

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF FINLAND AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA ON THE ENCOURAGEMENT AND RECIPROCAL PROTECTION OF INVESTMENTS

The Government of the Republic of Finland and the Government of the People's Republic of China (hereinafter referred to as the Contracting Parties),

INTENDING to create favourable conditions for investment by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party;

RECOGNISING that the encouragement and reciprocal protection of such investment will be conducive to stimulating business initiative of investors and to increasing prosperity in both States;

DESIRING to intensify the co-operation of both States on the basis of equality and mutual benefits;

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1. Definitions

For the purpose of this Agreement,

1. The term "investment" means every kind of asset invested by investors of one Contracting Party in accordance with the laws and regulations of the other Contracting Party in the territory of the latter, and in particular, though not exclusively, includes:

- (a) Movable and immovable property and other property rights such as mortgages and pledges;
- (b) Shares, debentures, stock and any other kind of participation in companies;
- (c) Claims to money or to any other performance having an economic value associated with an investment;
- (d) Intellectual property rights, in particular copyrights, patents, trade-marks, trade-names, trade and business secrets, technological processes, know-how and good-will;
- (e) Business concessions conferred by law or under contract permitted by law, including concessions to search for, cultivate, extract or exploit natural resources.

Any change in the form in which assets are invested does not affect their character as investments.

Reinvested returns shall enjoy the same treatment as the original investment.

2. The term "investor" means,

- (a) Any natural person who is a national of either Contracting Party in accordance with the laws of that Contracting Party;
- (b) Any legal entity, including a company, corporation, firm, association, partnership or other organisation, incorporated or constituted under the laws and regulations of either Contracting Party and having its registered office in that Contracting Party, irrespective of whether or not for profit and whether its liabilities are limited or not.

3. The term "return" means the amounts yielded from an investment, including profits, dividends, interest, capital gains, royalties, payments in kind and any other legitimate income related to an investment.

4. The term "territory" means the territory of either Contracting Party, including the land area, internal waters and territorial sea and the airspace above them under the sovereignty of that Contracting Party, as well as any maritime area beyond the territorial sea of that Contracting Party, over which that Contracting Party exercises sovereign rights or jurisdiction in accordance with domestic and international law.

Article 2. Promotion and Protection of Investments

1. Each Contracting Party shall encourage investors of the other Contracting Party to make investments in its territory and admit such investments in accordance with its laws and regulations.
2. Investments of the investors of either Contracting Party shall enjoy constant protection and security in the territory of the other Contracting Party.
3. Neither Contracting Party shall take any unreasonable or discriminatory measures against the management, maintenance, use, enjoyment, expansion, sale or disposal of investments that have been made by investors of the other Contracting Party.

Article 3. Treatment of Investments

1. Investments by the investors of each Contracting Party shall all the time be accorded fair and equitable treatment in the territory of the other Contracting Party.
2. Each Contracting Party shall accord to investments by investors of the other Contracting Party treatment no less favourable than the treatment it accords to investments by its own investors with respect to the operation, management, maintenance, use enjoyment, expansion, sale or other disposal of investments that have been made.
3. Each Contracting Party shall accord to investments by investors of the other Contracting Party treatment no less favourable than treatment it accords to investments by investors of any third State, with respect to the establishment, acquisition, operation, management, maintenance, use, enjoyment, expansion, sale or other disposal of investments. Further, neither Contracting Party shall impose unreasonable or discriminatory measures on investments by investors of the other Contracting Party concerning local content or export performance requirements.
4. Each Contracting Party shall accord to investments by the investors of the other Contracting Party the treatment, which according to the investor is the more favourable of those stipulated in paragraph 2 and paragraph 3 of this Article.paragraph 2 and paragraph 3 of this Article.
5. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as preventing a Contracting Party from taking any action necessary for the protection of its essential security interests in time of war or armed conflict, or other emergency in international relations.
6. Provided that such measures are not applied in a manner which would constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination by a Contracting Party, or a disguised investment restriction, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as preventing the Contracting Parties from taking any measures necessary for the maintenance of public order.
7. The provisions of paragraphs 1 to 3 of this Article shall not be construed so as to oblige one Contracting party to extend to the investors of the other Contracting Party the benefit of any treatment, preference or privilege by virtue of:paragraphs 1 to 3 of this Article shall not be construed so as to oblige one Contracting party to extend to the investors of the other Contracting Party the benefit of any treatment, preference or privilege by virtue of:
