7. The term "investment agreement" means an agreement between a Contracting Party or its agencies, and an investor of the other Contracting Party concerning an investment.

Article 2. Promotion and Protection of Investments

1. Each Contracting Party shall in its territory promote as possible investments made by investors of the other Contracting Party and admit such investments in accordance with its legislation. It shall in any case accord such investments fair and equitable treatment in accordance with the principles of International Law.

2. Neither Contracting Party shall in any way impair by arbitrary or discriminatory measures the management, maintenance, use or enjoyment of investments in its territory of investors of the other Contracting Party.

Each Contracting Party shall create and maintain, in its Territory a legal framework apt to guarantee to investors the continuity of legal treatment, including the compliance, in good faith, of all undertakings assumed with regard to each specific investor.

3. After the date when the investment is made, any modifications in laws, regulation acts or measures of economic policies governing directly or indirectly, the investment shall not be applied retroactively and the investments made under this agreement shall thereafter be protected.

Article 3. National Treatment and the Most Favoured Nation Clause

1. Neither Contracting Party shall subject investments and returns in its territory owned or controlled by investors of the other Contracting Party to treatment less favourable than it accords to investments and returns of its own investors or to investments and returns of investors of any third State.

2. Neither Contracting Party shall subject investors of the other Contracting Party, as regards their activity in connection with investments in its territory to treatment less favourable than it accords to its own investors or to investors of any third State.

3. Such treatment shall not relate to privileges which either Contracting Party accords to investors of third states on account of its membership of, or association with, a customs or economic union, a common market or a free trade area or any other form of regional Economic Organization, as well as cross border trade agreements.

4. The provisions of this Article do not apply to tax matters.

Article 4. Compensation for Damages or Losses

Should investors of one of the Contracting Parties incur losses or damages on their investments in the territory of the other Contracting Party due to war, other forms of armed conflict, a state of emergency, civil strife or other similar events, the Contracting Party in which the investment has been effected shall offer adequate compensation in respect of such losses or damages, irrespective whether such losses or damages, have been caused by governmental forces or other subjects.

Compensation payments shall be freely transferable without undue delay.

The investors concerned shall receive the same treatment as the nationals of the other Contracting Party and, at all events, no less favourable than investors of Third States.

Article 5. Nationalization or Expropriation

1. Investment by investors of either Contracting Party shall enjoy full protection and security in the territory of the other Contracting Party.

2. Investments by investors of either Contracting Party shall not be, directly or indirectly, expropriated, nationalized or subjected to any other measure the effects of which would be tantamount to expropriation or nationalization in the territory of the other Contracting Party except for the public interest and against full and effective compensation. Such compensation shall be equivalent the real economic value the expropriated investment immediately before the date on which the actual or threatened expropriation, nationalization or comparable measure has been announced or publicly known. The compensation shall be paid without undue delay and shall carry interest calculated on the basis of LIBOR standards until the time of payments, it shall be effectively realizable and freely transferable. Provisions shall have been made in an appropriate manner at or prior to the time of expropriation, nationalization, or comparable measure for the determination and payment of such compensation.

3. Investors of either Contracting Party shall enjoy most-favoured nation treatment in the territory of other Contracting Party in respect of the matter provided for in this Article.

4. Compensation will be considered as actual if it will have been paid in the same currency in which the investment has been made by the foreign investor, in as much as such currency is —or remains— convertible, or, otherwise, in any other currency accepted by the investor

5. Compensation will be considered as timely if it takes place without undue delay and, in any case, within six months.

6. A national or company of either Party that asserts that all or part of its investment has been expropriated shall have a right to prompt review by the appropriate judicial or administrative authorities of the other Party to determine whether compensation of such expropriation is in conformity to the laws and regulations of the expropriating party.

7. If, after the dispossession, the property concerned has not been utilized, wholly or partially, for that purpose, the owner or his assignees are entitled to the repurchasing of the good at the market price.

Article 6. Repatriation of Capital, Profits and Returns

Each Contracting Party shall guarantee to investors of the other Contracting Party the free transfer of payments in connection with an investment, in particular, but not exclusively:

(a) The principal and additional amount to maintain or increase the investment;

(b) The returns;

(c) The repayment of loans;

(d) The proceeds from the liquidation or the sale of the whole or any part of the investment;

(e) The compensation provided for in Articles 4 and 5;Articles 4 and 5;

(f) Remunerations and allowances paid to their nationals or foreign employees for work and services performed in relation to an investment effected in the territory of the other Contracting Party.

Article 7. Subrogation

If either Contracting Party makes a payment to any of its investors under a guarantee it has assumed in respect of an investment in the territory of the other Contracting Party, the latter Contracting Party shall, without prejudice to the rights of the former Contracting Party under Article 11, recognize the assignment, whether under a law or pursuant to a legal transaction, of any right or claim of such national or company to the former Contracting Party. The latter Contracting Party shall also recognize the subrogation of the former Contracting Party to any such right or claim which that Contracting Party shall be entitled to assert to the same extent as its predecessor in title. As regards the transfer of payments made by virtue of such assigned claims, Article 4 and 5 as well as Article 6 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Article 8. Transfer Procedures

The transfer referred to in Article 6 and 7 shall be effected without undue delay and, at all events, within six months after all fiscal obligations provided by the law of the Contracting Parties have been fulfilled, and shall be made in a convertible currency.

All the transfers shall be made at the prevailing exchange rate applicable on the date on which the investor applies for the related transfer.

Article 9. New Regulations

If the legislation of either Contracting Party or obligations under International Law existing at present or established hereafter between the Contracting Parties in addition to this Agreement contain a regulation, whether general or specific entitling investments by investors of the other Contracting Party to a treatment more favourable than is provided for by this Agreement, such regulation shall, to the extent that it is more favourable, prevail over this Agreement.

Article 10. Settlement of Disputes between an Investor of One Contracting Party and the other Contracting Party

1. Any legal dispute arising directly out of an investment or on the amount of compensation between an investor of one Contracting Party and the other Contracting Party shall be settled amicably, if possible.
2. In case the investor and one entity of one of the Contracting Parties have stipulated an investment agreement, the procedure foreseen in such investment agreement, if any, shall apply.
3. If this dispute has not been settled within a period of six months from the date of the written application for settlement, the investor at his choice may submit the dispute for settlement to:
 - a) The competent court of the Contracting Party in the territory of which the investment has been made;
 - b) The International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) provided for by the convention on the settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States, done at Washington on March 18, 1965 if this convention is applicable.
 - c) An ad hoc Arbitral Tribunal in compliance with the arbitration regulation of the UN Commission on the International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), the host Contracting Party undertakes hereby to accept the reference to said rules of arbitration.

Once the investor has chosen one of the above mentioned ways of settlement of dispute, he can not follow the other two ways.

4. The ad hoc Arbitral Tribunal specified under paragraph (3/c) shall be established as follows:
 - a) Each party to the dispute shall appoint one arbitrator, and the two arbitrators thus appointed shall appoint by mutual consent a third arbitrator, who must be a national of a third state having diplomatic relations with both Contracting Parties, and who shall be designated as Chairman of the Tribunal by the two parties. All the arbitrators must be appointed within two months from the date of notification by one party to the other party of its intention to submit the dispute to arbitration.
 - b) If the period specified in the section (a) here above has not been respected, in the absence of any other agreement the appointment of the arbitrators when necessary pursuant to the UNCITRAL rules will be made by the President of the Arbitration Court in the International Chamber of Commerce in Paris, in his capacity as Appointing Authority. The Arbitration will take place in the Hague (Netherlands), unless the two parties in the arbitration have agreed otherwise.
 - c) The Tribunal shall reach its decisions by a majority of votes. These decisions shall be final and legally binding upon the Parties and shall be enforced in accordance with the domestic law. They shall be taken in conformity with the provisions of this Agreement, the laws of the Contracting Party to the dispute and the principles of International Law.
5. The Contracting Party which is a party to the dispute shall, at no time whatsoever during the procedures involving investment disputes, assert as a defence its immunity or the fact that the investor has received compensation under an insurance contract covering the whole or part of the incurred damage or loss.

Article 11. Settlement of Disputes between Contracting Parties

1. Disputes relating to the interpretation, application or termination of this Agreement shall be settled if possible, by diplomatic channels.
2. If the dispute has not been settled within a period of six months from the date on which the matter was raised in writing by either Contracting Party, it may be submitted at the request of either Contracting Party to an Arbitral Tribunal.
3. The said Arbitral Tribunal shall be created as follows for each specific case: Each Contracting Party shall appoint one arbitrator, and the two arbitrators thus appointed shall appoint by mutual agreement a national of a third country, who shall be designated as Chairman of the Arbitral Tribunal by the two Contracting Parties. All the arbitrators must be appointed within three months from the date of notification by one Contracting Party to the other Contracting Party of its intention to submit the disagreement to arbitration.

4. If, within the period specified in paragraph 3 of this Article, the appointments have not been made, each of the two Contracting Parties can, in default of other arrangement, ask the President of the International Court of Justice to make the appointment. In the event that the President of the Court is a national of one of the Contracting Parties or it is, for any reason, impossible for him to make the appointment, the application shall be made to the Vice President of the Court. If the Vice-President of the Court is a national of one of the Contracting Parties, or is unable to make the appointment for any reason, the most senior member of the International Court of Justice, who is not a national of one of the Contracting Parties, shall be invited to make the appointment.

5. The Arbitral Tribunal shall reach its decisions by a majority of votes. These decisions shall be final and legally binding upon the Contracting Parties.

The Arbitral Tribunal with respect to its procedures shall apply UNCITRAL rules and, in relation to the dispute issue, shall apply the rules of this Agreement and the rules of International Law whenever deemed applicable. The venue of Arbitration shall be the Hague (Netherlands).

Article 12. Application of other Provisions

1. If a matter is governed both by this Agreement and by another International Agreement to which both Contracting Parties are signatories, or by general international law provisions, the most favourable provisions shall be applied to the Contracting Parties and to their investors.

2. Whenever the treatment accorded by one Contracting Party to the investors of the other Contracting Party, according to its laws and regulations or other provisions or specific contract or investment authorisations or agreement, is more favourable than that provided under this agreement, the most favourable treatment shall apply.

3. After the date when the investment has been made, any modifications in laws, regulations, acts or measures of economic policies governing directly or indirectly the investment, shall not be applied retroactively.

Article 13. Relations between Governments

The provisions of this Agreement shall be applied irrespective of whether or not the Contracting Parties have diplomatic or consular relations.

Article 14. Duration and Expiry

1. This Agreement shall be ratified and shall enter into force one month after the date of exchange of the instruments of ratification. It shall remain in force for a period of ten years and shall be extended thereafter for an unlimited period unless denounced in writing by either Contracting Party twelve months before its expiration. After the expiry of the period of the initial ten years this Agreement may be denounced at any time by either Contracting Party giving twelve months notice.

2. In respect of investment made prior to the date of termination of this Agreement, the provision of Articles 1 to 12 shall continue to be effective for a further period of ten years from the date of termination of this Agreement.

In WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorized thereto by their respective Governments, have signed the present Agreement.
