with international law, the territories of the Syrian Arab Republic including its internal waters, territorial sea, the subsoil thereof and the airspace above them to which Syria has sovereign rights and other maritime areas to which Syria has the rights to exercise sovereign rights for the purposes of exploration, exploitation and conservation of natural resources.

b. In respect of the Republic of Azerbaijan, the territory of the Republic of Azerbaijan including the respective Caspian Sea sector, over which the Republic of Azerbaijan exercises, in accordance with its national law and international law, sovereign rights or jurisdiction.

Article 2. Promotion and Protection of Investments

1. Each Contracting Party shall encourage and create favourable conditions in its State territory for investments by investors of the other Contracting Party and in exercise of powers conferred by its laws shall admit such investments.

2. Each Contracting Party shall at all time accord in its State territory to investments of investors of the other Contracting Party treatment in accordance with the customary international law minimum standard of treatment of aliens, including fair and equitable treatment and full and constant protection and security.

3. Each Contracting Party shall not impair by unreasonable, arbitrary or discriminatory measures the management, maintenance, use, enjoyment, acquisition or disposal of investments in its State territory of investors of the other Contracting Party.

4. Each Contracting Party shall not impose mandatory measures on investments by investors of the other Contracting Party concerning purchase of materials, means of production, operation, transport, marketing of its products or similar orders having unreasonable or discriminatory effects. This subparagraph shall not apply to procurement by a Contracting Party or a state enterprise of a Contracting Party.

5. Each Contracting Party shall, within the framework of its legislation, consider in good faith all applications for necessary permits in connection with investments in its State territory, including authorizations for engaging executives, managers, specialists and technical personnel of the investors' choice.

Article 3. Access to Investor Information and Transparency

1. Host Contracting Party has the right to seek information from a potential investor or its home state about its corporate governance history and its practices as an investor, including in its home state. Host Contracting Party shall protect confidential business information they receive in this regard. Host Contracting Party may make the information provided available to the public in the community where the investment may be located, subject to the protection of confidential business information and to other applicable domestic laws.

2. Each Contracting Party shall ensure that, to the extent possible, its laws, regulations, procedures, administrative rulings and judicial decisions of general application, as well as international agreements after their entry into force, which may affect the investments of investors of the other Contracting Party in its State territory, are promptly published, or otherwise made publicly available.

Article 4. Treatment of Investments

1. Investments made by investors of one Contracting Party in the State territory of the other Contracting Party, or returns related thereto, shall be accorded treatment no less favourable than the Host Contracting Party accords to the investments and returns made by its own investors or by investors of any third State, whichever is the most favourable to the investor.

2. Investors of one Contracting Party shall be accorded by the other Contracting Party, as regards the management, maintenance, use, enjoyment or disposal of their investments, treatment no less favourable than the latter Contracting Party accords its own investors or to investors of any third State, whichever is the most favourable to the investor.

3. For the avoidance of doubt, the present Article shall apply only in respect of the kinds of treatment offered in Articles 2 to 8 of this Agreement, and shall not apply in respect of an Investor's rights to submit disputes arising under this Agreement to any dispute settlement procedure.

Article 5. Exceptions

1. The provisions of this Agreement shall not be construed so as to oblige one Contracting Party to extend to the investors of the other Contracting Party the benefit of any treatment, preference or privilege by virtue of:

- a. Any existing or future free trade area, customs union, common market or regional labour market agreement to which one of the Contracting Parties is or may become a party,
- b. Any international agreement or arrangement relating wholly or mainly to taxation, or any domestic legislation relating to taxation, or
- c. Any multilateral convention or treaty relating to investments, of which one of the Contracting Parties is or may become a party.
- d. Provisions of Agreements entered into force by the both Contracting Party prior to May 1, 2008.

2. The provisions of this Agreement, except Articles 6, and 9 to 16 inclusive, shall not apply to taxation measures. Nothing in this Agreement affects the rights and obligations of either Contracting Party under any applicable bilateral or multilateral tax treaty.

Article 6. Expropriation

1. Investments by investors of a Contracting Party in the State territory of the other Contracting Party shall not be expropriated, nationalized or subjected to any other measures having the effect, either directly or indirectly, equivalent to expropriation or nationalization (hereinafter referred to as "expropriation") except for a public interest, on a nondiscriminatory basis, under due process of law and against the payment of prompt, adequate and effective compensation.
2. Such compensation shall amount to the fair market value of the expropriated investment at the time immediately before the expropriation was taken or became public knowledge, whichever is earlier.
3. Such fair market value shall be expressed in a freely convertible currency on the basis of the market rate of exchange applicable for that currency on the day of transfer. Compensation shall also include interest at a commercial rate established on a market basis for the currency in question from the actual date of expropriation until the date of actual payment.
4. The investor whose investments are expropriated, shall have the right to prompt review by a judicial or other competent authority of the Host Contracting Party of its case and of valuation of its investments in accordance with the principles set out in this Article.

Article 7. Compensation for Losses

1. Investors of one Contracting Party whose investments in the State territory of the other Contracting Party suffer losses owing to war or other armed conflict, a state of emergency, revolt, insurrection or a natural disaster in the State territory of the latter Contracting Party, shall be accorded by the latter Contracting Party treatment, as regards restitution, indemnification, compensation Or other settlement no less favourable than that which the latter Contracting Party accords to its own investors or investors of any third State, whichever is the most favourable to the investor. These payments shall be effectively realizable, freely convertible and immediately transferable.
2. Without prejudice to paragraph 1 of this Article, an investor of One Contracting Party who, in any of the situations referred to in that paragraph, suffers a loss in the State territory of the other Contracting Party resulting from:
 - a. Requisitioning of its investment or a part thereof by the latter's armed forces or authorities, or
 - b. Destruction of its investment or a part thereof by the latter's armed forces or authorities, which was not required by the necessity of situation

Shall be accorded adequate compensation in the light of the particular circumstances.

Article 8. Free Transfer

1. In accordance with its laws and regulations, Each Contracting Party shall in good faith ensure to investors of the other Contracting Party the free transfer, into and out of its State territory, of payments in connection with an investment. Such payments shall include in particular though not exclusively:
 - a. The principal and additional amounts to maintain, develop or increase the investment;
 - b. Returns;

- e. Proceeds obtained from the total or partial sale or disposal of an investment;
- d. The amounts required for payment of expenses which arise from the operation of the investment, such as payment of royalties and license fees or other similar expenses;

- f. Payments in respect of management fees;
- g. Payments arising out of the settlement of a dispute;
- h. Payments in connection with contracts, including loan agreements; i. net earnings and other remuneration of personnel engaged from abroad working in connection with an investment.

2. Transfers referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be made without any restriction or delay, in a freely convertible currency and at the applicable market rate of exchange applicable on the date of transfer in the currency to be transferred. If a market rate is unavailable the applicable rate of exchange shall be the most recent rate of exchange for conversion of currencies into Special Drawing Rights.

3. Notwithstanding paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, a Contracting Party may delay or prevent a transfer through 'the equitable, non-discriminatory and good faith application of measures ensuring investors' compliance with the Host Contracting Party's laws and regulations relating to

- a. The payment of taxes and dues;
- b. Bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings, or the protection of the rights of creditors;
- c. Criminal or penal offences; and
- d. Ensuring compliance with orders or judgments of the courts or tribunals of the Host Contracting Party.

Article 9. Subrogation

If a Contracting Party or its designated agency makes a payment to its own investors under a guarantee or indemnity given in respect of investments in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter Contracting Parties shall recognize:

- The assignment, whether under the law or pursuant to a legal transaction in that State of any rights or claims from investors to the former Contracting Party or its designated agency: and
- That the former Contracting Party or its designated agency is entitled by virtue of subrogation to exercise the rights of and enforce the claims of those investors.

The subrogated rights or claims shall not exceed the original rights or claims of the investor.

Article 10. Consultations

The Contracting Parties agree to consult promptly, on the request of either, to resolve any dispute arising between them in connection with this Agreement, or to review any matter relating to the implementation or application of this Agreement or to study any other issue that may arise from this Agreement. Such consultations shall be held between the competent authorities of the Contracting Parties at a place and at a time agreed upon by the Contracting Parties through diplomatic channels.

Article 11. Denial of Benefits

A Contracting Party may deny the benefits of this Agreement, including the right to commence or to continue dispute settlement proceedings, to an investor of the other Contracting Party and to the investments of that investor, if:

the investor is owned or controlled by persons having the nationality of a State that is not a Contracting Party or of the denying Party; or the investor conducts no substantial business activities in the State territory of the other Contracting Party.

Article 12. Disputes between an Investor and the Host Contracting Party

1. Any dispute between an Investor of one Contracting Party and the other Contracting Party concerning an alleged violation of one or more of the provisions of this Agreement in respect of an investment in the State territory of the latter Contracting Party shall, if possible, be settled amicably. Before an investor may submit a dispute to arbitration under this Article, the disputing parties shall, in good faith, hold negotiations. The place of the negotiations shall be the capital city of the Contracting Party to the dispute unless the disputing parties otherwise agree. An Investor's right to submit a dispute to dispute settlement procedures set out in subparagraph 2, below, shall not be frustrated or denied merely by the refusal of the Contracting Party to the dispute to participate in negotiations.

2. If a dispute referred to in subparagraph 1, above, cannot be settled amicably within six months from the date of request for amicable settlement, the investor concerned may submit the dispute to international arbitration. Unless any other mechanism is agreed for the resolution of the dispute, which shall prevail, the investor has the choice of submitting the case either to:

a. The competent courts of the Contracting Party in whose State territory the investment is made;

b. The International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), established pursuant to the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States, opened for signature at Washington on 18 March 1965 (hereinafter referred to as the "Centre");

c. The Additional Facility of the Centre, if only one of the Contracting Parties is a signatory to the Convention set out in subparagraph (b) of this Article; or

d. An ad hoc arbitration tribunal, which unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties to the dispute, is to be established under the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL).

3. An investor who has already submitted a claim concerning the conduct or measure of the Contracting Party that is alleged to give rise to the dispute to the competent courts of the Contracting Party or to any other previously agreed dispute settlement procedures, shall not be entitled to submit the dispute to international arbitration as offered in paragraph 2 of this Article.

4. Neither of the Contracting Parties which is a party to a dispute, can raise an objection, at any phase of the arbitration procedure or of the execution of an arbitral award, on account of the fact that the investor, which is the opposing party of the dispute, had received an indemnification covering a part or the whole of its losses by virtue of an insurance.

5. Dispute shall be resolved in accordance with law, applying the terms of this Agreement, the State law of the Contracting Party to the dispute, and principles of public international law.

6. Such award shall be final and binding for the parties to the dispute and shall . be executed according to national law.

Article 13. Disputes between the Contracting Parties

1. Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation and application of this Agreement shall, as far as possible, be settled through negotiations.

2. If the dispute cannot thus be settled within six (6) months, following the date on which such negotiations were requested by either Contracting Party, it shall at the request of either Contracting Party be submitted to an Arbitral Tribunal constituted in accordance with this Article.

3. Such an Arbitral Tribunal shall be constituted for each individual case in the following way. Within two (2) months of the receipt of the request for arbitration, each Contracting Party shall appoint one member of the Tribunal. Those two members shall then select a national of a third State who on approval by the two Contracting Parties shall be appointed Chairman of the Tribunal. The Chairman shall be appointed within four (4) months from the date of appointment of the other two members.

4. If within the periods specified in paragraphs of this Article the necessary appointments have not been made, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of any other agreement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make any necessary appointments. If the President is a national of either Contracting Party or is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party or is not otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, shall be invited to make the necessary appointments.

5. The Arbitral Tribunal shall determine its own rules of procedure.

The Arbitral Tribunal shall reach its decision on the basis of this Agreement and in accordance with international law applicable between the Contracting Parties. The Arbitral Tribunal shall reach its decision by a majority of votes. The decisions of the Tribunal shall be final and binding on both Contracting Parties. Each Contracting Party shall bear the costs of the member appointed by that Contracting Party and of its representation at the arbitral proceedings. Both Contracting Parties shall assume an equal share of the costs of the Chairman, as well as other common costs.

Article 14. Application of other Rules

If the provisions of State law of either Contracting Party or obligations between the Contracting Parties under international law existing at present or established hereafter between the Contracting Parties, in addition to this Agreement contain a regulation, whether general or specific, entitling investments made by investors of the other Contracting Party to a treatment more favourable than is provided for by this Agreement, such provisions shall, to the extent that they are more favourable to the investor, prevail over this Agreement.

Article 15. Application of the Agreement

This Agreement shall apply to any investment made by an investor of one Contracting Party in the State territory of the other Contracting Party after the entry into force of this Agreement.

Article 16. Additions and Amendments

Any additions and amendments may be made to this Agreement by mutual consent of the Contracting Parties. Such additions and amendments shall be made in a form of separate protocols being an integral part of this Agreement and shall enter into force in accordance with the provision of Article 17 of this Agreement.

Article 17. Entry Into Force, Duration and Termination

1. This Agreement shall enter into force On the thirtieth day following the date of receiving through diplomatic channels of the last written notifications on fulfillment by the Contracting Parties of the internal procedures necessary to this end, and shall remain in force for a period of seven (7) years.
2. This Agreement shall automatically be renewed for another similar periods unless one Contracting Party notifies the other Contracting Party in writing of its intention to terminate it. The termination of this Agreement shall become effective one year after notice of termination has been received by the other Contracting Party.
3. In respect of investment made prior to the date of termination of this Agreement the provisions of Articles 1 to 16 shall remain in force for a further period of seven (7) years from the date of termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned representatives, duly authorized thereto, have signed the present Agreement.
