

Treaty between the Federal Republic of Germany and Ukraine on the Promotion and Mutual Protection of Capital Investments

The Federal Republic of Germany and Ukraine -

Hereinafter referred to as "Contracting Parties"

In the desire to deepen economic cooperation between the two countries,

In the endeavor to create favorable conditions for the investments of nationals or companies of one State in the territory of the other State,

Recognizing the fact that the promotion and the contractual protection of these investments are capable of stimulating entrepreneurship and increasing the prosperity of the two peoples,

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1.

For the purposes of this Treaty

1. The term "investments" means assets of any kind, in particular

- a) Ownership of movable and immovable property as well as other rights in rem such as mortgages and liens;

At the signing of the Treaty between the Federal Republic of Germany and Ukraine on the Claim and Mutual Protection of Capital Investments, the undersigned Plenipotentiaries also agreed on the following provisions, which shall be deemed to be integral parts of the Treaty:

(1) Ad Article 1

(a) The income from the investment and, in the case of reinvestment, the income therefrom, shall enjoy the same protection as the investment.

(b) In particular, without prejudice to other procedures for determining nationality, any person holding a national passport issued by the competent authorities of a Contracting Party shall be deemed to be a national of that Party.

(2) Ad Article 2

(a) The Treaty shall also apply in the areas of the exclusive economic zone and the continental shelf to the extent that the people's law of the respective Contracting Party permits the exercise of sovereign rights or powers in these areas.

(b) Each Contracting Party may, on the basis of the principle of most favorable treatment, lay down special conditions for the granting of authorization for capital investment in economic sectors specified by legislation.

(3) Ad Article 3

(a) For the purposes of paragraph 2 of Article 3, "occupation" shall mean in particular, but not exclusively, the management, application, use and enjoyment of a capital investment. As a "less favorable" treatment within the meaning of Article 3 shall be deemed to include, in particular, the restriction of the supply of raw materials and supplies, energy and fuels, and means of production and inputs of all kinds, the restriction of the sale of products at home and abroad, and other measures having a similar effect. Measures to be taken for reasons of public safety and order, public health or morality shall not be considered as "less favorable" treatment. treatment within the meaning of Article 3.

(b) The provisions of Article 3 shall not oblige a Contracting Party to grant tax concessions, exemptions and reductions which, under the tax laws, are available only to natural persons resident in its territory. The Contracting Parties shall not be obliged to extend to natural persons and companies resident in the territory of the other Contracting Party any tax concessions, exemptions or reductions granted by the tax laws only to natural persons and companies resident in the territory of the other Contracting Party.

(c) The Contracting Parties shall, within the framework of their national legislation, give favorable consideration to applications for the entry and residence of persons of one Contracting Party who wish to enter the territory of the other Contracting Party in connection with an investment of capital; the same shall apply to employees of one Contracting Party who wish to enter the territory of the other Contracting Party in connection with an investment of capital and who wish to reside there in order to carry on an activity as an employee. Applications for work permits shall also be considered in a fair and equitable manner.

(4) Ad Article 4

An entitlement to compensation shall also exist if the enterprise which is the subject of the capital investment is interfered with by State measures and its economic substance is thereby substantially impaired.

(5) Ad Article 7

For the purposes of Article 7(1), a transfer shall be deemed to have been effected "without delay" if it is effected within a period of time normally required for compliance with the formalities of the transfer. The period shall commence with the submission of a request to that effect and shall under no circumstances exceed two months.

(6) In the case of claims by GOtem and persons in connection with a capital investment, a Party shall neither switch off nor behind the transport companies of the other Party and shall, if necessary, grant authorizations for the execution of the transports. This includes requirements of

a) goods directly intended for investment within the meaning of the treaty or acquired for such investment in the territory of a Contracting Party or of a third State by or on behalf of an enterprise in which assets within the meaning of the treaty are invested;

b) persons traveling in connection with an investment.

(7) On the day of the entry into force of the Treaty between the Federal Republic of Germany and Ukraine on the Claim and Reciprocal Protection of Investments, the Treaty of June 13, 1989 between the Federal Republic of Germany and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics on the Claim and Reciprocal Protection of Investments shall cease to have effect in the relationship between the Federal Republic of Germany and Ukraine.

The Federal Minister of Foreign Affairs

Kiev, February 15, 1993

Mr. Minister,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your note of February 15, 1993, containing the following:

"I have the honor to inform you that the Government of Ukraine, in order to prevent the taking of investments by citizens or companies of the Federal Republic of Germany on the territory of Ukraine before the entry into force of the Treaty, will apply the Treaty from the date of signature.

This declaration is made with a view to enabling the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany to consider accepting guarantees for investments in Ukraine prior to the entry into force of this Treaty."

Please accept, Sir, the assurance of my highest consideration.
