2 — The most favoured nation treatment shall not be construed so as to oblige a Contracting Party to extend to the investors and investments of the other Contracting Party the advantages resulting from any existing or future customs or economic union, a free trade area or regional economic organization or international multilateral economic agreement, to which either of the Contracting Parties is or becomes a member, or in the case of Lebanon the treatment granted to investors who are nationals of Arab countries in relation to their investment in real estate properties. Such compensation shall be equivalent to the market value of the expropriated investment immediately before the date on which the actual or threatened expropriation, nationalization or comparable measure has become publicly known. Once the amount of the compensation is fixed, it shall be paid within a period of three months and shall carry the interest calculated on a basis of Libor standards until the time of payment; it shall be effectively realizable and freely transferable. Provisions shall have been made in an appropriate manner at or prior to the time of expropriation, nationalization or comparable measure for the determination and payment of such compensation. The legality of any such expropriation, nationalization or comparable measure and the amount of

If the real market value is denominated in a currency that is not freely convertible, the compensation paid — converted into the currency of payment — shall be no less than:

3 — The host Contracting Party of the investment shall allow the investors of the other Contracting Party access to the foreign exchange market in a non-discriminatory manner and to purchase the necessary foreign currency to make transfers pursuant to this Article, at the prevailing market rate of exchange applicable on the date on which the investor applies for such transfer.

4 — The Contracting Parties undertake to facilitate the procedures needed to make these transfers without delay, according to the practices followed in international financial centers. Both Contracting Parties should undertake to carry out the formalities required for the acquisition of foreign currency and for its effective transfer abroad within a period of one month. Moreover, the Contracting Parties should agree to accord to transfers referred to in the present Article a treatment no less favourable than that accorded to transfers originated from investments made by investors of any third state.

Article 6. Principle of Subrogation

If either Contracting Party or its designated agency makes payment to one of its investors under any financial guarantee against non-commercial risks it has granted in respect of an investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter shall, without prejudice to the rights of the former Contracting Party under Article 8 of this Agreement, recognize the assignment, whether under a law or pursuant to a legal transaction, of any right or title of that investor to the first Contracting Party or its designated agency. The latter Contracting Party shall also recognize the subrogation of the former Contracting Party to any such right or claim which that Contracting Party shall be entitled to assert to the same extent as its predecessor in title. The other Contracting Party shall be entitled to set off taxes and other public charges due and payable by the investor.

The choice made as per subparagraphs a, b, and c herein above is final.

3 — The arbitral tribunal shall decide the dispute in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the applicable rules and principles of international law. The awards of arbitration shall be final and binding on both parties to the dispute. Each Contracting Party shall carry out without delay any such award and such award shall be enforced in accordance with domestic law.

7 — The tribunal shall issue its decision on the basis of respect for the law, the provisions of this Agreement, as well as of the universally accepted principles of international law.

8 — Subject to other provisions made by the Contracting Parties, the tribunal shall determine its procedure.

9 — Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of the arbitrator it has appointed and of its representation in the arbitral proceedings. The cost of the chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by the Contracting Parties. The arbitration tribunal may make a different regulation concerning costs.

10 — The decisions of the tribunal are final and binding for each Contracting Party.

Article 9. Other Obligations

1 — If the legislation of either Contracting Party or obligations under international law existing at present or established hereafter between the Contracting Parties in addition to this Agreement contain a provision, whether general or specific, entitling investments by investors of the other Contracting Party to treatment more favourable than that provided for by this Agreement, such a provision shall, to the extent that it is more favourable, prevail over this Agreement.

2 — Each Contracting Party shall observe any other obligation it has assumed with regard to investments in its territory by investors of the other Contracting Party.
