c), provided that six months have elapsed since the events giving rise to the claim occurred and provided that the investor has delivered to the Contracting Party, party to the dispute, written notice of his intention to submit a claim to arbitration at least 60 days in advance, but not later than 3 years from the date the investor first acquired or should have acquired knowledge of the events which gave rise to the dispute.

3. Contracting Party Consent

Each Contracting Party hereby gives its unconditional consent to the submission of a dispute to international arbitration in accordance with this Section.

4. Formation of the Arbitral Tribunal

1. Unless the parties to the dispute agree otherwise, the arbitral tribunal shall comprise three members. Each party to the dispute shall appoint one member and these two members shall agree upon a third member as their chairman.

2. If an arbitral tribunal has not been constituted within 90 days from the date the claim was submitted to arbitration, either because a party to the dispute failed to appoint a member or the elected members failed to agree upon a chairman, the Secretary General of ICSID, on the request of any of the parties to the dispute, shall be invited to appoint, in his discretion, the member or members not yet appointed. Nevertheless, the Secretary General of ICSID, when appointing a chairman, shall assure that the chairman is a national of neither of the Contracting Parties.

5. Consolidation

1. A tribunal of consolidation established under this Article shall be installed under the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules and shall conduct its proceedings in accordance with those Rules, except as modified by this Section.

2. Proceedings may be consolidated upon request of one of the Contracting Parties in the following cases:

a) When an investor submits a claim on behalf of a company that he owns or controls and, simultaneously, another investor or other investors participating in the same company, but not controlling it, submit claims on their own behalf as a consequence of the same breaches of this Agreement; or

b) When two or more claims are submitted to arbitration arising from common legal and factual issues.

3. The tribunal of consolidation will decide the jurisdiction of the claims and, upon request, will jointly review such claims, unless it determines that the interests of any party to the dispute are harmed.

6. Place of Arbitration

Any arbitration under this Section shall, at the request of any party to the dispute, be held in a State that is party to the United Nations Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards (the New York Convention). Claims submitted to arbitration under this Schedule shall be considered to arise out of a commercial relationship or transaction for purpose of Article 1 of the New York Convention.

7. Indemnification

A Contracting Party shall not assert as a defence, counter-claim, right of set-off or for any other reason, that indemnification or other compensation for all or part of the alleged losses or damages has been received or will be received pursuant to an indemnity, guarantee or insurance contract.

8. Applicable Law

A tribunal established under this Section shall decide the dispute in accordance with this Agreement and applicable rules and principles of international law.

9. Awards and Enforcement

1. Arbitration awards may provide the following forms of relief:

a) Pecuniary compensation, which shall include interest from the time the loss or damage was incurred until the time of payment; and

b) Restitution in kind in appropriate cases, provided that the Contracting Party may pay pecuniary compensation in lieu thereof where restitution is not practicable.

2. Arbitration awards shall be final and binding only upon the parties to the dispute and only with respect to the particular case.

3. The final award will only be published if there is written agreement by both parties to the dispute.

4. An arbitral tribunal shall not order a Contracting Party to pay punitive damages.

5. Each Contracting Party shall, in its territory, make provision for the effective enforcement of awards made pursuant to this Article and shall carry out without delay any such award issued in a proceeding to which it is party.

6. An investor may seek enforcement of an arbitration award under the ICSID Convention or the New York Convention.

10. Exclusions

The dispute settlement provisions of this Section shall not apply to the resolutions adopted by a Contracting Party which, for national security reasons, prohibit or restrict the acquisition by investors of the other Contracting Party of an investment in the territory of the former Contracting Party, owned or controlled by its nationals.

In WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, Representatives being duly authorised thereto by their respective Governments, have signed the present Agreement.
