

Agreement between the Republic of Serbia and the Republic of Slovenia on Mutual Promotion and Investment Protection

The Government of the Republic of Slovenia and the Federal Government of Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, hereinafter referred to as the "Contracting Parties";

Desiring to intensify the economic co-operation between the two Contracting Parties;

Intending to encourage and create favourable conditions for greater economic co-operation in the field of investments made by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party;

Recognising that the reciprocal promotion and protection of investments on the basis of this Agreement will stimulate business initiative;

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1. Definitions

1. For the purpose of this Agreement:

The term "investment" shall mean every kind of asset invested by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party in accordance with the laws and regulations of the latter including, in particular, though not exclusively:

- (a) Movable and immovable property as well as any rights in rem such as mortgages, liens, pledges and similar rights;
- (b) Shares, stocks, debentures and any other form of interest in a company;
- (c) Claims to money or to any performance having an economic value and associated with an investment;
- (d) Intellectual property rights, including copyrights and neighbouring rights and industrial property rights, such as patents, licences, industrial designs or models, trademarks, goodwill, technical processes and know-how;
- (e) Concessions conferred by law, by an administrative act or under a contract by a competent state authority including concessions for prospecting, research and exploitation of natural resources.

Any alternation of the form in which assets are invested or reinvested shall not affect their character as investments, provided that such alteration is in accordance with the laws and regulations of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment has been made.

2. The term "investor" shall mean:

- (a) Natural persons having the nationality of either Contracting Party, in accordance with its laws; and
- (b) Legal entities incorporated, constituted or otherwise duly organized in accordance with the laws and regulations of one Contracting Party, having their seat in the territory of that Contracting Party.

3. The term "returns" shall mean:

The amounts yielded by investments and in particular, though not exclusively, shall include profits, dividends, interests, royalties, license fees and other similar fees, or other forms of income related to the investments.

4. The term "territory" shall mean:

- (a) With respect to the Republic of Slovenia: the territory under its sovereignty, including air space and maritime areas, over which the Republic of Slovenia exercises its sovereignty or jurisdiction, in accordance with internal and international law.

Article 7. Subrogation

1. If a Contracting Party or its designated Agency makes a payment to its investor under an indemnity, guarantee or contract of insurance given in respect of an investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter Contracting Party shall recognize:

- (a) The assignment to the former Contracting Party or its designated Agency of all rights and claims of the investor,
- (b) The right of the former Contracting Party or its designated Agency to exercise all such rights and enforce such claims by virtue of subrogation.

2. The rights or claims so subrogated shall not exceed the original rights or claims of the investor.

Article 8. Other Obligations

Each Contracting Party shall observe any legal obligation it may have entered into with regard to specific investments by investors of the other Contracting Party.

Article 9. Settlement of Disputes between the Contracting Parties

- 1 . Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation and application of this Agreement should, as far as possible, be settled by negotiations through diplomatic channels.
- 2 . If the Contracting Parties fail to reach a settlement within six (6) months after the beginning of negotiations, the dispute shall, upon the request of either Contracting Party, be submitted to an arbitral tribunal, in accordance with the provisions of this Article.
- 3 . Such an arbitral tribunal shall be constituted for each individual case in the following way. Within two (2) months of the receipt of the request for arbitration, each Contracting Party shall appoint one member of the tribunal. Those two members shall then select a national of a third State, with which both Contracting Parties maintain diplomatic relations, who on approval by the two Contracting Parties shall be appointed chairman of the tribunal. The Chairman shall be appointed within three (3) months from the date of appointment of the other two members.
- 4 . If within the periods specified in paragraph 3 of this Article the necessary appointments have not been made, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of any other agreement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make any necessary appointments. If the President is a national of either Contracting Party or is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice President shall be invited to make the necessary appointments. If the Vice President is a national of either Contracting Party, or is prevented from discharging the said function, the Member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party shall be invited to make the necessary appointments. paragraph 3 of this Article the necessary appointments have not been made, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of any other agreement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make any necessary appointments. If the President is a national of either Contracting Party or is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice President shall be invited to make the necessary appointments. If the Vice President is a national of either Contracting Party, or is prevented from discharging the said function, the Member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party shall be invited to make the necessary appointments.
- 5 . The arbitral tribunal shall reach its decision on the basis of the provisions of this Agreement as well as of the generally accepted principles and rules of international law. The arbitral tribunal shall rule according to majority vote. The decision of the tribunal shall be final and binding on both Contracting Parties.
- 6 . Each Contracting Party shall be responsible for the costs of its own member and of its representatives at the arbitral proceedings. Both Contracting Parties shall assume an equal share of the cost of the chairman, as well as any other costs. The tribunal may make a different decision regarding costs.
- 7 . In all other respects, the tribunal shall define its own rules of procedure.

Article 10. Settlement of Disputes between a Contracting Party and an Investor of the other Contracting Party

- 1 . Any dispute which may arise between a Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party concerning an investment of that investor in the territory of the former Contracting Party shall be settled amicably through negotiations.
- 2 . If such a dispute cannot be settled by negotiations within a period of six (6) months from the date of a written request for settlement, the investor concerned may submit the dispute to:
 - (a) The competent court or administrative tribunal of the Contracting Party, party to the dispute,
 - (b) An ad hoc tribunal which, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties to the dispute, shall be established under the arbitration rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL); or ad hoc tribunal which, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties to the dispute, shall be established under the arbitration rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL); or
