Article 3. Encouragement of Investments

1. Each Party shall accord to the investors of the other Party treatment no less favorable than that it accords, in like circumstances, to its own investors with respect to the establishment, acquisition, expansion, management, conduct, operation, and sale or other disposition of investments in its territory.

2. Each Contracting Party shall endeavor in its territory to the necessary measures as may be applicable for granting of appropriate facilities, incentives and other forms of encouragement for investments made by investors of the other Contracting Party.

3. The Contracting Parties according to their domestic law and regulations shall allow the employment of the top managerial staff of related investment.

4. Notwithstanding to the paragraph 3 of this Article, the top managerial staff should obtain prior written approval of the host Contracting Party, in accordance to the national legislation.

Article 4. Protection of Investments

1. Investments made by investors of either Contracting Party shall enjoy full protection and security in the territory of the other Contracting Party in a manner consistent with the provisions of domestic laws of the host Contracting Party. Neither Contracting Party shall in any way impair by arbitrary or discriminatory measures, the management, maintenance, use, enjoyment, or disposal of investments.

2. Each Contracting Party shall endeavor to make public all laws, regulations, policies and procedures that pertain to or directly affect investments in its territory of investors of the other Contracting Party.

3. Once established, investment shall not be subjected in the host Contracting Party to additional performance requirements which may hinder or restrict the management, maintenance, use enjoyment or disposal of investments unless such requirements are deemed vital for reasons of public order, public health or environmental concerns and are enforced by law of general application.

4. Each Contracting Party shall maintain a favorable environment for investments in its territory by investors of the other Contracting Party. Each Contracting Party shall in accordance with its applicable laws and regulations ensure to investors of the other Contracting Party, the right of access to its courts of justice, administrative tribunals and agencies, and all other bodies exercising adjudicatory authority.

5. In case of liquidations of an investment, the proceeds from liquidation shall be accorded the same forms of protection and treatment as the initial investment, including those accorded by virtue of Article 5 hereunder.

Article 5. Treatment of Investments

1. Each Contracting Party shall at all time ensure investments made in its territory by investors of the other Contracting Party, fair and equitable treatment. Such treatment shall not be less favorable than that which it accords to investments of its own investors or investors of any third Party, whichever is the most favorable.

2. Each Contracting Party shall accord to investors of the other Contracting Party as regards compensation, transfers, management, use, enjoyment or disposal of their investments treatment no less favorable than that which it accords to investments by its own investors or by investors of any third Party, whichever is the most favorable.

3. However, the MFN shall not apply to any procedural or judicial matters.

4. However, the provisions of this Article shall not be construed so as to oblige one Contracting Party to extend to the investors of the other Contracting Party the benefits of any treatment, preference or privilege resulting from:

a) any customs union, economic union, free trade area, monetary union or other form of regional economic arrangement or other similar international agreement, to which either of the Contracting Parties, is or may become a party or

- b) any payments received in pursuance of those rights and claims,

As the original investor was entitled to receive by virtue of this Agreement in respect of the investment concerned.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Article, subrogation shall take place in either of the Contracting Parties only after the approval of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment is made.

4. Without prejudice to Article 8 any payments received in local currency by the Indemnifying Party in pursuance of the rights and claims acquired shall be freely available to the Indemnifying Party for the purpose of meeting any expenditure incurred in the territory of the host Contracting Party.

Article 10. Settlement of Disputes between Contracting Party and the Investor

1. Disputes between one of the Contracting Parties and an Investor shall be notified in writing, including detailed information, by the investor to the host Contracting Party of the investment. Disputes arising between a Contracting Party and an Investor, as defined in Article 1, in respect of an investment under this Agreement shall, as far as possible, be settled amicably through negotiations between the Parties to the dispute.

2. In case of the Investor and any entity of a Contracting Party or its local governments or its designated agencies have stipulated an investment the procedure foreseen in such investment agreement shall apply.

3. With respect to paragraph 1 of this Article, if the dispute cannot be settled amicably within the period of nine months, the parties to the dispute should pursue the following procedures:

- a) If the dispute cannot be settled within nine months from the date when the request for the settlement has been submitted, it shall be filled to the competent authorities or arbitration centers thereof, constituted under the laws of the Contracting Party, in whose territory the investment was made exhausting all local resources.
- b) If the dispute cannot be settled according to the provisions of subparagraph (a) of this Article within six months from the date of submission, either party to the dispute may submit the claim to the International centre for the settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), in accordance with the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of Other States, open for signature since 18.03.1965 in Washington DC, upon ratification of this Convention by Montenegro.
- c) At any stage during the cooling off period or the proceeding of the tribunals, the parties to the dispute shall withdraw the case if they come to an agreement for settlement of the dispute amicably.

4. The arbitration award shall be based on:

- The provisions of this Agreement;
- The national law of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment was made.

5. The arbitration decisions shall be final and binding for the Parties to the dispute. Each Contracting Party undertakes to execute the decisions in accordance with its national law.

Article 11. Entry and Sojourn of Personnel

The Contracting Parties in accordance with their domestic laws and regulations shall give sympathetic consideration to applications for the entry and sojourn of persons of either Contracting Party in connection with an investment made by Investor of either Contracting Party.

Article 12. More Favorable Provisions

If the domestic law of either Contracting Party or obligations under international law existing at present or established hereafter between the Contracting Parties, in addition to this Agreement, contain a regulation, whether general or specific, entitling investments by investors of the other Contracting Party to a treatment more favorable than is provided for by this Agreement, such regulation shall to the extent that it is more favorable prevail over this Agreement.

Article 13. Amendment

This Agreement may be amended at any time at the request of either Contracting Party and the requesting Party has to submit its request in the written form explaining the grounds on which the amendment shall be made.
