Article 7.

If a Contracting party or its Agency makes a payment to an investor under a guarantee it has granted to an investment by its investor in the territory of the other Contracting Party, such investor to the former Contracting Party or its Agency and recognize the subrogation of the former Contracting Party to such right or claim. The subrogated right or claim shall not be greater than the original right or claim of the said investor.

Article 8.

This Agreement shall apply to investments which are made after September 1, 1954 by investors of either Contracting Party in accordance with the laws and regulations of the other Contracting Party in the territory of the latter one.

Article 9.

(1) Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall, as far as possible, be settled by consultation through the diplomatic channel.

(2) If a dispute cannot thus be settled within 6 months, it shall, upon the request of either Contracting Party, be submitted to an ad hoc arbitral tribunal.

(3) Such ad hoc tribunal comprises of 3 arbitrators. Within 2 months from the date on which either Contracting Party receives the written notice requesting for arbitration from the other Contracting Party each contracting Party shall appoint 1 arbitrator. Those 2 arbitrators shall, within 2 months after their appointments, together select a third arbitrator who is a national of a third State which has diplomatic relations with both Contracting Parties. The third arbitrator shall be appointed by the both Contracting Parties as Chairman of the arbitral tribunal.

(4) If the ad hoc arbitral tribunal has not been constituted within 4 months from the date of the receipt of the written notice for arbitration, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of any other agreement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to appoint the arbitrator (s) who has or have not yet been appointed.

If the President is a national of either Contracting Party or is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the next most senior member of the International Court of Justice who is not a national of either Contracting Party shall be invited to make the necessary appointment (s).

(5) The ad hoc arbitral tribunal shall determine its own procedure. The tribunal shall reach its award in accordance with the laws of the Contracting Party accepting investment, the provisions of this Agreement and the principles of international law recognized by both Contracting Parties.

The tribunal shall reach its award by a majority of votes. Such award shall be final and binding on both Contracting Parties. The ad hoc arbitral tribunal shall upon the request of either Contracting Party, explain the basis of its award.

(6) Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its appointed arbitrator. The relevant costs of the Chairman and the ad hoc tribunal shall be borne in equal parts by the Contracting Parties.

Article 10.

If an investor challenges the amount of compensation for the expropriated investment assets, he may file complaint with the competent authority of the Contracting Party taking the expropriatory measures. If it is not solved within 1 year after the complaint is filed, the competent court of the Contracting Party taking the expropriatory measures or an international arbitral tribunal may, upon the request of the investor, review the amount of compensation.

Article 11.

If a company which is owned or controlled by an investor of one Contracting Party in a third State has made investment in accordance with the laws and regulations of the other Contracting Party in the territory of the latter, the provisions of Article 4 of this Agreement shall apply to such investment only on the assumption that such third state is not entitled to exercise the right or abandons the right to request for compensation.

Article 12.

If the treatment to be accorded by one Contracting Party in accordance with its laws and regulations to investments or activities associated with investments of investors of the other Contracting Party is more favourable than the treatment provided for in this Agreement, the more favourable treatment shall be applicable.

Article 13.

(1) This Agreement shall enter into force 30 days after the date on which both Contracting Parties have notified each other that they have fulfilled their respective internal legal procedures, and shall remain in force for a period of 10 years.

(2) This Agreement shall continue in force if either Contracting Party fails to give a written notice to the other Contracting Party to terminate it 1 year before the expiration specified in paragraph 1 of this Article.

(3) After the expiration of the 10 years period, either Contracting Party may at any time terminate this Agreement by giving at least 1 year's written notice to the other Contracting Party.

(4) With respect to investments made prior to the date of termination of this Agreement, the provisions of Article 1 to 12 shall continue to be effective for a further period of 10 years from such date of termination.
