2. The insurer shall not be entitled to exercise any rights other than the rights which the investor would have been entitled to exercise.
3. Disputes between a Party and an insurer shall be settled in accordance with the provisions of Article VIII of this Agreement.

Article VIII. Settlement of Disputes between One Party and Investor of the other Party

1. Disputes between one of the Parties and an investor of the other Party, in connection with his investment, shall be notified in writing, including a detailed information, by the investor to the recipient Party of the investment. As far as possible, the investor and the concerned Party shall endeavour to settle these disputes by consultations and negotiations in good faith.

If these disputes cannot be settled in this way within six months following the date of the written notification mentioned in paragraph 1 the investor concerned may submit the dispute to the competent court of the hosting Party, or alternatively the dispute can be submitted, as the investor may choose, to:
 - (a) The International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) set up by the "Convention on Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States",
 - (b) An "ad hoc" Court of Arbitration laid down under the Arbitration Rules of Procedure of the United Nations Commission for International Trade Law (UNCITRAL),
 - (c) The Court of Arbitration of the Paris International Chamber of Commerce.
3. The arbitration awards shall be final and binding for all Parties in dispute. Each Party commits itself to execute the award according to its national law.

Article IX. Settlement of Disputes between the Parties

1. The Parties shall seek in good faith and a spirit of cooperation a rapid and equitable solution to any dispute between them concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement. In this regard, the Parties agree to engage in direct and meaningful negotiations to arrive at such solutions. If the Parties cannot reach an agreement within six months after the beginning of dispute between themselves through the foregoing procedure, the disputes may be submitted, upon the request of either Party, to an Arbitral Tribunal of three members.
2. Within two months of receipt of a request, each Party shall appoint an arbitrator. The two arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator as Chairman, who is a national of a third State. In the event either Party fails to appoint an arbitrator within the specified time, the other Party may request the President of the International Court of Justice to make the appointment.
3. If both arbitrators cannot reach an agreement about the choice of the Chairman within two months after their appointment, the Chairman shall be appointed upon the request of either Party by the President of the International Court of Justice.
4. If, in the cases specified under paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article, the President of the International Court of Justice is prevented from carrying out the said function or if he is a national of either Party, the appointment shall be made by the Vice-President, and if the Vice-President is prevented from carrying out the said function or if he is a national of either Party, the appointment shall be made by the most senior member of the Court who is not a national of either Party.
5. The tribunal shall have three months from the date of the selection of the Chairman to agree upon rules of procedure consistent with the other provisions of this Agreement. In the absence of such agreement, the Tribunal shall request the President of the International Court of Justice to designate rules of procedure, taking into account generally recognized rules of international arbitral procedure.
6. Unless otherwise agreed, all submissions shall be made and all hearings shall be completed within six months of the date of selection of the Chairman, and the Tribunal shall render its decision within two months after the date of the final submissions or the date of the closing of the hearings, whichever is later. The Arbitral Tribunal shall reach its decisions, which shall be final and binding, by a majority of votes.
7. Expenses incurred by the Chairman, the other arbitrators, and other costs of the proceedings shall be paid for equally by the Parties. The Tribunal may, however, at its discretion, decide that a higher proportion of the costs be paid by one of the Parties.
8. A dispute shall not be submitted to an International Arbitration Court under the provisions of this Article, if the same dispute has been brought before another International Arbitration Court under the provisions of Article VIII and is still before the court. This will not impair the engagement in direct and meaningful negotiations between both Parties.

Article X. Application of other Rules and Special Commitments

1. Where a matter is governed simultaneously both by this Agreement and by another international agreement to which both Parties are signatories, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent either Party or of any of its investors, who own investments in the territory of the other Party, from taking advantage of whichever rules are more favourable to his case.
2. If the treatment to be accorded by one Party to investments to investors of the other Party, in accordance with its laws and regulations or other specific provisions of contracts, is more favourable than that accorded by this Agreement, the more favourable shall be accorded.

Article XI. Applicability of this Agreement

The provisions of this Agreement shall apply to investments made in the territory of one of the Parties in accordance with its laws by investors of the other Party prior to, as well as after the entry of this Agreement into force, but shall not apply to any dispute concerning an investment which arose, or any claim which was settled before the entry of this Agreement into force.

3. In respect of investments made prior to the termination of this Agreement, the provisions of Articles I to XI shall continue to be effective for a period of ten years from the date of termination.

4. This Agreement may be amended by written agreement between the Parties. Any amendment shall enter into force when each Party has notified the other that it has completed all internal requirements for entry into force of such amendment.
