Protocol

At the time of signing the Treaty between the Federal Republic of Germany and the Republic of Estonia on the Promotion and Reciprocal Protection of Capital Investments, the undersigned Plenipotentiaries also agreed on the following provisions, which shall be deemed to be integral parts of the Treaty:

1. Ad Article 1

(a) Income from the capital investment and, in the case of its reinvestment, also its proceeds, shall enjoy the same protection as the capital investment.

(b) In particular, without prejudice to other procedures for determining nationality, any person holding a national passport issued by the competent authorities of the Contracting Party concerned shall be deemed to be a national of that Contracting Party.

2. Ad Article 2

(a) Investments made in accordance with the laws and regulations of a Party within the scope of its jurisdiction by nationals or companies of the other Party shall enjoy the full protection of the Treaty.

(b) The Treaty shall also apply in the areas of the exclusive economic zone and the continental shelf to the extent that the international law of the respective Contracting Party permits the exercise of sovereign rights or jurisdiction in such areas.

3. Ad Article 3

(a) For the purposes of paragraph 2 of Article 3, "activity" shall be deemed to include, but not be limited to, the management, use, enjoyment and operation of a capital investment. The following, in particular, shall be regarded as "less favorable" treatment within the meaning of Article 3: the restriction of the supply of raw materials and supplies, energy and fuels, and means of production and operation of all kinds, the obstruction of the sale of products at home and abroad, and other measures having a similar effect. Measures to be taken for reasons of public safety and order, public health or morality shall not be considered as "less favorable" treatment within the meaning of Article 3.

(b) The provisions of Article 3 shall not oblige a Party to extend to individuals and companies resident in the territory of the other Party tax benefits, exemptions and reductions which, under the tax laws, are granted only to individuals and companies resident in its territory.

(c) The Parties shall, within the framework of their domestic legislation, give favorable consideration to applications for entry and residence of persons of one Party who wish to enter the territory of the other Party in connection with an investment of capital; the same shall apply to workers of one Party who wish to enter and reside in the territory of the other Party in connection with an investment of capital in order to engage in activities as employees. Applications for work permits shall also be given favorable consideration.

Tallinn, November 12, 1992

Your Excellency,

On the occasion of the signing of the Treaty between the Republic of Estonia and the Federal Republic of Germany on the Promotion and Mutual Protection of Capital Investments, I have the honor to inform you of the following:

The Government of the Republic of Estonia, having become aware that the competent authorities of the Federal Republic of Germany may grant measures for the promotion of capital investments of German investors in Estonia even before the entry into force of the Treaty, will provisionally apply the Treaty from the date of signature. This declaration is made in the expectation that the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany will consider granting guarantees for capital investments in Estonia even before the Treaty enters into force.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurance of my highest consideration.

To the Ambassador of the Federal Republic of Germany Tallinn
