Each Contracting Party shall ensure that the transfers under paragraph 1 of this Article are made without unreasonable delay and in a freely convertible currency, at the market rate of exchange prevailing on the date of transfer and under the laws and regulations in force in the territory of the Contracting Party where investments have been made. In the absence of a market for foreign exchange, the rate to be used shall be the most recent exchange rate for the conversions of currencies into Special Drawing Rights.

3. Notwithstanding paragraph 1 and 2 of this Article, a Contracting Party may in accordance with its laws and regulations, in good faith and in equitable and non-discriminatory manner temporarily prevent the transfers to apply its laws and regulations relating to:

- a. protection of creditors in bankruptcy proceedings; and
- b. criminal offences.

Article 9. Subrogation

1. If one Contracting Party or its designated agency (for the purpose of this Article: the "guarantor") makes a payment under an indemnity given in respect of an investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter Contracting Party shall recognize:

- a. the assignment to the guarantor by law or by legal transaction of all the rights and claims of the party indemnified; and
- b. that the guarantor is entitled to exercise such rights and enforce such claims by virtue of subrogation, to the same extent as the party indemnified, and shall assume the obligations related to the investment.

2. The guarantor shall be entitled in all circumstances to:

- a. the same treatment in respect of the rights, claims and obligations acquired by it, by virtue of the assignment; and
- b. any payments received in pursuance of those rights and claims as the party indemnified was entitled to receive it by virtue of this Agreement, in respect of the investment concerned and its related returns.

3. The subrogated rights or claims shall not exceed the original rights or claims of the investor.

4. Notwithstanding paragraph 1 of this Article, subrogation shall take place in the Contracting Party only after the approval of the competent authority of that Contracting Party.

Article 10. Settlement of Disputes between a Contracting Party and an Investor of the other Contracting Party

1. An investor that has a dispute with a Contracting Party should initially attempt to settle it through negotiations.

2. To start negotiations, the investor shall deliver to the Contracting Party a written notice. The notice shall specify:

- a. the name and address of the disputing investor;
- b. the provisions of this Agreement alleged to have been breached;
- c. the factual and legal basis for the claim; and
- d. the remedy sought and the amount of damages claimed.

In the event that these consultations do not lead to any result within course of six months from the date of a request for the organization of consultations, the investor may submit the dispute to the national jurisdiction of the Contracting Party in the territory of which the investment has been realized, or to international arbitration.

If the investor elects to choose the such local remedies he shall not have the right to choose international arbitration or submit the case to the arbitration to the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) or the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL).

3. In the event of choosing international courts, the investor may select from the following options:

- a. an arbitration tribunal "ad hoc" which shall be established in accordance with arbitration rules of the UN Commission for International Trade Law (UNCITRAL);
- b. The International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), established by the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other Parties shall become members of this Convention.

4. Both Contracting Parties declare their agreement with submitting the dispute to arbitration as per clause 2 of this Article.

5. In course of the procedure, the Contracting Party which is a party in the dispute shall not defend its inviolability or the fact the investor obtained compensation resulting in the contract insurance entirely or partially covering the incurred damage or loss.

6. None of the Contracting Parties shall pursue a dispute that has been submitted to international arbitration by means of the diplomatic channels until the other Contracting Party conforms and accepts the decision of the arbitration.

7. The decision of the arbitration must be final and binding for both Parties and must be fulfilled in compliance with the national legislations of the countries of the Contracting Parties.

Article 11. Settlement of Disputes between the Contracting Parties

1. Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall be settled as far as possible by negotiations.

2. If a dispute under paragraph 1 of this Article cannot be settled within six months it shall upon the request of either Contracting Party be submitted to an arbitral tribunal of three members.

3. Such arbitral tribunal shall be constituted ad hoc. Each Contracting Party shall appoint one member and these two members shall agree upon a national of a third State as their chairman. Such members shall be appointed within two months from the date one Contracting Party has informed the other Contracting Party of its intention to submit the dispute to an arbitral tribunal, the chairman of which shall be appointed within two further months.

4. If the periods specified in paragraph 3 of this Article are not observed, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of any other relevant arrangement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make the necessary appointments. If the President of the International Court of Justice is a national of either of the Contracting Parties or if he is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice-president or in case of his inability the member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority according to the Rules of the Court should be invited under the same conditions to make the necessary appointments. The appointed judge should be a national of a State that has diplomatic relations with the Contracting parties.

5. The arbitral tribunal shall establish its own rules of procedure unless the Contracting Parties decide otherwise.

6. The arbitral tribunal shall reach its decision in virtue of this Agreement and pursuant to the rules of international law. It shall reach its decision by a majority of votes; the decision shall be final and binding.

7. Each Contracting Party shall bear the costs of its own member and of its legal representation in the arbitration proceedings. The costs of the chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by both Contracting Parties.

Article 12. Application of other Rules

Without prejudice to Article 4, if the legislation of either Contracting Party or obligations between the Contracting Parties under international law existing at present or established hereafter between the Contracting Parties, in addition to this Agreement, contain rules whether general or specific, entitling investments made by investors of the other Contracting Party to a treatment more favourable than is provided for by this Agreement, such rules shall to the extent that they are more favourable to the investor, prevail over this Agreement.

Article 13. Application of the Agreement

This Agreement shall apply to investments made prior to or after the entry into force of this Agreement, but shall not apply to any claim that was settled before its entry into force. However, if there is a dispute under court process this Agreement shall not apply.

Article 14. Consultations

The Contracting Parties shall, on the request of either, hold consultations on any matter relating to the implementation or application of this Agreement. These consultations shall be held on the proposal of one of the Contracting Parties at a place and a time to be agreed upon through diplomatic channels.

Article 15. Limitation of Benefits

1. Benefits of this Agreement shall not be available to an investor of a Contracting Party, if the main purpose of the acquisition of the nationality of that Contracting Party was to obtain benefits under this Agreement that would not otherwise be available to the investor.
2. Prior to denying the benefits of this Agreement, the denying Contracting Party shall notify the other Contracting Party.

Article 16. Entry Into Force, Amendments, Duration and Termination

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of receipt of the latter notification through diplomatic channels by which either Contracting Party notifies the other Contracting Party that its internal legal requirements for the entry into force of this Agreement have been fulfilled.
2. This Agreement may be amended in writing by the mutual consent of the Contracting Parties. Such amendments shall enter into force according to the same procedure as the Agreement.
3. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of ten years and shall be extended thereafter for following ten years periods unless, one year before the expiration of the initial or any subsequent period, either Contracting Party notifies the other Contracting Party of its intention to terminate the Agreement. In that case, the termination shall become effective by the expiration of current period of ten years.
4. In respect of investments made prior to the date when the termination of this Agreement becomes effective, the provisions of this Agreement shall continue to be effective for a period of ten years from the date the termination of this Agreement became effective.
5. This Agreement shall apply irrespective of the existence of diplomatic or consular relations between the Contracting Parties.

In witness whereof, the undersigned duly authorized have signed this Agreement.
