Article 9. Disputes between a Contracting Party and an Investor of the other Contracting Party

(3) As an alternative to ICSID arbitration the parties to the dispute may, by mutual consent, have recourse to an ad hoc arbitral tribunal which unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties to the dispute shall be established under the arbitration rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL.). Such arbitration shall in any case take place if for whatever reason ICSID arbitration is not available.

(4) The arbitral award shall limit itself to determine whether the Contracting Party concerned has failed to comply with an obligation under this Agreement, whether such failure has resulted in damages to the investor, and, if this is the case, the amount to be paid by the Contracting Party to the investor as compensation for such damages.

(5) Each Contracting Party hereby consents to the submission of an investment dispute to international arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(6) The Contracting Party which is a party to the dispute shall not at any time during the procedures, assert as a defence its immunity or the fact that the investor has received compensation under an insurance contract covering the whole or part of the incurred damage or loss.

(6) Subject to other provisions made by the Contracting Parties, the tribunal shall determine its procedure.

(7) The decisions of the Tribunal are final and binding on the contracting parties.
