For the Government of the People's Republic of China

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA

At the time of signing the Agreement on the Encouragement and Reciprocal Protection of Investments between the Government of the Republic of Korea and the Government of the People's Republic of China (hereinafter referred to as "the Agreement"), the undersigned have agreed upon the following provisions which shall form an integral part of the Agreement:

1. Nothing in the Agreement shall be construed so as to affect any right or obligation with respect to intellectual property rights under the International Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property done at Paris on March 20, 1883, or any subsequent revisions thereof, or under any existing or future international agreement to which either State is or may become a party.

2. For the purpose of the provisions of paragraph 2 of Article 3 and (2) of Article 13 of the Agreement, it shall not be deemed "treatment less favourable" for the Government of either State to accord discriminatory treatment, in accordance with its applicable laws and regulations, to investors of the other State, in case it is indispensable for the reason of a public purpose, national security or sound development of national economy and, provided that such discriminatory treatment undertaken for the reason of a public purpose, national security or sound development of national economy shall not aim at specifically investors of the other State or at joint companies in which investors of the other State have holdings.

3. The provisions of paragraph 2 of Article 3 of the Agreement shall not prevent the Government of either State from prescribing special formalities in connection with the activities of foreign investors within its territory, but it shall be guaranteed that such formalities shall not impair the substance of the rights set forth in the aforesaid paragraph.

4. With respect to paragraph 4 of Article 5; (a) Each Contracting Party shall accord treatment to investors of the other State, which shall be no less favourable than that accorded to investors of any third State. (b) Each Contracting Party reserves the rights to make or maintain, in accordance with its legislation in force, limited exceptions to treatment accorded to investors of the other State, which is no less favourable than that accorded to its own investors.

5. The provisions of paragraph 2 of Article 8 of the Agreement shall not affect the rights and obligations with respect to exchange restrictions that either State has or may have as a Contracting Party to the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund.

6. For the purpose of the provisions of Article 8, the term "without delay" means that the transfer shall be made within a period as is normally required for the completion of transfer formalities. Such period shall commence on the day on which the relevant transfer application has been submitted and shall not exceed six months for the transfer mentioned in Article

7. The term "substantial interest" as used in the provision of Article 13 of the Agreement means such extent of interest as to permit the exercise of control or decisive influence on the company.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorised respectively, have signed the present Protocol.
