

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE REPUBLIC OF EL SALVADOR AND THE REPUBLIC OF CHILE FOR THE RECIPROCAL PROMOTION AND PROTECTION OF INVESTMENTS

The Republic of El Salvador and the Republic of Chile (hereinafter referred to as the "Contracting Parties");

Desiring to intensify economic cooperation in the mutual benefit of both States;

With the intention to create and maintain favourable conditions for investments of investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other party, involving transfers of capital;

Recognizing the need to promote and protect foreign investment with a view to promoting the economic prosperity of both States;

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1. Definitions

1. The term "investor" refers to each of the Contracting Parties to the following subjects who have made investments in the territory of the other Contracting Party in accordance with this Agreement:

- a. Natural persons who according to the laws of that Contracting Party are considered to be nationals of the same;
- b. Legal entities, including companies, corporations, business associations or any other entity duly constituted or otherwise organised under the law of that Contracting Party and have their seat, as well as their effective economic activities in the territory of that Contracting Party.

2. The term "investment" means every kind of assets or rights related to an investment provided that it is made in accordance with the laws and regulations of the Contracting Party in whose territory they are undertaken, and shall include in particular, though not exclusively:

- a. Movable and immovable property as well as any other rights in rem, such as mortgages, liens, pledges and usufructs;
- b. Shares and social quotas and any other kind of participation in companies;
- c. Rights of claim or any other performance having economic value;
- d. Intellectual Property Rights, such as copyrights and industrial property rights, such as technical processes; trademarks, patents or trademarks, trade names, industrial designs, business names, know-how and goodwill
- e. Concessions conferred by law or under contract, including concessions to cultivate, extract, explore or exploit natural resources.

3. "Territory" includes, in addition to the land, sea and air space under the sovereignty of each Contracting Party, marine and submarine areas over which they exercise sovereign rights and jurisdiction in accordance with their respective laws and international law.

Article 2. Scope

This Agreement shall apply to all investments made before or after its entry into force by investors of one Contracting Party, in accordance with the laws of the other Contracting Party in the territory of the latter. however, it shall not apply to differences or disputes which have arisen prior to its validity or directly related to events before its Entry into Force.

Article 3:. Promotion and Protection of Investments

1. Each Contracting Party shall, subject to its general policy in the field of investment, encourage investments in its territory of investors of the other contracting party.
2. Each Contracting Party shall protect within its territory investments made in accordance with its laws and regulations by investors of the other Contracting Party and shall not hinder the management, maintenance, use, enjoyment, extension and sale and liquidation of such investments by unreasonable or discriminatory measures.

Article 4. Treatment of Investments

1. Each Contracting Party shall ensure fair and equitable treatment within its territory of investments of investors of the other Contracting Party and shall ensure that the exercise of the rights recognized herein shall not be impeded in practice.
2. Each Contracting Party shall accord to investments of investors of the other Contracting Party made in its territory treatment no less favorable than that accorded to investments of its own investors or to investors of a third country, if the latter treatment is more favorable.
3. In the event that a Contracting Party grants special advantages to investors of any third State by virtue of a convention relating to the establishment of a free trade area, a customs union, a common market, an economic union or any other form of regional economic organization or by virtue of an agreement relating wholly or mainly to taxation, that Party shall not be obliged to grant such advantages to investors of the other Contracting Party.

Article 5. Free Transfer

1. Each Contracting Party shall allow investors to without delay of the other Contracting Party to make the transfer of funds related to investments in freely convertible currency in particular, though not exclusively:
 - a. Profits, dividends, interests and other returns;
 - b. Repayments of loans from abroad in connection with an investment;
 - c. The capital or the proceeds of the total or partial sale or liquidation of an investment;
 - d. The proceeds of the settlement of a dispute; and compensation pursuant to article 6.
2. Transfers shall be made in accordance with the rate of exchange prevailing on the date of transfer pursuant to the Law of the Contracting Party which has admitted the investment.

Article 6. Expropriation and Compensation

1. Neither Contracting Party shall take any measures depriving, directly or indirectly, of their investment by an investor of the other Contracting Party unless the following conditions are met:
 - a. The measures are taken for a public purpose or national interest and in accordance with the law;
 - b. The measures are not discriminatory;
 - c. The measures are accompanied by provisions for the payment of prompt, adequate and effective compensation in accordance with their respective constitutional systems.
2. The compensation shall be based on the market value of investments affected the immediately preceding the date on which the measure becomes public knowledge. Where it is difficult to determine the value, the compensation shall be determined in accordance with generally recognized principles of valuation and equitable, taking into account the invested capital depreciation, capital, repatriated until that date, replacement value and other relevant factors. Any delay in payment of compensation shall accrue interest according to the usual bank interest from the date of expropriation or loss until the date of payment.
3. The legality of expropriation, nationalization or any other measures having an equivalent effect and the amount of compensation may be claimed in ordinary judicial procedure.
4. Investors of either Contracting Party whose investments in the territory of the other Contracting Party are losses due to a war or any other armed conflict, a national state of emergency, civil disturbance or other similar events in the territory of the other Contracting Party, shall receive from this latter, as regards restitution, indemnification, compensation or other settlement, a treatment no less favourable than that accorded by the other Contracting Party to investors or nationals of any third State.

Article 7. Subrogation

1. If a Contracting Party or an authorised agency has granted a contract of insurance or other form of financial guarantee against non-commercial risks with regard to an investment by one of its investors in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter shall recognize the rights of the first Contracting Party to the rights of subrogation of the investor that has made a payment under the contract or guarantee.

2. If a Contracting Party has paid to its investor and has taken by its rights and benefits to the other Contracting Party, except with the express authorization of the first Contracting Party.

Article 8. Settlement of Disputes between a Contracting Party and an Investor of the other Contracting Party

1. Disputes arising under this agreement between one Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party which has made investments in the territory of the first shall as far as possible, be settled through amicable consultations.

2. If consultations fail to produce an solution within three months from the date of request for settlement, the investor may submit the dispute to:

a. The competent courts of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment was made; or

b. To international arbitration of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), established by the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States signed in Washington on 18 March 1965.

3. Once the investor has submitted the dispute to the competent court of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment has been made or the arbitral tribunal, the choice of one or other of the procedure shall be final.

4. For the purposes of this article, any legal person which is constituted in accordance with the legislation of one Contracting Party and which, before the emergence of the dispute was found in possession of investors of the other Contracting Party, shall be treated in accordance with article 25 (2) (b) Washington of the said Convention, as a juridical person of the other Contracting Party.

5. The arbitral awards shall be final and binding on the parties to the dispute and shall be executed in accordance with the domestic law of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment has been made.

6. The Contracting Parties shall seek, through diplomatic channels matters related to disputes submitted to court proceedings or international arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this article, until the relevant processes are completed, except where the other party in the dispute has not complied with the court decision or the decision of the arbitral tribunal, under the terms established in the respective decision or award.

Article 9. Settlement of Disputes between the Contracting Parties

1. To suggest differences between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation and application of this Agreement shall be settled as far as possible through amicable negotiations.

2. If an agreement cannot be achieved within a period of six months from the date of notification of the dispute, either Contracting Party may submit it to an ad hoc arbitral tribunal in accordance with the provisions of this article.

3. The arbitral tribunal shall consist of three members and shall be constituted in the following manner: within two months after the date of notification of the request for arbitration, each Contracting Party shall appoint an arbitrator. Those two arbitrators within thirty days after the appointment of the last one, shall select a third member who shall be a national of a third State, who shall chair the Tribunal. The designation of the Chairman shall be approved by the Contracting Parties within thirty days after the date of his nomination.

4. If within the time limits set forth in paragraph 2 of this Article, the designation has not been made or the required approval has not been given, any of the Contracting Parties may request the President of the International Court of Justice to make the designation. If the President of the International Court of Justice is unable to perform this function or if he is a national of any of the Contracting Parties, the Vice-President shall make the designation, and if the latter is unable to do so or is a national of any of the Contracting Parties, the judge of the Court next in seniority to him and who is not a national of any of the Contracting Parties shall make the designation.

5. The President of the Tribunal shall be a national of a third State with which both Contracting Parties maintain diplomatic relations.

6. The arbitral tribunal shall decide on the basis of the provisions of this Agreement and the principles of international law and the general principles of law recognized by the Contracting Parties. The Tribunal shall decide by a majority of votes and shall determine its own procedural rules.

7. Each Contracting Party shall bear the costs of the arbitrator, as well as those relating to its representation in the arbitral proceedings. The cost of the Chairman and the remaining costs of the proceedings shall be removed in equal parts by the Contracting Parties unless they agree otherwise.

8. Decisions of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding on both Contracting Parties.

Article 10. Consultations

The Contracting Parties shall consult on any matter relating to the application or interpretation of this Agreement.

Article 11. Final Provisions

1. The Contracting Parties shall notify each other when their constitutional requirements for the Entry into Force of this Agreement have been fulfilled. The Agreement shall enter into force thirty days after the date of the last notification.

2. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of fifteen years and thereafter shall be extended for an indefinite period. Within fifteen years, this Agreement may be denounced at any time by either Contracting Party giving 12 months' notice communicated through diplomatic channels.

3. With respect to investments made prior to the date that was made effective notice of termination of this agreement its provisions shall remain in force for a further period of fifteen years from that date.

4. This Agreement shall apply irrespective of the existence of diplomatic relations between the two Contracting Parties.

Done at Santiago on the eighth day of November 1999 in duplicate in the Spanish language, both texts being equally authentic.

FOR THE REPUBLIC OF EL SALVADOR

Ing. Ramón E. González Giner

FOR THE REPUBLIC OF CHILE

Mr. José Miguel Insulza

Protocol

The signing of the Agreement for the Promotion and Reciprocal Protection of Investments, the Republic of El Salvador and the Republic of Chile, agreed on the following provisions which constitute an integral part of the Agreement.

1. Transfers related to investments made in accordance with the schedule of Chile to the conversion of external debt, are governed by special rules that it establishes.

2. The invested capital may be transferred only after one year after its entry into the territory of the Contracting Party, except where the legislation of that provides for more favourable treatment.

3. A transfer shall be deemed to be made without delay "when it has been made within the period normally necessary for the completion of the formalities of transfer. The term, which in no case shall exceed thirty days, shall commence at the time of delivery of the request duly submitted.

Done at Santiago, Chile on the eighth day of November 1999 in duplicate in the Spanish language, both texts being equally authentic.

FOR THE REPUBLIC OF EL SALVADOR

Ing. Ramón E. González Giner

FOR THE REPUBLIC OF CHILE

Mr. José Miguel Insulza