2. If any dispute cannot be settled amicably through negotiations with five months of the date of resort to negotiations within five months of the date of resort to negotiations as specified in paragraph 1 of this Article then an investor of one Contracting Party may submit the dispute to the competent court of the Contracting Party accepting the investment.

3. The dispute on the amount of compensation resulting from nationalization and expropriation, if unable to be settled within five months after resort to negotiations as specified in Paragraph 1 of this Article, shall be submitted at the request of either party to:

(a) International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) Under the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States, done at Washington on March 18, 1965; or

(b) An ad hoc arbitral tribunal.

However, if the investor concerned has procedure specified in Paragraph 2 of this Article, the provision of this paragraph shall not apply.

4. Without prejudice to Paragraph 3 or this Article, the ad hoc arbitral tribunal referred to in Paragraph 3 (b) of this Article shall be constituted for each individual case in the following way: each party to the dispute shall appoint one arbitrator, and these two shall select a national of a third party which has diplomatic relations with the two Contracting Parties as Chairman. The first two arbitrators shall be appointed within two months of the written notice requesting for arbitration by either party to the dispute to the other, and the Chairman be selected within four months. If, within the period specified above, the tribunal has not been constituted, either party to the dispute may invite the Secretary General of the international Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes to make the necessary appointment(s).

5. The ad hoc arbitral tribunal shall determine its own procedure, However, the tribunal may, in the course of determination of procedure, take as guidance the Arbitration rules of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes.

6. The tribunal referred to in Paragraph 3 (a) and (b) of this Article shall reach each its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be final and binding upon both parties to the dispute. Both Contracting Parties shall commit themselves to the enforcement of the decision. Paragraph 3 (a) and (b) of this Article shall reach each its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be final and binding upon both parties to the dispute. Both Contracting Parties shall commit themselves to the enforcement of the decision.

7. The tribunal referred to in Paragraph 3 (a) and (b) of this Article shall adjudicate in accordance with the law of the Contracting Party of the dispute accepting the investment including its rules on the conflict of laws, the provisions of this Agreement as well as the applicable principles of international law. Paragraph 3 (a) and; (b) of this Article shall adjudicate in accordance with the law of the Contracting Party of the dispute accepting the investment including its rules on the conflict of laws, the provisions of this Agreement as well as the applicable principles of international law.

8. Each party to the dispute shall bear the cost of its appointed member of the tribunal and of its representation in the proceedings. The cost of the appointed Chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by the parties to the disputes. The tribunal may in its decision direct that a higher proportion of the costs be borne by one of the two parties to the dispute.

Article 10.

1. All disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement should, if possible, be settled through diplomatic channels.

2. If a dispute between the Contracting parties cannot be settled, it shall upon the request of either contracting party be submitted to an arbitral tribunal.

3. Such an arbitral tribunal shall be constituted for each individual case in the following way. Within two months of the receipt of the request for arbitration, each Contracting party shall appoint one member of the tribunal. Those two members shall then select a national of a third party who on approval by the two Contracting parties shall be appointed Chairman of the tribunal. The chairman shall be appointed within two months from the date of appointment of the other two members.

4. If within the periods specified in paragraph (3) of this Article the necessary appointments have not been made, either Contracting party may, in the absence of any other agreement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make any necessary appointments. If the President is a national of either Contracting Party or if he is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice-President shall be invited to make the necessary appointments. If the Vice-President is a national of either Contracting Party or if he too is prevented from discharging the said function, the Member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party shall be invited to make the necessary appointments.

5. The arbitral tribunal shall reach its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be binding on both Contracting Parties. Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its own member of the tribunal and of its representation in the arbitral proceedings; the cost of the Chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by the Contracting Parties. The tribunal may, however, in its decision direct that a higher proportion of costs shall be borne by one of the two Contracting Parties, and this award shall be binding on both Contracting Parties. The tribunal shall determine its own procedures and shall reach its decision in accordance with the provision of this Agreement.

Article 11.

Subject to the Provisions of Article 3, if the treatment to be accorded by one Contracting Party in accordance with its laws and regulations to investments or activities associated with such investments of investors of the other Contracting Party is more favorable than the treatment provided for in this Agreement, the more favorable treatment shall be applicable.

Article 12.

1. This Agreement shall enter into force thirty days after the date on which both Contracting Parties have received the written notice of fulfillment of their respective internal legal procedures, and shall remain in force for a period of ten years.

2. This Agreement shall continue in force if either Contracting Party fails to give a written notice to the other Contracting Party to terminate it twelve months before the expiration specified in paragraph 1 of this Article.

3. After the expiration of the initial ten year period, either Contracting Party may at any time terminate this Agreement by giving at least six month's written notice to the other Contracting Party.

4. With respect to investments made prior to the date of termination of this Agreement, the provision of Articles 1 to 12 shall continue to be effective for a further period of ten years from such date of termination.
