

THE REPUBLIC OF AUSTRIA AND THE FEDERAL DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF ETHIOPIA hereinafter referred to as "Contracting Parties",

DESIRING to create favourable conditions to the investments of investors of a Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party,

RECOGNISING that the promotion and protection of investments may strengthen the readiness for such investments and hereby make an important contribution to the development of economic relations,

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1. Definitions

For the purpose of this Agreement

(1) "investor of a Contracting Party" means:

(a) A natural person having the nationality of a Contracting Party in accordance with its applicable law, or

(b) An enterprise constituted or organised under the applicable law of a Contracting Party

Making or having made an investment in the other Contracting Party's territory.

(2) "investment by an investor of a Contracting Party" means every kind of asset in the territory of one Contracting Party, owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by an investor of the other Contracting Party, including:

(a) An enterprise constituted or organised under the applicable law of the first Contracting Party;

(b) Shares, stocks and other forms of equity participation in an enterprise as referred to in subparagraph (a), and rights derived therefrom; subparagraph (a), and rights derived therefrom;

(c) Bonds, debentures, loans and other forms of debt and rights derived therefrom;

(d) Any right whether conferred by law or contract, including turnkey contracts, concessions, licences, authorisations or permits to undertake an economic activity;

(e) Claims to money and claims to performance pursuant to a contract having an economic value;

(f) Intellectual property rights as defined in the multilateral agreements concluded under the auspices of the World Intellectual Property Organisation, including industrial property rights, copyrights, trademarks, patents, industrial designs and technical processes, know-how, trade secrets, trade names and goodwill;

(g) Any other tangible or intangible, movable or immovable property, or any related property rights, such as leases, mortgages, liens, pledges or usufructs.

Any alteration of the form in which assets are invested or reinvested shall not affect their character as an investment provided that such alteration is in accordance with the laws and regulations of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment was made.

(3) "enterprise" means a legal person or any entity constituted or organised under the applicable law of a Contracting Party whether private or government owned or controlled, including a corporation, trust, partnership, sole proprietorship, branch, joint venture or association.

(4) "returns" means the amounts yielded by an investment and, in particular, profits, interests, capital gains, dividends, royalties, licence fees and other fees.

(5) "territory" means with respect to each Contracting Party the land territory, internal waters and airspace where the Contracting Party exercises, in conformity with international law, sovereign rights and jurisdiction.

Article 2. Promotion and Admission of Investments

Each Contracting Party shall, within the framework of its laws and legislation, admit and encourage investments by investors of the other Contracting Party in its territory and shall create favourable conditions to such investments.

Article 3. Treatment of Investments

(1) Each Contracting Party shall accord to investments by investors of the other Contracting Party fair and equitable treatment and full and constant protection and security.

(2) A Contracting Party shall not impair by unreasonable or discriminatory measures the management, operation, maintenance, use, enjoyment, sale and liquidation of an investment by investors of the other Contracting Party.

(3) Each Contracting Party shall accord to investors of the other Contracting Party and to their investments treatment no less favourable than that it accords to its own investors and their investments or to investors of any third country and their investments with respect to the management, operation, maintenance, use, enjoyment, sale and liquidation of an investment, whichever is more favourable to the investor.

(4) No provision of this Agreement shall be construed as to oblige a Contracting Party to extend to the investors of the other Contracting Party and to their investments the present or future benefit of any treatment, preference or privilege resulting from:

(a) Any membership in a free trade area, customs union, common market, economic community or any multilateral agreement on investment;

(b) Any international agreement, international arrangement or domestic legislation regarding taxation.

Article 4. Transparency

(1) Each Contracting Party shall promptly publish or otherwise make publicly available its laws, regulations, procedures as well as international agreements which may affect the operation of the Agreement.

(2) Each Contracting Party shall promptly respond to specific questions and provide, upon request, information to the other Contracting Party on matters referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article.

(3) No Contracting Party shall be required to furnish or allow access to information concerning particular investors or investments the disclosure of which would impede law enforcement or would be contrary to its laws and regulations protecting confidentiality.

Article 5. Expropriation and Compensation

(1) A Contracting Party shall not expropriate or nationalise directly or indirectly an investment of an investor of the other Contracting Party or take any measures having equivalent effect (hereinafter referred to as "expropriation") except:

(a) For a purpose which is in the public interest,

(b) On a non-discriminatory basis,

(c) In accordance with due process of law, and

(d) Accompanied by payment of prompt, adequate and effective compensation in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article.

(2) Compensation shall:

(a) Be paid without delay.

(b) Be equivalent to the fair market value of the expropriated investment immediately before the expropriation occurred. The fair market value shall not reflect any change in value occurring because the expropriation had become publicly known earlier.

(c) Be paid and made freely transferable to the country designated by the claimants concerned and in the currency of the country of which the claimants are nationals or in any freely convertible widely used currency.

(c) Include interest at a commercial rate established on a market basis for the currency of payment from the date of expropriation until the date of actual payment.

(3) An investor of a Contracting Party who claims to be affected by expropriation by the other Contracting Party shall have the right to prompt review of his case, including the valuation of his investment and the payment of compensation in accordance with the provisions of this Article, by a judicial authority or another competent and independent authority of the latter Contracting Party.

Article 6. Compensation for Losses

(1) An investor of a Contracting Party who has suffered a loss relating to his investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party due to war or to other armed conflict, state of emergency, revolution, insurrection, civil disturbance, or any other similar event in the territory of the latter Contracting Party, shall be accorded by the latter Contracting Party, as regards restitution, indemnification, compensation or any other settlement, treatment no less favourable than that which it accords to its own investors or to investors of any third state, whichever is more favourable to the investor.

(2) An investor of a Contracting Party who in any of the events referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article suffers loss resulting from: paragraph (1) of this Article suffers loss resulting from:

(a) Requisitioning of his investment or part thereof by the forces or authorities of the other Contracting Party, or

(b) Destruction of his investment or part thereof by the forces or authorities of the other Contracting Party, which was not required by the necessity of the situation,

Shall in any case be accorded by the latter Contracting Party restitution or compensation which in either case shall be prompt, adequate and effective and, with respect to compensation, shall be in accordance with Article 5 (2) and (3).

Article 7. Transfers

(1) Each Contracting Party shall guarantee that all payments relating to an investment by an investor of the other Contracting Party may be freely transferred into and out of its territory without delay. Such transfers shall include, in particular:

(a) The initial capital and additional amounts to maintain or increase an investment;

(b) Returns;

(c) Payments made for the reimbursement of the credits for investments, and interest due;

(d) Proceeds from the sale or liquidation of all or any part of an investment;

(e) Payments of compensation under Articles 5 and 6; Articles 5 and 6;

(f) Payments arising out of the settlement of a dispute;

(g) Earnings and other remuneration of personnel engaged from abroad in connection with an investment.

(2) Each Contracting Party shall further guarantee that such transfers may be made in a freely convertible currency at the market rate of exchange prevailing on the date of transfer in the territory of the Contracting Party from which the transfer is made.

(3) In the absence of a market for foreign exchange, the rate to be used shall be the most recent exchange rate for conversion of currencies into Special Drawing Rights.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) to (3) of this Article, a Contracting Party may prevent a transfer through the equitable, non-discriminatory and good faith application of measures to protect the rights of creditors, relating to or ensuring compliance with laws and regulations on the issuing, trading and dealing in securities, futures and derivatives, reports or records of transfer, or in connection with criminal offences and orders or judgements in administrative and adjudicatory proceedings, provided that such measures and their application shall not be used as a means of avoiding the Contracting Party's commitments or obligations under this Agreement. paragraphs (1) to (3) of this Article, a Contracting Party may prevent a transfer through the equitable, non-discriminatory and good faith application of measures to protect the rights of creditors, relating to or ensuring compliance with laws and regulations on the issuing, trading and dealing in securities, futures and derivatives, reports or records of transfer, or in connection with criminal offences and orders or judgements in administrative and adjudicatory proceedings, provided that such measures and their application shall not be used as a means of avoiding the Contracting Party's commitments or obligations under this Agreement.

Article 8. Subrogation

If a Contracting Party or its designated agency makes a payment under an indemnity, guarantee or contract of insurance given in respect of an investment by an investor in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter Contracting Party shall recognise without prejudice to the rights of the investor under Chapter Two Part One of this Agreement the assignment of any right or claim of such investor to the former Contracting Party or its designated agency and the right of the former Contracting Party or its designated agency to exercise by virtue of subrogation any such right and claim to the same extent as its predecessor in title.

Article 9. Other Obligations

If the laws of either Contracting Party or obligations under international law existing at present or established hereafter between the Contracting Parties in addition to the present Agreement contain rules, whether general or specific, entitling investments by nationals or enterprises of the other Contracting Party to a treatment more favourable than is provided for by the present Agreement, such rules shall, to the extent that they are more favourable, prevail over the present Agreement.

Article 10. Denial of Benefits

A Contracting Party may deny the benefits of this Agreement to an investor of the other Contracting Party and to his investments, if investors of a Non-Contracting Party own or control the first mentioned investor and that investor has no substantial business activity in the territory of the Contracting Party under whose law it is constituted or organised.
