Article 10.9. SPECIAL FORMALITIES AND INFORMATION REQUIREMENTS

1. Nothing in Article 10.3 (National Treatment) shall be construed to prevent a Party from adopting or maintaining a measure that prescribes special formalities in connection with investments of an investor of a Party, such as that investments of an investor of a Party be legally constituted under the laws or regulations of the Party, provided that such formalities do not materially impair the protections afforded by a Party to investors of the other Party and investments of an investor of the other Party pursuant to this Chapter. Parties shall endeavour to exchange information on any existing special formalities, and shall endeavour to inform each other of any special formalities that may be prescribed in the future.

2. Notwithstanding Article 10.3 (National Treatment) and Article 10.4 (Most Favoured Nation Treatment), a Party may require an investor of the other Party or investment of an investor of the other Party to provide information concerning that investment solely for informational or statistical purposes. The Party shall protect any confidential business information from any disclosure that would prejudice the competitive position of the investor or the investment of an investor of a Party. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent a Party from otherwise obtaining or disclosing information in connection with the equitable and good faith application of its law.

Article 10.10. EXPROPRIATION AND NATIONALISATION

Neither Party shall nationalise, expropriate or subject to measures having effect equivalent to nationalisation or expropriation (hereinafter referred to as "expropriation") the investments of investors of the other Party unless such a measure is taken on a nondiscriminatory basis, for a public purpose, in accordance with due process of law, and upon payment of compensation in accordance with this Article.

2. The expropriation shall be accompanied by the payment of prompt, adequate and effective compensation. Compensation shall be equivalent to the fair market value of the expropriated investment immediately before the expropriation or impending expropriation became public knowledge. Compensation shall carry an appropriate interest, taking into account the length of time from the time of expropriation until the time of payment. Such compensation shall be effectively realisable, freely transferable in accordance with Article 10.11 (Transfers) and made without delay.

3. Notwithstanding paragraphs 1 and 2, any measure of expropriation relating to land, which shall be as defined in the existing domestic legislation of the expropriating Party on the date of entry into force of this Agreement, shall be for a purpose and upon payment of compensation in accordance with the aforesaid legislation and any subsequent amendments thereto relating to the amount of compensation where such amendments follow the general trends in the market value of the land.

4. This Article does not apply to the issuance of compulsory licenses granted in relation to intellectual property rights, or to the revocation, limitation or creation of intellectual property rights, to the extent that such issuance, revocation, limitation or creation is consistent with the TRIPS Agreement.

2. A Party may require that a majority of the board of directors, or any committee thereof, of an enterprise of that Party that is an investment of an investor of the other Party, be of a particular nationality, or resident in the territory of the Party, provided that the requirement does not materially impair the ability of the investor of the other Party to exercise control over its investment.

Article 10.14. NONCONFORMING MEASURES

1. Article 10.3 (National Treatment), Article 10.4 (Most Favoured Nation Treatment), Article 10.7 (Performance Requirements) and Article 10.13 (Senior Management and Board of Directors) do not apply to:

insurance or other form of indemnity it has granted in respect of an investment of an investor of that Party, the other Party shall recognise the subrogation or transfer of any right or title in respect of such investment. The subrogated or transferred right or claim shall not be greater than the original right or claim of the investor.

2. Where a Party or a designated agency of a Party has made a payment to an investor of that Party and has taken over rights and claims of the investor, that investor shall not, unless authorised to act on behalf of the Party or the designated agency of the Party making the payment, pursue those rights and claims against the other Party.

Article 10.17. INVESTORSTATE DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

2. The parties to the dispute shall initially seek to resolve the dispute by consultations and negotiations.

3. Where the dispute cannot be resolved as provided for under paragraph 2 within six (6) months from the date of a request for consultations and negotiations, then, unless the disputing investor and the disputing Party agree otherwise, or if the investor concerned has already submitted the dispute for resolution before the courts or administrative tribunals of the disputing Party, or if the dispute is already otherwise subject to other binding dispute settlement proceedings (excluding proceedings for interim measures of protection referred to in paragraph 5 below), the investor concerned may submit the dispute for settlement to:

(a) ICSID for conciliation or arbitration pursuant to Articles 28 or 36 of the ICSID Convention, if both Parties are parties to the ICSID Convention;

(b) arbitration under the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules; or

(c) any other arbitration institution or under any other arbitration rules, if the disputing investor and the disputing Party agree.

4. Each Party hereby consents to the submission of a dispute to conciliation or arbitration under paragraphs 3(a) to 3(c) in accordance with the provisions of this Article, conditional upon:

(a) the submission of the dispute to such conciliation or arbitration taking place within three (3) years of the time at which the disputing investor became aware, or should reasonably have become aware, of a breach of an obligation under this Chapter causing loss or damage to the disputing investor or its investment;

(b) the disputing investor providing written notice ("notice of intent"), which shall be submitted at least thirty (30) days before the claim is submitted, to the disputing Party of its intent to submit the dispute to such conciliation or arbitration and which:1011

(i) states the name and address of the disputing investor and, where a claim is submitted on behalf of an enterprise, the name, address, and place of incorporation of the enterprise;

5. Neither Party shall prevent the disputing investor from seeking interim measures of protection, not involving the payment of damages or resolution of the substance of the matter in dispute before the courts or administrative tribunals of the disputing Party, prior to the institution of proceedings before any of the dispute settlement fora referred to in paragraph 3, for the preservation of its rights and interests.

6. Neither Party shall give diplomatic protection, or bring an international claim, in respect of a dispute which one of its investors and the other Party shall have consented to submit or have submitted to conciliation or arbitration under this Article, unless such other Party has failed to abide by and comply with the award rendered in such dispute. Diplomatic protection, for the purposes of this paragraph, shall not include informal diplomatic exchanges for the sole purpose of facilitating settlement of the dispute.

7. The responsibility among the Parties for the assumption of expenses derived from their participation in the arbitration or conciliation shall be established:

(b) according to the rules of procedure for arbitration or conciliation proceedings agreed by the disputing investor and the disputing Party, where applicable.

Section 10.18. PUBLIC DEBT

1. The Parties recognize that the purchase of debt issued by a Party entails commercial risk. For greater certainty, no award may be made in favour of a disputing investor for a claim with respect to default or non payment of debt issued by a Party unless the disputing investor meets its burden of proving that such default or nonpayment constitutes an uncompensated expropriation for purposes of Article 10.10 (Expropriation and Nationalisation) or a breach of any other obligation under this Chapter.

2. No claim that a restructuring of debt issued by a Party breaches an obligation under this Chapter may be submitted to, or if already submitted continue in, arbitration under this Chapter if the restructuring is a negotiated restructuring at the time of submission, or becomes a negotiated restructuring after such submission, except for a claim that the restructuring violates Article 10.3 (National Treatment) or Article 10.4 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment).

3. Subject to paragraph 2, an investor of the other Party may not submit a claim under this Chapter that a restructuring of debt issued by a Party breaches an obligation under this Chapter (other than Article 10.3 (National Treatment) or 10.4 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment)) unless two hundred and seventy (270) days have elapsed from the date of the events giving rise to the claim.
