Agreement between the Government of the Republic of Latvia and the Government of the Italian Republic on the Promotion and Protection of Investments

The Government of the Italian Republic and the Government of the Republic of Latvia, hereinafter referred to as the Contracting Parties,

Desiring to establish favourable conditions for improved economic cooperation between the two Countries, and especially in relation to capital investments by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party,

And

Acknowledging that offering encouragement and mutual protection to such investments, based on international Agreements, will contribute to stimulating business ventures, which foster the prosperity of both States,

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1. Definitions

For the purposes of this Agreement:

1. The term "investment" shall mean any kind of property invested by a natural or legal person of a Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party, provided that the investment has been made in accordance with laws and regulations of the latter Contracting Party and shall include in particular, but not exclusively:

a) Movable and immovable property as well as any other property rights and rights "in rem" such as pledges, liens and mortgages;

b) Shares, debentures, equity holdings or any other form of participation in a company and any other instruments of credit, as well as Government securities;

c) Claims to money or any performance having an economic value connected with an investment;

d) Copyright, commercial trade marks, patents, industrial designs and other intellectual and industrial property rights, knowhow, trade secrets, trade names and goodwill;

e) Any economic right accruing by law or by contract and any licence and concession granted in accordance with the provisions in force on economic activities, including the right to prospect for, extract and exploit natural resources;

f) Any increase in value of the original investment.

Any modification in the form of the investment does not imply a change in the nature thereof.

2. The term "investor" shall mean any natural or legal person of a Contracting Party investing in the territory of the other Contracting Party.

3. The term "natural person", in reference to either Contracting Party, shall mean any natural person holding the nationality of that State in accordance with its laws.

4. The term "legal person", in reference to either Contracting Party, shall mean any entity which is constituted or otherwise duly organized under the law of one of the Contracting Parties, having its head office in the territory of one of the Contracting Parties.

5. The term "income" shall mean the amounts yielded by an investment and in particular, though not exclusively, includes profits, interests, capital gains, dividends, royalties, fees and any other form of payments.

6. The term "territory" shall mean, in addition to the zones contained within the land boundaries, the "maritime zones". The latter also comprise the marine and submarine zones over which the Contracting Parties exercise sovereignty, and sovereign or jurisdictional rights, under international law.

7. "Investment agreement" shall mean an agreement that a Contracting Party (or its agencies) may enter with investors of the other Contracting Party in order to regulate the specific legal relationships concerning the aforesaid investment.

Article 2. Promotion and Protection of Investments

1. Both Contracting Parties shall encourage investors of the other Contracting Party to invest in their territory according to their laws and regulations.

2. Both Contracting Parties shall at all times ensure just and fair treatment of the investments of investors of the other Contracting Party. Both Contracting Parties shall ensure that the management, maintenance, use, transformation, enjoyment or assignment of the investments effected in their territory by investors of the other Contracting Party, as well as the legal persons, in particular but not exclusively, companies and enterprises, in which these investments have been effected, shall in no way be subject to unjustified or discriminatory measures.

3. Each Contracting Party shall create and maintain in its territory favourable economic and legal conditions in order to permit investments of investors of the other Contracting Party in accordance with its legislation, including the compliance, in good faith, of all undertakings assumed with regard to each specific investor.

Article 3. National Treatment and the Most Favoured Nation Clause

1. Both Contracting Parties, within the bounds of their own territory, shall offer investments effected by, and the income accruing to, investors or the other Contracting Party no less favourable treatment than that accorded to investments effected by, and income accruing to, its own investors or investors of Third States.

2. If international obligations in force or that may come into force in the future for one of the Contracting Parties, contain rules, whether general or specific, entitling investments by investors of the other Contracting Party to a treatment more favourable than the one provided for by the present Agreement, such rules will, to the extent that they are more favourable, prevail over the present Agreement.

3. The provisions of this Agreement do not refer to the advantages and privileges which one Contracting Party may grant to investors of Third States by virtue of its membership of a Customs or Economic Union, of a Common Market, of a Free Trade Area, of a regional or subregional Agreement, of an international multilateral economic Agreement or under Agreements stipulated in order to prevent double taxation or to facilitate cross-border trade.

Article 4. Compensation for Damages or Losses

Should investors of one of the Contracting Parties incur losses or damages on their investments in the territory of the other Contracting Party due to war, other forms of armed conflict, a state of emergency, civil strife or other similar events, the Contracting Party in which the investment has been effected shall offer adequate compensation in respect of such losses or damages, whether or not such losses or damages have been caused by governmental forces. Compensation payments shall be freely transferable without undue delay.

The investors concerned shall receive the same treatment as the nationals of the other Contracting Party and, at all events, no less favourable than the one accorded to investors of Third States.

Article 5. Expropriation or Nationalization

1. Investments of investors of either Contracting Party shall not be expropriated or subjected to measures having effect equivalent to nationalization or expropriation (hereinafter referred as "expropriation") in the territory of the other Contracting Party except for a public purpose or national interest.

The expropriation shall be carried out under due process of law, on a non-discriminatory basis and in exchange of the payment of prompt, adequate and effective compensation.

Such compensation shall be equivalent to the market value of the investment expropriated immediately prior to the moment in which the decision of expropriation has been announced.

The exchange rate applicable to any such compensation shall be that prevailing on the date immediately prior to the moment in which the decision of expropriation has been announced.

The compensation shall include interest calculated on the LIBOR basis from the date of expropriation to the date of payment, shall be made without undue delay and in any case within three months, shall be effectively realizable and shall be freely transferable in freely convertible currency.

2. In the absence of an understanding between the host Contracting Party and the investor concerning the amount of the compensation, the latter shall be based on the same reference parameters taken into account in the documents for the constitution of the investment.

3. The provisions of this Article shall also apply when a Contracting Party expropriates the assets of a company which is incorporated or constituted under the law in force in its territory and of which investors of the other Contracting Party own shares or have other forms of participation.

4. An investor of either Contracting Party that asserts that all or part of its investment has been affected by expropriation shall have the right to a prompt review by the competent judicial or administrative authorities of the other Contracting Party in order to determine whether such measure has occurred and, if it has, whether such measure and any compensation thereof conform to the provisions of this Agreement and to the principles of international law, and in order to decide all other relevant matters.

5. Compensation will be considered as actual if it has been paid in the any freely convertible currency or in any other currency accepted by the investor. Compensation will be freely transferable.

6. The provisions of this Article shall also apply to profits of an investment and, in the event of winding-up, to the proceeds of liquidation. They will not apply to any future profit.

7. If, after the dispossession, as a consequence of expropriation, the assets concerned have not been utilized, wholly or partially, for that purpose, the owner or his assignees are entitled to the repurchasing of the assets at market price.

Article 6. Subrogation

1. If a Contracting Party or its designated Agency makes payments to its own investors under a guarantee it has accorded in respect of non-commercial risks for an investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party the latter Contracting Party shall recognize:

a) The assignment, whether under the law or pursuant to a legal transaction in that country, or any right or claim by the investor to the former Contracting Party or its designated Agency, as well as,

b) That the former Contracting Party or its designated Agency is entitled by virtue of subrogation to exercise the rights and enforce the claims of that investor and shall assume the obligations related to the investment.

2. In relation to the transfer of payments to the Contracting Party or its designated Agency by virtue of this assignment, the provisions of Article 7 of this Agreement shall apply.

Article 7. Transfer Procedures

1. The Contracting Parties shall guarantee the transfer of payments related to investments and income. The transfers shall be made in a freely convertible currency, without any restriction and undue delay, after all fiscal obligations have been fulfilled. Such transfers shall include in particular, though not exclusively:

a) Capital and additional capital, including reinvested income, used to maintain and increase an investment;

b) Profits, dividends, royalties, fees, interests, and other income;

c) Funds in repayment of loans;

d) Income deriving from the total or partial sale or the total or partial liquidation of an investment;

e) Remuneration and allowances paid to nationals of the other Contracting Party for work and services performed in relation to an investment effected in the territory of the other Contracting Party, in the amount and manner prescribed by the national legislation and regulations in force.

2. All the transfers referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be made at the prevailing exchange rate applicable on the date on which the investor applies for the related transfer, unless otherwise agreed.

3. Transfers referred to in Articles 4, 5, and in paragraph 1 of this Article, shall be considered to have been made "without undue delay" when they have been made within the period normally necessary for the completion of the transfer. Such period shall under no circumstances exceed three months.

4. The fiscal obligations under paragraph 1 of this Article are deemed to be complied with when the investor has fulfilled the proceedings provided for by the law of the Contracting Party on the territory of which the investment has been carried out.paragraph 1 of this Article are deemed to be complied with when the investor has fulfilled the proceedings provided for by the law of the territory of which the investor has fulfilled the proceedings provided for by the law of the territory of which the investor has fulfilled the proceedings provided for by the law of the territory of which the investment has been carried out.

5. Without restricting the scope of Article 3 of this Agreement, the Contracting Parties undertake to apply to the transfers mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article, the same favourable treatment accorded to investments effected by investors of Third States, in case it is more favourable.Article 3 of this Agreement, the Contracting Parties undertake to apply to the transfers mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article, the same favourable treatment accorded to investments effected by investors of Third States, in case it is more favourable.Article, the same favourable treatment accorded to investments effected by investors of Third States, in case it is more favourable.

Article 8. Settlement of Disputes between Investors and Contracting Parties

1. Any dispute which may arise between one of the Contracting Parties and the investors of the other Contracting Party on investments, including disputes relating to the amount of compensation, shall be settled, if possible, through consultation and negotiation.

2. In case the investor and one of the Contracting Parties have stipulated an investment agreement, the procedure foreseen in such investment agreement shall apply.

3. In the event that such dispute cannot be settled within six months from the date of the written application for settlement, the investor may submit at his choice the dispute for settlement to:

a) The Contracting Party's Court having territorial jurisdiction;

b) An "ad hoc" Arbitration Tribunal, in compliance with the arbitration regulation of the United Nations Commission on the International Trade Law (UNCITRAL). The host Contracting Party undertakes hereby to accept the said arbitration; arbitration regulation of the United Nations Commission on the International Trade Law (UNCITRAL). The host Contracting Party undertakes hereby to accept the said arbitration;

c) The International Centre for Settlement or Investment Disputes, for the implementation of the arbitration or conciliation procedures under the Washington Convention of 18 March, 1965, on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States, if or as soon as both the Contracting Parties have acceded to it.

4. Both Contracting Parties shall refrain from negotiating through diplomatic channels any matter relating to an arbitration procedure or judicial procedures underway until these procedures have been concluded, and one of the Contracting Parties has failed to comply with the ruling of the Arbitration Tribunal or the Court of law within the period envisaged by the ruling, or else within the period which can be determined on the basis of the international or domestic law provisions which can be applied to the case.

Article 9. Settlement of Disputes between the Contracting Parties

1. Any dispute which may arise between the Contracting Parties relating to the interpretation and application of this Agreement shall, if possible, be settled through consultation and negotiation.

2. In the event that the dispute cannot be settled within six months from the date on which one of the Contracting Parties notifies, in writing, the other Contracting Party, the dispute shall, at the request of one of the Contracting Parties, be laid before an "ad hoc" Arbitration Tribunal as provided in this Article.

3. The Arbitration Tribunal shall be constituted in the following manner: within two months from the moment on which the request for arbitration is received, each of the two Contracting Parties shall appoint a member of the Tribunal. The two members shall then choose a national of a Third State to serve as President. The President shall be appointed within three months from the date on which the other two members are appointed.

4. If, within the period specified in paragraph 3 of this Article, the appointments have not been made, each of the two Contracting Parties can, in default of other arrangement, ask the President of the International Court of Justice to make the appointment. In the event that the President of the Court is a national of one of the Contracting Parties or it is, for any reason, impossible for him to make the appointment, the application shall be made to the Vice-President of the Court. If the Vice-President of the Court is a national of one of the Contracting Parties, or is unable to make the appointment for any reason, the most senior member of the International Court of Justice, who is not a national of one of the Contracting Parties, shall be invited to make the appointment.

5. The Arbitration Tribunal shall rule with a majority vote, and its decisions shall be binding on both Contracting Parties. Each Contracting Party shall pay the costs of its own member of Tribunal and of its representatives at the hearings. The President's costs and any other cost shall be divided equally between the Contracting Parties.

The Arbitration Tribunal shall lay down its own procedures.

Article 10. Application of other Provisions

1. If a matter is governed both by this Agreement and by another International Agreement to which both Contracting Parties are signatories, or by general international law provisions, the most favourable provisions shall be applied to the Contracting Parties and to their investors.

2. Whenever the treatment accorded by one Contracting Party to the investors of the other Contracting Party, according to its laws and regulations or other provisions or a specific contract or investment authorisations or an investment agreement, is more favourable than that provided under this Agreement, the most favourable treatment shall apply.

3. After the date when the investment has been made, any modifications in the legislation of the Contracting Parties regulating directly or indirectly the investment, shall not be applied retroactively and the investments made under this Agreement shall therefore be protected.

Article 11. Applicabily of this Agreement

This Agreement shall apply to investments made in the territory of one of the Contracting Parties in accordance with its laws and regulations by investors of the other Contracting Party prior to as well as after the entry into force of this Agreement, but shall not apply to any dispute concerning an investment which arose, or any claim which was settled before its entry into force.

Article 12. Entry Into Force

This Agreement shall become effective as from the date of the last of the two written notifications by which the two Contracting Parties notify each other that their respective internal procedures have been completed.

Article 13. Amendments

Amendments to the provisions of this Agreement may be agreed upon by the Contracting Parties. Such amendments shall become effective following the same procedures as provided for in Article 12.

Article 14. Duration and Termination

1, This Agreement shall remain effective for a period of ten years from the date of the notification under Article 12 and shall remain in force for a further period of five years thereafter, unless one of the two Contracting Parties notifies in writing of its intention to terminate the Agreement by not later than one year before its expiry date.

2. In case of investments effected prior to the termination dates, as provided under paragraph 1 of this Article, the provisions of the Articles 1 to 11 shall remain effective for a further five years after the aforementioned dates.
