Preface

The Governments of the United Arab Emirates and the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan.

Individually referred to as "the Party" and collectively referred to as "the Parties".

Recognizing the strong and distinguished economic and political relations between the United Arab Emirates and the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan and desiring to strengthen these ties through the establishment of a free trade zone, thereby establishing close and lasting relations.

Determined to build on their relevant rights and obligations under the Marrakesh Agreement establishing the World Trade Organization; and affirming their membership in the Greater Arab Free Trade Area (GAFTA).

Convinced that the Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement will provide both parties with the opportunity to improve the trade framework established through the Greater Arab Free Trade Area (GAFTA).

Based on the Arab Framework Agreement for the Liberalization of Trade in Services.

Recognizing the dynamic and rapidly changing global environment brought about by globalization and technological advances, which present different economic and strategic challenges and opportunities for both sides.

Determined to develop and strengthen their economic and trade relations by liberalizing and expanding trade in goods and services for their mutual benefit and advantage.

Aiming to promote technology transfer and trade expansion.

Convinced that the establishment of a free trade area will provide a more favorable climate for the promotion and development of economic and trade relations between the two parties.

With the aim of facilitating trade by promoting efficient and transparent customs procedures that minimize costs and ensure predictability for importers and exporters.

Desiring to support the growth and development of micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs) by enhancing their ability to participate and benefit from the advantages offered by this Agreement; and

With the aim of establishing a clear, transparent and predictable legal and commercial framework for business planning that supports further expansion of trade and investment.

Recognizing their inherent right to regulate and intending to preserve the flexibility of the Parties to set legislative and regulatory priorities, and to protect legitimate public welfare objectives, such as health, safety, environmental protection, conservation of depleted living or non-living natural resources, safety and stability of the financial system, and public morals, in accordance with the rights and obligations set forth in this Agreement.

In order to achieve the above, they have agreed to enter into the following Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement").

- fees or other import-related expenses commensurate with the cost of the services provided and which do not constitute direct or indirect protection of domestic goods or taxation of imports for fiscal purposes.

Article 1.2

Scope and Coverage

Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, this Chapter applies to trade in goods between the Parties.

Article 2.2

National Treatment

The Parties shall accord each other's goods national treatment in accordance with Article III of the GATT 1994, including its interpretative notes. To this end, Article III of the GATT 1994 and its Explanatory Notes are incorporated into and form part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

Article 3.2

Reduction or Elimination of Customs Duties

The Parties shall adopt the same current preferential tariff treatment applicable under the Greater Arab Free Trade Agreement (GAFTA) with respect to goods of origin exchanged between the Parties will be eliminated from the date of entry into force of this Agreement. However, the provisions of this chapter including the elimination of the said tariff shall not apply to goods whose import, circulation or use is prohibited in either party for religious, health, security or environmental reasons or due to agricultural and veterinary quarantine rules. The Parties shall exchange lists of tariff lines for such goods.

Article 4.2

Classification of Goods and Modification of Customs Items in the Schedules of Harmonized Tariff Commitments

- 1. The classification of goods in trade between the Parties shall be that specified in each Party's tariff designations in accordance with the Harmonized System (HS) and its legal notes and amendments.
- Each Party shall ensure that the modification of tariff lines in its Schedule of Preferential Tariff Commitments resulting from the adoption by the World Customs Organization of a new version of the Harmonized System Schedule does not result in less favorable treatment for a good of the other Party's origin than that provided for that good in its Schedule in Annex .2a and .2b.
- 3. A Party may introduce new subdivisions of tariff lines, provided that the preferential tariff applied in the new subdivisions shall not be less favorable than that applied in the original lines.

Article 5.2

Import and Export Restrictions

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, neither Party shall adopt or maintain any prohibition or restriction on the import of any good of the other Party or on the export or sale for export of any good destined for the territory of the other Party, except in accordance with Article XI of the GATT 1994 and its explanatory notes. XI of the GATT 1994 and its Explanatory Notes, and for this purpose Article XI of the GATT 1994 and its Explanatory Notes are hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

Article 6.2

Import Licenses

- 1. Neither Party may adopt or apply a procedure that is inconsistent with the Import Licensing Agreement, which is hereby incorporated by this Agreement and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.
- 2. Before applying any new or amended import license procedure, a Party shall publish it in a manner that enables governments and traders to become familiar with it, including on an official government website. At the request of the other Party, the Party shall exchange information regarding its implementation within a reasonable period of time.

Article 7.2

Customs Valuation

The Parties shall determine the customs value of goods traded between them in accordance with the provisions of Article VII of the GATT 1994 and the Customs Valuation Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

Article 8.2

Export Subsidies

- 1. Neither Party shall adopt or apply any export subsidy to any good destined for the territory of the other Party in accordance with the Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures and the Agreement on Agriculture.
- 2. The Parties reaffirm their commitments undertaken under the WTO Ministerial Conference Decision on Export Competition adopted in Nairobi on December 19, 2015, including the elimination of export subsidy entitlements for agricultural commodities.

&lt;sup>1</sup>For the purposes of paragraph 1 and for greater certainty, in determining whether a measure is inconsistent with the Import Licensing Agreement, the Parties shall apply the definition of "import licenses" contained in that Agreement.

Article 9.2 Restrictions on Balance of Payments Protection

- 1. The Parties shall endeavor to avoid the imposition of any restrictive measures for the purposes of balance of payments protection.
- 2. Any similar measures taken for trade in goods shall be consistent with Article XII of the GATT 1994 and the Understanding on Balance of Payments Provisions of the GATT 1994, the provisions of which are incorporated into and form part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

Article 10.2 Fees and Administrative Procedures

- 1. Each Party shall ensure, in accordance with Article VIII: 1 of the GATT 1994 and its explanatory notes and Article 6 of the World Trade Organization Agreement on Trade Facilitation, that all duties and charges of any kind (other than import and export duties, duties with equivalent effect to internal taxes or other internal charges applied in accordance with Article III2. of the GATT 1994, and measures applied in accordance with the provisions of Articles 6 or 19 of the GATT 1994, the Anti-Dumping Agreement, and the Anti-Dumping Agreement: 2 of GATT 1994, measures applied in accordance with the provisions of Articles 6 or 19 of Articles 6 or 19 of GATT 1994, the Anti-Dumping Agreement, the Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures, the Agreement on Safeguard Measures, Article 5 of the Agreement on Agriculture or Article 22 of the DSU) imposed on or in connection with the import or export of goods limited in value by the approximate cost of services rendered, shall not be ad valorem, shall not represent indirect protection of domestic goods or taxation of imports or exports for fiscal purposes.
- 2. Each Party shall promptly publish details and make such information available online with respect to the duties and charges it imposes in connection with import or export.

Article 11.2 Non-Tariff Measures

- Unless otherwise provided, neither Party shall adopt or apply any non-tariff measures on the import of any good of the other Party or on the export of any good destined for the territory of the other Party, except to the extent consistent with the rights and obligations of the World Trade Organization or this Agreement.
- 2. Each Party shall ensure that its laws, regulations, procedures and administrative provisions relating to non-tariff measures are not prepared, adopted or applied with a view to creating or influencing unnecessary obstacles to trade with the other Party.
- 3. If a Party considers that the non-tariff measures of the other Party constitute an unnecessary obstacle to trade, that Party may submit such nontariff measure for review by the Sub-Committee on Trade in goods by notifying the other Party at least 30 days prior to the next scheduled meeting of the Sub-Committee on Trade in Goods. The lifting of non-tariff measures for review shall include the reasons for lifting the measure, the extent to which the measure adversely affects trade between the Parties and, if possible, proposed solutions. The Sub-Committee on Trade in Goods shall promptly review the measure with a view to securing a mutually agreed solution to the matter. The review by the Subcommittee on Trade in Goods shall be without prejudice to the rights of the Parties under Chapter 12 (Dispute Settlement).

Article 12.2

Government Trading Enterprises

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as preventing any Party from establishing or maintaining a State Trading Enterprise in accordance with Article XVII of the GATT 1994 and the Understanding on the Interpretation of Article XVII of the GATT 1994, mutatis mutandis.

Article 13.2

Sub-Committee on Trade in Goods

1. The Parties hereby establish a Subcommittee on Trade in Goods within the Joint Committee, which shall include representatives of each Party.

- 2. The Sub-Committee shall meet once a year or whenever the Parties deem it necessary to consider any matter arising under this Chapter.
- 3. The functions of the Sub-Committee shall include, inter alia, the following: (a) overseeing the implementation and administration of

this Chapter; and

(b) promoting trade in goods between the Parties, including through consultations on the acceleration and expansion of preferential treatment or tariff elimination under this Agreement and other matters as appropriate; (c) address impediments to trade in goods between the Parties, including those relating to non-tariff measures, including import and export restrictions, which may restrict trade in goods between the Parties and, if appropriate, refer such matters to the Joint Commission for examination.

(d) Provide advice and recommendations to the Joint Committee on cooperation needs with respect to trade in goods issues.

(e) Review amendments to the Harmonized System (HS) to ensure that they do not alter each Party's obligations under this

Agreement, and consult to resolve any inconsistencies between: such amendments to the HS and the Parties' schedules in Annexes 2A and 2B; (f) consult and seek to resolve any disagreement that may arise between the Parties on matters relating to the classification of goods under the HS.

(g) Review data on trade in goods in relation to the implementation of this chapter.

(h) assess matters relating to trade in goods and undertake any additional work that may be assigned by the Joint Committee; and (i) review and monitor any other matter relating to the implementation of this Chapter.

Article 14.2

Cooperation in the field of pharmaceutical products

The agreed text for bilateral cooperation in the field of pharmaceutical products for Chapter II on trade in goods is contained in Annex

Chapter III Trade remedies

Article 1.3

Scope

- 1. With respect to the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, this chapter shall apply to investigations and measures taken under the authority of the Ministry of Industry, Trade and Supply represented by the Directorate for the Protection of National Production or its successor.
- 2. With respect to the United Arab Emirates, this chapter applies to investigations and measures taken under the authority of the Ministry of Economy or its successor.

Article 2.3

Anti-dumping and countervailing measures

- The Parties reaffirm their rights and obligations under the provisions of Article VI and Article XVI of the GATT 1994; the Agreement on the Implementation of Article VI of the GATT 1994 (Anti-Dumping Agreement); and the Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures of Annex 1 to the Agreement Establishing the World Trade Organization.
- 2. The Parties recognize the right to apply measures consistent with Article VI of the GATT 1994, the Anti-Dumping Agreement and the Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures, and the importance of promoting transparency in anti-dumping and countervailing actions and ensuring that all interested parties have the opportunity to participate effectively in such actions.
- Except as provided in this Article, this Agreement does not confer any additional rights or obligations on the Parties with respect to anti-dumping and countervailing actions including the initiation and conduct of anti-dumping and anti-subsidy investigations as well as the application of antidumping and/or countervailing measures.
- 4. When the investigating authority of one Party receives a written request by or on behalf of its domestic sector to initiate an anti-dumping investigation with respect to a good of the other Party, the Party receiving such request shall notify the other Party in writing of the request prior to announcing the initiation of the investigation.

- 5. As soon as possible after accepting a request for an anti-subsidy investigation, and in any event before initiating an investigation, a Party shall provide written notification of its receipt of the request to the other Party and invite the other Party to consultations with a view to clarifying the position with respect to the matters referred to in the request and reaching a mutually agreed solution.
- 6. The investigating authority of either Party shall ensure that, before making a final determination, all material facts under consideration that form the basis for a decision on the application of final measures are disclosed. This shall be without prejudice to Article 5.6 of the Anti-Dumping Agreement and Article 4.12 of the Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures. The disclosure must be made in writing and interested parties must be given sufficient time to make their comments. The investigating authority shall give due consideration to the comments submitted by the interested parties.
- 7. In imposing the measures covered by this Chapter, the Parties agree to give priority, to the greatest extent possible, to measures that cause minimal economic harm and do not create serious obstacles to the implementation of this Agreement.

Article 3.3

Comprehensive safeguard

measures

- Each Party reserves its rights and obligations under Article 19 of the GATT 1994 and the Agreement on Safeguards of the World Trade Organization. This Agreement shall not give rise to any additional rights or obligations of the Parties with respect to actions taken under Article 19 of the GATT 1994 and the Agreement on Safeguard Measures.
- 2. A Party taking a comprehensive safeguard measure shall exclude imports of the good originating in the other Party as long as its share of imports of the product concerned in the importing Party does not exceed 3 percent of total imports of the product concerned, provided that imports from a group of developing countries whose share of imports is less than 3 percent does not exceed 9 percent of total imports of the product concerned

Dispute Settlement

No Party shall have recourse to Chapter 12 (Settlement of Disputes) of this Agreement for any matter arising under this Chapter.

Article 5.3

Cooperation in the field of trade remedies

The Parties shall endeavor to encourage cooperation in the field of trade remedies between the competent authorities of each Party with responsibility for trade remedies matters.

CHAPTER FOUR

Technical Barriers to Trade

Definitions.

For the purposes of this Chapter:

Agreement on Technical Barriers to Trade means the Agreement on Technical Barriers to Trade contained in Annex 1A of the World Trade Organization Agreement; definitions shall be as set out in Annex 1 of the Agreement on Technical Barriers to Trade, mutatis mutandis.

Article 1.4 Objective

The objective of this Chapter is to facilitate trade, including facilitating trade by removing unnecessary technical barriers to trade, promoting transparency and encouraging greater regulatory cooperation and good regulatory practices.

Article 2.4

Scope

- 1. This Chapter applies to the preparation, adoption and application of all standards, technical regulations (rules) and conformity assessment procedures of central government bodies that may affect trade in goods between the Parties.
- 2. Each Party shall take reasonable measures, which may be available to it, to ensure that this Chapter is observed by local government bodies at a level immediately below the level of central government within its territory, which may be responsible for the application of technical regulations, standards and conformity assessment procedures.
- 3. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, this Chapter does not apply to:

Technical specifications prepared by a government agency for its own production or consumption requirements covered by government	(a) procurement; or sanitary and phytosanitary measures covered by Chapter 5 (Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures).	(b)

Article 3.4

Rights and Obligations under the Technical Barriers to Trade Agreement

The Parties confirm their existing rights and obligations with respect to each other under the Agreement on Technical Barriers to Trade.

Article 4.4

International Standards

- 1. Each Party shall use relevant international standards, manuals and recommendations, to the extent provided in Articles 4.2 and 4.5 of the TBT Agreement, as the basis for technical regulations and conformity assessment procedures.
- In determining whether there is an international standard, guide or recommendation within the meaning of Articles 2 and 5 and Annex 3 of the TBT Agreement, each Party shall base its decision on the principles set out in the "Decision of the Committee on Principles on the Development of International Standards, Guides and Recommendations in relation to Articles 2 and 5 and Annex 3 of the Agreement", adopted by the WTO Committee on Technical Barriers to Trade on November 13, 2000 (Annex 2 to Part 1 of Rev13 / 1 / TBT / G and any subsequent version thereof.) This decision shall be based on the principles set out in the "Decision of the Committee on Principles on the Development of International Standards, Guides and Recommendations in Relation to Articles 2 and 5 and Annex 3 of the TBT Agreement".
- 3. The Parties shall encourage cooperation and coordination between their national standardization bodies in areas of common interest, in the context of their participation in international standardization bodies, to ensure that the international standards developed by these bodies facilitate trade and do not create unnecessary barriers to international trade, as well as seeking to unify their positions wherever possible in international standardization forums, conferences and meetings.

Article 5.4 Technical Regulations

- 1. The Parties shall use international standards as the basis for the preparation of their technical regulations, unless those international standards are ineffective or unsuitable for achieving the legitimate objective sought. At the request of the other party, each party must provide its reasons and justifications for not using international standards as a basis for the preparation of its technical regulations.
- 2. Each Party shall respond positively to the other Party's request to negotiate arrangements to achieve equivalence of technical regulations.
- 3. Each Party shall, at the request of the other Party, explain its reasons for not accepting the request to negotiate these arrangements. 4. The Parties shall promote communication and coordination, as appropriate, in the context of discussions on the equivalence of technical regulations and related issues in international forums, such as the World Trade Organization's Committee on Technical Barriers to Trade.

Article 6.4

Conformity Assessment

Procedures

- 1. The Parties recognize that, depending on the specific sectors involved, a wide range of mechanisms exist to facilitate the acceptance in their territories of the results of conformity assessment procedures conducted in the territory of the other Party. Such mechanisms may include:
  - (a) Recognizing existing multilateral international recognition agreements and arrangements between conformity assessment bodies.
  - (b) Promote mutual recognition of the results of conformity assessment by the other Party, by recognizing the designation by the other Party of conformity assessment bodies accepted by it and registered as designated by that Party for conformity assessment in accordance with each Party's approved procedures.

encouraging voluntary arrangements between conformity assessment bodies in each Party's territory;	(c)
accepting a declaration of conformity from the supplier where appropriate; and	(d)
harmonize criteria for the designation of conformity assessment bodies, including accreditation	(e)
procedures; or other mechanisms as agreed by the Parties.	(f)

- 2. Each Party shall ensure, whenever possible, that the results of conformity assessment procedures conducted in the territory of the other Party are accepted, even if those procedures differ from its own procedures, provided that such procedures and applicable technical regulations or standards adequately ensure equivalence with its own procedures. If a Party does not accept the results of a conformity assessment procedure conducted in the territory of the other Party, it shall, at the request of the other Party, explain the reasons for its decision.
- 3. In order to promote consistent reliability of conformity assessment results, the Parties may consult on matters such as the technical competence of the respective conformity assessment bodies.
- 4. Each Party shall respond positively to the other Party's request to negotiate agreements or arrangements for the mutual recognition of the results of its conformity assessment procedures. The Parties shall consider the possibility of negotiating agreements or arrangements for the mutual recognition of the results of their respective conformity assessment procedures in mutually agreed areas.
- 5. The Parties shall endeavor to intensify the exchange of information between them on acceptance and appointment mechanisms with a view to facilitating the acceptance of conformity assessment results.

Article 7.4 Cooperati ## on

1. The Parties shall strengthen their cooperation in the field of standards, technical regulations and conformity assessment procedures with a view to:

- (a) promote mutual understanding of each other's regulations; and
- (b) promote cooperation between the Parties' regulators on matters of mutual interest including health, safety, environmental protection and risk assessment.

facilitate trade through the application of good regulatory practices; and	(c)
Promote cooperation, as appropriate, to ensure that technical regulations and conformity assessment procedures are based on	(d) international standards or relevant parts thereof and do not create unnecessary obstacles to trade between the Parties.

- 2. In order to achieve the objectives set out in paragraph 1, the Parties shall, by mutual agreement and to the extent possible, cooperate on regulatory matters, which may include
  - (a) promoting good regulatory practices based on risk management principles.
  - (b) exchanging information with a view to improving the quality and effectiveness of their technical regulations.
  - (c) develop joint initiatives to manage risks to health, safety or the environment and prevent deceptive practices; and
  - (d) exchange market surveillance information and market survey results where appropriate.
- The Parties shall encourage cooperation between their bodies responsible for standardization, conformity assessment, accreditation and metrology, with a view to facilitating trade and avoiding unnecessary barriers to trade between the Parties.

Article 8.4

Transparency

- 1. Each Party shall, at the request of the other Party, provide information, including the objective and rationale of a technical regulation or conformity assessment procedure adopted or intended to be adopted by that Party that may affect trade between the Parties, within a reasonable period of time as agreed between the Parties.
- 2. When submitting a proposed technical regulation for notification to the World Trade Organization, a Party shall take into account and take into account, whenever possible and appropriate, and at the request of the other Party, the comments received from the other Party, and shall provide written responses thereto.
- 3. The Parties shall ensure that all approved technical regulations and conformity assessment procedures are publicly available.

Article 2.5

Scope

This Chapter applies to all sanitary and phytosanitary measures of the Parties which may affect, directly or indirectly, trade between them.

Article 3.5

General

Provisions

1. The Parties emphasize their rights and obligations under the SPS Agreement.

2. Nothing in this Agreement shall limit the rights and obligations of each Party under the SPS Agreement.

Article 4.5

Competent Authorities and Points of Contact

- 1. To facilitate communication on matters covered by this chapter, each Party shall notify the other Party via its competent authority and points of contact within 30 days of the date of entry into force of this Agreement.
- 2. Each Party shall inform the other Party of any change in its competent authority or its points of contact within a reasonable period of time.

Article 5.5

Equivalence

- 1. The Parties recognize that the principle of equivalence is mutually beneficial to them as provided for in Article 4 of the SPS Agreement.
- 2. The Parties shall follow the procedures for determining the equivalence of SPS measures and standards within an appropriate period of time established by the SPS Committee of the World Trade Organization and relevant international standard-setting bodies in accordance with Annex A of the SPS Agreement, mutatis mutandis.
- 3. The compliance of an exported product with an SPS measure or standard of the exporting Party that has been accepted as equivalent to the SPS measures and standards of the importing Party does not eliminate the need for that product to comply with any other relevant mandatory requirements of the importing Party.

Risk Assessment

Article 6.5

1. Risk assessment procedures applied by either Party shall be based on scientific evidence and shall be sufficient to protect human, animal or plant health.

2. Taking into account the first paragraph, in the event of insufficient relevant scientific evidence, the Parties may provisionally adopt SPS measures on the basis of relevant available information, including information from relevant international organizations as well as from SPS measures applied by other Members. In such circumstances, the importing Party shall seek to obtain the necessary additional information taking into account available scientific evidence to conduct a more objective risk assessment and revise the SPS measures within an appropriate period of time. To this end, the importing Party may request scientific and other relevant information from the exporting Party.

Article 7.5 Emergency Measures

If a Party adopts an emergency measure necessary to protect human, animal or plant life or health, the Party shall promptly notify such measure using the WTO SPS notification system as a means of emergency notification. If a Party adopts an emergency measure, it shall periodically review that measure and make the results of that review available to the other Party upon request.

Article 8.5

Transparency

- 1. The Parties recognize the value of transparency in the adoption and application of SPS measures and the importance of sharing information about these measures on an ongoing basis.
- 2. Each Party shall take into account relevant guidance from the SPS Committee of the World Trade Organization and international standards, guidelines and recommendations.
- 3. Each Party agrees to notify a SPS measure that may have an impact on the trade of the other Party, using the WTO SPS notification system as the means of notification.
- 4. A Party shall provide the other Party, upon request, with copies of SPS measures relating to the importation of a good into the territory of that Party.

Article 9.5

Cooperati

on

- 1. The Parties shall seek opportunities for ongoing cooperation, coordination and exchange of information between them regarding SPS measures.
- 2. The Parties shall commit to cooperate with each other and may identify avenues for joint action on SPS matters with a view to removing unnecessary barriers to trade between the Parties.

Chapter VI Customs Procedures

and Trade Facilitation

Definitions

For the purposes of this Chapter, the following definitions shall have the following meanings:

Customs Administration: Jordan Customs Department for the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan and the Federal Identity Authority Customs, Nationality, Customs and Port Security of the United Arab Emirates.

Customs laws: The provisions implemented under the legislation and regulations relating to the import, export and transportation of goods or any other customs procedures, whether related to customs duties, taxes or any other fees collected by the customs administrations, or related to the prohibition, restriction or control measures implemented by the customs administrations in cooperation with the regulatory authorities operating at border crossings according to their competence and powers in each party.

Customs procedure: Measures applied by the customs authority of either party to goods and means of transportation subject to customs laws and regulations.

Persons: Natural and legal persons, unless the context otherwise requires.

Mutual Customs Assistance Agreement: An agreement that promotes customs cooperation and exchange of information between the Parties to secure and facilitate legitimate trade, which is negotiated between the Parties.

Approved Economic Operator (AEO): A program that recognizes an operator involved in the international movement of goods in any function that has been approved by the national customs administration as compliant with WCO standards or equivalent supply chain security standards; and Mutual Recognition Arrangement: An arrangement between the Parties that mutually recognizes Authorized Economic Operator licenses that have been validly granted by a Customs Administration.

Article 1.6 Scope

This Chapter shall apply, in accordance with the national laws, rules and regulations of each Party, to the customs procedures required for the clearance of goods traded between the Parties.

Article 2.6 General Provisions

1. The Parties agree that customs law and procedures shall be transparent, non-discriminatory, consistent and avoid unnecessary procedural impediments to trade.

2. The Parties' customs procedures shall, whenever possible, conform to the standards and recommended practices of the World Customs Organization

World Customs Organization and applicable international conventions in the field of customs and trade.

3. Each Party's customs administration shall periodically review its customs procedures with a view to further simplifying and developing them to facilitate bilateral trade.

Article 3.6 Publication and Availability of Information

- 1. Each Party shall ensure that its laws, regulations, guidelines, procedures and administrative provisions governing customs matters are promptly published, either online or in print, and to the greatest extent possible in English.
- Each Party shall designate, establish and maintain one or more points of inquiry for handling inquiries from interested persons regarding Customs matters and shall endeavor to make information regarding the procedures for making such inquiries available to the public through electronic means.
- 3. Neither this Article nor any part of this Agreement contains any provision requiring any Party to publish its internal law enforcement procedures and operational guidelines, including those related to conducting risk analysis and targeting methodologies.
- 4. Each Party shall, to the extent practicable, in a manner consistent with its domestic law and legal system, ensure that new or amended laws and regulations of general application relating to the movement, release and clearance of goods, including goods in transit, are published or made publicly available as soon as possible prior to their entry into force so that interested parties have the opportunity to familiarize themselves with the new or amended laws and regulations. To the extent possible, such information and publications shall also be available in English.

Article 4.6 Risk Management

The Parties shall adopt a risk management approach in their customs activities, based on the identified risks of the goods, in order to facilitate the clearance of low-risk shipments, while focusing inspection activities on high-risk goods.

Article 5.6 Paperless Correspondence

- 1. For the purposes of facilitating the bilateral exchange of international trade data and expediting the release procedures to facilitate trade in goods, the Parties shall endeavor to provide an electronic environment that supports trade transactions between their respective customs administrations and their commercial entities.
- 2. The Parties shall exchange views and information on the realization and promotion of paperless correspondence between their respective customs administrations and their trading entities.
- 3. When implementing initiatives that provide for the use of paperless correspondence, the Customs Administration of the Parties shall take into account the methodologies agreed upon by the World Customs Organization as well as those set forth in the Mutual Customs Assistance Agreement to be negotiated between the Parties.

Article 6.6 Prior Provisions

- 1. Each Party shall, in accordance with its obligations under the World Trade Organization Agreement on Trade Facilitation, provide for the issuance of an advance ruling, prior to the importation of a good into its territory, to an importer of the good in its territory or to an exporter or producer of the good in the territory of the other Party.
- 2. For the purposes of paragraph 1, each Party shall make rulings on whether a good qualifies as an originating good or to assess the tariff classification of the good. In addition, each Party may make rulings covering additional trade matters as specified in the FTA and each Party shall make its determination on the origin or classification of the good in a reasonable and time-bound manner from the date of receipt of a complete request for advance ruling.
- 3. An advance ruling issued by the importing Party under paragraph 1 of this Article shall be applied by the importing Party on the date of the ruling or on a later date specified in the ruling and shall remain in force for a reasonable period of time and in accordance with national advance ruling procedures unless the advance ruling is modified or revoked.
- 4. An advance ruling issued by a Party shall be binding only on the person to whom it is issued.
- 5. A Party may refuse to issue an advance ruling if the facts and circumstances forming the basis of the advance ruling are the subject of a subsequent customs clearance audit, administrative, judicial or quasi-judicial review or appeal. A party refusing to issue a prejudgment shall immediately notify, in writing, the person requesting the prejudgment, stating the relevant facts and circumstances and the basis for its decision.
- 6. The importing party may modify or revoke a prior judgment in the following cases:
  - a. if the judgment is based on an error of fact.
  - b. If there is a change in the material facts or circumstances on which the judgment was based.

c. Until the judgment complies with an amendment to this chapter; or

d. Until the judgment complies with a judicial decision or a change in its local law.

- 7. Each party is obligated to provide written notification to the applicant explaining its decision to revoke or modify the advance ruling issued to the applicant.
- 8. Each party shall provide that any modification or revocation of an advance ruling shall be effective on the date on which the modification or revocation is issued, or on any later date as specified therein, and shall not apply to the importation of a good that occurred prior to that date, unless the person to whom the advance ruling was issued has not acted in accordance with its terms and conditions.
- 9. Subject to paragraph 4 of this Article, the party issuing the advance judgment may postpone the effective date for a reasonable period of time and in accordance with each Party's national procedures on advance rulings, if the person to whom the advance ruling was issued proves that he or she relied in good faith on that ruling, consistent with the provisions of of the State's national legislation in force for the issuance of advance rulings.

Article 7.6

Fines

- 1. Each Party shall take measures to impose criminal, civil or administrative penalties, individually or jointly, for violations of the Party's customs laws, regulations or procedural requirements.
  - 2. Each Party shall ensure that penalties issued for breaches of customs law, regulations or procedural requirements are imposed only on persons responsible for the breach under its laws.
  - 3. Each Party shall ensure that the penalty imposed by its customs administration is based on the facts and circumstances of the case and is commensurate with the degree and seriousness of the offense.
  - 4. Each Party shall ensure that it has adopted measures to avoid conflicts of interest in the assessment and collection of fines and fees. No part of the remuneration of any government official may be calculated as a fixed portion or percentage of any fines or fees assessed or collected.
  - 5. Each Party shall ensure that if a fine is imposed by its customs administration for a breach of customs law, regulations or procedural requirements, a written explanation is provided to the person(s) against whom the fine is imposed specifying the nature of the offense and the law, regulations or procedures used in determining the amount of the fine.

Article 8.6

Release of Goods

1. Each Party shall adopt or apply simplified customs procedures for the effective release of goods in order to facilitate trade.

2. Pursuant to paragraph 1, each Party shall adopt or apply procedures that

Provide for the immediate release of goods upon receipt of the customs declaration and fulfillment of all applicable requirements and procedures.	(a)
provides for the electronic submission and processing of documents and data, including lists, prior to the arrival of goods in order to expedite the release of goods from customs control upon arrival.	o)
Allows goods to be released at the point of arrival without the need for temporary transportation to warehouses or other (or facilities; and	c)
and Requires that if a party does not release the goods promptly, the importer shall be informed, including, to the extent permitted by its law, the reasons for not releasing the goods and identifying the border agency, if not the customs administration,	(d) that withheld the release of the goods.

- 3. Nothing in this Article shall require a Party to release a good if the requirements for its release are not met or prevent a Party from liquidating a security deposit in accordance with its own law.
- 4. Each Party may permit, to the extent practicable and in accordance with its customs laws, the transportation of goods intended for importation within its customs-controlled territory from the point of entry into its territory to another customs office in its territory from which the goods are to be released, provided that the applicable regulatory requirements are met.

Article 9.6

Temporary introduction of goods

1. Each Party shall, in accordance with its own domestic law, allow the temporary duty-free entry of the following goods imported from the other Party, regardless of their origin:

Professional and scientific equipment, including parts thereof, including press or television equipment, software, radio and film	(a) equipment necessary for the conduct of the business, trade, profession or scientific research of a person eligible for temporary entry under the laws of the importing Party.
Goods intended for display, demonstration or use in theaters, fairs, exhibitions or other similar events.	(1-)
commercial samples, advertising films and recordings; goods	(b)
entered for sporting purposes.	(c)
containers and pallets (pallets) used to transport equipment or used for repacking; and	(d)
Goods that are brought in for processing.	(e)
	(f)

- 2. Both Parties shall, at the request of the importer and for reasons deemed valid by the Customs Authority, extend the time limit for temporary entry beyond the period initially specified.
- 3. Neither Party may condition the temporary introduction of the good referred to in paragraph 1, other than by requiring that the good:

is not sold or leased while in its territory; and be accompanied by a guarantee in an amount not exceeding the customs duties and any other import tax that would be due on the good if it were imported for consumption in the Party, provided that the guarantee is releasable upon export.	(a) (b)
Be identifiable at the time of export.
they are exported in accordance with the time period granted for temporary introduction in accordance with the domestic law of the Party relating to the purpose of the temporary introduction.	(c) (d)
they are not introduced in a quantity greater than is reasonable for their intended	(-)
use; or they are authorized for entry into the territory of the importing Party under its law.	(e)
10 11.	(f)

- 4. In the event that any condition imposed by a Party under paragraph 3 is not met, that Party may apply customs duties and any other charges normally due on the importation of the good and any other charges or penalties provided for by its law.
- 5. Each Party, through its customs authority, shall adopt and apply procedures providing for the expeditious release of goods entered under this Article. Such procedures shall provide, to the maximum extent possible, that when such goods accompany a national or resident of the other Party seeking temporary entry, the goods shall be released at the same time as the entry of that national or resident.
- 6. Each Party shall allow goods temporarily entered under this Article to be exported through a customs outlet other than the one through which they were entered in accordance with its applicable customs procedures.
- 7. Each Party shall provide that the importer of a good entered under this Article shall not be liable for non-export of the good upon proof satisfactory to the importing Party that the good was destroyed within the original period of temporary entry or any lawful extension. Either Party may condition the mitigation of liability under this paragraph by requiring the importer to obtain prior approval from the customs authority of the importing Party before the good is so destroyed.

Article 10.6

Re-entry of goods after repair or alteration

1. Neither Party shall apply customs duties to a good, regardless of its origin, that re-enters its territory in accordance with its laws and procedures after that good has been temporarily exported from its territory to the territory of the other Party for repair or alteration, regardless of whether such repair or alteration could have been made in the territory from which the good was exported, except that customs duties or other taxes may be applied to the addition resulting from the repair or alteration made in the territory of the other Party.

2. Neither Party shall apply customs duties to a good, regardless of its origin, temporarily imported from the territory of the other Party for repair or alteration.

<ol><li>For the purposes of this Article, "repair" or "alteration" does not include a process or procedure that</li></ol> destroys the essential characteristics of a good or creates a new or commercially different	(A) good; transforms an unfinished good into a finished good; or	(b)
results in a change of classification at a six-digit level of the Harmonized System (HS).	(c)

Article 11.6

Duty-free entry of commercial samples of negligible value and printed advertising materials

Each Party shall, in accordance with its own domestic law, grant duty-free entry to commercial samples of negligible value and printed advertising materials imported from the territory of the other Party, regardless of their origin, but may require that

Such samples are imported solely for the purpose of ordering goods or services from the territory of t h e other Party	(a)
or a third party; or
These advertising materials are imported in packages, each containing no more than one copy of each material, and neither the	(b)
materials nor the packages form part of a larger shipment.	()

Article 12.6

Authorized Economic Operators

In order to facilitate trade and promote compliance and risk management between them, the Parties shall seek to conclude an Authorized Economic Operator Mutual Assistance Agreement between their customs administrations.

Article 13.6

Cooperation of Border Authorities

Each Party shall ensure that its authorities and bodies responsible for border controls and procedures dealing with the import, export and transit of goods cooperate with each other and coordinate their activities in order to facilitate trade in accordance with this Chapter.

Article 14.6

Urgent shipments

Each Party shall adopt or maintain expedited customs procedures for goods entered through air cargo facilities while maintaining customs control based on risk management. These procedures shall:

(a) provide the information necessary to release an expedited shipment for submission and processing prior to the arrival of the shipment.

through electronic means, if possible2.
Provide, to the maximum extent possible, for the release of certain goods with minimal documentation.	(c)
Under normal circumstances, should provide for the release of express shipments as soon as possible after submission of	(d)
the necessary customs documents, subject to the arrival of the shipment.
apply to shipments of any weight or value in accordance with each Party's national legislation, recognizing that a Party	(e)
may require formal entry formalities as a condition for release of goods, including declaration, supporting	(C) documentation and payment of customs duties, based on the weight or value of the goods; and Provided that, under normal circumstances, no customs duties will be assessed on express shipments valued at or below the fixed amount determined under the law of that Party3. Each Party shall review the amount periodically taking into account such	(f) factors as it may consider relevant, such as inflation rates, impact on trade facilitation, impact on risk management, administrative cost of collecting the duty compared to the amount of the duty, cost of cross-border trade transactions, impact on small and medium enterprises and other factors related to the collection of customs duties.

Article 15.6

Review and Appeal

1. Each Party shall ensure that any person to whom it issues a decision on a customs matter has access to:

at least one level of administrative appeal for decisions made by its customs administration independently	(a) independently4 from the official or office responsible for the decision under review; and judicial appeal for decisions taken at the final level of administrative review.	(b)
2. Each Party shall ensure that its appeal and review procedures are conducted in a nondiscriminatory and timely manner.	( )

3. Each Party shall ensure that when considering objections as an administrative appeals body under paragraph 1, the authority shall notify the person in writing of its decision or determination on the review or appeal, and the reasons for that decision.

Article 16.6 Customs Cooperation

1. In order to further enhance customs cooperation and exchange of information between customs administrations to secure and facilitate legitimate trade, each Party shall implement and comply with the obligations contained in the Mutual Customs Assistance Agreement.

2. The Parties undertake to facilitate initiatives for the exchange of information on best practices regarding the implementation and administration of the customs procedures described in this Chapter, and in accordance with the agreements on cooperation and mutual administrative assistance in customs matters concluded or acceded to by the Parties.

Article 17.6 Confidentia lity

- Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to require either party to provide or permit access to confidential information, the disclosure of which would impede law enforcement, would otherwise be contrary to the public interest, or would be detrimental to the legitimate business interests of certain organizations, both public and private.
   the legitimate business interests of certain organizations, public or private. Any information obtained under this obtained under this Agreement shall be treated as confidential information in accordance with the terms of the Mutual Customs Assistance Agreement.
- 2. Each Party shall, in accordance with its domestic laws, maintain the confidentiality of information obtained in accordance with this Chapter and shall protect the information from disclosure to the detriment of the competitive position of the persons providing the information.

Article 18.6

Transit

Each Party shall, in accordance with its national laws and regulations

- 1. conduct transit operations between the Parties in a facilitated and effectively controlled
- manner; 2. ensure the facilitation and effective control of transit traffic operations through its

territory; and

3. seek to promote and implement international transit arrangements with a view to facilitating trade in accordance with Article 11 of the Agreement on Trade Facilitation of the World Trade Organization.

Article 19.6

- 2. The obligations in paragraph 1 shall not apply to:

(a) treatment accorded under other existing or future agreements concluded by a Party and notified under Article V or V bis of the General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS), as well as treatment accorded in accordance with Article VII of the GATS or safeguard measures in accordance with the GATS Annex on Financial Services.

(b) The treatment accorded by the United Arab Emirates to services and service suppliers from GCC member states under the GCC Economic Agreement.

(c) The treatment granted by the Parties under the Greater Arab Free Trade Area (GAFTA).

- The rights and obligations of the Parties with respect to benefits granted to neighboring countries are governed by Article II, paragraph 3 of GATS, which is incorporated by this Agreement and forms part of this Agreement.
- 4. If, after the entry into force of this Agreement, either Party enters into any agreement on trade in services with an external party, it must negotiate, at the request of the other Party, to include in this Agreement a treatment that is no less favorable preferential treatment than that provided under the agreement concluded with the foreign party. The Parties shall take into account the circumstances under which under which any Party enters into any agreement on trade in consider with a foreign Party.

under which any Party enters into any agreement on trade in services with a foreign Party.

Article 48.

Market Access

- 1. With respect to market access through the modes of supply identified in the definition of "trade in services" in the Tariffs, each Party shall accord to services and suppliers of services to the other Party treatment no less favorable than that provided under the agreed terms, limitations and conditions set forth in the Schedule of Specific Commitments8.
- 2. In sectors where market access commitments are undertaken, measures that a Party may not adopt or apply, either on a territorial subdivision basis or on a territory-wide basis, unless otherwise provided for in its Schedule of Specific Commitments, are defined as:

(a) Restrictions on the number of service providers, whether in the form of numerical quotas, monopolies, sole suppliers of services or economic needs test requirements.

(b) Restrictions on the total value of service transactions or assets in the form of numerical quotas or economic needs test requirements.

(c) limitations on the total number of service operations or the total quantity of service outputs expressed in specific numerical units in the form of quotas or economic needs test requirements,<sup>9</sup>

(d) restrictions on the total number of natural persons who may be employed in a particular service sector or who may be employed by a service supplier and who are necessary and directly related to the supply of a particular service in the form of numerical quotas or economic needs test requirements; and

(e) measures that restrict or require certain types of legal entities or joint ventures through which a service supplier may supply a service; and

(f) Restrictions on foreign capital participation in terms of a maximum percentage of foreign participation or the total value of individual or aggregate foreign investment.

&lt;sup>8</sup>If a party undertakes a market access obligation with respect to the provision of a service through the mode of supply referred to in paragraph (1) of the definition of "trade in services" in the Definitions and if the cross-border movement of capital is an essential part of the service itself, then that Party is obligated to permit such movement of capital. If a Party undertakes a market access obligation in connection with the provision of a service through the mode of supply referred to in paragraph (3) of the definition of

&quot;trade in services" definition, it is thus obligated to allow the relevant capital transfers to its territory.

&lt;sup>9</sup>Subparagraph 2(c) does not cover measures taken by a Party that limit inputs to the supply of services.

Article 5.8

National Treatment

- With respect to the service sectors listed in each Party's Schedule of Specific Commitments, and subject to any conditions and qualifications provided therein, each Party shall accord to the services and service providers of the other Party, with respect to all measures affecting the supply of services, treatment no less favorable than that received by its own services and service providers.<sup>10</sup>
- 1. A Party may fulfill the requirements in paragraph 1 by granting the services and service providers of the other Party either formally identical treatment or formally different treatment from that which it grants to its own similar services and service providers.
- Formally identical or formally different treatment by one Party shall be considered less favorable if it modifies the conditions of competition in favor of the services or service providers of that Party as compared to the similar service or service providers of the other Party.

Article 6.8

Additional

Obligations

The Parties may negotiate commitments with respect to measures affecting trade in services not subject to scheduling under Articles 4 (market access) and 5 (national treatment), including those relating to qualifications, standards or licensing issues. Such commitments shall be recorded in that Party's Schedule of Specific Commitments.

Article 7.8

Modification of schedules

Upon the written request of a Party, the Parties shall hold consultations to consider any modification or withdrawal of a specific commitment in the requesting Party's Schedule of Specific Commitments. The consultations shall be held within three months after the requesting Party submits its request. In the consultations, the Parties shall aim to ensure that an overall level of mutually beneficial commitments is maintained that is no less favorable to trade than that provided for in the Schedule of Specific Commitments prior to such consultations. Amendments to the schedules shall be subject to any procedures adopted by the Joint Committee established in Chapter XV (Administration of the Agreement).

Article 8:8

Domestic regulation

1. In sectors where specific commitments have been undertaken, each Party shall ensure that all measures of general application affecting trade in services are administered in a reasonable, objective and impartial manner.

<sup>10</sup> The specific commitments undertaken under this Article shall not be construed as requiring either Party to compensate for any inherent competitive disadvantages resulting from the foreign character of the services or related service providers.

- a) Each Party shall maintain or establish as soon as possible judicial, arbitral or administrative bodies or procedures that provide, at the request of the affected service provider, expeditious review of administrative decisions that affecting trade in services, if warranted. Where such procedures are not independent of the body entrusted with the administrative decision in question, the Party concerned shall ensure that the procedures provide for in fact provide for an objective and impartial review.
- b) The provisions of subparagraph (a) shall not be construed as requiring any Party to establish such bodies or procedures where this is contrary to its constitution or the nature of its legal system.
- 3. If authorization is required to provide a service pursuant to a specific obligation under this Agreement, the competent authorities of each Party shall
  - (a) inform the applicant of the decision on the request within a reasonable period of time after the submission of the request, which shall be deemed complete under domestic laws and regulations.
  - (b) identify all additional information required to complete the application and provide an opportunity to address deficiencies within a reasonable timeframe, in the case of an incomplete application, at the request of the applicant; and (c) provide information without delay on the status of the application at the request of the applicant.
  - c) provide information without undue delay on the status of the application at the request of the applicant; and
  - d) If an application is terminated or rejected, the applicant will be informed in writing and as far as possible without delay of the reasons for such action. The Applicant will have the possibility, at its sole discretion, to resubmit a new Application.
- 4. With a view to ensuring that measures relating to qualification requirements and procedures, technical standards and licensing requirements do not constitute unnecessary barriers to trade in services, in sectors where specific commitments are undertaken, the Parties shall ensure that such requirements:
  - a) are based on objective and transparent criteria, such as competence and ability to provide the service; b) are no more burdensome than is necessary to ensure the quality of the service; and
  - c) in the case of licensing procedures, do not in themselves impose any restrictions on the supply of the service.
- In determining whether a Party is complying with the obligation set out in subparagraph 4, account shall be taken of the international standards of the relevant international organizations applied by that <sup>Party11</sup>.
- 6. In sectors where specific obligations are implemented with respect to professional services, each Party shall provide appropriate procedures to verify the competence of professionals from the other Party.
- 7. The Parties shall review the results of the negotiations on disciplines on domestic regulation, pursuant to Article 4.6 of the GATS Agreement, with a view to incorporating them into this Chapter.

&lt;sup>11</sup> The term "relevant international organizations" refers to international bodies with membership open to the relevant institutions and bodies of the Parties to this Agreement.

Article 9.8 Recognitio

n

- 1. Either Party may recognize or encourage its relevant competent bodies to recognize the education, experience gained, requirements fulfilled, licenses or certificates granted by the other Party for purposes of meeting, in whole or in part, its own standards or criteria for authorization, licensing or certification of service providers, and in accordance with paragraph 3. Such recognition, which may be achieved through coordination or otherwise, may be based on an agreement or arrangement between the Parties or relevant competent bodies, or may be granted independently.
- 2. Where a Party recognizes, under an agreement or arrangement, education or experience obtained, requirements fulfilled, licenses or certificates granted in the territory of a State not party to the Convention, that Party shall give the other Party a sufficient opportunity to negotiate its accession to such an agreement or arrangement, whether existing or future, or to negotiate a similar agreement or arrangement with it. Where a Party grants recognition independently, that Party shall provide sufficient opportunity for the other Party to demonstrate that the education, experience, licenses, certificates or certifications obtained or requirements met in the territory of that other Party should also be recognized.
- 3. Neither Party shall grant recognition in a manner that would constitute a means of discriminating between the other Party and third parties when applying its criteria for authorizing, licensing or accrediting service providers, or a disguised restriction on trade in services.
- 4. The Parties agree to encourage the relevant bodies, where possible, responsible for issuing and recognizing professional and vocational qualifications in their respective territories to:

(a) promote cooperation and explore possibilities for mutual recognition of relevant professional and vocational qualifications; and

(b) pursue mutually acceptable standards for licensing and certification in relation to service sectors of mutual interest to the Parties.

Article 10.8

Payments and Transfers

- 1. Except in the circumstances provided for in Article 8.13 (Balance of Payments Protection Restrictions), neither Party may apply restrictions on international transfers and payments in connection with current transactions related to its specified obligations.
- Nothing in this chapter shall affect the rights and obligations of the Parties as members of the IMF under the Articles of Agreement of the IMF, including the use of exchange procedures consistent with the Articles of Agreement, provided that neither Party shall impose restrictions on any capital-related transactions inconsistent with its specific obligations with respect to such transactions, other than Article 13.8 (Balance of Payments Protection Restrictions) or at the request of the IMF.

Article 11.8

Monopolies and Exclusive Service Providers

- 1. The rights and obligations of the Parties with respect to monopolies and exclusive service providers are governed by paragraphs 1, 2 and 5 of Article 8 of the GATS Agreement, which are hereby incorporated into and form part of this Agreement.
- 2. If a Party has reason to believe that a monopoly supplier of a service in the other Party is acting in a manner inconsistent with paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 8 of the GATS Agreement, that Party may request the other Party that established, maintained or licensed that supplier to provide specific information regarding the relevant activities.

Article 12:8

Business Practices

The rights and obligations of the Parties with respect to business practices are governed by Article IX of the GATS, which is hereby incorporated by this Agreement and made a part of this Agreement.

Article 13.8

Restrictions on Balance of Payments Protection

- 1. The Parties shall endeavor to avoid the imposition of restrictions to maintain the balance of payments.
- 2. When either Party to this Agreement faces serious balance of payments difficulties, or is under threat of serious balance of payments difficulties, it may adopt or apply restrictive measures with respect to trade in services, including payments and transfers.
- 3. The rights and obligations of the Parties with respect to such restrictions shall be governed by paragraphs 1 through 3 of Article XII of the GATS, which are hereby incorporated into and form part of this Agreement. A Party adopting or applying such restrictions shall promptly notify the Joint Committee thereof.

Article 14.8 Denial of Benefits

A Party may refuse to grant the benefits of this Agreement to a Service Provider which is a legal person, if persons of a Party An external party owns or controls that legal person and the rejecting party:

a) does not maintain diplomatic relations with the foreign party and the foreign party is not a member of the World Trade Organization; or

b) adopts or applies measures with respect to the foreign party or a person of the foreign party that prohibit transactions with the legal person or that would be violated or circumvented if the benefits of this Agreement were granted to the legal person.

In the case of a maritime transportation service, if the rejecting party establishes that the service is provided

a) by a ship registered under the laws of a foreign party, and

b) by a person wholly or partly occupying and/or using the ship but from a foreign Party.

Article 15.8

Revised

- 1. With a view to further liberalizing trade in services between them, the Parties agree to undertake a joint review, at least every two years, of their schedules of specific commitments and exemptions to the National Most Preferred Treatment lists, taking into account any developments relating to the liberalization of services as a result of ongoing work under the World Trade Organization (WTO).
- 2. The first such review shall take place no later than two years after the entry into force of this Agreement.

Committee

Procedures

1. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, the Committee shall adhere to the Model Rules of Procedure set forth in the Annex

- 2. The Committee may, after consultation with the Parties, adopt additional rules of procedure not inconsistent with the Model Rules of Procedure.
- 3. There will be no ex parte communications with the Committee regarding matters under consideration.
- 4. The deliberations of the Committee and the documents submitted to it shall remain confidential.
- 5. The Party asserting that a measure taken by the other Party is inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement shall bear the burden of proving such inconsistency. The Party asserting that a measure is subject to an exception under this Convention shall bear the burden of proving that the exception applies.
- 6. The Commission should consult with the parties as appropriate and provide sufficient opportunities to reach a mutually agreed solution.
- 7. The Committee shall make its decisions, including its reports, by consensus, but if consensus is not possible, by a majority of its members. Any member may submit separate opinions on matters that are not unanimously agreed upon, but dissenting opinions of members will not be disclosed in any case.

Article 17.12

Receipt of Information

- 1. The Commission may, at the request of a Party, or on its own initiative, request from the Parties relevant information deemed necessary and appropriate. The Parties undertake to respond promptly and fully to any request for information made by the Commission.
- 2. The Commission may, at the request of a Party or on its own initiative, request from any source any information it deems appropriate. The Commission may also seek expert opinion, as it deems appropriate, subject to any terms and conditions agreed to by the Parties, where applicable.

- 3. The Commission may, at the request of a Party, or on its own initiative, request information and technical advice from any individual or organization it deems appropriate, provided that the Parties agree and are subject to such terms and conditions as the Parties may agree. The Commission shall provide the Parties with any information obtained for comment.
- 4. Any information obtained by the Commission under this Article shall be made available to the Parties and the Parties may submit comments on that information.

Article 18.12

Progress Report

- The Commission shall submit a progress report to the Parties within 90 days from the date of its formation. Where the Commission considers that this deadline cannot be met, the Chairperson of the Commission shall notify the Parties in writing, stating the reasons for the delay and the date by which the Commission intends to submit its progress report. In no case may the delay exceed 30 days after the deadline, and this report shall be considered confidential and may not be published or circulated.
- 2. The progress report shall set out a descriptive section and the Commission's findings and conclusions.
- 3. Each party may submit written comments to the Commission and make a written request for a review of the finer points of the progress report within 15 days of the date of issuance of the progress report. Either party may comment on the other party's request within 6 days of receipt of the request.
- 4. After considering any written comments and requests submitted by each Party on the progress report, the Committee may amend the progress report and conduct any additional examination it deems appropriate.

Article 19.12

Final Report

- The Commission shall submit a final report to the Parties within 120 days from the date of the formation of the Commission. Where the Commission considers that this deadline cannot be met, the Chairperson of the Commission shall notify the Parties in writing, stating the reasons for the delay and the date by which the Commission intends to submit its final report. In no case may the delay exceed 30 days after the deadline.
- 2. The final report includes a discussion of any written comments and requests submitted by the parties on the progress report. In its final report, the Commission may propose ways in which the final report may be implemented.

The final report shall be published within 15 days of its delivery to the Parties unless the Parties otherwise agree to publish the final report in parts only or not at all.

Article 20.12

Implementation of the Final

Report

- 1. If the Committee determines that the Respondent has acted inconsistently with a Covered Provision, the Respondent shall take any action necessary to comply promptly and in good faith with the findings and conclusions contained in the Final Report.
- 2. The complaining party shall promptly comply with the Commission's final report. If it is not practicable to comply promptly with that report, the complaining Party shall, no later than 30 days after delivery of the final report, notify the complaining Party of the reasonable period of time necessary to comply with the final report and the Parties shall endeavor to agree on the reasonable period of time necessary to comply with the final report.

Article 21.12

Reasonable Time Period for Compliance

- If the parties do not agree on a reasonable time period, the complaining party may, no later than 20 days from the date of receipt of the notification submitted by the respondent party in accordance with Article 20.12, paragraph 2 (Implementation of the final report), submit a written request to the original panel to determine the reasonable time period. This request shall be simultaneously notified to the complainant party. The 20-day period referred to in this paragraph may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.
- 2. The original panel shall deliver its decision to the Parties within 20 days from the date of receipt of the request referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article.
- 3. The reasonable time period for compliance with the final report may be extended by mutual agreement between the Parties.

Article 22.12

Compliance

Monitoring

1. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, the complaining Party shall provide written notification of its progress in complying with the Final Report to the complaining Party at least one month prior to the expiration of the reasonable time period for compliance with the Final Report.

No later than the expiration of the reasonable time period, the complaining Party shall provide notification to the complaining Party of any measure it has taken to comply with the final report along with a description of how that measure ensures compliance sufficient to allow the complaining Party to assess the measure before the expiration of the reasonable time period.

- 3. If, within 15 days from the date of the notification referred to above in paragraph (1) of this Article, the parties do not agree on the existence of measures to comply with the final report or their conformity with the covered provisions, the complaining party may request in writing the original committee to take a decision on the matter before submitting the request for compensation or the request to apply the suspension of concessions in accordance with Article 1/23.12(c) of this Chapter. This request must be notified at the same time to the complained party.
- 4. The request referred to in paragraph (3) of this Article must set forth the factual and legal basis for the complaint, including identifying the specific measures at issue and explaining why any measures taken by the respondent are inconsistent with the final report or inconsistent with the covered provisions.
- 5. The Committee shall deliver its decision to the Parties within 60 days from the date of receipt of the request.

Article 23.12

Provisional Remedies for Non-Compliance

1. If the complaining party does any of the following:

Failure to notify any measures taken to comply with the final report within the specified time period.	(h)
notify the complaining party in writing that it is not possible to comply with the final report within a reasonable period of time; or	(x)
If the original panel determines that no measure has been taken or that the measure taken to comply with the final report as notified to the respondent does not comply with the Covered Provisions.	(d)
The Respondent shall, at the request of the Complaining Party, enter into consultations with a view to reaching a mutually satisfactory	(.)
agreement or any necessary compensation.	(y)

2. If the parties fail to reach a mutually satisfactory agreement or agree on compensation within 20 days after the date of receipt of the request made in accordance with paragraph (1) of this Article, the complaining party may send a written notice to the

that it intends to suspend the application of the concessions or other obligations towards it contained in this Agreement. The notification shall specify the level of the intended suspension of the concessions or other obligations.

- 3. The complaining party may begin suspending the concessions or other obligations referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article 20 days after the date on which notice is sent to the complaining party, unless the complaining party makes a request under paragraph (7) of this Article.
- 4. The suspension of concessions or other obligations

(a) must be at a level equivalent to the revocation or prejudice caused by the Respondent Party's failure to comply with the Final Report; and (b) shall be limited to the privileges accruing to the complaining Party under this Agreement.

- 5. In determining which concessions to suspend in accordance with paragraph (2) of this Article, the complaining Party shall apply the following principles:
  - (v) The complaining Party shall first seek to suspend concessions in the same sector or sectors affected by the action found by the Panel to be inconsistent with this Agreement or to have caused the revocation or injury.
  - (w) The complaining Party may suspend concessions in other sectors, if it considers it impractical or ineffective to suspend other concessions or obligations in the same sector.
  - (c) In selecting the concessions to be suspended, the complaining Party shall take care to consider concessions that, at a minimum, do not impede the implementation of this Agreement.
- 6. The suspension of privileges or other obligations shall be temporary and until the action no longer conforms to the relevant covered provisions identified in the final report, or until the parties reach a satisfactory agreement or any necessary remedy.
- 7. If the complaining Party considers that the suspension of concessions is inconsistent with paragraphs (4) and (5) of this Article, that Party may request in writing that the original Committee investigate the matter no later than 15 days from the date of receipt of the notification referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article. Such request shall be simultaneously notified to the complaining Party. The Original Committee shall notify the Parties of its decision on the matter no later than 30 days from the date of receipt of the request from the complaining Party. Privileges or other obligations may not be suspended until the original panel has issued its decision. The suspension of privileges or other obligations shall be consistent with this decision.

Article 24.12

Review of any action taken to comply after the adoption of interim remedies

1. upon notification by the responding Party to the complaining Party of the action taken to comply with the final report:

Where the complaining Party exercises the right to suspend concessions or other obligations in accordance with Article 23 of this Chapter, (a) the complaining Party shall terminate the suspension of concessions or other obligations no later than 30 days from the date of receipt of the notification, except in the cases referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article; or

- (b) In a case where the necessary compensation has been agreed upon, the complaining party may terminate the application of such compensation not later than 30 days from the date of receipt of the notification, except in the cases referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article.
- 2. If the parties do not reach agreement on whether the action reported in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article complies with the Covered Provisions within 30 days from the date of receipt of the notification, the complaining party shall request in writing that the original panel investigate the matter. The complaining party shall be notified of this request at the same time. The Committee's decision must be communicated to both parties no later than 30 days from the date of the request. If the Committee determines that the action notified in accordance with paragraph (1) of this Article complies with the covered provisions, the suspension of concessions or other obligations, or the application of compensation, shall be terminated no later than 15 days after the date of the decision. If the Committee determines that the notified action achieves only partial compliance with the Covered Provisions, the level of suspension of concessions or other obligations, or compensation, shall be adjusted in light of the Committee's decision.

Article 25.12

Suspension and termination

of proceedings

If the Parties so request, the Commission shall suspend its work for a period to be agreed upon by the Parties not exceeding 12 consecutive months. In the event of a suspension, the relevant time periods under this Chapter shall be extended for the same period of time as the suspension. The Committee shall resume its work before the end of the suspension period at the written request of both parties. If the Committee is suspended for more than 12 consecutive months, the authority of the Committee shall be revoked and the dispute resolution procedure shall be terminated.

Article 26.12

Choice of forum

- 1. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, this Chapter is without prejudice to the rights of the Parties to resort to dispute settlement procedures available under other international trade agreements to which they are both Parties.
- 2. When a dispute arises with respect to the alleged inconsistency of a particular measure with an obligation under this Agreement and a substantially equivalent obligation under another international trade agreement to which both parties are party, including World Trade Organization agreements, the complaining party may choose the forum in which the dispute will be settled.

- 3. Once a Party has selected a forum and initiated dispute settlement proceedings under this Chapter or under the other international agreement with respect to the particular measure referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article, that Party may not initiate dispute settlement proceedings in another forum with respect to that particular measure unless the first-selected forum fails to adjudicate the substance of the dispute for judicial or procedural reasons.
- 4. For the purposes of paragraph (3) of this Article

(a) dispute settlement proceedings under this Chapter shall be deemed to have commenced when a Party requests the establishment of a panel in accordance with Article 8 of this Chapter.

(b) dispute settlement proceedings under the WTO Agreement shall be deemed to have commenced when a Party requests the establishment of a panel in accordance with Article 6 of the WTO Dispute Settlement Memorandum of Understanding; and

(c) dispute settlement proceedings under any other agreement shall be deemed to have commenced when a Party requests the establishment of a dispute settlement panel in accordance with the relevant provisions.

Article 27.12

Costs

- 1. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, the costs of the Panel and other expenses associated with the conduct of its proceedings shall be borne equally by the Parties.
- 2. Each Party shall bear its own expenses and legal costs in the Commission proceedings.

Article 28.12

Mutually Agreed Resolution

- 1. The Parties may reach a mutually agreed resolution at any time with respect to any dispute referred to in Article 3 of this Chapter.
- 2. If a mutually agreed resolution is reached during Committee proceedings, the Parties shall jointly notify such resolution to the Chairperson of the Committee. Upon such notification, the work of the Committee shall be terminated.
- 3. Each Party shall take the necessary measures to implement the mutually agreed solution within the agreed time period.

No later than the end of the agreed time period, the implementing party shall inform the other party, in writing, of any measure it has taken to implement the mutually agreed solution.

Article 29.12

Annex 2 - Code of Conduct for Committee Members

Definitions

- 1. For the purposes of this Annex:
  - (a) Assistant means a person who, under the terms of appointment of a Committee member, conducts research or provides support to the Committee member.
  - (b) Committee member means a member of the Committee established under Article 8.
  - (v) (c) unless otherwise provided, proceedings means proceedings of the Commission taken under this Chapter; and
  - (w) (d) Staff, in relation to a Committee member, means persons under the direction and control of the Committee member, other than assistants.
- 2. Responsibilities to the process
- Each member of the Committee shall avoid tactlessness and inappropriate appearance, shall be independent and impartial, avoid direct and indirect conflicts of interest, and adhere to high standards of conduct to maintain the integrity and impartiality of the dispute resolution process. Former Committee members are bound by the obligations set out in paragraphs 17 through 20.

Disclosure obligations

- 4. Prior to confirming his or her selection as a member of the Committee under this Agreement, the Nominee shall disclose any interest, relationship or matter that is likely to affect his or her independence or impartiality or may reasonably give rise to an appearance of impropriety or bias in the proceedings. To this end, the candidate shall make all reasonable efforts to be aware of any such interest, relationship or matter.
  - Once selected, the Committee Member must continue to make all reasonable efforts to be aware of any interests, relationships and matters referred to in paragraph 3, and must disclose them by reporting them in writing to the Joint Committee for consideration by the Parties. The obligation to disclose is an ongoing duty, requiring a Committee member to disclose any interests, relationships and matters that may arise during any stage of the proceedings.

Performing the duties of committee members

- 6. A committee member must comply with the provisions of this chapter and the applicable bylaws.
- 7. A committee member, once selected for the position, must perform his or her duties accurately and expeditiously throughout the proceedings with fairness and diligence.
- 8 A panel member may not deprive other panel members of the opportunity to participate in all aspects of the proceedings.
- 9. A panel member must consider only those matters raised in the proceedings that are necessary to make a decision and may not delegate the duty to make a decision to any other person.
- 10. The Committee Member must take all appropriate steps to ensure that the Committee Member's assistant and staff comply with paragraphs 2, 3, 4, 19, 20 and 21 of this Annex.
- 11. A Committee member must not engage in ex parte communications in relation to the proceedings.

A Committee member may not communicate matters relating to actual or potential violations of this Annex by another Committee member unless 12. the communication is mutually beneficial or necessary to ascertain whether that member has violated or may violate this Annex.

Independence and Impartiality of Committee Members

13. A committee member must be independent and impartial. A committee member must act in a fair manner and avoid creating an improper or biased appearance.

A committee member may not be influenced by personal interest, outside pressure, political considerations, public clamor, party	14.

A Committee member shall not, directly or indirectly, assume any obligation or accept any advantage that would in any way	15.
interfere, or appear to interfere, with the proper performance of the duties of Committee members.
A panel member may not use his or her position on the panel to promote any personal or private interests. A Panel Member shall avoid	16.
actions that may create the impression that others are in a special position to influence the Panel Member. The Panel Member shall make	10.
every effort to prevent others from presenting themselves as being in a similar position.
A committee member should not allow past or present financial, business, professional, family, or social relationships or responsibilities to influence the behavior or judgment of committee members.	17.
A Committee member must avoid entering into any relationship, or acquiring any financial interest, that is likely to affect the
Committee member's impartiality or that may reasonably create an appearance of impropriety or bias.	18.

Duties in certain situations

19. A committee member or former committee member must avoid actions that may create the appearance that the committee member was biased in carrying out his or her duties or may benefit from a decision or report of the committee.

Maintaining confidentiality

A Committee member or former Committee member shall not at any time disclose or use any non-public information relating to 20. the proceedings or obtained during the proceedings except for the purposes of the proceedings and in no case shall any such information be disclosed or used to obtain a personal advantage, benefit others, or to adversely affect the interest of others.

- 21. A committee member may not disclose the committee's report, or parts thereof, prior to its publication.
- 22. No member of the Committee or former member of the Committee may disclose at any time any of the Committee's deliberations, or the opinion of any member of the Committee, except as required to implement the legal and constitutional provisions.
