The subrogated rights shall not exceed the rights of the investor.

Article 9. Disputes between an Investor of One Contracting Party and the other Contracting Party

1. Disputes between an Investor of either Contracting Party and the other Contracting Party arising in relation to investments made in the territory of the State of the latter, concerning obligations under this Agreement, shall as far as possible be settled amicably including resort to, upon mutual agreement of the parties to the dispute, conciliation procedures under the Conciliation Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL).
2. If a dispute cannot be settled in such a manner within six months from the date either party to the dispute requested In writing amicable settlement, unless otherwise agreed to by both parties, the investor concerned may submit the dispute to an ad-hoc International arbitration tribunal set up in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of UNCITRAL. In respect of such arbitration proceedings the following shall apply:
- a. The arbitration tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators. Each party to the dispute shall select an arbitrator. These two arbitrators shall appoint by mutual agreement a Chairman of the arbitration tribunal who shall be a citizen of a third State. The arbitrators shall be appointed within two months from the date when one of the parties to the dispute informs the other in writing of Its intention to submit the dispute to arbitration.
  - b. If the necessary appointments are not made within the period specified in (a) above either party to the dispute may, In the absence of any other agreement, request the President of the International Court of Justice to make such appointments.
  - c. The arbitral award shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.
  - d. Each party to the dispute shall bear the cost of its own arbitrator and its representation in the arbitration proceedings. The cost of the Chairman in discharging his functions and the remaining costs of the tribunal shall be borne equally by the parties to the dispute. The tribunal may, however, in its decision direct that a higher proportion of costs shall be borne by one of the two parties

Article 10. Disputes between the Contracting Parties

1. Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the Interpretation or application of this Agreement should, if possible, be settled through negotiations.
2. If a dispute between the Contracting Parties cannot be settled within six months from the date either Contracting Party requested negotiations it shall, upon the request of either Contracting Party, be submitted to an arbitral tribunal.
3. The arbitral tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators. Within two months of receipt of the request for arbitration, each Contracting Party shall appoint one arbitrator and the arbitrators shall jointly select a citizen of a third State who on approval by the two Contracting Parties shall be appointed Chairman of the tribunal. The Chairman shall be appointed within two months from the date of appointment of the other two members of the tribunal.

4. If within the periods specified in paragraph 3 of this Article the necessary appointments have not been made, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of any other agreement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make such appointments. If the President is a citizen of the State of either Contracting Party or if he is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice-President of the International Court of Justice shall be invited to make such appointments. If the Vice-President is a citizen of the State of either Contracting Party or if he too is prevented from discharging the said function, the Member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority who is not a citizen of the State of either Contracting Party shall be invited to make such appointments.

5. The arbitral tribunal shall reach its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be binding on both Contracting Parties. Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its own member of the tribunal and of its representation in the arbitral proceedings. The costs of the Chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne equally by the Contracting Parties. The tribunal may, however, in its decision direct that a higher proportion of costs shall be borne by one of the two Contracting Parties. The tribunal shall determine its own procedure.

Article 11. Applicable Law

To all investments, subject to this Agreement, shall be applicable the laws and regulations of the State of the Contracting Party in the territory of which such investments are made.

Article 12. Application of other Rules

If in accordance with the laws and regulations of the State of a Contracting Party or an international agreement to which both Contracting Parties are parties, treatment more favourable is accorded to investments of investors of the other Contracting Party than that which is provided for in this Agreement, the more favourable treatment shall apply.

Article 13. Entry Into Force, Duration and Termination of the Agreement

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of receipt of the last written notification confirming the fulfilment of all necessary constitutional procedures by the Contracting Parties.

2. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of ten years and shall continue in force until the expiry of twelve months from the date on which either Contracting Party gives written notice to the other Contracting Party of its intention to terminate this Agreement.

3. In respect of investments made prior to the date of termination of this Agreement, its provisions shall continue to be effective for a further period of fifteen years from this date.
