Article 20. Bilateral Safeguard Measures

1. Subject to the provisions of this Article, a Party may apply a bilateral safeguard measure, to the minimum extent necessary to prevent or remedy serious injury to its domestic industry and to facilitate adjustment thereof, if an originating product of the other Party, as a result of the elimination or reduction of a customs duty on imports in accordance with

Article 15, is being imported into the customs territory of the former Party in such increased quantities, in absolute terms or relative to domestic production, and under such conditions that the imports of that originating product constitute a substantial cause of serious injury, or threat of serious injury, to the domestic industry in the customs territory of the former Party.

2. A Party may, unless otherwise provided for in Annex I, as a bilateral safeguard measure:

(a) suspend the further reduction of the rate of customs duty on imports on the originating product of the other Party referred to in paragraph 1; or

(b) increase the rate of customs duty on imports on the originating product of the other Party referred to in paragraph 1 to a level not to exceed the lesser of:

(i) the most-favoured-nation applied rate of customs duty on imports in effect on the day when the bilateral safeguard measure is taken; and

(ii) the most-favoured-nation applied rate of customs duty on imports in effect on the day immediately preceding the date of entry into force of this Agreement.

3. A Party shall not apply a bilateral safeguard measure to originating products imported up to the limit of quota quantities granted under tariff rate quotas applied in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in its Schedule in Annex I.

4. A Party may apply a bilateral safeguard measure only after an investigation has been carried out by its competent authorities in accordance with the same procedures as provided for in Article 3 and paragraph 2 of Article 4 of the Agreement on Safeguards in Annex 1A to the WTO Agreement (hereinafter referred to as "the Agreement on Safeguards"). Such investigation shall in all cases be completed within one year following its date of initiation.

5. The following conditions and limitations shall apply with regard to a bilateral safeguard measure:

(a) A Party shall immediately make a written notice to the other Party upon:

(i) initiating an investigation referred to in paragraph 4 relating to serious injury, or threat of serious injury, and the reasons for it; and

(ii) taking a decision to apply or extend a bilateral safeguard measure.

(b) The Party making the written notice referred to in subparagraph (a) shall provide the other Party with all pertinent information in that notice, including:

(i) in respect of subparagraph (a)(i), in addition to the reason for the initiation of the investigation, a precise description of the originating product subject to the investigation and its subheading under the Harmonized System, the period to be covered by the investigation and the date of initiation of the investigation; and

(ii) in respect of subparagraph (a)(ii), evidence of serious injury or threat of serious injury caused by the increased imports of the originating product, a precise description of the originating product subject to the proposed bilateral safeguard measure and its subheading under the Harmonized System, a precise description of the proposed bilateral safeguard measure, and the proposed date of introduction and expected duration of the bilateral safeguard measure.

(c) A Party proposing to apply or extend a bilateral safeguard measure shall provide adequate opportunity for prior consultations with the other Party with a view to reviewing the information gained from the investigation referred to in paragraph 4, exchanging views on the bilateral safeguard measure and reaching an agreement on compensation provided for in paragraph 6. (d) No bilateral safeguard measure shall be maintained except to the extent and for such period of time as may be necessary to prevent or remedy serious injury and to facilitate adjustment, provided that such period of time does not exceed two years. However, in highly exceptional circumstances, a bilateral safeguard measure may be extended, provided that the total duration of the bilateral safeguard measure, including such extensions, does not exceed three years. In order to facilitate adjustment in a situation where the expected duration of a bilateral safeguard measure exceeds one year, the Party maintaining the bilateral safeguard measure shall progressively liberalise it at regular intervals during the period of application.

(e) No bilateral safeguard measure shall be applied again to the import of a particular originating product which has been subject to such a bilateral safeguard measure, for a period of time equal to the duration of the previous bilateral safeguard measure or one year, whichever is longer.

(f) Upon termination of a bilateral safeguard measure, the rate of customs duty on imports on the originating product concerned shall be the rate which would have been in effect but for the bilateral safeguard measure.

6. (a) A Party proposing to apply or extend a bilateral safeguard measure shall provide to the other Party mutually agreed adequate means of trade compensation in the form of concessions of customs duties on imports whose value is substantially equivalent to that of the additional customs duties on imports expected to result from the bilateral safeguard measure.

(b) If the Parties are unable to agree on compensation within 30 days after the commencement of consultations pursuant to subparagraph 5(c), the Party to whose originating product the bilateral safeguard measure is applied shall be free to suspend the application of concessions of customs duties on imports under this Chapter which are substantially equivalent to the bilateral safeguard measure. The Party exercising the right of suspension may suspend the application of concessions of customs duties on imports only for the minimum period necessary to achieve the substantially equivalent effects and only while the bilateral safeguard measure is maintained.

7. Each Party shall ensure the consistent, impartial and reasonable administration of its laws and regulations relating to bilateral safeguard measures.

8. In applying a bilateral safeguard measure, each Party shall follow equitable, timely, transparent and effective procedures.

9. (a) In critical circumstances, where delay would cause damage which it would be difficult to repair, a Party may apply a provisional bilateral safeguard measure, unless otherwise provided for in Annex I, which shall take the form of a measure set out in subparagraph 2(a) or 2(b), pursuant to a preliminary determination that there is clear evidence that increased imports of an originating product of the other Party have caused serious injury or threat of serious injury to a domestic industry in the customs territory of the former Party.

(b) A Party shall make a written notice to the other Party prior to applying a provisional bilateral safeguard measure referred to in subparagraph (a). Consultations between the Parties on the application of the provisional bilateral safeguard measure shall be initiated immediately after it is applied.

(c) The duration of the provisional bilateral safeguard measure referred to in subparagraph (a) shall not exceed 200 days. During that period, the pertinent requirements of paragraph 4 shall be met. The duration of the provisional bilateral safeguard measure shall be counted as a part of the period referred to in subparagraph 5(d).

(d) Subparagraph 5(f) and paragraphs 7 and 8 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the provisional bilateral safeguard measure referred to in subparagraph (a). The customs duty on imports imposed as a result of the provisional bilateral safeguard measure shall be refunded if the subsequent investigation referred to in paragraph 4 does not determine that increased imports of an originating product of the other Party have caused serious injury or threat of serious injury to a domestic industry.

10. A written notice referred to in subparagraphs 5(a) and 9(b) and any other communication between the Parties pursuant to this Article shall be made in the English language.

11. The Parties shall review the provisions of this Article, if necessary, ten years after the date of entry into force of this Agreement or thereafter.

2. The provisions of this Chapter shall not be so construed as to prevent either Party from conferring or according advantages to adjacent countries in order to facilitate exchanges limited to contiguous frontier zones of services that are both locally produced and consumed.

3. Treatment granted under other agreements concluded by a Party and notified under Article V or Article Vbis of the GATS shall not be subject to paragraph 1.

Note: This Article shall not be so construed as to require a Party to compensate for any inherent competitive disadvantage which results from the foreign character of the relevant services and service suppliers.
2. A Party may meet the requirement of paragraph 1 by according to services and service suppliers of the other Party, either formally identical treatment or formally different treatment to that it accords to its own like services and service suppliers.
3. Formally identical or formally different treatment shall be considered to be less favourable if it modifies the conditions of competition in favour of services or service suppliers of a Party compared to like services or service suppliers of the other Party.
4. A Party may not invoke this Article in dispute settlement procedures under Chapter 14 with respect to a measure of the other Party that falls within the scope of an international agreement between the Parties relating to the avoidance of double taxation.

Article 48. Domestic Regulation

1. Each Party shall ensure that all measures of general application affecting trade in services are administered in a reasonable, objective and impartial manner.
 2. Where authorisation is required by a Party for the supply of a service, the competent authorities of that Party shall, within a reasonable period of time after the submission of an application is considered complete under that Party's laws and regulations, inform the applicant of the decision concerning the application.  - (ii) is not more burdensome than necessary to ensure the quality of the service; and
 - (iii) in the case of licensing procedures and of verification procedures related to technical standards and to qualification requirements, is not in itself a restriction on the supply of the service.
 - (b) In determining whether a Party is in conformity with the obligation under subparagraph (a), account shall be taken of international standards of relevant international organisations applied by that Party.
- Note: "Relevant international organisations" refers to international bodies whose membership is open to the relevant bodies of both Parties.

6. Each Party shall maintain or institute as soon as practicable judicial, arbitral or administrative tribunals or procedures which provide, at the request of an affected service supplier of the other Party, for the prompt review of, and where justified, appropriate remedies for, administrative decisions affecting trade in services. Where such procedures are not independent of the agency entrusted with the administrative decision concerned, the Party shall ensure that the procedures in fact provide for an objective and impartial review.

7. The Parties shall jointly review the results of the negotiations provided for in paragraph 4 of Article VI of the GATS with a view to incorporating into this Chapter, as appropriate, any disciplines agreed in such negotiations.

Article 49. Recognition

1. For the purposes of the fulfilment, in whole or in part, of its relevant standards or criteria for the authorisation, licensing or certification of service suppliers, each Party shall give due consideration to any requests by the other Party to recognise the education or experience obtained, requirements met, or licences or certifications granted, in that other Party. Such recognition may be based upon an agreement or arrangement with that other Party, or be accorded autonomously.

2. Where a Party recognises, by an agreement or arrangement, the education or experience obtained, requirements met, or licences or certifications granted, in a non-Party, it shall afford the other Party adequate opportunity to negotiate its accession to such an agreement or arrangement, whether existing or future, or to negotiate a comparable agreement or arrangement with it. Where a Party accords recognition autonomously, it shall afford adequate opportunity for the other Party to demonstrate that the education or experience obtained, requirements met, or licences or certifications granted, in the other Party should also be recognised.

3. A Party shall not accord recognition in a manner which would constitute a means of discrimination between countries in the application of its standards or criteria for the authorisation, licensing or certification of service suppliers, or a disguised restriction on trade in services.

Article 50. Movement of Natural Persons

1. This Article shall apply to measures affecting natural persons who are service suppliers of a Party, and natural persons of a Party who are employed by a service supplier of a Party, in respect of the supply of a service.

2. This Chapter shall not apply to measures affecting natural persons seeking access to the employment market of a Party, nor shall it apply to measures regarding nationality or citizenship, residence or employment on a permanent basis.

4. For the purposes of this Chapter, paragraph 3 of Article 62 shall apply, mutatis mutandis.

Article 51. Monopolies and Exclusive Service Suppliers

1. A Party shall ensure that any monopoly supplier of a service in its Area does not, in the supply of the monopoly service in the relevant market, act in a manner inconsistent with that Party's obligations under Articles 45 to 47.

2. Where a Party's monopoly supplier competes, either directly or through an affiliated company, in the supply of a service outside the scope of its monopoly rights, that Party shall ensure that such a supplier does not abuse its monopoly position to act in its Area in a manner inconsistent with that Party's obligations under Articles 46 and 47.

3. This Article shall also apply to cases of exclusive service suppliers, where a Party, formally or in effect:

(a) authorises or establishes a small number of service suppliers; and

(b) substantially prevents competition among those suppliers in its Area.

Article 52. Business Practices

1. The Parties recognise that certain business practices of service suppliers, other than those falling under Article 51, may restrain competition and thereby restrict trade in services.

2. Without prejudice to Chapter 10, a Party shall, at the request of the other Party, enter into consultations with a view to eliminating practices referred to in paragraph 1. The Party addressed shall accord full and sympathetic consideration to such a request and shall cooperate through the supply of publicly available non-confidential information of relevance to the matter in question. The Party addressed shall also provide other information available to the requesting Party, subject to its law and to the conclusion of a satisfactory agreement concerning the safeguarding of its confidentiality by the requesting Party.

Article 53. Payments and Transfers

1. Except under the circumstances envisaged in Article 54, a Party shall not apply restrictions on international transfers and payments for current transactions and capital transactions relating to trade in services.
2. Nothing in this Chapter shall affect the rights and obligations of the Parties as members of the International Monetary Fund under the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund, including the use of exchange actions which are in conformity with the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund, provided that a Party shall not impose restrictions on any capital transactions inconsistently with the obligations under this Chapter regarding such transactions, except under Article 54, or at the request of the International Monetary Fund.

Article 54. Restrictions to Safeguard the Balance of Payments

1. The Parties endeavour to avoid the imposition of restrictions to safeguard the balance of payments.
2. In the event of serious balance-of-payments and external financial difficulties or threat thereof, a Party may adopt or maintain restrictions on trade in services, including on payments or transfers for transactions.
3. The restrictions adopted or maintained by a Party referred to in paragraph 2:
 - (a) shall ensure that the other Party is treated as favourably as any non-Party;
 - (b) shall be consistent with the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund;
 - (c) shall avoid unnecessary damage to the commercial, economic and financial interests of the other Party; (d) shall not exceed those necessary to deal with the circumstances described in paragraph 2; and (e) shall be temporary and be phased out progressively as the situation specified in paragraph 2 improves.
4. In determining the incidence of such restrictions, a Party may give priority to the supply of services which are more essential to its economic programme. However, such restrictions shall not be adopted or maintained for the purposes of protecting a particular service sector.
5. Any restrictions adopted or maintained by a Party under paragraph 2, or any changes therein, shall be promptly notified to the other Party.

Article 55. General Exceptions

- Subject to the requirement that such measures are not applied in a manner which would constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination between countries where like conditions prevail, or a disguised restriction on trade in services, nothing in this Chapter shall be so construed as to prevent the adoption or enforcement by either Party of measures:
- (a) necessary to protect public morals or maintain public order; Note: The public order exception may be invoked only where a genuine and sufficiently serious threat is posed to one of the fundamental interests of society.
 - (b) necessary to protect human, animal or plant life or health;
 - (c) necessary to secure compliance with laws or regulations of the Party which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Chapter including those relating to:
 - (i) the prevention of deceptive and fraudulent practices or to deal with the effects of a default on services contracts;
 - (ii) the protection of the privacy of individuals in relation to the processing and dissemination of personal data and the protection of confidentiality of individual records and accounts; and
 - (iii) safety;
 - (d) inconsistent with Article 47, provided that the difference in treatment is aimed at ensuring the equitable or effective imposition or collection of direct taxes in respect of services or service suppliers of the other Party; Note: Measures that are aimed at ensuring the equitable or effective imposition or collection of direct taxes include measures taken by a Party under its taxation system which:
 - (i) apply to non-resident service suppliers in recognition of the fact that the tax obligation of non-residents is determined with respect to taxable items sourced or located in the Area of the Party;
 - (ii) apply to non-residents in order to ensure the imposition or collection of taxes in the Area of the Party;
 - (iii) apply to non-residents or residents in order to prevent the avoidance or evasion of taxes, including compliance measures;
 - (iv) apply to consumers of services supplied in or from the Area of the other Party in order to ensure the imposition or collection of taxes on such consumers derived from sources in the Area of the Party;
 - (v) distinguish service suppliers subject to tax on worldwide taxable items from other service suppliers, in recognition of the difference in the nature of the tax base between them; or
 - (vi) determine, allocate or apportion income, profit, gain, loss, deduction or credit of resident persons or branches, or between related persons or branches of the same person, in order to safeguard the Party's tax base. Tax terms or concepts in this paragraph and this Note are determined according to tax definitions and concepts, or equivalent or similar definitions and concepts, under the law of the Party taking the measure.

(e) inconsistent with Article 45, provided that the difference in treatment is the result of an agreement on the avoidance of double taxation or provisions on the avoidance of double taxation in any other international agreement or arrangement by which the Party is bound.

Article 56. Security Exceptions

Nothing in this Chapter shall be so construed as:

- (a) to require either Party to furnish any information, the disclosure of which it considers contrary to its essential security interests;
- (b) to prevent either Party from taking any action which it considers necessary for the protection of its essential security interests:
 - (i) relating to the supply of services as carried out directly or indirectly for the purpose of provisioning a military establishment;
 - (ii) relating to fissionable and fusionable materials or the materials from which they are derived;

Article 57. Lists of Reservations

1. The List of Reservations of the Parties referred to in Articles 45 to 47 shall be set out in Annex III.
2. The List of Reservations of a Party set out in Annex III provides for:
 - (a) existing measures that the Party may maintain, renew at any time or modify without reducing their level of conformity with Articles 45 to 47; and
 - (b) measures that the Party may adopt, maintain or modify.

Article 58. Modification of Lists of Reservations

1. A Party shall notify to the other Party its intention to modify its List of Reservations set out in Annex III. Upon written request of the other Party within 30 days from the receipt of the notification, the Parties shall hold consultations on any necessary compensatory adjustment with the aim to ensure that the general level of mutually advantageous commitments under this Chapter is not reduced. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement on compensation within 60 days after the receipt of the request for consultations, the Party receiving the notification may refer the matter to arbitration by an arbitral tribunal established following the same procedures as provided for in paragraphs 3 to 7 of Article 141. Such an arbitral tribunal shall present its findings as to the ways to ensure that the general level of mutually advantageous commitments under this Chapter is not reduced. Article 143 shall apply to the proceedings of such an arbitral tribunal mutatis mutandis.
2. If no consultations are requested, or once the Party which made the notification under paragraph 1 has made compensatory adjustments as agreed upon by the Parties or in conformity with the outcome of arbitration, the modification shall be incorporated into Annex III in accordance with the procedures set out in Article 152.
3. If a compensatory adjustment has been made by a Party to the benefit of the other Party as an "affected Member" in accordance with Article XXI of the GATS with regard to the same modification as intended for the List of Reservations of the former Party set out in Annex III, the Parties shall be deemed to have reached an agreement on compensation referred to in paragraph 1 with the same conclusion as agreed in the said compensatory adjustment.

Article 59. Transparency

1. Each Party shall publish promptly and, except in emergency situations, at the latest by the time of their entry into force, all relevant measures of general application which pertain to or affect the operation of this Chapter. With the objective of further liberalising trade in services between them, the Parties shall review at least every two years, or more frequently if so agreed, their Lists of Reservations set out in Annex III. The first such review shall take place not later than two years after the entry into force of this Agreement.
2. If, after the entry into force of this Agreement, a Party further liberalises autonomously any of its services sectors, sub-sectors or activities, it shall consider any requests by the other Party for the incorporation into this Agreement of such autonomous liberalisation.

2. This Chapter shall not apply to measures affecting natural persons of a Party seeking access to the employment market of the other Party, nor shall it apply to measures regarding nationality or citizenship, residence or employment on a permanent basis.
3. This Chapter shall not prevent a Party from applying measures to regulate the entry of natural persons of the other Party into, or their temporary stay in, the former Party, including measures necessary to protect the integrity of, and to ensure the orderly movement of natural persons across, its borders, provided that such measures are not applied in such a manner as to nullify or impair the benefits accruing to the other Party under the terms of the specific commitments set out in Annex VIII. Note: The sole fact of requiring a visa for natural persons of a certain nationality and not for those of others shall not be regarded as nullifying or impairing benefits under the terms of the specific commitments.

Article 63. General Principles

1. This Chapter reflects the preferential trading relationship between the Parties, the desire of the Parties to facilitate the movement of natural persons on a mutually beneficial basis and to establish transparent criteria and procedures for the movement of natural persons, and the need to ensure border security and to protect the domestic labour force and permanent employment in either Party.

3. Upon request by the applicant, the competent authorities of a Party shall endeavour to provide, without undue delay, information concerning the status of the application.

4. After a decision has been taken, the competent authorities of a Party shall endeavour to notify without undue delay the applicant for entry and temporary stay or, where applicable, work permit or certificate of eligibility, of the outcome of the application. The notification shall include the period of stay and any other conditions.

Section CHAPTER 8. Electronic Commerce

Article 70. Scope

Article 71. General Provisions

1. The Parties recognise the economic growth and opportunity provided by the increasing use of electronic commerce in trade in goods and services, among others, in particular for businesses and consumers, the importance of avoiding barriers to its use and development and the need to create an environment of trust and confidence in its use.

2. The Parties recognise the principle of technological neutrality in the sense that any provisions related to trade in services do not distinguish between the different technological means through which a service may be supplied.

3. In the event of any inconsistency between this Chapter and Chapter 2, 6, 9 or 11, the Chapter other than this Chapter shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

4. This Chapter shall not apply to: (a) government procurement; (b) subsidies as defined in the Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures in Annex 1A to the WTO Agreement; and (c) taxation measures.

Article 72. Definitions

Article 73. Non-discriminatory Treatment of Digital Products

1. Unless otherwise specified in its List of Reservations referred to in Articles 57 and 90, which shall apply mutatis mutandis, each Party shall:

(a) not adopt measures that accord less favourable treatment to digital products of the other Party than it accords to its own like digital products. When a Party identifies a measure of such nature that has been adopted before the entry into force of this Agreement and is maintained by the other Party, that other Party shall endeavour to eliminate it; and

(b) not adopt or maintain measures that accord less favourable treatment to digital products of the other Party than it accords to like digital products of a non-Party.

2. In implementing its obligations under paragraph 1, each Party shall, in good faith, determine whether a digital product is a digital product of a Party, of the other Party or of a non-Party. Such determination shall be made in a transparent, objective, reasonable and fair manner. 3. Each Party shall, upon request by the other Party, explain how it determines the origin of a digital product in implementing its obligations under paragraph 1.

2. The amount of compensation shall be equivalent to the fair market value of the expropriated investment at the time when the expropriation was publicly announced or when it occurred, whichever is the earlier. The fair market value shall not reflect any change in market value occurring because the expropriation had become publicly known earlier.

3. The compensation shall be paid without delay and shall include interest at a commercial rate established on a market basis, taking into account the length of time from the date of expropriation to the date of payment. It shall be effectively realisable, freely transferable and freely convertible at the market exchange rate prevailing on the date of expropriation into freely convertible currencies.

Article 94. Settlement of Investment Disputes between an Investor and a Party

1. For the purposes of this Chapter, "investment dispute" means a dispute between a Party and an investor of the other Party that has incurred loss or damage by reason of, or arising out of, an alleged breach by the former Party of any obligation under this Chapter with respect to the investor or its investment. This Article shall not apply to disputes arising out of events which occurred prior to the entry into force of this Agreement.
 2. Any investment dispute shall, as far as possible, be settled amicably through consultations between the investor and the disputing Party (hereinafter collectively referred to in this Article as "the disputing parties") at the request of the investor.
 3. If the investment dispute cannot be settled through consultations within six months from the date on which the disputing investor requested such consultations in writing, the disputing investor may submit the investment dispute to international conciliation or arbitration at the following institutions or under the following rules:
 - (a) the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (hereinafter referred to in this Article as "ICSID") established by the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States done at Washington, on 18 March 1965;
 - (b) the Additional Facility Rules of ICSID, provided that either Party, but not both, is a party to the ICSID Convention; or

 4. Each Party hereby gives its consent to the submission of an investment dispute by a disputing investor to international conciliation or arbitration referred to in paragraph 3 regarding an investment made.
 5. Notwithstanding paragraph 4, no investment dispute may be submitted to conciliation or arbitration under paragraph 3, if more than five years have elapsed since the date on which the disputing investor acquired or should have first acquired, whichever is the earlier, knowledge of the incurred loss or damage referred to in paragraph 1.
 6. A disputing investor may submit the investment dispute to international conciliation or arbitration if:
 - (a) the disputing investor has not initiated any proceedings for the resolution of the investment dispute before courts of justice or administrative tribunals or agencies of the disputing Party; or
 - (b) where the disputing investor has initiated any proceedings for the resolution of the investment dispute before courts of justice or administrative tribunals or agencies of the disputing Party, the disputing investor withdraws the investment dispute from such proceedings.
- For the purpose of withdrawal, a written waiver shall be included in the written request for conciliation or arbitration by which the disputing investor waives any right to initiate or continue before any courts of justice or administrative tribunals or agencies under the law of either Party, any proceeding with respect to any alleged breach of this Chapter. It is understood that a disputing investor may initiate or continue an action that seeks interim injunctive relief and does not involve the payment of monetary damages before a judicial or administrative tribunal of the disputing Party, provided that the action is brought for the sole purpose of preserving the disputing investor's rights and interests while the conciliation or arbitration is pending.
7. Unless the disputing parties agree otherwise, the arbitration shall be held in a country that is a party to the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards, done at New York on 10 June 1958.
 8. The arbitral tribunal shall decide the investment dispute in accordance with this Chapter and applicable rules of international law.
- Where the investment dispute includes a claim based on paragraph 2 of Article 86, the arbitral tribunal shall decide on that claim in accordance with this Chapter and the following:
- (a) the rules of law specified in the pertinent investment contract, or other rules of law the disputing parties may agree upon; or (b) in the absence of rules of law referred to in subparagraph (a):
 - (i) such rules of international law as may be applicable; and
 - (ii) the law of the respondent, including its rules on the conflict of laws.
9. The disputing Party shall notify the other Party in writing of the investment dispute submitted to international conciliation or arbitration no later than 30 days after the date on which it was submitted, and provide that other Party with copies of all pleadings filed in the arbitration.
 10. Upon written notice to the disputing parties, the Party which is not the disputing Party may make submissions to the arbitral tribunal on a question of interpretation of this Chapter.
 11. The disputing Party may not assert as a defence its immunity or the fact that the disputing investor has received or will receive, by virtue of an insurance contract, guarantee or indemnity, a compensation covering, in whole or in part, the incurred loss or damage.
 12. Neither Party shall give diplomatic protection, or bring an international claim, in respect of an investment dispute submitted to international arbitration, unless the disputing Party has failed to abide by and comply with the award rendered. Diplomatic protection, for the purposes of this paragraph, shall not include informal diplomatic exchanges for the sole purpose of facilitating a settlement of the investment dispute.

13. The decision of arbitration shall be final and binding upon the disputing parties and shall be executed without delay in accordance with the law of the disputing Party.

2. The details and procedures of cooperation under this Article shall be specified in Chapter 3 of the Implementing Agreement.

Article 105. Consultations

5. Each Party shall ensure that the author has the right, independently of the author's economic rights, and even after the transfer of the said rights, to claim authorship of the work and to object to any distortion, mutilation or other modification of, or other derogatory action in relation to, the said work, which would be prejudicial to his or her honour or reputation.

4. Each Party shall ensure that the owner of a registered trademark has the exclusive right to prevent all third parties not having the owner's consent from using in the course of trade identical or similar signs for products or services which are identical or similar to those in respect of which the trademark is registered, where such use would result in a likelihood of confusion. For the purposes of this paragraph, "using" such sign includes, at least, importing and exporting products or packages of products to which the sign is affixed.

5. Paragraph 4 shall also apply if only small quantities of products are imported or exported, as long as the import or export constitutes an infringement of the right conferred by a registered trademark under the laws and regulations of a Party. In case of the use of an identical sign for identical products or services, a likelihood of confusion shall be presumed. The rights described in paragraph 4 shall not prejudice any existing prior rights, nor shall they affect the possibility of the Parties making rights available on the basis of use.

2. Each Party shall ensure that the owner of a protected industrial design has the right to prevent third parties not having the owner's consent from making, selling, importing or exporting articles bearing or embodying a design which is a copy, or substantially a copy, of the protected design when such acts are undertaken for commercial purposes.

3. Paragraph 2 shall also apply if only small quantities of products are imported or exported, as long as the import or export constitutes an infringement of the right conferred by the protected industrial design under the laws and regulations of a Party.

Subject to paragraphs 2 and 3, patents shall be available for any inventions, whether products or processes, in all fields of technology, including in the field of biotechnology, provided that they are new, involve an inventive step and are capable of industrial application. Subject to paragraph 3, patents shall be available and patent rights enjoyable without discrimination as to the place of invention, the field of technology and whether products are imported or locally produced.

2. Each Party may exclude from patentability inventions, the prevention of the commercial exploitation of which within the Party is necessary to protect ordre public or morality, including to protect human, animal or plant life or health or to avoid serious prejudice to the environment, provided that such exclusion is not made merely because the exploitation is prohibited by its law.

3. Each Party may also exclude from patentability:

(a) diagnostic, therapeutic and surgical methods for the treatment of humans or animals, with the exception of products consisting of a substance or a composition for use in any such method; and

(b) plant and animal varieties other than microorganisms, and essentially biological processes for the production of plants or animals other than non-biological and microbiological processes.

(b) where the subject matter of a patent is a process, to prevent third parties not having the owner's consent from using the process, and from using, offering for sale, selling, importing for these purposes or exporting at least the product obtained directly by that process.

5. With respect to the patent which is granted for an invention related to pharmaceuticals or plant protection products, each Party shall, subject to the terms and conditions of its applicable laws and regulations, provide for a compensatory term of protection for any period during which the patented invention cannot be worked due to marketing approval process.

(i) for Japan, equal to the length of extension which the patentee requests, provided that the compensatory term of protection shall not exceed either the length of time during which the patented invention cannot be worked due to marketing approval processes, or a maximum term as provided for in the laws and regulations of Japan. As of the date of entry into force of this Agreement, such maximum term is stipulated as being five years by the relevant law of Japan; and

(ii) for Switzerland, equal to the period which elapsed between the filing date of the patent application and the date of the marketing approval of the product, reduced by a period of five years. The maximum compensatory term shall be at least five years.

(iii) any use of a geographical indication identifying wines for wines or identifying spirits for spirits not originating in the place indicated by the geographical indication in question. Note: Nothing in this Article shall be so construed as to derogate from any obligation of a Party under subparagraph (iii). The Parties may, with respect to subparagraph (iii), provide for enforcement by administrative action instead of judicial procedures.

This subparagraph shall also apply to cases where a graphical symbol referring to a geographical place of a Party is used on a product or service in a manner, as prescribed in applicable laws and regulations of the Party, that misleads the public.

(e) (i) Each Party shall ensure that the registration of a trademark which contains or consists of a geographical indication, with respect to products not originating in the territory indicated, is refused or invalidated ex officio if the legislation of the Party so permits or at the request of an interested party, if the use of the indication in the trademark of such products in the Party corresponds to a situation referred to in subparagraph (a)(i), (a)(iii), or (d) insofar as subparagraph (a)(i) or (a)(iii) is applicable.

(ii) Each Party shall ensure that the registration of a trademark which contains or consists of an indication of service, the country name of either Party, or the name of a canton of Switzerland, the use of which corresponds to a situation referred to in subparagraph (b), (c), or (d) insofar as subparagraph (b) or (c) is applicable, is refused or invalidated ex officio if the legislation of the Party so permits or at the request of an interested party, where the trademark misleads the public in a manner as prescribed in the applicable laws and regulations of the Party.

(f) The protection afforded by this Article shall also apply in cases where products originating in a Party are destined for exportation.

A Party may request in writing consultations with the other Party if it considers that a measure applied by that other Party is inconsistent with this Agreement or that any benefit accruing to it directly or indirectly under this Agreement is impaired or nullified by such measure.  - (a) if the Party complained against does not enter into such consultations within 30 days, or within 15 days in case of a matter concerning perishable products, after the date of receipt of the request for consultations under that Article; or

(b) if the Parties fail to resolve the matter through such consultations under that Article within 60 days after the date of receipt of the request for such consultations.

4. Each Party shall, within 30 days after the date of receipt of the request for the establishment of an arbitral tribunal, appoint one arbitrator who may be its national and propose up to three candidates to serve as the third arbitrator who shall be the chair of the arbitral tribunal. The third arbitrator shall not be a national of either Party, nor have his or her usual place of residence in either Party, nor be employed by either Party, nor have dealt with the dispute in any capacity.

Unless the Parties have agreed otherwise, the arbitral tribunal shall decide on whether its proceedings are to be held in Japan or Switzerland, and the complaining Party shall provide the secretariat services. The language of the proceedings and the documents submitted to and produced by the tribunal, including the award, shall be English.

2. The arbitral tribunal shall meet in closed session. Hearings shall be open to the public, unless either Party objects.

3. The deliberations of the arbitral tribunal, the documents submitted to it and the draft award referred to in paragraph 8 shall be kept confidential.

4. Notwithstanding paragraph 3, either Party may make public statements as to its views regarding the dispute, but shall treat as confidential, information provided and written submissions made by the other Party to the arbitral tribunal which that other Party has designated as confidential. Where a Party has provided information or made written submissions designated to be confidential, that Party shall, upon request of the other Party, provide a non-confidential summary of the information or written submissions which may be disclosed publicly.

5. Each Party has the right to at least one hearing before the arbitral tribunal as well as the opportunity to provide initial and rebuttal written submissions. The arbitral tribunal may seek from the Parties such relevant information as it considers necessary and appropriate. The Parties shall respond promptly and fully to any request by an arbitral tribunal for such information.

6. The arbitral tribunal may seek information from any relevant source and may consult experts to obtain their opinion on certain aspects of the matter.

7. The Parties shall be given the opportunity to attend any of the presentations, statements or rebuttals in the proceeding. Any information provided or written submissions made by a Party to the arbitral tribunal, including any comments on the descriptive part of the draft award and responses to questions put by the arbitral tribunal, shall be made available to the other Party.

8. The arbitral tribunal shall, within 90 days after the date of its establishment, submit to the Parties its draft award, including both the descriptive part and its findings and conclusions, for the purpose of enabling the Parties to review it. When the arbitral tribunal considers that it cannot submit to the Parties its draft award within the afore-mentioned 90 days period, it may extend that period with the consent of the Parties. A Party may submit comments in writing to the arbitral

2. The Parties may agree to terminate the proceedings of the arbitral tribunal at any time before the issuance of the award to the Parties by jointly so notifying the chair of the arbitral tribunal.

Article 145. Implementation of Award

1. The Party complained against shall promptly comply with the award issued by the arbitral tribunal pursuant to Article 143.

2. The Party complained against shall, within 20 days after the date of issuance of the award, notify the complaining Party of the means and the period of time for implementing the award, taking into account, if applicable, the implementation options attached to the award. If the complaining Party considers the notified means or period of time to be unacceptable, it may request the Party complained against to hold consultations with a view to reaching a mutually satisfactory solution on the matter. If no such solution has been agreed upon within 20 days after the date of receipt of the request, the complaining Party may refer the matter to an arbitral tribunal, which then shall determine a reasonable means or period of time for implementing the award. The determination of the arbitral tribunal shall be presented within 15 days from the referral of the matter to the arbitral tribunal.

3. If the Party complained against considers it impracticable to comply with the award, it shall notify the complaining Party accordingly within 20 days after the issuance of the award and enter into consultations, with a view to agreeing on mutually satisfactory compensation. If no such compensation has been agreed upon within 20 days after the date of the notification, the complaining Party may notify the Party complained against that it intends to suspend the application of concessions or other obligations under this Agreement.

4. If the Party complained against has failed to notify the means and the period of time for implementing the award pursuant to paragraph 2 or if the complaining Party considers that the Party complained against has failed to comply with the award within the implementation period as specified pursuant to paragraph 2, the complaining Party may notify the Party complained against that it intends to suspend the application of concessions or other obligations under this Agreement.

5. The notification pursuant to paragraph 3 or 4 shall indicate when the suspension of the application of concessions or other obligations under this Agreement shall commence and the application of what concessions or other obligations under this Agreement is to be suspended.

(b) not be effected if, in respect of the dispute to which the suspension relates, consultations or proceedings before an arbitral tribunal are in progress;

(c) be restricted to benefits equivalent to the level of failure to comply with the award; and

(d) be restricted to the same sector or sectors to which the inconsistency with the provisions of, or the nullification or impairment of a benefit under, this Agreement relates, unless it is not practicable or effective to suspend the application of concessions or other obligations in such sector or sectors.

6. If the Party complained against considers that the requirements for the suspension of the application of concessions or other obligations under this Agreement by the complaining Party set out in paragraph 5 have not been met, it may request consultations with the complaining Party within ten days after the receipt of the notification in accordance with paragraph 3 or 4. The complaining Party shall enter into consultations within ten days after the date of receipt of the request. If the Parties fail to resolve the matter within 30 days after the date of receipt of the request for consultations pursuant to this paragraph, the Party complained against may refer the matter to an arbitral tribunal. The ruling of the arbitral tribunal shall be given within 15 days from that referral. Application of concessions or other obligations under this Agreement shall not be suspended until the arbitral tribunal has issued its ruling.

7. The suspension of the application of concessions or other obligations under this Agreement following notification pursuant to paragraph 3 or 4 shall be discontinued when the Parties reach a mutually satisfactory resolution or where compliance with the award is effected.

8. A Party may request an arbitral tribunal to rule on the conformity with the award of any implementing measures adopted after the suspension of the application of concessions or other obligations under this Agreement and, in light of such ruling, whether the suspension should be terminated or modified. The ruling of the arbitral tribunal shall be given within 15 days from the date of such request.

9. The arbitral tribunal under this Article shall, wherever possible, be composed of the arbitrators of the original arbitral tribunal. If any of the arbitrators is not available, that arbitrator shall be replaced by an arbitrator appointed pursuant to paragraphs 4 to 6 of Article 141.

Article 146. Expenses
