

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF IRAN AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SULTANATE OF OMAN ON THE PROMOTION AND RECIPROCAL PROTECTION OF INVESTMENTS

PREAMBLE

The Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran and the Government of the Sultanate of Oman, hereinafter referred to as the "Contracting Parties",

Desiring to establish and intensify economic cooperation to the mutual benefit of both States,

Intending to utilize their economic resources and potential facilities as well as to create and maintain favorable conditions for investments of investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party, and

Recognizing the need for the protection of investments of investors of both Contracting Parties in the territory of the other Contracting Party,

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1. Definitions

For the purpose of this Agreement the meaning of the terms used therein are as follows:

1. The term "investment" refers to every kind of property or asset invested by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party in accordance with the national laws and regulations of the other Contracting Party (hereafter referred to as the host Contracting Party):
 - a. Movable and immovable property as well as rights related thereto, such as mortgages, liens, pledges or usufruct;
 - b. Shares or any kind of participation in companies;
 - c. Title to money or to any performance having an economic value;
 - d. Intellectual and industrial property rights, such as copyrights, patents, utility and production models, industrial designs or models, trade marks and names, know-how and goodwill;
 - e. Special rights conferred by the law, an agreement or a decision of a competent authority to search for, extract or exploit natural resources.
2. The term "investor/investors" refers to the following persons who invest in the territory of the other Contracting Party, within the framework of this Agreement:
 - a. Natural persons possessing the nationality of one of the Contracting Parties in accordance with its laws, and who do not possess the nationality of the host Contracting Party.
 - b. Legal persons of either Contracting Party which are established under the national laws of that Contracting Party, and their headquarters and their real economic activities are located in the territory of that Contracting Party.
3. The term "returns" means investment funds that are obtained legally in particular but not exclusively, profits from investments, interests from financing, capital gains, dividends, fees and royalties.
4. The term "territory" refers to the territory of each Contracting party, the territory of the Islamic Republic of Iran or the Sultanate of Oman.

Article 2. Promotion of Investment

1. Each Contracting Party shall encourage its natural and legal persons to invest in the territory of the other Contracting Party.
2. Each Contracting Party shall create favorable conditions for natural and legal persons of the other Contracting Party to attract investment by natural and legal persons of the other Contracting Party in its territory, in accordance with its laws and regulations.

Article 3. Admission of Investment

1. Each Contracting Party shall admit investments of natural and legal persons of the other Contracting Party in its territory, in accordance with its national laws and regulations.
2. When an investment is admitted, either Contracting Party shall, in accordance with its national laws and regulations, grant the necessary permits for the realization of such an investment.

Article 4. Protection of Investment

1. Investment of natural and legal persons of either Contracting Party effected within the territory of the other Contracting Party shall receive the host Contracting Party's full legal protection and fair treatment not less favorable than that accorded to investors of any third State who are in like circumstances.
2. Neither Contracting Party shall impair by unreasonable or discriminatory measures the maintenance, use, enjoyment, or sale of the investments of the other Contracting Party.
3. If a Contracting Party has accorded or shall accord in future special advantages or rights to investors of any third State by virtue of an existing or future agreement establishing a free trade area, a customs union, a common market or a similar regional organization and/or by virtue of an arrangement on the avoidance of double taxation, it shall not be obliged to accord such advantages and rights to investors of the other Contracting Party.

Article 5. More Favorable Provisions

Notwithstanding the terms set forth in this Agreement, more favorable provisions which have been agreed or may be agreed upon by either Contracting Parties with an investor of the other Contracting Party are applicable.

Article 6. Expropriation and Compensation

Investments of investors of either Contracting Party shall not be nationalized, confiscated, expropriated or subjected to similar measures by the other Contracting Party, except such measures are taken for public purposes, in accordance with due process of law, in a non-discriminatory manner, and upon payment of prompt adequate and effective compensation. The amount of compensation shall be equivalent to the value of investment immediately before the action of nationalization, confiscation or expropriation was taken. In case of undue delay in the payment, compensation shall include the costs from the date of expropriation until the date of actual payment.

Article 7. Losses

Investors of either Contracting Party whose investments suffer losses due to any armed conflict, war or similar state of emergency in the territory of the other Contracting Party shall be accorded by the other Contracting Party treatment no less favorable than that accorded to its own investors or to investors of any third State.

Article 8. Repatriation and Transfer of Capital

1 Each Contracting Party shall, in accordance with its laws and regulations, permit in good faith the following transfers related to investments referred to in this Agreement, to be made freely and without delay out of its territory:

- a. Returns;
- b. Proceeds from the sale and/or liquidation of all or part of an investment;
- c. Royalties and fees related to transfer of technology agreement;

- d. Sums paid pursuant to Article 6 and/or 7 of this Agreement;
- e. Loan installments which are related to an investment and paid out of such investment activities;
- f. Monthly salaries and wages received by employees of an investor of one Contracting Party who have obtained in the territory of the host Contracting Party, the corresponding work permits related to that investment;
- g. Payments arising from a decision of the authority referred to in Article 12.

2. Unless otherwise agreed with the investor, the above transfers shall be without delay effected in a convertible currency and at the current rate of exchange on the date of transfer.

Article 9. Subrogation

If a Contracting Party or its designated agency, within the framework of a legal system, subrogates an investor pursuant to a payment made under an insurance or guarantee agreement against non-commercial risks:

- a. Such subrogation shall be recognized by the other Contracting Party;
- b. The subrogate shall not be entitled to exercise any rights other than the rights which the investor would have been entitled to exercise;
- c. Disputes between the subrogee and the host Contracting Party shall be settled in accordance with Article 12 of this Agreement.

Article 10. Observance of Commitments

Either Contracting Party shall guarantee the observance of the commitments it has entered into with respect to investments of natural and legal persons of the other Contracting Party.

Article 11. Scope of the Agreement

This Agreement shall apply to investments approved by the competent authorities of the host Contracting Party. The competent authority in the Islamic Republic of Iran is the Organization for Investment, Economic and Technical Assistance or any other authority which may succeed them.

Article 12. Settlement of Disputes between a Contracting Party and an Investor of the other Contracting Party

- 1. Any dispute between the host Contracting Party and an investor or investors of the other Contracting Party shall as far as possible be settled in an amicable manner through negotiation and consultation.
- 2. In the event that the dispute with regard to an investment between the investor of a Contracting Party and the other Contracting Party cannot be settled as provided in paragraph 1 within six months from the date of the written application for settlement, the investor may at his choice submit the dispute for settlement to the competent courts of the host Contracting Party; or to an ad hoc Arbitral Tribunal in compliance with the arbitration rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade (UNCITRAL).
- 3. Referring the dispute to arbitration by a Contracting Party shall be in accordance with the laws and regulations of that Contracting Party.

Article 13. Settlement of Disputes between the Contracting Parties

1. All disputes arising between the Contracting Parties relating to the interpretation and application of this Agreement shall, in the first place, be settled amicably through consultations and negotiations. In case of disagreement, either Contracting Party may, subject to its laws and regulations, while sending a notice to the other Contracting Party, refer the case to an Arbitral Tribunal of three members consisting of two arbitrators appointed by the Contracting Parties. The arbitrators appointed by the Contracting Parties shall appoint a Chairman. Each of the two Contracting Parties shall appoint an arbitrator within sixty days from the date on which the request for arbitration is received. The arbitrators appointed by the Contracting Parties shall appoint a Chairman within sixty days from the date of the appointment of the second arbitrator. If the necessary appointments of arbitrators have not been made in the period specified, either party, may invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make the necessary appointments. In any event, a Chairman must be a national of a third State having diplomatic relations with both Contracting Parties at the time of the appointment.

2. In the event that the President of the International Court must appoint a Chairman and if the President of the International Court of Justice is prevented from carrying out the said function or if he is a national of either Contracting Party, the appointment shall be made by the Vice-President of the International Court of Justice, and if the Vice-President is also prevented from carrying out the said function or he is a national of either Contracting Party, the appointment shall be made by the senior member of the said court who is not a national of either Contracting Party.

3. The Arbitration Tribunal shall, taking all other matters that parties have agreed to, lay down its own procedures and determine the place of arbitration.

4. The decisions of the Arbitration Tribunal shall be binding on both disputing parties.

Article 14. Validity of the Agreement

1. This Agreement shall be ratified by the competent authorities of each Contracting Party.

2. This Agreement shall enter into force for a period of ten years after thirty days from the date of receipt of the last of the two notifications by which the Contracting Parties shall communicate officially to each other that their respective ratification procedures have been completed. This Agreement shall remain in force thereafter unless one of the Contracting Parties notifies the other Contracting Party in writing of its intention to terminate it. The termination shall come into effect six months after the date of reception of the notification.

3. After the expiration of the validity or termination of this Agreement its provisions shall apply to investments under this Agreement for a further period of ten years.

Article 15. Language and Number of Texts

This Agreement is done in duplicate in Arabic, Persian and English languages and all texts are equally authentic. In case of divergence of interpretation, the English text shall prevail.

This Agreement is signed at Tehran on December 2, 2001 corresponding to 11th Azar 1380 by the representatives of Governments of the Islamic Republic of Iran and the Sultanate of Oman.
