

Agreement between the Government of the Republic of Bulgaria and the Republic of Cuba on mutual encouragement and protection of investments

The Government of the Republic of Bulgaria and the Republic of Cuba, hereinafter called "Parties";

Desiring to accelerate economic cooperation for mutual benefit of both parties;

In an effort to establish and maintain fair and equitable conditions for investments by investors of either Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party;

Recognizing that the mutual promotion and protection of such investments contribute to the expansion of economic ties between the two countries and promote investment initiatives;

They have agreed as follows:

Article 1. Definitions

For the purposes of this Agreement:

1. The term "investment" means any kind of investment of an investor of either Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party in accordance with the law of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment was made, and shall include in particular, but not exclusively:

- a) ownership of movable and immovable property and limited real rights on real estate, mortgages, usufruct, liens;
- b) shares, stocks, securities, or other forms of participation in a company;
- c) monetary claims or claims to performance having economic value;
- d) intellectual or industrial property rights such as patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, industrial designs and rights in technical processes, know-how and goodwill;
- e) any right conferred by law, contract or administrative act of a competent authority, including any law relating to concessions;
- f) financial credits related to investment.

The investment includes the increase in the value of investments under letter "a" to the letter "e".

Any change in the form in which assets are invested or reinvested does not affect their character as investment, provided that the change is in accordance with the law of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment has been made.

2. The term "returns" means the amounts legally yielded by an investment such as profits, dividends, interest, capital gains, profits from the transfer of property and other legitimate income.

3. The term "investor" means:

- a) any natural person who is a citizen of either Contracting Party in accordance with its laws and permanently reside in the country;
- b) any company, enterprise, company, organization or association, separate or constituted or otherwise duly incorporated under the laws of the Contracting Party and headquartered in the latter.

4. The term "territory" means:

a) for the Republic of Bulgaria - the State territory of the Republic of Bulgaria, including the territorial sea and continental shelf and the exclusive economic zone over which the country exercises sovereign rights or jurisdiction in accordance with international law;

b) for the Republic of Cuba - territory except in state land borders also includes coastal areas and airspace; and include marine and underwater areas and airspace over which the Cuban state has sovereignty and in accordance with international law exercises sovereign rights and jurisdiction.

Article 2. Promotion and Protection of Investments

1. Each Contracting Party shall promote and protect in its territory investments by investors of the other Contracting Party and admit such investments in accordance with its laws, giving them fair and equitable treatment and protection.

2. In case of reinvestment of returns on investment, these reinvestments and revenues from them enjoy the same protection as the original investment.
