All kinds of disputes or differences, including disputes over the amount of compensation for expropriation or similar measures, between a Contracting Party and a national or company of the other Contracting Party concerning an investment or return of investment of that national or company in the territory of the other shall be settled amicably through negotiations.

2. If such disputes or differences cannot be settled according to the provisions of paragraph 1) of this Article within six months from the date of request for settlement, the national or company concerned may submit the dispute to:

(a) the competent court of the Contracting Party for decision; or

(b) An ad hoc arbitral tribunal in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL)

3. Neither Contracting Party shall pursue through diplomatic channels any matter referred to arbitration until the proceedings have terminated and a Contracting Party has failed to abide by or to comply with the award rendered by the competent body referred to in paragraph 2(b) of this Article.

Article X. Settlement of Disputes between Contracting Parties

1. Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation and application of this Agreement shall be settled, as far as possible, through friendly consultations by both parties through diplomatic channels.

2. If such disputes cannot be settled within six months from date on which either Contracting Party informs in writing the other Contracting Party, the matters should be submitted for settlement to an ad hoc international arbitral tribunal.

3. The ad hoc international arbitral tribunal mentioned above shall be established as follows: The arbitral tribunal is composed of three arbitrators. Each Contracting Party shall appoint one arbitrator; the two arbitrators shall propose by mutual agreement the third arbitrator who is a national of the third State which has diplomatic relations with both Contracting Parties, and the third arbitrator shall be appointed as Chairman of the tribunal by both Contracting Parties,

4. If the appointments of the members of the Arbitral Tribunal are not made within a period of six months from the date of request for arbitration, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of any court arrangement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make the necessary appointments within three months. Should the President be a national of one

Contracting Party or should he not be able to perform this designation because of other reasons, this task shall be entrusted to the Vice-President of the Court, or to the next senior Judge of the Court who is not a national of either Contracting Party.

5. The Arbitral Tribunal shall determine its own procedure. The Arbitral Tribunal shall decide its award by majority of votes. Such award is final and binding upon the Contracting Parties.

6. Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its own member of the panel and of its representative in the tribunal proceedings. The costs of the Chairman and remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by the Contracting Parties.*

Article XI. Entry Into Force, Duration and Termination

1. This Agreement shall enter into force three months after the notification between the Contracting Parties of the accomplishment of their respective internal procedures for the entry into force of this Agreement. It shall remain in force for a period of ten years and shall continue in force thereafter for another five years and so forth unless denounced in writing by either Contracting Party one year before its expiration.

2. In respect to investment made prior to the date of termination of this Agreement, its provisions shall continue to be effective for a further period of five years from the date of termination of this Agreement.
