2. Investments made in accordance with paragraph 1 and their returns shall enjoy the full protection of this Agreement. The same treatment shall apply, without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 1, to their returns in the case of reinvestment of such returns. The legal extension, alteration or conversion of an investment shall be considered a new investment.

Article 3. Treatment of Investments

1. Each Contracting Party shall accord to investors of the other Contracting Party and their investments treatment no less favourable than that accorded to its own investors and their investments, or that accorded to investors of third States and their investments.
2. The provisions of paragraph 1 may not be construed as obliging one Contracting Party to extend to investors of the other Contracting Party the present or future benefit of any treatment, preference or privilege resulting from:

Where a Contracting Party expropriates the assets of a company which is considered as its own company pursuant to article 1, paragraph 2, of this Agreement and in which an investor of the other Contracting Party owns shares, it shall apply the provisions of paragraph 1 of this article so as to ensure appropriate compensation of the investor.

The other Contracting Party shall also recognize the right of subrogation of the first Contracting Party with respect to all such rights or claims, which it may exercise in the same manner as its predecessor in title. As regards the transfer of payments due to the Contracting Party concerned by virtue of such assignment, articles 4 and 5 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Article 7. Other Obligations

1. If the legislation of either Contracting Party or international legal obligations now existing alongside this Agreement or established hereafter between the Contracting Party contain any rules, whether general or specific, entitling investments by investors of the other Contracting Party to treatment more favourable than that provided for in this Agreement, such rules shall, to the extent that they are more favourable, take precedence over the present Agreement.
2. Each Contracting Party shall observe any contractual obligation which it may have entered into towards investors of the other Contracting Party with regard to investments approved by it in its own territory.

4. A Contracting Party which is a party to a dispute shall at no stage in the conciliation or arbitration proceeding or in the execution of the arbitral award raise an objection on the grounds that the investor who is the other party to the dispute has already received compensation for all or part of his losses under an investment guarantee.

Article 9. Investment Disputes between the Contracting Parties

1. Disputes arising between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall, as far as possible, be settled by amicable negotiations.
2. If such a dispute cannot be settled as provided in paragraph 1 within six months, it shall, at the request of either Contracting Party, be submitted to an arbitral tribunal.
3. Such arbitral tribunal shall be constituted ad hoc as follows: each Contracting Party shall appoint one member and these two members shall agree on a third person as chairman. Such members shall be appointed within two months after the date on which either Contracting Party informs the other that it intends to submit the dispute to an arbitral tribunal; the chairman shall be appointed within the following two months.
4. If the time-limits specified in paragraph 3 have not been observed and in the absence of any other arrangement, either Contracting Party may request the President of the International Court of Justice to make the necessary appointments. 5. The arbitral tribunal shall establish its own rules of procedure.
6. The arbitral tribunal shall reach its decision on the basis of this Agreement. Its rulings shall be adopted by a majority of votes; the ruling shall be final and binding.

7. Each Contracting Party shall bear the costs of its own member and of its representation in the arbitration proceeding. The costs of the chairman and any remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by both Contracting Parties. The tribunal may, however, in its award determine different distribution of costs.

Article 10. Application of this Agreement
