Chapter 2. INVESTMENT PROTECTION

Article 2.1. Scope

1. This Agreement applies to:

(a) covered investments;

(b) investors of a Party in respect of a covered investment

as regards any measure adopted or maintained by a Party and affecting the operation of such investment.

2. This Agreement applies to measures adopted or maintained by (1):

(1) For greater certainty, the entities listed under subparagraphs 1 (a) and 1 (b) can adopt or maintain a measure by instructing or directing other entities with regard to the measure.

(a) central, regional or local governments and authorities; and

(a) non-governmental bodies in the exercise of powers delegated by central, regional or local governments or authorities.

3. Articles 2.3 (National Treatment) and 2.4 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment) do not apply to:

(a) audio-visual services;

(b) national maritime cabotage (2); and

(2) Without prejudice to the scope of activities which may be considered as cabotage under the relevant national legislation, national maritime cabotage under this Chapter covers transportation of passengers or goods between a port or point located in Indonesia or in a Member State of the European Union and another port or point located also in Indonesia including its continental shelf, archipelagic waters and EEZ or also in that same Member State of the European Union, including on its continental shelf, as provided in the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea, and traffic originating and terminating in the same port or point located in Indonesia or in a Member State of the European Union.

(c) domestic and international air transport services, whether scheduled or non-scheduled, and services directly related to the exercise of traffic rights, other than:

(i) aircraft repair and maintenance services;

(ii) the selling and marketing of air transport services;

(iii) computer reservation system (CRS) services;

(iv) groundhandling services

5. For greater certainty and subject to paragraph 6, a Party?s decision not to issue, renew or maintain a subsidy

(a) in the absence of any specific commitment under law or contract to issue, renew, or maintain that subsidy; or

(b) in accordance with any terms or conditions attached to the issuance, renewal or maintenance of the subsidy, shall not constitute a breach of the provisions of this Agreement.

6. For greater certainty, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as preventing a Party from discontinuing the granting of a subsidy or requesting its reimbursement, where such action has been ordered by one of its competent authorities listed in Annex 2-B, or as requiring that Party to compensate the investor therefor.

7. Articles 2.3 (National Treatment) and 2.4 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment) do not apply to subsidies granted by the Parties (3) and to government procurement.

(3) In the case of the EU Party "subsidy" includes "state aid" as defined in Union law. For Indonesia subsidy include investment incentive as regulated by Indonesia domestic law.

8. For greater certainty, this Agreement shall not apply to any dispute between the contracting parties to a government procurement contract arising from a breach of a provision thereto.

Article 2.2. Investment and Regulatory Measures

1. The Parties reaffirm the right to regulate within their territories to achieve legitimate policy objectives, such as the protection of public health, safety, environment including climate change, public morals, social or consumer protection, privacy and data protection, sustainable development or promotion and protection of cultural diversity.

2. For greater certainty, the provisions of this Agreement shall not be interpreted as a commitment from a Party that it will not change the legal and regulatory framework, including in a manner that may negatively affect the operation of covered investments or the investor?s expectations of profits.

Article 2.3. National Treatment

1. Each Party shall accord to investors of the other Party and to covered investments, as regards their operation in its territory, treatment no less favourable than the treatment it accords, in like situations, to its own investors and their investments.

2. The treatment to be accorded by a Party under paragraph 1 means, with respect to a government of a subnational region of Indonesia, treatment no less favourable than the most favourable treatment accorded in like situations, by that government to investors, and to investments of investors, of that subnational region.

3. The treatment to be accorded by a Party under paragraph 1 means, with respect to a government of or in a Member State of the European Union, treatment no less favourable than the most favourable treatment accorded in like situations, by that government to investors of that Member State and to their investment in its territory.

Article 2.4. Most Favoured Nation Treatment

1. Each Party shall accord to investors of the other Party and to covered investments, as regards their operation in its territory, treatment no less favourable than the treatment it accords, in like situations, to investors and investments of any third country.

2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, a Party shall not be obliged to extend to investors of the other Party or to their covered investments the benefits of any treatment accorded to investors and investments of any third country pursuant to any international investment treaty or other trade agreement in force or signed prior to the date of entry into force of this Agreement.

3. Paragraph 1 shall not be construed to oblige a Party to extend to the investors of the other Party the benefit of any treatment resulting from:

(a) an international agreement for the avoidance of double taxation or other international agreements or arrangements relating wholy or mainly to taxation.

(b) measures providing for the recognition of qualifications, licences or prudential measures as provided for in Article VII of the General Agreement on Trade in Services or its Annex on Financial Services.

4. For greater certainty the "treatment" referred to in paragraph 1 does not include investor-to-state dispute settlement procedures provided for in other international investment treaties and other trade agreements.

5. The substantive provisions in other international investment or trade agreements do not in themselves constitute "treatment" as referred to in paragraph 1 and thus cannot give rise to a breach of this Article. However, measures applied pursuant to such provisions can constitute "treatment" as referred to in paragraph 1 and thus give rise to a breach of this Article.

Article 2.5. Treatment of Investors and of Covered Investments

1. Each Party shall accord to covered investments and to investors of the other Party with respect to their covered investments fair and equitable treatment and full protection and security in accordance with paragraphs 2 to 5.

2. A Party breaches the obligation of fair and equitable treatment referenced in paragraph 1 through measures or series of measures that constitute:

(a) denial of justice in criminal, civil or administrative proceedings; (4)

(4) For greater certainty, the mere fact that an investor?s claim was rejected or unsuccessful in domestic proceedings does not amount to a denial of justice. In determining whether a measure amounts to a breach of sub paragraph (a), a Tribunal should take into account other relevant facts such as whether the measure involves gross misconduct by that Party.

(b) fundamental disregard of due process, including a fundamental breach of transparency, in judicial and administrative proceedings;

(c) manifest arbitrariness (5);

(5) A measure is manifestly arbitrary when it is evident that the measure is not rationally connected to a legitimate policy objective, or when a measure is based on prejudice or bias rather than on reason or fact.

(d) targeted discrimination on manifestly wrongful grounds, such as gender, race or religious belief; or

(e) harassment, coercion, abuse of power or corruptive practices.

3. When applying the above fair and equitable treatment obligations a tribunal may take into account whether a Party made a specific representation to an investor to induce a covered investment, that created a legitimate expectation, and upon which the investor relied in deciding to make or maintain the covered investment, but that the Party subsequently frustrated. For greater certainty, the mere fact that a Party takes or fails to take an action that may be inconsistent with an investor's expectations does not constitute a breach of this Article, even if there is loss or damage to the covered investment as a result.

4. For greater certainty, "full protection and security" refers to the Party's obligations to take such measures as may be reasonably necessary to ensure the physical protection and security of covered investments and of investors with respect to their covered investments.

5. For greater certainty, a determination that there has been a breach of another provision of this Agreement, or of any other international agreement, does not in itself establish that there has been a breach of this Article.

Article 2.6. Compensation for Losses

1. Investor of a Party whose covered investments suffer losses owing to war or other armed conflict, revolution, a state of national emergency, revolt, insurrection or riot in the territory of the other Party shall be accorded by that Party, with respect to restitution, indemnification, compensation or other form of settlement, treatment no less favourable than that accorded by that Party to its own investor or to the investor of any third country, whichever is more favourable to the investor.

2. Without prejudice to paragraph 1 of this Article, investor of a Party who, in any of the situations referred to in that paragraph, suffer losses in the territory of the other Party shall be accorded adequate restitution or compensation by the other Party (6), if these losses result from:

(6) For greater certainty, when a Party provides restitution or compensation under this paragraph, the value shall not exceed the loss suffered by the investor as a result of the intervention by the armed forces or authorities of that Party.

(a) requisitioning of their covered investment or a part thereof by the latter's armed forces or authorities; or

(b) destruction of their covered investment or a part thereof by the latter's armed forces or authorities, which was not required by the necessity of the situation.

Article 2.7. Expropriation

1. Neither Party shall nationalise or expropriate a covered investment either directly or indirectly through measures having an effect equivalent to nationalisation or expropriation (hereinafter referred to as "expropriation") except:

(a) for a public purpose; (7)

(7) The Parties acknowledge that the public purpose concept may be referred to in domestic law through terms such as "public necessity", "public interest" or "public use".

(b) under due process of law;

(c) in a non-discriminatory manner; and

(d) against payment of prompt, adequate and effective compensation. (8)

(8) The Parties understand that there may be legal and administrative processes that need to be observed before payment can be made.

For greater certainty, this paragraph shall be interpreted in accordance with Annex 2-A (Expropriation).

2. The compensation referred to in paragraph 1 shall amount to the fair market value of the investment at the time immediately before the expropriation, or the impending expropriation, became known, whichever is earlier. The determination of the fair market value shall be based on the principles and criteria recognised in international financial standards, as appropriate.

3. The compensation shall also include interest at a normal commercial rate from the date of expropriation until the date of payment and shall, in order to be effective for the investor, be paid and made transferable, without delay in a freely convertible currency in accordance with the Article 2.8 (Transfers).

4. Notwithstanding paragraphs 1, 2, and 3, in the case that Indonesia is the expropriating Party, any measure of direct expropriation relating to land shall be:

(a) for a public purpose in accordance with the applicable domestic laws and regulations (9); and

(9) The applicable domestic laws and regulations are among others Indonesia's Law No. 2 of 2012 on Land Acquisition for Development for the Public Interest and Government Regulation No. 19 of 2021 Regulating Implementation of Land Acquisition for Development for the Public Interest, as at the date of entry into force of this Agreement

(b) upon payment of compensation equivalent to the market value in accordance with the applicable domestic laws and regulations.

5. The investor affected shall have a right, under the law of the expropriating Party, to prompt review of its claim and of the valuation of its investment, by a judicial or other independent authority of that Party, in accordance with the principles set out in this Article.

6. This Article does not apply to the issuance of compulsory licenses granted in relation to intellectual property rights in accordance with the Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights in Annex 1C to the WTO Agreements ("TRIPS Agreement"), or to the revocation (10), limitation or creation of intellectual property rights to the extent that such revocation, limitation or creation is consistent with [Chapter XX Intellectual Property and] the TRIPS Agreement.

(10) For greater certainty, the term "revocation" of intellectual property rights includes the cancellation or nullification of those rights, and the term "limitation" of intellectual property rights includes exceptions to those rights

Article 2.8. Transfers

1. Each Party shall permit all transfers relating to a covered investment to be made in a freely convertible currency, without restriction or delay and at the market rate of exchange prevailing on the date of transfer with regard to the currency to be transferred. Such transfers include:

(a) contributions to capital, such as principal and additional funds to maintain, develop or increase the investment;

(b) profits, dividends, capital gains and other returns, proceeds from the sale of all or any part of the investment or from the partial or complete liquidation of the investment;

(c) interest, royalty payments, management fees, and technical assistance and other fees;

(d) payments made under a contract entered into by the investor, or its investment, including payments made pursuant to a loan agreement;

(e) earnings and other remuneration of personnel engaged from abroad and working in connection with an investment;

(f) payments made pursuant to Articles 2.6 (Compensation for Losses) and 2.7 (Expropriation);

(g) payments of damages pursuant to an award issued by a tribunal.

2. Neither Party may require its investors to transfer, or penalise its investors for failing to transfer, the income, earnings, profits or other amounts derived from, or attributable to, investments in the territory of the other Party.

3. For greater certainty, this Article shall not be construed as preventing a Party from making returns in kind relating to a covered investment, which are subject to a written agreement between that Party and a covered investment or an investor of the other Party, as authorised or specified in that agreement, or from restricting transfers of returns in kind in circumstances where it could otherwise restrict such transfers under this Agreement.

Article 2.10. Subrogation

1. If a Party, or an agency thereof, makes a payment to an investor of that Party under a guarantee or contract of insurance or other form of indemnity it has granted on non-commercial risk in respect of a covered investment, the other Party shall recognise the subrogation or transfer of any rights or assignment of any claim of the investor under this Agreement in respect of the covered investment. The investor shall not, unless authorised by the Party or the agency making the payment, pursue those rights against the other Party.

2. The subrogated or transferred right or assigned claim shall not be greater than the original right or claim of the investor. For greater certainty, the recognition of the subrogation referred to in paragraph (1) shall not be construed as implying recognition of the merits of any claim or the amount of damages arising therefrom.

ANNEX 2-A. EXPROPRIATION

The Parties confirm their shared understanding that:

1. Expropriation may be either direct or indirect:

(a) direct expropriation occurs when an investment is nationalised or otherwise directly expropriated through formal transfer of title or outright seizure;

(b) indirect expropriation occurs where a measure or series of measures by a Party has an effect equivalent to direct expropriation, in that it substantially deprives the investor of the fundamental attributes of property in its investment, including the right to use, enjoy and dispose of its investment, without formal transfer of title or outright seizure.

2. The determination of whether a measure or series of measures by a Party, in a specific situation, constitutes an indirect expropriation requires a case-by-case, fact-based inquiry that considers, among other factors

(a) the economic impact of the measure or series of measures, although the sole fact that a measure or series of measures of a Party has an adverse effect on the economic value of an investment does not establish that an indirect expropriation has occurred;

(b) the duration of the measure or series of measures by a Party;

(c) the character of the measure or series of measures, notably their object and context;

(d) whether the expectations of the investor arising out of the covered investment were distinct and reasonable.

3. For greater certainty, non-discriminatory measures by a Party that are designed and applied to protect legitimate policy objectives, such as the protection of public health, safety, environment, including climate change, or public morals, social or consumer protection or promotion and protection of cultural diversity do not constitute indirect expropriations, except in rare circumstances when they are manifestly excessive in light of the above-mentioned objectives.

ANNEX 2-B. COMPETENT AUTHORITIES MENTIONED IN ARTICLE 2.1 PARAGRAPH 6

In the case of the EU, the competent authorities entitled to order the actions mentioned in Article 2.1 (Scope) paragraph 6 are the European Commission or a court or tribunal of a Member State when applying EU law on State aid.

In the case of Indonesia, the competent authority entitled to order the actions mentioned in Article 2.1 (Scope) paragraph 6 is the Government of Indonesia under its law.

Chapter 3. MEDIATION MECHANISM FOR INVESTOR-TO-STATE DISPUTES

Article 3.1. Objective and Scope

1. The objective of the mediation mechanism is to facilitate the finding of a mutually agreed solution through a comprehensive and expeditious procedure with the assistance of a mediator.

2. The mediation mechanism applies to disputes between an investor of a Party and the other Party concerning the application of this Agreement (hereinafter referred to as "disputing parties").

3. Recourse to mediation is voluntary and without prejudice to the legal position of either disputing party.

Article 3.2. Initiation of the Procedure

1. Either disputing party may request, at any time, the commencement of a mediation procedure. Such request shall be addressed to the other disputing party in writing, with a copy to the home State of the investor, for information. Where the request is addressed to the European Union, the European Union may involve one or several Member States in the mediation, as appropriate.

2. The party to which such request is addressed shall give sympathetic consideration to the request and accept or reject it in writing within 30 working days of its receipt.

Article 3.3. Selection of the Mediator

1. If both disputing parties agree to a mediation procedure, a mediator shall be selected in accordance with the procedure set out in paragraphs 2 and 3. The disputing parties shall endeavour to agree on a mediator within 15 working days from the receipt of the reply to the request.

2. The Committee shall, upon the entry into force of this Agreement, establish a list of six individuals, of high moral character and recognised competence in the fields of law, commerce, industry or finance, who may be relied upon to exercise independent judgment and who are willing and able to serve as mediators.

3. The mediator shall be appointed by agreement of the disputing parties from the list established pursuant to paragraph 2, unless otherwise agreed. In the absence of an agreement on the choice of the mediator, the disputing parties may jointly request the Secretary General of the Permanent Court of Arbitration to appoint a mediator from that list, or, in the absence of a list, from individuals proposed by either Party.

4. A mediator shall not be a national of either Party to the Agreement, unless the disputing parties agree otherwise.

5. The mediator shall assist, in an impartial and transparent manner, the disputing parties in reaching a mutually agreed solution.

Article 3.4. Rules of the Mediation Procedure

1. Within 10 working days after the appointment of the mediator, the disputing party having invoked the mediation procedure shall present, in writing, a detailed description of the problem to the mediator and to the other disputing party. Within 20 working days after the date of delivery of this submission, the other disputing party may provide, in writing, its comments to the description of the problem. Either disputing party may include in its description or comments any information that it deems relevant.

2. The mediator may decide on the most appropriate way of bringing clarity to the measure concerned. In particular, the mediator may organise meetings between the disputing parties, consult the disputing parties jointly or individually, seek the assistance of or consult with relevant experts and stakeholders and provide any additional support requested by the disputing parties. However, before seeking the assistance of or consulting with relevant experts and stakeholders, the mediator shall consult with the disputing parties.

3. The mediator may offer advice and propose a solution for the consideration of the disputing parties which may accept or reject the proposed solution or may agree on a different solution. However, the mediator shall not advise or give comments on the consistency of the measure at issue with this Agreement.

4. The procedure shall take place in the territory of the Party concerned, or by mutual agreement in any other location or by any other means.

5. The disputing parties shall endeavour to reach a mutually agreed solution within 60 days from the appointment of the mediator. Pending a final agreement, the disputing parties may consider possible interim solutions.

6. Mutually agreed solutions shall be made publicly available. However, the version disclosed to the public may not contain any information that a disputing party has designated as confidential.

7. The procedure shall be terminated:

(a) by the adoption of a mutually agreed solution by the disputing parties, on the date of adoption;

(b) by a written declaration of the mediator, after consultation with the disputing parties, that further efforts at mediation would be to no avail;

(c) by written notice of a disputing party.

Article 3.5. Implementation of a Mutually Agreed Solution

1. Where a solution has been agreed, each disputing party shall take the measures necessary to implement the mutually agreed solution within the agreed timeframe.

2. The implementing disputing party shall inform the other disputing party in writing of any steps or measures taken to implement the mutually agreed solution.

3. On request of the disputing parties, the mediator shall issue to the disputing parties, in writing, a draft factual report, providing a brief summary of (1) the measure at issue in these procedures; (2) the procedures followed; and (3) any mutually agreed solution reached as the final outcome of these procedures, including possible interim solutions. The mediator shall provide the disputing parties 15 working days to comment on the draft report. After considering the comments of the disputing parties submitted within the period, the mediator shall submit, in writing, a final factual report to the disputing parties within 15 working days. The factual report shall not include any interpretation of this Agreement.

Article 3.6. Relationship to Dispute Settlement

1. The procedure under this mediation mechanism is not intended to serve as a basis for dispute settlement procedures under this Agreement or another agreement. A disputing party shall not rely on or introduce as evidence in such dispute settlement procedures, nor shall any adjudicative body take into consideration:

(a) positions taken by a disputing party in the course of the mediation procedure;

(b) the fact that a disputing party has indicated its willingness to accept a solution to the measure subject to mediation; or

(c) advice given or proposals made by the mediator.

2. The mediation mechanism is without prejudice to the rights and obligations of the Parties under Chapter 4 (Dispute Settlement between the Parties).

3. Unless the disputing parties agree otherwise, all steps of the procedure, including any advice or proposed solution, shall be confidential. However, any disputing party may disclose to the public that mediation is taking place.

Article 3.7. Time Limits

Any time limit referred to in this Chapter may be modified by mutual agreement between the disputing parties.

Article 3.8. Costs

1. Each disputing party shall bear its own expenses derived from the participation in the mediation procedure.

2. The disputing parties shall share jointly and equally the expenses derived from organisational matters, including the remuneration and expenses of the mediator.
