(2) Transfers of currency pursuant to Article 4, 5 and Section (1) of the Article shall be made in the convertible currency in which the investment has been made or in any convertible currency at the official rate of exchange in force at the date of transfer.

Article 7. Subrogation

If a Contracting Party makes payment to its own nationals or companies under a guarantee it has accorded in respect of an investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter Contracting Party shall recognize;

- (a) The assignment whether under the law or pursuant to a legal transaction in that country, of any right or claim by the national or company to the former Contracting Party, as well as.
- (b) That the former Contracting Party is entitled by virtue of subrogation to exercise the rights and enforce the claims of that national or company and shall assume the obligations related to the investment.

Article 8. Arbitration and Conciliation

(1) In the event of a dispute between a national or company of one Contracting party and the other Contracting Party in connection with an investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the national or company concerned may file complaint with the competent authority of the other Contracting Party. Negotiations for settlement will then take place between the parties in dispute.

(2) If such dispute cannot be thus settled within six months, either Party to the dispute shall be entitled to submit the dispute to the competent court of the Contracting Party accepting the investment.

(3) If a dispute involving the amount of compensation resulting from expropriation mentioned in Article 4 cannot be settled within six months after company concerned, it may be submitted to an international arbitral tribunal established by both parties. Article 4 cannot be settled within six months after company concerned, it may be submitted to an international arbitral tribunal established by both parties.

If the national or company concerned has resorted to the procedure specified in the above Paragraph 2 of this Article, the provisions of this Paragraph shall not apply.

(4) The international arbitral tribunal mentioned above shall be especially constituted in the following way: each Party concerned shall appoint an arbitrator. The two arbitrators shall appoint an arbitrator as Chairman, who is a national of a third state which shall have diplomatic relations with both Contracting Parties. The arbitrators shall be appointed within two months and the Chairman within four months from the date when one Party concerned notifies the other Party of its submission of the dispute to arbitration.

If the necessary appointments are not made within the period specified in the previous paragraph, either party may, in the absence of any other agreement, request the chairman of the International Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm chamber of commerce to make the necessary appointments.

The arbitral tribunal shall determine its own arbitral procedures with reference to the "Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes Between States and Nationals of other States", done at Washington on March 18, 1965. The decision of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding, and shall be enforceable in accordance with domestic laws. The arbitral tribunal shall state the basis of its decision and state reasons upon the request of either Party concerned.

Each party concerned shall bear the cost of its own arbitrator and its representation in the arbitral proceedings. The cost of the Chairman in discharging his arbitral function and the remaining costs of the tribunal shall be borne equally by the Parties Concerned.

(5) The provisions of this Article shall not exclude both Contracting Parties from using the procedures specified in Article 9 where a dispute concerns the interpretation or application of this Agreement. Article 9 where a dispute concerns the interpretation or application of this Agreement.

Article 9. Disputes between the Contracting Parties

(1) Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation and application of this Agreement should, as far as possible, be settled through negotiations between the Contracting Parties. If such a dispute cannot be settled within five months from the beginning of negotiation. It shall upon the request of either Contracting Party, be submitted to an arbitral tribunal.

(2) Such an arbitral tribunal shall be constituted for each individual case in the following way:

Within three months of the receipt of the request for arbitration each Contracting Party shall appoint one member of the tribunal. Those two members shall then select a national of a third State, who on approval by the Contracting Parties shall be appointed Chairman of the tribunal. The chairman shall be appointed. Within three months from the date of appointment of the other two members.

If within any of the periods specified the necessary appointments have not been made, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of any other agreement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make any necessary appointments. If the President is a national of either Contracting Party or if he is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice-President shall be invited to make the necessary appointments. If the Vice-President is a national of either Contracting Party or if he, too, is prevented from discharging the said function, the Member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party shall be invited to make the necessary appointments.

(3) The arbitral tribunal shall apply the provisions of this Agreement, other agreements concluded between the Contracting Parties, and the general principles of international law. It shall reach its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be final and binding on both Contracting Parties.

(4) Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its own member of the tribunal and of its representation in the arbitral Proceedings. The cost of the Chairman in discharging his arbitral function and the remaining costs of the tribunal shall be borne equally by the Contracting Parties.

(5) The arbitral tribunal determines its own procedure.

Article 10. Other Rights or Benefits

Nothing in this Agreement shall prejudice any rights or benefits for a national or company of each Contracting Party accruing under the laws and regulations of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment is situated or under international agreements entered into by the Contracting Parties.

Article 11. Entry Into Force, Duration and Termination

(1) This Agreement shall enter into force upon signature

(2) This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of ten years and shall continue in force thereafter unless, after expiry of the initial period of ten years, either Contracting Party notifies in writing the other Contracting Party of its intention to terminate this Agreement. The notice of termination shall become effective one year after it has been received by the other Contracting Party.

(3) In respect of investments made prior to the date when the notice of termination of this Agreement becomes effective, the provisions of Articles 1 to 10 shall remain in force for a further period of ten years from that date.
