ANNEX 1

AMENDMENTS TO THE PREAMBLE

ANNEX 1

AMENDMENTS TO THE PREAMBLE

Iceland, the Principality of Liechtenstein, the Kingdom of Norway and the Swiss Confederation (EFTA States),

and

The Republic of Chile (Chile),

hereinafter collectively referred to as “the Parties”, resolved to:

STRENGTHEN the special bonds of friendship and co-operation between their nations;

CONTRIBUTE to the harmonious development and expansion of world trade by removing obstacles to trade and provide a catalyst to broader international cooperation;

ESTABLISH clear and mutually advantageous rules governing their trade;

CREATE an expanded and secure market for goods and services in their territories;

ENSURE a stable and predictable environment for business planning and investment;

FOSTER creativity and innovation by protecting intellectual property rights;

BUILD on their respective rights and obligations under the Marrakech Agreement establishing the World Trade Organization and other multilateral and bilateral instruments of co-operation;

ENSURE that the gains from trade liberalisation are not offset by the erection of private, anti-competitive barriers;

ENHANCE the competitiveness of their firms in global markets;

CREATE new employment opportunities, improve working conditions and living standards in their respective territories and seek to ensure high levels of environmental and labour protection;

REAFFIRM their commitment to pursue the objective of sustainable development and recognise the importance of coherent and mutually supportive trade, environmental and labour policies in this respect;

IMPLEMENT this Agreement in line with the objectives to preserve and protect the environment through promoting high levels of environmental protection, and enforcement of environmental laws and sound environmental management;

RECALL their rights and obligations under multilateral environmental agreements to which they are a party, and the respect for the fundamental principles and rights at work, including the principles set out in the relevant International Labour Organisation (ILO) Conventions to which they are a party;

REAFFIRM their commitment to promote inclusive economic development and equal opportunities for all;

AFFIRM their commitment to prevent and combat corruption in international trade and investment and to promote the principles of transparency and good public governance;

ACKNOWLEDGE the importance of good corporate governance and responsible business conduct for sustainable development, and affirm their aim to encourage enterprises to observe internationally recognised guidelines and principles in this respect, such as the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises on Responsible Business Conduct, the OECD Principles of Corporate Governance and the UN Global Compact;

REAFFIRM their commitment to democracy, the rule of law, human rights and fundamental freedoms in accordance with their obligations under international law, including the principles and objectives set out in the United Nations Charter and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights; and

CONVINCED that this Agreement will create conditions encouraging economic, trade and investment relations between them;

HAVE AGREED, in pursuit of the above, to conclude the following Free Trade Agreement (Agreement):

ANNEX 2

AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLE I

INITIAL PROVISIONS

ANNEX 2

AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLE 1 (ESTABLISHMENT OF A FREE TRADE AREA)

ARTICLE 1

Establishment of a free trade area

The Parties hereby establish a free trade area in accordance with Article XXIV of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade 1994 (GATT 1994), Article V of the General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS) and the provisions of this Agreement.

ANNEX 3

AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLE 2

ANNEX 3

AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLE 2 (OBJECTIVES)

ARTICLE 2

Objectives

This Agreement is based on trade relations between market economies and on the respect for democratic principles and human rights, with a view to spurring prosperity and sustainable development. The objectives of this Agreement, as elaborated through its principles and rules, are to:

- (a) achieve the liberalisation of trade in goods, in conformity with Article XXIV of the GATT 1994;
 - (b) achieve the liberalisation of trade in services, in conformity with Article V of the GATS;
 - (c) achieve the liberalisation on a mutual basis of the government procurement markets of the Parties;
 - (d) promote conditions of fair competition in the free trade area;
 - (e) prevent the preparation, adoption and application of technical regulations or sanitary and phytosanitary measures that are more trade restrictive than necessary;
 - (f) substantially increase investment opportunities in the free trade area;
 - (g) provide adequate and effective protection and enforcement of intellectual property rights, in accordance with international standards recognised by the Parties;
 - (h) develop international trade and investment in such a way as to contribute to the objective of sustainable development and to ensure that this objective is integrated and reflected in the Parties' trade relations; and
 - (i) establish a framework for further bilateral and multilateral cooperation to expand and enhance the benefits of this Agreement.

ANNEX 4

AMENDMENTS TO CHAPTER II

TRADE IN GOODS

ANNEX 4

AMENDMENTS TO CHAPTER II

TRADE IN GOODS

ARTICLE 7

Scope and coverage

This Chapter applies to trade in goods between the Parties.

ARTICLE 8

Rules of origin and administrative cooperation

The rules of origin and administrative cooperation are set out in Annex I (Rules of Origin and Administrative Cooperation).

ARTICLE 9

Customs duties

1. Each Party shall apply customs duties on imports of goods originating in another Party in accordance with Annexes III (Chile Schedule of Tariff Commitments), IV (Iceland Schedule of Tariff Commitments), V (Norway Schedule of Tariff Commitments) and VI (Switzerland Schedule of Tariff Commitments).
2. For the purposes of this Agreement, a “customs duty” means any duties, taxes or charges imposed in connection with the importation or exportation of goods but does not include those imposed in conformity with Articles III and VIII of the GATT 1994.
3. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, no Party shall increase customs duties on imports, or introduce new customs duties, on goods originating in another Party covered by Annexes III (Chile Schedule of Tariff Commitments), IV (Iceland Schedule of Tariff Commitments), V (Norway Schedule of Tariff Commitments) and VI (Switzerland Schedule of Tariff Commitments).
4. The Parties shall eliminate all customs duties in connection with the exportation of goods to another Party.
5. The Parties shall not introduce new customs duties on exports.

ARTICLE 10

Fees and formalities

Without prejudice to Article 7 (Fees and charges) of Annex VII^{ter} (Trade Facilitation), Article VIII of the GATT 1994 applies and is hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

ARTICLE 11

Import and export restrictions

Article XI of the GATT 1994 applies and is hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis, except as provided for in Annex VII (Import and Export Restrictions).

ARTICLE 12

Customs valuation¹

Article VII of the GATT 1994 and Part I of the Agreement on Implementation of Article VII of the GATT 1994 apply and are hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

ARTICLE 13

National treatment

Article III of the GATT 1994 applies and is hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

ARTICLE 14

Sanitary and phytosanitary measures

1. The rights and obligations of the Parties with respect to sanitary and phytosanitary measures shall be governed by the WTO Agreement on the Application of Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures (SPS Agreement).
2. The Parties shall strengthen their co-operation in the field of sanitary and phytosanitary measures, with a view to increasing the mutual understanding of their respective systems and facilitating access to their respective markets.

3. Upon request of a Party, which considers that a measure of another Party is likely to affect, or has affected, access to its market, expert consultations shall be held. The experts, representing the Parties concerned on specific issues in the field of sanitary and phytosanitary matters, shall aim at finding a mutually acceptable solution. Consultations shall take place within 30 days from the receipt of the request and may be conducted by any method agreed by the consulting Parties.
4. In order to permit the efficient use of resources, the Parties shall, to the extent possible, endeavour to use modern technological means of communication, such as electronic communication, videoconferencing or telephone, or to arrange for the meetings referred to in paragraph 3 to be held in conjunction with the meetings of the Joint Committee or with sanitary and phytosanitary meetings in the framework of the WTO. The results of expert consultations held in accordance with paragraph 3 shall be reported to the Joint Committee.
5. Chile and any of the EFTA States may, for better implementation of this Article, develop bilateral arrangements including agreements between their respective regulatory agencies.
6. Upon request of a Party, the Parties shall, without undue delay, agree on an arrangement extending to each other equivalent² treatment related to sanitary and phytosanitary measures mutually agreed between each Party and the European Union (EU).
7. The Parties shall exchange names and addresses of contact points with sanitary and phytosanitary expertise in order to facilitate communication and the exchange of information.

ARTICLE 15

Technical regulations

1. The rights and obligations of the Parties with respect to technical regulations, standards and conformity assessment shall be governed by the WTO Agreement on Technical Barriers to Trade (TBT Agreement).
2. The Parties shall strengthen their cooperation in the field of technical regulations, standards and conformity assessment, with a view to increasing the mutual understanding of their respective systems and facilitating access to their respective markets.
3. Upon request of a Party, which considers that a technical regulation, standard or conformity assessment procedure of another Party is likely to create, or has created, an obstacle to trade, consultations shall be held with the objective of finding a mutually acceptable solution. Consultations shall take place within 30 days from the receipt of the request and may be conducted by any method agreed by the consulting Parties. The Joint Committee shall be informed thereof.

4. Upon request of a Party, the Parties shall, without undue delay, negotiate a sector specific arrangement with the aim to extend to each other treatment related to technical regulations, standards and conformity assessments each Party has granted to or agreed with the EU. A Party which does not agree to extend to each other such an arrangement shall provide to the other Party, upon request, the rationale for its decision. The Joint Committee shall be informed thereof.

5. The Parties shall exchange names and addresses of contact points for this Article in order to facilitate communication and the exchange of information.

ARTICLE 16

Trade facilitation

Provisions regarding trade facilitation are set out in Annex VIIter (Trade Facilitation).

ARTICLE 17

Anti-dumping and countervailing measures

1. A Party shall not apply anti-dumping measures as provided for under the WTO Agreement on Implementation of Article VI of the GATT 1994 in relation to goods of a Party.
2. The Parties recognise that the effective implementation of competition rules may address economic causes leading to dumping.
3. The rights and obligations of the Parties related to countervailing measures shall be governed by the WTO Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures.

ARTICLE 18

Global safeguard measures

1. The rights and obligations of the Parties with respect to global safeguards shall be governed by Article XIX of the GATT 1994 and the WTO Agreement on Safeguards.
2. Upon request of the exporting Party, the Party initiating a global safeguard investigation shall immediately provide:
 - (a) the information referred to in Articles 12.2 and 12.6 of the WTO Agreement on Safeguards, in the format prescribed by the WTO Committee on Safeguards; and

- (b) the public notice of initiation of an investigation and the public version of the complaint filed by the domestic industry.

3 A Party initiating an investigation to impose global safeguard measures against one or several Parties shall inform them immediately and provide adequate opportunity for consultations.

ARTICLE 19

Emergency action on imports of particular products

1. Where any product originating in a Party, as a result of the reduction or elimination of a customs duty under this Agreement, is being imported into the territory of another Party in such increased quantities and under such conditions as to constitute a substantial cause of serious injury or threat thereof to the domestic industry of like or directly competitive products in the territory of the importing Party, the importing Party may take emergency measures to the minimum extent necessary to remedy or prevent the injury.

2. Such measures may consist in:

- (a) suspending the further reduction of any rate of duty provided for under this Agreement on the product; or
- (b) increasing the rate of duty on the product to a level not to exceed the lesser of:
 - (i) the most-favoured nation rate of duty in effect at the time the action is taken;
 - (ii) the most-favoured nation rate of duty in effect on the day immediately preceding the date of the entry into force of this Agreement.

3. The Parties shall not take emergency measures for a period exceeding one year. In very exceptional circumstances, after review by the Joint Committee, measures may be taken up to a total maximum period of three years. In this case, the Party taking such measures shall present a schedule leading to their progressive elimination. The Parties shall not apply measures to the import of a product which has previously been subject to such a measure for a period of, at least, five years since the expiry of the measure.

4. The Parties shall only take emergency measures upon clear evidence that increased imports have caused or are threatening to cause serious injury pursuant to an investigation in accordance with the procedures laid down in the WTO Agreement on Safeguards.

5. The Party intending to take emergency measures under this Article shall promptly make a notification to the other Parties, containing all pertinent information which shall include evidence of serious injury caused by increased imports, precise description of the product involved, the proposed measure, the proposed date of introduction and expected duration of the measures. Any Party that may be affected shall simultaneously be offered compensation in the form of substantially equivalent trade liberalisation in relation to the imports from any such Party.

6. The Joint Committee shall, within 30 days from the date of notification to the Parties, meet to examine the information provided under paragraph 5, in order to facilitate a mutually acceptable solution of the matter. In the absence of such solution, the importing Party may adopt a measure pursuant to paragraph 2 to remedy the problem, and, in the absence of mutually agreed compensation, the Party against whose product the measure is taken may take retaliatory action. The emergency measure and any compensatory or retaliatory action shall be immediately notified to the Joint Committee. The retaliatory action shall consist of the suspension of concessions having substantially equivalent trade effects or concessions substantially equivalent to the value of the additional duties expected to result from the emergency action. In the selection of the emergency measure and the retaliatory action, priority must be given to the action which least disturbs the functioning of this Agreement.

7. In critical circumstances where delay would cause damage which would be difficult to repair, a Party may take a provisional emergency measure not exceeding 120 days pursuant to a preliminary determination that there is clear evidence that increased imports have caused or are threatening to cause serious injury. The Party intending to take such a measure shall immediately notify the other Parties thereof and, within 30 days of the date of such notification, the pertinent procedures set out in paragraphs 5 and 6, including for compensatory and retaliatory action, shall be initiated. Any compensation shall be based on the total period of application of the provisional measure. The period of application of any such provisional measure shall be counted as part of the duration of the definitive measure and any extension thereof.

ARTICLE 20

State trading enterprises

Article XVII of the GATT 1994 and the Understanding on the Interpretation of Article XVII of the GATT 1994 apply and are hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

ARTICLE 21

Export subsidies

No Party may adopt or maintain export subsidies, as defined in the WTO Agreement on Agriculture, in connection with the exportation of agricultural products to another Party.

ARTICLE 22

General exceptions

1. For the purposes of this Chapter, Article XX of the GATT 1994 and its interpretative notes apply and are incorporated into and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.
2. The Parties understand that the measures referred to in Article XX(b) of the GATT 1994 include environmental measures necessary to protect human, animal or plant life or health, and that Article XX(g) of the GATT 1994 applies to measures relating to the conservation of living and non-living exhaustible natural resources.

ARTICLE 23

Preference utilisation

1. For the purposes of monitoring the functioning of this Agreement and calculating preference utilisation rates, the Parties shall annually exchange import statistics and preferential tariff rates under this Agreement as well as applied most-favoured-nation (MFN) tariff rates.
2. Import statistics exchanged shall pertain to the three most recent years available and comprise all imports from the Party concerned, including trade values and volumes listed at the level of national tariff line. The Parties shall exchange separate statistics for imports benefitting from preferential treatment under this Agreement, for imports benefitting from other preferential treatment than under this Agreement as well as those that did not receive preferential treatment (MFN treatment). The preferential tariff rates and applied MFN tariff rates exchanged shall pertain to the same year as the import statistics. Upon request, the Parties shall exchange additional information and explanations in English.
3. The exchange of import statistics, preferential tariff rates and applied MFN tariff rates shall start one year after the entry into force of this Agreement.
4. Notwithstanding paragraph 2, no Party shall be obliged to exchange data that is confidential in accordance with its domestic laws and regulations.

ARTICLE 24

Technical amendments

1. The Parties shall jointly decide, as a result of amendments to the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (HS) nomenclature or other technical amendments to a Party's customs tariff, whether Annexes III (Chile Schedule of Tariff Commitments), IV (Iceland Schedule of Tariff Commitments), V (Norway Schedule of Tariff Commitments) and VI (Switzerland Schedule of Tariff Commitments) and Appendix I (Product-Specific Rules) to Annex I (Rules of Origin and Administrative Cooperation) will be amended accordingly.

2. Amendments pursuant to paragraph 1 shall be made without impairing existing tariff commitments or product-specific rules. Consequently, the customs duty applicable to the corresponding goods under a new tariff line shall be equal to or lower than the customs duty of the corresponding original tariff line and any other agreed tariff commitments, such as tariff dismantling periods, shall not deteriorate. Product-specific rules applicable to the corresponding goods under the new HS classification shall be equal to or less stringent than the product-specific rule of the corresponding original HS classification.

3. The version of the HS and the year shall be indicated in the schedules of tariff commitments and product-specific rules referred to in paragraph 1.

ARTICLE 25

Sub-Committee on trade in goods

1. A Sub-Committee on trade in goods is hereby established.

2. The mandate of the Sub-Committee on trade in goods is set out in Annex VIIbis (Mandate of the Sub-Committee on trade in goods).

SECTION I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

Definitions

For the purposes of this Annex:

- (a) “chapter”, “heading” and “subheading” means a chapter (two-digit code), heading (four-digit code) or subheading (six-digit code) of the Harmonized System;
- (b) “customs authority” means the authority that, according to the domestic laws and regulations of a Party, is responsible for the implementation of its customs legislation;
- (c) “ex-works price” means the price paid for a product to the manufacturer in the Party where the last working or processing was carried out, in accordance with the international commercial terms “incoterms”, excluding internal taxes which may be reimbursed when the product is exported;
- (d) “Harmonized System” or “HS” means the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System;
- (e) “manufacture” means any kind of working or processing, including assembling;
- (f) “material” means any ingredient, raw material, component or part used in the manufacture of a product;
- (g) “Party” means Chile, Iceland, Norway or the customs territory of Switzerland. Pursuant to the Customs Treaty of 1923 between Switzerland and Liechtenstein, a product originating in Liechtenstein shall be considered as originating in Switzerland;
- (h) “product” means the result of manufacture, even if it is intended for later use as material in another manufacturing operation; and
- (i) “value” means the customs value determined in accordance with the Agreement on Implementation of Article VII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade 1994 at the time of importation of the non-originating materials used, or, if this is not known and cannot be ascertained, the first ascertainable price paid for the materials in a Party.

SECTION II

CONCEPT OF “ORIGINATING PRODUCTS”

Article 2

General requirements

For the purposes of this Agreement, a product shall be considered as originating in a Party if:

- (a) it has been wholly obtained in a Party, in accordance with Article 3 (Wholly obtained products);
- (b) the non-originating materials used in the working or processing have undergone sufficient working or processing in a Party, in accordance with Article 4 (Sufficient working or processing);
- (c) it has been produced in a Party exclusively from materials originating in one or more Parties, in accordance with Article 6 (Accumulation of origin); or
- (d) it has been produced in a Party exclusively from materials as specified in subparagraphs (a) to (c).

Article 3

Wholly obtained products

The following products shall be considered as wholly obtained in a Party:

- (a) minerals and other naturally occurring substances extracted or taken from its soil, waters, seabed or beneath the seabed there;
- (b) vegetable products grown and harvested there;
- (c) live animals born and raised there;
- (d) products from live animals raised there;
- (e) products from slaughtered animals born and raised there;
- (f) products obtained by hunting, trapping, fishing or aquaculture conducted there;
- (g) products obtained there by using cell cultures¹;

- (h) products falling within Chapters 29 to 39 of the Harmonized System obtained there by fermentation²;
- (i) products of sea fishing and other marine products taken from the sea outside the territorial waters of any country, by a vessel registered in a Party and flying its flag, and products manufactured exclusively from such products, on board a factory ship registered in a Party and flying its flag;
- (j) products extracted from marine soil or sub-soil outside the territorial waters of a Party provided that this Party has the sole rights to exploit that soil or sub-soil;
- (k) waste and scrap resulting from manufacturing operations conducted there;
- (l) used products collected there fit only for the recovery of raw materials and not for their original purpose; or
- (m) products manufactured in a Party exclusively from materials listed in subparagraphs (a) to (l).

Article 4

Sufficient working or processing

1. A product obtained from non-originating materials shall be considered to have undergone sufficient working or processing if the applicable product-specific rule of Appendix 1 (Product-specific rules) is fulfilled.
2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, the operations defined in Article 5 (Insufficient working or processing) are considered as insufficient to obtain originating status.
3. The product-specific rules referred to in paragraph 1 indicate the working or processing which must be carried out on non-originating materials used in manufacturing and concern only such materials. It follows that if a product, which has acquired originating status in accordance with paragraph 1 in a Party, is further processed in that Party and used as material in the manufacture of another product, no account shall be taken of the non-originating components of that material.
4. Where a rule set out in Appendix 1 (Product-specific rules) is based on compliance with a sufficient processing threshold or a maximum content of non-originating materials, the value of non-originating materials used in the production of the product may be calculated on an average basis over a period of the preceding fiscal year in order to take into account the fluctuations in costs or currency rates, subject to the domestic requirements of the exporting Party.

² For the purpose of this Annex, “fermentation” means a biotechnological process in which human, animal or plant cells, bacteria, yeasts, fungi or enzymes are used in the production process.

Article 5

Insufficient working or processing

1. Notwithstanding Article 4 (Sufficient working or processing), a product shall not be considered as originating, if it has only undergone one or more of the following operations or processes:

- (a) preserving operations to ensure that a product retains its condition during transport and storage and operations whose sole purpose is to ease loading;
- (b) freezing or thawing;
- (c) breaking-up, packaging, re-packaging or assembly of packages;
- (d) washing, cleaning, removal of dust, oxide, oil, paint or other coverings;
- (e) ironing or pressing of textiles or textile products;
- (f) simple painting and polishing;
- (g) husking, partial or total bleaching, polishing, and glazing of cereals and rice;
- (h) colouring of sugar or forming sugar lumps;
- (i) peeling and removal of stones, cores, pips and shells from fruits, nuts and vegetables;
- (j) sharpening, simple grinding or simple cutting;
- (k) sifting, screening, sorting, classifying, grading, matching;
- (l) simple placing in bottles, cans, flasks, bags, cases, boxes, fixing on cards or boards and all other simple packaging operations;
- (m) affixing or printing marks, labels, logos and other like distinguishing signs on products or their packaging;
- (n) simple mixing of products, whether or not of different kinds;
- (o) simple assembly of parts of articles to constitute a complete article or disassembly of products into parts; or
- (p) slaughter of animals.

2. For the purposes of paragraph 1, “simple” describes operations or processes which need neither special skills nor machines, apparatus or equipment especially produced or installed to carry out the operation or process.

3. All operations or processes carried out in a Party on a product shall be taken into account when determining whether these operations or processes are considered as insufficient working or processing in accordance with paragraph 1.

Article 6

Accumulation of origin

1. A product originating in a Party, which is used as material in the manufacture of a product in another Party, shall be considered as originating in the Party where the last operations beyond those referred to Article 5 (Insufficient working or processing) have been carried out.

2. A product originating in a Party, which is exported from one Party to another and does not undergo working or processing beyond those referred to in paragraph 1 of Article 5 (Insufficient working or processing), shall retain its origin.

3. Where materials originating in two or more Parties are used in the manufacture of a product and these materials have not undergone any working or processing beyond the operations referred to in Article 5 (Insufficient working or processing), the origin of the product is determined by the material with the highest value, or if this cannot be ascertained, with the highest first ascertainable price paid for that material in that Party.

4. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, products imported from a non-Party, which are used as materials in the manufacture of a product in an EFTA State or Chile, shall be considered as originating in the Party where the last operation has been carried out, provided that:

- (a) preferential trade agreements in accordance with Article XXIV of the GATT 1994 between the EFTA State concerned, Chile and that non-Party, which foresee certification of origin and administrative cooperation procedures, including procedures for verification of originating status, are in force;
- (b) these materials qualify as originating materials under the preferential trade agreement between that non-Party and the Party where the last operation has been carried out; and
- (c) the working or processing carried out in the EFTA State concerned or Chile goes beyond those referred to in paragraph 1 of Article 5 (Insufficient working or processing). Such materials do not have to undergo sufficient working or processing.

Article 7

Tolerances

1. If non-originating materials used in the production of a product do not satisfy the requirements set out in Appendix 1 (Product-specific rules), the product shall be considered as originating in a Party, provided that the value of all those non-originating materials does not exceed 20 % of the ex-works price of the product.
2. Paragraph 1 shall not apply if the value of non-originating materials used in the production of a product exceeds any of the percentages for the maximum value of non-originating materials as specified in the requirements set out in Appendix 1 (Product-specific rules).
3. Paragraph 1 shall not apply to products wholly obtained in a Party in accordance with Article 3. If Appendix 1 (Product-specific rules) requires that the materials used in the production of a product are wholly obtained, paragraphs 1 and 2 shall apply.

Article 8

Unit of qualification

1. For the purpose of determining the originating status, the unit of qualification of a product or material shall be determined in accordance with the Harmonized System.
2. Pursuant to paragraph 1:
 - (a) packaging shall be included with a product if it is included with that product in accordance with General Interpretative Rule 5 of the General Rules for the Interpretation of the Harmonized System (General Interpretative Rules). Packing materials and containers for shipment that are used to protect a product during transportation shall be disregarded in determining whether a product is originating; and
 - (b) where a consignment consists of a number of identical products classified under a single heading or sub-heading of the Harmonized System, each product shall be considered separately.

Article 9

Accessories, spare parts and tools

Accessories, spare parts, tools and instruction and information material dispatched with a piece of equipment, machine, apparatus or vehicle which are part of the normal equipment and included in its ex-works price, or which are not separately invoiced, shall be considered as part of the product in question.

Article 10

Neutral elements

Neutral elements, which have not entered into the final composition of the product, such as energy and fuel, plant and equipment, or machines and tools, shall not be taken into account when the origin of that product is determined.

Article 11

Sets

Sets, in accordance with General Interpretative Rule 3 of the Harmonized System, shall be regarded as originating when all components of the set are originating products. When a set is composed of originating and non-originating products, the set as a whole shall however be regarded as originating, provided that the value of the non-originating products does not exceed 15 % of the ex-works price of the set.

Article 12

Accounting segregation

1. If originating and non-originating fungible materials are used in the working or processing of a product, the determination of whether the materials used are originating may be determined on the basis of an accounting segregation system, and may be subject to prior authorisation by the customs authority of the Party concerned.
2. For the purposes of paragraph 1, “fungible materials” mean materials that are of the same kind and commercial quality, with the same technical and physical characteristics, and which cannot be distinguished from one another once they are incorporated into the finished product.
3. The accounting segregation system must ensure that no more final products receive originating status than would have been the case if the materials had been physically segregated.
4. A producer using an accounting segregation system must keep records of the operation of the system that are necessary for the customs authority of the Party concerned to verify compliance with the provisions of this Annex.
5. The authorisation to use accounting segregation may be withdrawn by the customs authority at any time if the producer makes improper use of it.

SECTION III

TERRITORIAL REQUIREMENTS

Article 13

Principle of territoriality

1. The conditions for acquiring originating status set out in the provisions of Section II (Concept of “Originating Products”) must be fulfilled without any interruption in the territory of a Party.
2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, if an originating product is returned to the exporting Party after having been exported to a non-Party without having undergone any operation there, beyond those necessary to preserve its condition, that product shall retain its originating status. The customs authority of the importing Party may require evidence that the returned product did not undergo any operation outside the exporting Party, beyond those necessary to preserve its condition.
3. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, the acquisition of the originating status of a product in accordance with the provisions of Section II (Concept of “Originating Products”) shall not be affected by operations carried out in a non-Party under an outward processing procedure or a similar arrangement, if:
 - (a) the re-imported materials have been obtained from the exported materials; and
 - (b) the total added value acquired in the non-Party does not exceed 20 % of the ex-works price of the product; and
 - (c) the total value of the non-originating materials incorporated in a Party, taken together with the total added value acquired outside that Party, does not exceed the value allowed in accordance with Appendix 1 (Product-specific rules).
4. For the purposes of subparagraph 3(b), “total added value” means all costs arising outside a Party, including transport costs and the value of non-originating materials incorporated there.

Article 14

Non-alteration

1. Originating products, for which preferential tariff treatment is requested in a Party, shall be the same products as exported from another Party. They must not be altered or transformed in any way nor undergo operations other than those to preserve their condition, adding or affixing marks, labels, seals or any documentation to ensure compliance with domestic requirements of the importing Party, prior to being declared for preferential tariff treatment.

2. Transit, storage and splitting of consignments may take place in a non-Party, provided they remain under customs supervision in that non-Party.

3. Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be considered fulfilled, unless the customs authority of the importing Party has reason to believe the contrary. In such case, the customs authority of the importing Party may request the importer or his or her representative to provide appropriate evidence of compliance, which may be given by any means, including contractual transport documents such as bills of lading, or factual or concrete evidence based on marking or numbering of packages, or any other evidence.

SECTION IV

PROOF OF ORIGIN

Article 15

Statement on origin

1. For the purpose of obtaining preferential tariff treatment in the importing Party, a proof of origin in the form of a statement on origin in accordance with Appendix 2 (Statement on Origin) must be completed by an exporter established in a Party for products originating in any Party and otherwise fulfilling the requirements of this Annex.

2. The statement on origin must be completed on an invoice or any other commercial document that identifies the exporter and the originating products, and, except as provided for in Article 16 (Approved exporter), bear the original signature of the exporter. Non-approved exporters should preferably indicate the tariff classification at four-digit level under the Harmonized System on the invoice or other commercial document, unless the total value of the originating products in the consignment does not exceed 6000 euro.

3. The statement on origin may be completed when the products to which it relates are exported, or after exportation. A statement on origin shall be valid one year from the date of completion.

4. Subject to domestic laws and regulations of the exporting Party, forwarding agents, customs brokers and other persons have to be empowered in writing by the exporter of the product to complete statements on origin. They must submit the said authorisation to the customs authorities, at their request.

5. An exporter who has completed a statement on origin must keep a copy of the statement on origin and all documents supporting the originating status of the product, in paper or electronic form, for at least three years from the date of completion.

Article 16

Approved exporter

1. The competent authority of the exporting Party may, subject to domestic requirements, authorise an exporter of that Party to complete a statement on origin without signature.
2. An exporter who requests such authorisation must offer, to the satisfaction of the competent authority of the exporting Party, all guarantees necessary to verify the originating status of the products as well as the fulfilment of any other requirement under this Annex.
3. The competent authority of the exporting Party shall provide to the approved exporter an authorisation number to be included in the statement on origin instead of the signature.
4. The competent authority of the exporting Party may verify the proper use of an authorisation and withdraw it if the exporter no longer fulfils the conditions or otherwise makes improper use of it.

SECTION V

PREFERENTIAL TREATMENT

Article 17

Importation requirements

1. Each Party shall grant preferential tariff treatment in accordance with the Agreement to originating products of a Party imported from another Party, on the basis of a statement on origin referred to in Article 15 (Statement on origin).
2. In order to obtain preferential tariff treatment, the importer must, in accordance with the procedures applicable in the importing Party, request preferential tariff treatment at the time of importation of an originating product.
3. A delayed claim for preferential tariff treatment may also be granted, where applicable, as provided for in the domestic laws and regulations of the EFTA State concerned, and as provided for in Chile's regulation by refund of duties within a period of two years from the date of acceptance of the import declaration.
4. A statement on origin must be submitted to the customs authority of the importing Party within one year from its completion. The expiration of this period may be suspended as long as the products covered by that statement on origin remain under customs control of the importing Party. After this period, a statement on origin may only be accepted in exceptional circumstances.
5. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, a Party may, in accordance with its domestic laws and regulations, waive the requirements to present a statement on origin.

6. An importer who has been granted preferential tariff treatment must keep the statement on origin and other relevant documents for three years in the EFTA States and for five years in Chile from the date on which preferential tariff treatment was granted.

Article 18

Importation by instalments

Where, at the request of an importer and subject to the conditions laid down by the customs authority of the importing Party, a dismantled or non-assembled product within the meaning of General Interpretative Rule 2(a) is imported by instalments, a single statement on origin may be submitted to the customs authority upon importation of the first instalment. Alternatively, a statement on origin may be submitted for each imported instalment.

Article 19

Cooperation of exporters and importers with the customs authority

1. Exporters and importers benefitting from the Agreement must cooperate, within the framework of this Annex and subject to domestic laws and regulations of the Party concerned, with the customs authority of the Party in which they are established and must submit, upon request, supporting documents regarding the fulfilment of the requirements of this Annex.
2. An exporter who has completed a statement on origin must:
 - (a) upon request of the customs authority of the exporting Party, submit the documents referred to in paragraph 5 of Article 15 (Statement on origin) to this authority, which may carry out inspections at any time and verify the accounts of the exporter or the producer and take other appropriate measures; and
 - (b) when becoming aware of or having reason to believe that a statement on origin contains incorrect information, immediately notify the importer and the customs authority of the exporting Party of any change affecting the originating status of each product covered by that statement on origin.
3. An importer who has requested or has been granted preferential tariff treatment must:
 - (a) upon request of the customs authority of the importing Party, submit the documents referred to in paragraph 3 of Article 14 (Non-alteration) to that authority; and
 - (b) when becoming aware of or having reason to believe that the statement on origin contains incorrect information, immediately notify the customs authority of the importing Party of any change affecting the originating status of each product covered by that statement on origin.

Article 20

Denial of preferential treatment

1. An importing Party may deny preferential tariff treatment or recover unpaid customs duties in accordance with its domestic laws and regulations where a product does not fulfil the requirements of this Annex or where the importer or exporter fails to demonstrate compliance with these requirements.
2. Slight discrepancies between the statements made in the statement on origin and those made in other documents submitted to the customs authority for customs clearance or obvious formal errors, such as typing errors in a statement on origin, shall not as such render the statement on origin invalid, provided that they do not create doubts concerning the accuracy of the information contained in the import documentation and that they do not affect the originating status of the goods itself.
3. An incorrect HS-code mentioned in any of the accompanying documents, including the statement on origin, shall not as such be a reason for rejecting a claim for preferential treatment.

SECTION VI

ADMINISTRATIVE COOPERATION

Article 21

Verification of statements on origin

1. The customs authority of the exporting Party shall carry out verifications of statements on origin upon request of the customs authority of the importing Party. The request and any subsequent communication, including the result, may be submitted through letter mail or via electronic means.
2. The verification request may question the authenticity of the statement on origin, the originating status of the product concerned or the fulfilment of any other requirements of this Annex. It shall identify the reason for the request and include a copy of the statement on origin and, where appropriate, any other document or information giving reason to believe that the statement on origin could be invalid.
3. The importing Party shall submit the verification request to the exporting Party within 34 months from the completion of the statement on origin. The exporting Party shall not be obliged to conduct verifications based on verification requests received after this period.

4. The customs authority of the importing Party may, subject to domestic laws and regulations, suspend preferential tariff treatment to a product covered by a statement on origin until the verification procedure has been completed.

5. The customs authority of the exporting Party may request evidence, carry out inspections at the exporter's or producer's premises, check the exporter's and the producer's accounts and take other appropriate measures to verify compliance with this Annex.

6. The requesting Party shall be informed of the results and findings of the verification within 15 months from the date of the verification request. If the requesting Party does not receive a reply within that time limit, or if the reply does not clearly state whether a product is originating or whether the statement on origin is valid, the requesting Party may deny preferential tariff treatment to the consignment covered by the statement on origin in question.

7. Where the requested Party is unable to comply with the time limit referred to in paragraph 6, it shall, upon request within that time limit, be granted an extension thereof.

Article 22

Notifications and cooperation

1. The Parties shall provide each other, through the EFTA Secretariat, with:
 - (a) the addresses of the customs authority of the Parties responsible for the verifications referred to in Article 21 (Verification of statements on origin) and other issues related to the implementation or application of this Annex;
 - (b) information on authorisation numbers allocated to approved exporters, pursuant to Article 16 (Approved exporter);
 - (c) information on the interpretation, application and administration of this Annex; and
 - (d) information on the electronic verification procedure.
2. The Parties shall provide, through the EFTA Secretariat, information regarding the entry into force of a new preferential trade agreement which they have concluded pursuant to Article 6 (Accumulation of origin).
3. The Parties shall endeavour to resolve technical matters related to the implementation or application of this Annex, to the extent possible, through direct consultations between the customs authorities referred to in subparagraph 1(a) or in the Sub-Committee on trade in goods. Disputes that cannot be settled through such consultations shall be submitted to the Joint Committee.

Article 23

Confidentiality

Any information in relation with this Annex, which is by nature confidential, or which is provided on a confidential basis, shall be protected in accordance with the domestic laws and regulations of each Party. Such information shall not be disclosed by the authorities of the Parties without the explicit permission of the person or authority providing it.

SECTION VII

FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 24

Penalties

Each Party shall provide for the imposition of criminal, civil or administrative penalties for violations of its domestic laws and regulations related to this Annex.

Article 25

Products in transit or storage

This Annex may be applied to products which, upon entry into force of the Protocol Amending the Free Trade Agreement between the EFTA States and the Republic of Chile, Done at Geneva, this 24th day of June 2024, are either in transit or in temporary storage in a customs warehouse or free zone under customs control. For such products, a statement on origin may be completed retrospectively up to six months after the entry into force of the Agreement, provided that the provisions of this Annex and in particular of Article 14 (Non-alteration) have been fulfilled.

APPENDIX 1

REFERRED TO IN ARTICLES 4, 7 and 13 OF ANNEX I

PRODUCT-SPECIFIC RULES

APPENDIX 1 TO ANNEX I

INTERPRETATIVE NOTES

1. The product-specific rules (PSR) of origin set out in this Appendix are based on HS 2022. The first column of the list contains chapters, headings or sub-headings and the second column sets out a description of the products. For each entry in the first two columns, one or two rules are specified in column 3. If the HS code in column 1 is preceded by an “ex”, this means that the rules in column 3 apply only to the part of that chapter, heading or sub-heading described in column 2. Where, for an entry in the first two columns, more than one rule is specified in column 3, either one may be applied.
2. The PSR may be fulfilled by operations in more than one company within a Party, if these operations, taken together, fulfil the requirements of Annex I (Rules of Origin and Administrative Cooperation).
3. A PSR of origin set out in this Appendix represents the minimum amount of working or processing required to be carried out on non-originating materials for the final product to achieve originating status. A greater amount of working or processing than that required by the rule shall also confer originating status.
4. If a PSR in the list specifies that a product may be manufactured from more than one material, any one or more materials may be used. It does not require that all be used.
5. If a PSR in the list specifies that a product must be manufactured from a particular material, the condition does not prevent the use of other materials in addition.
6. If a PSR excludes materials classified in certain chapters, headings, or sub-headings, those materials must be originating for the products to qualify as originating.
7. If a product, which has acquired originating status by fulfilling the conditions set out in the list, is used as material in the manufacture of another product, the conditions applicable to the final product do not apply to that material. No account shall be taken of the non-originating components of that material.
8. If a PSR uses the expression “Manufacture from materials of any heading”, then materials of any heading, even materials of the same description and heading as the final product, may be used, subject to any specific limitations which may also be contained in the PSR.
9. The products mentioned in the list do benefit from preferential treatment, subject to the schedules of tariff commitments.

SECTION II

NOTE REFERRING TO CHAPTERS 27 TO 40

1. If a substantial transformation of a molecule has occurred, the origin of the product concerned shall correspond to the Party where that transformation took place.
2. The main method for determination of origin should normally be the rule of change of tariff classification. If that rule cannot be applied, the alternative approaches shall be applied in the following sequence:
 - (a) chemical reaction;
 - (b) mixing and blending;
 - (c) purification;
 - (d) change in particle size;
 - (e) standard materials;
 - (f) isomer separation.
3. For the purposes of paragraph 2:
 - (a) “change in particle size” means, for the purposes of chapters 30 to 32 and heading 38.22: deliberate and controlled modification in particle size of a product, other than by merely crushing or pressing, resulting in a product having a defined particle size, defined particle size distribution or defined surface area, which are relevant to the purposes of the resulting product and have different physical or chemical characteristics from the input materials;
 - (b) “chemical reaction” means a process, including a biochemical process, which results in a molecule with a new structure by breaking intramolecular bonds and by forming new intramolecular bonds, or by altering the spatial arrangement of the molecule. A chemical reaction may also be expressed by a change of the “CAS number”. It does not mean:
 - (i) dissolving in water or other solvents;
 - (ii) elimination of solvents including solvent water; or
 - (iii) addition or elimination of water of crystallisation;
 - (c) “isomer separation” means, for the purposes of chapters 28 to 32, chapter 35 and heading 38.22: isolation or separation of isomers from a mixture of isomers;
 - (d) “mixing and blending” means, for the purposes of chapters 30 to 32, heading 33.02, subheading 3502.20, headings 35.06 to 35.07, heading 37.07, 38.08 and 38.22: deliberate and proportionally controlled mixing or blending (including dispersing) of materials to conform to predetermined specifications which results in the production of a product having physical or chemical characteristics which are relevant to the purposes or uses of the product and are different from the input materials;

- (e) “purification” means, for the purposes of chapters 28 to 35 and chapter 38:
 - (i) purification of a product resulting in the elimination of 80 % of the content of existing impurities; or
 - (ii) reduction or elimination of impurities resulting in a product suitable for one or more of the following applications:
 - (aa) pharmaceutical, medicinal, cosmetic, veterinary or food grade substances;
 - (bb) chemical products and reagents for analytical, diagnostic or laboratory uses;
 - (cc) elements and components for use in micro-elements;
 - (dd) specialised optical uses;
 - (ee) non-toxic uses for health and safety;
 - (ff) biotechnical use;
 - (gg) carriers used in a separation process; or
 - (hh) nuclear grade uses; and
- (f) “standard materials”, for the purposes of chapters 28 to 32, chapter 35 and chapter 38: production of preparations suitable for analytical, calibrating or referencing uses having precise degrees of purity or proportions which are certified by the manufacturer.

APPENDIX 2

REFERRED TO IN ARTICLE 15 OF ANNEX I

STATEMENT ON ORIGIN

STATEMENT ON ORIGIN

1. The statement on origin referred to in Article 15 (Statement on origin) of Annex I (Rules of Origin and Administrative Cooperation), shall have the following wording (without the footnotes):

“The exporter of the products covered by this document (customs authorisation No ...)¹ declares that, except where otherwise clearly indicated, these products are of ...² preferential origin.”

(Place and date)³

(Signature of the exporter; in addition the name of the person signing the declaration has to be indicated in clear script)⁴

2. A statement on origin shall be completed in English, in a legible and permanent form.

³ These indications may be omitted if the information is contained in the document itself.

⁴ An approved exporter is not required to sign the statement on origin. See Article 16 (Approved exporter).

APPENDIX 3

EXPLANATORY NOTES TO ARTICLE 15 REFERRED TO IN ANNEX I

APPENDIX 3 TO ANNEX I

EXPLANATORY NOTES TO ARTICLE 15 (STATEMENT ON ORIGIN)

Article 15 – Documentary evidence for used products

Evidence of origin may be issued also for used or any other products where, because of a considerable time lapse between the date of production on the one hand and the date of exportation on the other hand, the usual supporting documents are no longer available, provided that:

- (a) the date of production or importation of the products lies beyond that period of time during which, according to the respective legislation in the country of exportation, records must be kept by traders;
- (b) the products can be deemed to be originating on the grounds of other evidence, like declarations by the producer or any other trader, expert opinions, marks on the products, or descriptions of them, etc;
- (c) there is no indication that the products do not comply with the requirements of the origin rules.

Article 15 – Practical application of the provisions concerning statements on origin

The following guidelines shall apply:

- (a) the indication of non-originating products and therefore products which are not covered by the statement on origin should not be made in the statement on origin itself. However, this indication should appear on the commercial document containing the statement on origin in a precise way so as to avoid any misunderstandings;
- (b) statements on origin made on photocopied commercial documents are acceptable, provided such statements bear the exporter's signature under the same conditions as the original. Approved exporters, who are authorised not to sign statements on origin, are not required to sign statements on origin made on photocopied commercial documents;
- (c) a statement on origin on the reverse of the commercial document is acceptable;
- (d) the statement on origin may be made on a separate sheet of the commercial document, provided that the sheet is considered to be an integral part of that commercial document. A complementary form may not be used;

- (e) a statement on origin completed on a label, which is subsequently attached to the commercial document, is acceptable, provided there is no doubt that the label has been affixed by the exporter. For example, the exporter's stamp or signature should cover both the label and the commercial document.

ANNEX 6

INCORPORATION OF ANNEX III

CHILE SCHEDULE OF TARIFF COMMITMENTS

COMMITMENTS OF CHILE ON GOODS ORIGINATING IN EFTA STATES

ANNEX III

REFERRED TO IN ARTICLE 9 (Customs Duties)

STATES

REFERRED TO IN ARTICLE 9 (Customs Duties)

COMMITMENTS OF CHILE ON GOODS ORIGINATING IN EFTA STATES

The following terms and conditions apply to the tariff commitments granted by Chile to EFTA States in accordance with this Annex:

1. The Schedule of Tariff Commitments of Chile contains the following four columns:
 - (a) National Custom Code 2023 of the Republic of Chile in conformity with the Harmonized System 2022;
 - (b) Description means the description of the product falling under the National Custom Code 2023 of the Republic of Chile;
 - (c) Base Rate means the customs duty rate from which the tariff reduction or elimination program starts; and
 - (d) Category means the category under which the product concerned falls for the purposes of tariff reduction or elimination.
2. For the purposes of implementing equal annual instalments, the following shall apply:
 - (a) the first stage of tariff reduction shall take place on the date of entry into force of this Agreement; and
 - (b) the subsequent annual reductions shall take place on 1 January of each following year.
3. The categories which are applicable to imports into Chile originating in EFTA are the following:
 - (a) "A": customs duties shall be eliminated entirely, and such goods shall be duty-free on the date this Agreement enters into force.
 - (b) "B": customs duties shall be eliminated in three equal annual stages beginning on the date this Agreement enters into force, and such goods shall be duty-free, effective from 1 January of Year 2. Each margin of preference is as follows:

Category	Entry into force	Year 1	Year 2
B	33,3%	66,7%	100%

- (c) "C": customs duties shall be eliminated in five equal annual stages beginning on the date this Agreement enters into force, and such goods shall be duty-free, effective from 1 January of Year 4. Each margin of preference is as follows:

Category	Entry into force	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4
C	20%	40%	60%	80%	100%

- (d) "D": custom duties shall be maintained at the Base Rate level.
- (e) "NC": no commitments related to customs duties on imports are granted by Chile.

5. The reduced duties calculated for ad valorem duties shall be applied rounded to the first decimal place according to the following formula:

- (a) in the case of the second decimal place is less than 5, the first decimal place remains unchanged (e.g. 0.04% will be rounded to 0%); and
- (b) in the case of the second decimal place is equal to or more than 5, the first decimal place will be increased by one (e.g. 0.05% will be rounded to 0.1%).

6. The provisions of this Annex are expressed in terms of the National Custom Code of the Republic of Chile, set out in Decree N°473 of 26 October 2021 of the Ministry of Finance, amended by Decree N°473 of 2022 in force at December 28th, 2022 and the interpretation of its provisions, including the coverage of goods, shall be governed by the General Notes, Explanatory Notes, Section Notes, Chapter Notes, Heading Notes, Subheading Notes, and the additional Notes of the said National Custom Code of the Republic of Chile. To the extent that provisions of this Annex are identical to the corresponding provisions of the National Custom Code, the provisions of this Annex shall have the same meaning as the corresponding provisions of the said National Custom Code.

ICELAND SCHEDULE OF TARIFF COMMITMENTS

COMMITMENTS OF ICELAND ON GOODS ORIGINATING IN CHILE

ANNEX IV

REFERRED TO IN ARTICLE 9 (Customs Duties)

COMMITMENTS OF ICELAND ON GOODS ORIGINATING IN CHILE

The following terms and conditions shall apply to the tariff commitments granted by Iceland in accordance with the schedule of tariff concessions in this Annex:

- (a) Upon entry into force of the Agreement, Iceland shall eliminate import duties and charges having equivalent effect to import duties on imports of goods originating in Chile, classified as “NAMA”, as set out below.
- (b) Upon entry into force of the Agreement, Iceland shall, for goods classified as “AG” (Agricultural Products) originating in Chile, apply the customs duties set out in columns 4a (“Ad valorem”) and 4b (“Specific ISK/kg or ISK/piece”) of the table. “NC” means “No Commitment”.
- (c) The classification of goods shall be that set out in the respective tariff nomenclature of Iceland and in conformity with the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (HS 2022).

NORWAY SCHEDULE OF TARIFF COMMITMENTS

COMMITMENTS OF NORWAY ON GOODS ORIGINATING IN CHILE

ANNEX V

REFERRED TO IN ARTICLE 9 (Customs Duties)

COMMITMENTS OF NORWAY ON GOODS ORIGINATING IN CHILE

The following terms and conditions apply to the tariff commitments granted by Norway to Chile in accordance with this Annex:

1. For goods originating in Chile referred to as “NAMA” (Non-Agricultural Products) in column 3, Norway shall, upon entry into force of this Agreement, eliminate all import duties and charges having equivalent effect to import duties, as set out in columns 4a or 4b.
2. For goods originating in Chile referred to as “BAP” (Basic Agricultural Products) and “PAP” (Processed Agricultural Products) in column 3, Norway shall apply import duties as set out in columns 4a or 4b.
3. For goods originating in Chile referred to as “PAP” (Processed Agricultural Products) in column 1, the following provisions apply:
 - a. In order to take account of differences in the cost of the agricultural raw materials, the duty, levied upon import, shall be based on, but not exceed, the differences between the domestic price in Norway and the world market price of the agricultural raw materials incorporated into the goods concerned.
 - b. Subject to the provisions in subparagraph (a), Norway shall accord for goods referred to as PAP in column 1 of the table, originating in Chile, the same treatment as given to the European Union (EU). The commitments set out in the table for PAP are the same concessions as granted to the EU as of 1 January 2023. If the commitments for these goods are changed in the agreement between Norway and the EU¹, Chile will simultaneously get identical commitments.
 - c. Norway shall publish the applicable import duties for processed agricultural products on the Website of the EFTA Secretariat.
4. For goods referred to as “NC” (not covered) in columns 4a or 4b, no commitments related to import duties are granted by Norway.

¹ Protocol 3 to the Agreement on the European Economic Area

5. The classification of goods shall be that set out in the tariff nomenclature of Norway in conformity with the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System (HS 2022).
6. Norway shall, based on an end-use criteria, accord duty-free market access to fish feed and raw materials for making fish feed, originating in Chile

SWITZERLAND SCHEDULE OF TARIFF COMMITMENTS

COMMITMENTS OF SWITZERLAND ON GOODS ORIGINATING IN CHILE

ANNEX VI

REFERRED TO IN ARTICLE 9 (CUSTOM DUTIES)

COMMITMENTS OF SWITZERLAND ON GOODS ORIGINATING IN CHILE

The following terms and conditions apply to tariff commitments granted by Switzerland in accordance with this Annex:

1. For goods originating in Chile indicated as “NAMA” (Non-Agricultural Products) in column 3, Switzerland shall upon entry into force of the Agreement, eliminate all customs duties on imports and charges having equivalent effect to customs duties on imports, as set out in column 5.
2. For goods originating in Chile indicated as “AG” (Agricultural Products) in column 3, Switzerland shall apply customs duties on imports as set out in column 5 or 6.
3. For goods originating in Chile indicated as “PCM” (Price Compensation Mechanism) in column 5:
 - a. The duty levied upon import shall be based on, but not exceed, the difference between the domestic price in Switzerland and the world market price of the agricultural raw materials incorporated into the goods concerned.
 - b. Switzerland shall publish the applicable customs duties on imports for goods indicated as “PCM” on the Website of the EFTA Secretariat.
 - c. Taking into account letters (a) and (b), Switzerland shall, based on reviews that can be requested by either side, accord for goods indicated as “PCM”, originating in Chile, treatment no less favourable than that accorded to the European Union.
4. For tariff concessions in column 6, Switzerland shall reduce the MFN duty rate applicable at the time of importation by the amount specified in that column.
5. For goods indicated as “NC” (not covered) in columns 5 and 6, no commitments related to customs duties on imports are granted by Switzerland.
6. The classification of goods shall be that set out in the tariff nomenclature of Switzerland in conformity with the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System in its 2022 version or any subsequent amendment thereto approved by the Parties.

ANNEX 10

INCORPORATION OF ANNEX VII*bis*

MANDATE OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON TRADE IN GOODS

ANNEX VII*bis*

REFERRED TO IN ARTICLE 25

MANDATE OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON TRADE IN GOODS

ANNEX VIIbis

MANDATE OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON TRADE IN GOODS

1. The Parties hereby establish a Sub-Committee on trade in goods comprising representatives of each Party.
 2. The Sub-Committee on trade in goods may consider any matter arising under Chapter II (Trade in Goods) of this Agreement, including Annexes I (Rules of Origin and Administrative Cooperation) and VII^{ter} (Trade Facilitation).
 3. The Sub-Committee on trade in goods shall:
 - (a) monitor and review measures and implementation of commitments;
 - (b) exchange information and review developments;
 - (c) prepare technical amendments, including HS updates, explanatory notes and assist the Joint Committee;
 - (d) carry out other functions with respect to trade in goods that are referred to it by the Joint Committee; and
 - (e) make recommendations and report to the Joint Committee as necessary.
 4. The Sub-Committee on trade in goods shall act by consensus.
 5. The Sub-Committee on trade in goods shall meet as often as required. It shall be convened by the Joint Committee, by the chairperson of the Sub-Committee on trade in goods or upon request of a Party. The place of the meeting shall alternate between an EFTA State and Chile, as agreed by the Parties. The Parties may mutually agree to hold a Sub-Committee meeting by electronic means of communication.
 6. The meetings of the Sub-Committee on trade in goods shall be chaired by a representative of an EFTA State or Chile for an agreed period of time. A provisional agenda for each meeting shall be prepared by the chairperson of the Sub-Committee on trade in goods in consultation with the other Parties, and forwarded to them, as a general rule no later than two weeks before the meeting.
 7. The Sub-Committee on trade in goods shall prepare a report on the results of each meeting. If requested, the chairperson shall report at the following meeting of the Joint Committee.

ANNEX 11

INCORPORATION OF ANNEX VII^{ter}

TRADE FACILITATION

ANNEX VII^{ter}

REFERRED TO IN ARTICLE 16

TRADE FACILITATION

ANNEX VII^{ter}

TRADE FACILITATION

Article 1

General principles

1. The Parties, aiming to serve the interests of their respective business communities and to create a trading environment allowing them to benefit from the opportunities offered by the Agreement, agree that in particular the following principles are the basis for the development and administration of trade facilitation measures by their competent authorities:

- (a) transparency, efficiency, simplification, harmonisation and consistency of exportation, importation and transit procedures;
- (b) consistent, impartial, predictable and reasonable administration of laws, regulations and administrative decisions relevant to trade in goods;
- (c) promotion of international standards;
- (d) consistency with relevant multilateral instruments;
- (e) best possible use of information technology;
- (f) high standards of public service;
- (g) governmental controls based on risk management;
- (h) cooperation within each Party among customs and other border authorities; and
- (i) consultations between the Parties and their respective business communities.

2. For greater certainty, nothing in this Annex shall be construed as to diminish the rights and obligations of the Parties under Articles 14 (Sanitary and phytosanitary measures) and 15 (Technical regulations) of the Agreement.

Article 2

WTO Agreement on trade facilitation

For the purposes of this Annex, Section I of the WTO Agreement on trade facilitation is hereby incorporated into and made part of the Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

Article 3

Transparency

1. Each Party shall promptly make available, as far as practicable in English, on the internet:

- (a) all domestic laws, regulations, administrative decisions of general application and procedures relevant to trade in goods;
- (b) a description of its exportation, importation and transit procedures that informs interested parties of the practical steps needed to trade or transit goods, including contact information on enquiry points; and
- (c) information on border-crossing requirements.

2. Each Party shall establish enquiry points for customs and other matters relevant to trade in goods, which may be contacted in English through the internet. Enquiries in English shall be answered in English. The Parties shall not require any fee for answering enquiries.

Article 4

Public consultation and information before entry into force

1. Each Party shall consult its business community on its needs with regard to the development and implementation of trade facilitation measures, giving particular attention to the interests of small and medium-sized enterprises.

2. Each Party shall, to the extent practicable and in a manner consistent with its domestic legal system, publish in advance, and on the internet, any proposed laws and regulations relevant to trade in goods, with a view to affording interested persons an opportunity to comment on them.

3. Each Party shall, to the extent practicable and in a manner consistent with its domestic legal system, ensure that a reasonable time period is provided between the publication of laws and regulations relevant to trade in goods and their entry into force.

4. Paragraphs 1 to 3 shall not apply to:

- (a) measures having a relieving effect;
- (b) measures the effectiveness of which would be undermined as a result of compliance with paragraphs 1 to 3;
- (c) measures applied in urgent circumstances; and
- (d) minor changes to domestic laws and regulations.

Article 5

Advance rulings

1. A Party shall, in a reasonable time bound manner, issue a binding, written advance ruling upon written request, which contains all necessary information requested by the applicant¹ with regard to:
 - (a) tariff classification and the applied rate of duty of a product, including the method used to calculate the amount of duties;
 - (b) the appropriate method or criteria and the application thereof, to be used for determining the customs value under the facts presented by the applicant²;
 - (c) any fees and charges applied by customs or, where appropriate, information on the way such fees and charges are calculated;
 - (d) applicable border-crossing customs requirements for a specific product;
 - (e) applicable rules of origin; and
 - (f) other matters as the Parties may agree.
2. Each Party shall endeavour to make information on advance rulings publicly available, taking into account the need to protect confidential information.

Article 6

Procedures for appeal

Each Party shall ensure that any person to whom customs or another border authority issues an administrative decision has the right to at least:

- (a) one level of independent administrative appeal, unless the administrative decision has been taken by the highest administrative entity; and
- (b) one level of independent judicial appeal.

Article 7

Fees and charges

¹ For greater certainty, an importer, exporter, or producer may submit a request for an advance ruling through a duly authorised representative.

² Switzerland applies customs duties based on weight or quantity rather than ad valorem duties.

1. Fees and charges of whatever character, other than import duties and other than taxes within the purview of Article III of the GATT 1994, imposed by the Parties in connection with importation, exportation or transit, including tasks provided under Article 5 (Advance Rulings), shall be limited in amount to the approximate cost of services rendered and shall not represent an indirect protection to domestic goods or a taxation of imports or exports for fiscal purposes.
2. The fees and charges referred to in paragraph 1 shall not be calculated on an ad valorem basis.
3. Each Party shall publish information on fees and charges on the internet, as far as practicable in English. Such information shall include the service provided, the responsible authority, the fees and charges that will be applied and how they are calculated, as well as when and how payment has to be made.
4. Upon request, the customs authorities or other competent authorities of a Party shall provide information on fees and charges applicable to imports, exports or transit of goods, including the methods of calculation.

Article 8

Penalty disciplines

1. Each Party shall ensure that penalties for breaches of its customs laws, regulations, or procedural requirements are imposed only on the person or persons legally responsible for the breach.
2. The penalty imposed shall depend on the facts and circumstances of the case and shall be commensurate with the degree and severity of the breach.
3. No Party shall impose substantial penalties for minor breaches of customs regulations or procedural requirements. In particular, no penalty for any omission or mistake in customs documentation, which is easily rectifiable and obviously made without fraudulent intent or gross negligence, shall be greater than necessary to serve merely as a warning.
4. Each Party shall ensure that when a penalty is imposed for a breach of customs laws, regulations, or procedural requirements, an explanation in writing is provided to the person or persons upon whom the penalty is imposed, specifying the nature of the breach, the basis for the penalty and instructions on the rights to appeal.
5. Each Party shall consider whether the voluntary disclosure to the competent authorities of the circumstances of a breach of a customs law, regulation, or procedural requirement prior to the discovery of a breach by the authority, can be regarded as a mitigating factor or not.
6. Each Party shall specify in its domestic laws and regulations a limited period within which it may initiate penalty proceedings in connection with a breach of a customs law, regulation, or procedural requirement.

7. Each Party shall maintain procedures to avoid conflicts of interest in the assessment and collection of penalties ensuring that government officials do not personally benefit from any penalty or duties assessed or collected.

Article 9

Release and clearance of goods

1. Each Party shall apply simple, reasonable and impartial trade and border procedures.
2. Each Party shall adopt or maintain procedures that:
 - (a) provide for advance electronic submission and processing of information before the physical arrival of goods in order to expedite their clearance;
 - (b) provide for the possibility of electronic payment for duties, taxes, fees and charges collected by customs and, as far as practicable, such charges collected by other border authorities; and
 - (c) allow for the release of goods prior to the final determination of customs duties, taxes, fees and charges, if such a determination is not done prior to, or upon arrival, or as rapidly as possible after arrival and provided that all other regulatory requirements have been met.
3. In order to avoid deterioration of perishable goods³, each Party shall provide:
 - (a) for the release of perishable goods within the shortest possible time; and
 - (b) upon request, in case of delays in the release of perishable goods, an explanation of the reasons for the delay.

Article 10

Risk management

1. Each Party shall determine which persons, goods, or means of transport are to be examined and the extent of the examination, based on risk management.
2. Each Party shall systematically apply objective risk management procedures and practices in identifying and addressing risks related to the entry, exit, transit, transfer or end-use of goods moved between the customs territories of Parties, or to the presence of goods that are not in free circulation.
3. Each Party's border procedures and customs controls, including its documentary examinations, physical examinations or post-audit examinations, shall not be more onerous than necessary to limit its exposure to the risks referred to in paragraph 2.

Article 11

Formalities related to importation, exportation and transit

1. Each Party shall limit controls, formalities, and the number of documents required in the context of trade in goods between the Parties to those necessary and appropriate to ensure compliance with its legal requirements and thereby simplify to the greatest extent possible the respective procedures.

2. With a view to minimising the incidence and complexity of import, export and transit formalities and to decreasing and simplifying import, export and transit documentation requirements, each Party shall ensure that such formalities and documentation requirements are:

- (a) applied with a view to a rapid release and clearance of goods;
- (b) applied in a manner that aims at reducing the time and cost of compliance;
and
- (c) the least trade-restrictive.

3. Each Party shall use efficient import, export and transit procedures, with a view to reducing costs and unnecessary delays in trade between them, based, as appropriate, on international standards, in particular the standards, guidelines and recommendations of the United Nations Centre for Trade Facilitation and Electronic Business (UN/CEFACT), the International Organization for Standardization (ISO) and the World Customs Organization (WCO).

Article 12

Customs brokers

No Party shall introduce the mandatory use of customs brokers. Each Party shall publish its measures on the use of customs brokers. The Parties shall apply transparent, non-discriminatory and proportionate rules if and when licensing customs brokers.

Article 13

Temporary admission of goods and inward and outward processing

Each Party shall allow, as provided for in its domestic laws and regulations, temporary admission of goods, inward and outward processing, in accordance with international standards.

Article 14

Competent customs offices

1. Each Party shall designate the customs offices at which goods may be presented or cleared. In determining the competence and location of these offices and their business hours, the factors to be taken into account shall include in particular the requirements of trade.
2. Each Party shall, subject to the availability of resources, perform customs controls and procedures outside the designated business hours or outside the premises of the competent customs offices if requested by a trader for a valid reason. Any related fee or charge shall be limited to the approximate cost of the services rendered.

Article 15

Authorised economic operator system

A Party operating an Authorised Economic Operator System affecting international trade flows shall:

- (a) afford another Party the possibility to negotiate, through their competent authorities, a mutual recognition agreement on authorisation for the purpose of facilitating international trade while ensuring effective customs control; and
- (b) base its respective laws and regulations on relevant international standards, in particular the WCO Framework of Standards to Secure and Facilitate Global Trade (SAFE Framework).

Article 16

Single windows for foreign trade

Each Party shall endeavour to promote the implementation of a single window or other single-entry point which can expedite trade by enabling its traders to submit import, export or transit information electronically to the participating authorities or agencies.

Article 17

Certification of documents

No Party shall require certification, in particular consular transaction of commercial invoices, statements on origin or other customs documentation, including related fees and charges, in connection with the importation of any goods from another Party.

Article 18

Confidentiality

All information provided in relation with the importation, exportation, advance rulings or transit of goods shall be treated as confidential by the Parties in accordance with the respective domestic laws and regulations of each Party. Such information shall not be made publicly available by the authorities of a Party without the express permission of the person or authority providing it.

Article 19

Cooperation

1. The Parties may identify and submit to the Sub-Committee on trade in goods for consideration, additional measures with a view to facilitating trade between them.
2. The Parties shall promote international cooperation in relevant multilateral fora on trade facilitation. They shall review relevant international initiatives in order to identify, and may submit to the Joint Committee for consideration, further areas where joint action could contribute to their common objectives.

(4) Presence of natural persons
Sector or sub-sector ¹	Limitations on Market Access	Limitations on National Treatment		Additional Commitments
	v. Temporary Presence of Natural Persons for Business Purposes Unbound, except for those measures concerning the entry and temporary stay in its territory of natural persons of the other Party for business purposes (hereafter “persons”) falling within the following categories, as defined in paragraphs A, B and C below, and subject to the following limitations and conditions established herein. Natural persons who enter Chilean territory, under these commitments, in any of the established categories, shall be subject to migration, labour and social security laws. A minimum of 85 per cent of employees who work for the same employer shall be Chilean natural persons or foreigners with more than five years of residence in Chile. This rule applies to employers with more than 25 employees under a contract of employment (“contrato de trabajo”). Expert technical personnel shall not be subject to this provision, as determined by the Directorate of Labour (“Dirección del Trabajo”). Notwithstanding the periods of stay stipulated herein, every person remains affected by all other provisions of the law relating to immigration, entry, stay and work. Persons staying in or entering Chile with an open-ended or extendable residence permit based on an employment contract not limited in time for Chile, are not considered as persons residing in or entering Chile for the purpose of temporary entry or stay for business purposes in Chile. A. BUSINESS VISITORS (BV) Business Visitor means a business person who is seeking temporary entry to the territory of Chile for the purpose of: a) attending meetings or conferences, or engaging in consultations with business colleagues; b) taking orders or negotiating contracts for an enterprise located in the territory of another Party, but not selling goods or providing services to the general public; c) establishing a commercial presence in Chile; or d) installing, repairing or maintaining equipment or machinery, performing services or training workers to perform services, pursuant to a warranty or other service contract incidental to the sale or lease of such equipment or machinery, during the life of the warranty or service agreement²; and whose principal place of business, actual place of remuneration and predominant place of accrual of profits remain outside Chile. Length of stay for a period of up to 90 days, which may be extended.

A business person seeking temporary entry to Chile under subparagraph (d) must possess specialized knowledge essential to a seller’s or lessor’s contractual obligation.

	B. INTRA-CORPORATE TRANSFEREES (ICT) Intra-Corporate Transferee means a natural person employed by an enterprise who seeks to render services to that enterprise’s parent entity or a subsidiary or affiliate thereof, as an Executive, Manager, Specialist or Trainee Employees. A confirmation can be required that the business person had been employed by the enterprise uninterruptedly for one year, within the three years immediately before the date on which the application was filed. a) Executive: means a business person within an organisation who primarily directs the management of the organisation, exercises wide latitude in decision-making, and receives only general supervision or direction from high-level executives, the board of directors or the stockholders of the business. b) Manager: means a business person within an organisation who primarily directs the organisation or a department or subdivision of the organisation, supervises and controls the work of other supervisory, professional or managerial employees, has the authority to recruit and dismiss or take other personnel actions such as promotion or leave authorisation, and exercises discretionary authority over day-to-day operations. c) Specialist: means a business person who possesses specialised knowledge of the company’s products or services and its application in international markets, or an advanced level of expertise or knowledge of the company’s processes and procedures. A Specialist may include, but is not limited to, professionals. d) Trainee Employees: means an employee with a post-secondary degree who is on a temporary work assignment intended to broaden that employee’s knowledge of and experience in a company in preparation for a senior leadership position within the company. Intra-Corporate Transferees who enter Chile shall be deemed to be engaged in activities which are in Chile’s interest. Length of stay for a period of up to two years which may be extended on a reciprocity basis, provided that the conditions on which it is based remain in effect, without requiring that business person to apply for permanent residence. The length of stay for family dependents, including extensions, shall be the same as that of the business person they are accompanying. Intra-Corporate Transferees and their family dependents may freely enter and leave Chile without having to apply for separate re-entry permissions for the duration of their visas, on the basis of reciprocity. A family dependent (spouse, parent or offspring) of an Intra-Corporate Transferee will be granted a visa as a dependent but will not be allowed to undertake remunerated activities. Nevertheless, a family dependent may be permitted to perform a remunerated activity in Chile, upon a separate application under this Agreement or the general immigration rules, for their own visa as non-dependent. The application can be submitted and processed in Chile.

The length of stay for family dependents, including extensions, shall be the same as that of the business person they are accompanying. Contractual Service Suppliers and their family dependents may freely enter and leave Chile without having to apply for separate re-entry permissions for the duration of their visas, based on reciprocity. A family dependent (spouse, parent or offspring) of a Contractual Service Suppliers will be granted a visa as a dependent, but will not be allowed to undertake remunerated activities. Nevertheless, a family dependent may be permitted to perform a remunerated activity in Chile, upon a separate application under this Agreement or the general immigration rules, for their own visa as non-dependent. The application can be submitted and processed in Chile. vi. Chile reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure according rights and preferences to socially or economically disadvantaged minorities. vii. Personal Data Protection Nothing in this Annex may be understood as a limitation of the right to maintain or adopt measures that establish rights or preferences to the personal of Chilean citizens or migrants.

C. Telecommunication Services	Telecommunications services consist of the transport of electro-magnetic signals (sound, data, image and any combination thereof), regardless of the type of technology used. This definition does not cover the economic activity consisting of the provision of a service the content of which requires the use of telecommunications services for its transport. The provision of a service the content of which is transported via telecommunications services is subject to the terms and conditions established for that sector, subsector or activity in Chile’s Schedule of Specific Commitments. Chile’s Schedule of Commitments excludes basic local telecommunications services. It includes only international and domestic long-distance basic telecommunications services. In the case of private services, the purpose of which is to meet the specific telecommunications needs of particular enterprises, entities or persons by prior agreement, the supply of these services does not give access to traffic from or to public telecommunications network users.

11. TRANSPORT SERVICES Only Chilean natural or legal persons may work in Chile as multimodal operator.
A. Maritime transport services (CPC 721) (a) Passenger transportation (CPC 7211) (b) Freight transportation (CPC 7212) Cargo handling services (CPC 741) Storage and warehouse services (CPC 742) (c) Rental of vessels with crew (CPC 7213) (d) Maintenance and repair of vessels (CPC 8868) (e) Pushing and towing services (CPC 72140) (f) Supporting services for maritime transport (CPC 745)	(1) None (2) None (3) (a) Establishment of registered company for the purpose of operating a fleet under the national flag of Chile: unbound. (b) Other forms of commercial presence for the supply of international maritime transport services (as defined below ¹¹): None, except: Only natural or legal persons may register a vessel in Chile. A legal person must have its principal domicile and real and effective seat in Chile, with its chairman, manager, and the majority of the directors or administrators being Chilean natural persons. In addition, more than 50 percent of its equity capital must be held by Chilean natural or legal persons. For these purposes, a legal person with ownership participation in another legal person that owns a vessel must comply with all the aforementioned requirements.	(1) None (2) None (3) (a) Establishment of registered company for the purpose of operating a fleet under the national flag of Chile: unbound. (b) Other forms of commercial presence for the supply of international maritime transport services (as defined below ¹¹): None, except Special vessels owned by foreign natural or legal persons domiciled in Chile may, under certain conditions, be registered in Chile. For these purposes, a special vessel does not include a fishing vessel. The conditions required to register special vessels owned by foreigners are the following: the foreign natural or legal person must be domiciled in Chile and have its principal head office in Chile or be permanently engaged in a profession or commercial activity in Chile.

¹¹ “Other forms of commercial presence for the supply of international maritime transport services” means the ability of international maritime transport service suppliers of the other Party to undertake locally all activities which are necessary for the supply to their customers of a partially or fully integrated transport service within which the maritime transport constitutes a substantial element. (This commitment shall not, however, be construed as limiting in any manner the commitments undertaken under the cross-border mode of delivery). These activities include, but are not limited to:

- (a) marketing and sales of maritime transport and related services through direct contact with customers, from quotation to invoicing, these services being those operated or offered by the service supplier itself or by service suppliers with which the service seller has established standing business arrangements;
 - (b) the acquisition, on their own account or on behalf of their customers (and the resale to their customers) of any transport and related services, including inward transport services by any mode, particularly inland waterways, road and rail, necessary for the supply of the integrated services;
 - (c) the preparation of documentation concerning transport documents, customs documents, or other documents related to the origin and character of the goods transported;
 - (d) the provision of business information by any means, including computerised information systems and electronic data interchange (subject to the provisions of this Agreement);
 - (e) the setting up of any business arrangements (including participation in the stock of a company) and the appointment of personnel recruited locally (or, in the case of foreign personnel, subject to the horizontal commitment on movement of personnel) with any locally established shipping agency;
 - (f) acting on behalf of the companies, organising the call of the ship or taking over cargoes when required.

B. Internal waterways Transport (CPC 722) (a) Passenger transportation (CPC 7221) (b) Freight transportation (CPC 7222) Cargo handling services (CPC 741) Storage and warehouse services (CPC 742) (c) Rental of vessels with crew (CPC 7223) (d) Maintenance and repair of vessels (CPC 8868) (e) Pushing and towing services (CPC 72240) (f) Supporting services for internal waterway transport (CPC 745)	A joint ownership (“comunidad”) may register a vessel if the majority of the joint owners are Chilean nationals with domicile and residence in Chile, the administrators are Chilean nationals and the majority of the rights in the joint ownership belongs to Chilean natural or legal persons. For these purposes, a legal person with ownership participation in a joint ownership that owns a vessel must comply with all the aforementioned requirements. In order to fly the national flag, the captain of the ship, its officers and crew must be Chilean nationals. However, the Directorate-General of the Maritime Territory and Merchant Navy (“Dirección General del Territorio Marítimo y de Marina Mercante”), on the basis of a substantiated resolution, shall authorise on a temporary basis the hiring of foreign personnel, with the exception of the captain who, at all times, shall be required to be a Chilean national. Cabotage is reserved to Chilean vessels. For these purposes, cabotage means transportation of passengers and freight over sea, rivers and lakes between points within the national territory and between such points and naval artefacts installed in the territorial sea or in the Exclusive Economic Zone. Foreign merchant vessels (“naves mercantes”) may participate in cabotage with volumes of freight above 900 tonnes, subject to a prior public call for tender carried out by the user issued within the relevant time-limit. When it concerns volumes of freight of 900 tonnes or less and no vessel flying the Chilean flag is available, the Maritime Authority shall authorise the shipment of such freight in foreign merchant vessels.	The maritime authority may, for reasons of national security, impose special restrictions on the operations of these vessels. The foreign vessels must use pilotage, anchorage and port pilotage services when the maritime authorities so require. In tugging activities or other manoeuvres in Chilean ports only tugboats flying the Chilean flag may be used. Captains must be Chilean nationals and be acknowledged as such by the relevant authority. Officers on Chilean vessels must be Chilean nationals and registered in the Register of Officers (“Registro de Oficiales”). Crew members [Note: Space added.] of Chilean vessels must be Chilean nationals, have the permit granted by the Maritime Authority and be registered in the relevant Register. Professional qualifications and licences granted abroad shall be valid for service as an officer on national vessels if the Director General of the Maritime Territory and Merchant Navy (“Territorio Marino y de Marina Mercante”) so determines by a reasoned decision. Ship captains (“patron de nave”) must be Chilean nationals. “Ship captain” means a natural person who, by virtue of an appropriate qualification from the Director General of the Marine Territory and of Merchant Navy, is authorised to exercise command on smaller vessels and certain special larger vessels. Only Chilean nationals, or foreigners domiciled in Chile, may act as captains of fishing vessels (“patrones de pesca”), machinists (“mecánicos-motoristas”), machine operators (“motoristas”), sea-faring fisherman (“marineros Pescadores”), fisherman (“pescadores”), industrial or maritime trade technical employees or workers, and as industrial and general ship services crew on factory ships or fishing vessels when so requested by ship operators (“armadores”) as being essential for the initial organisation of such work.

“Reasonable and non-discriminatory terms and conditions” means, for the purposes of multimodal transport operations, the ability of the multimodal transport operator to arrange for the conveyance of its merchandise on a timely basis, including priority over other merchandise which has entered the port at a later date.

A “Multimodal transport operator” means the person on whose behalf the bill of lading/multimodal transport document, or any other document evidencing a contract of multimodal carriage of goods, is issued and who is responsible for the carriage of goods pursuant to the contract of carriage.

(1) “Cabotage” is defined as maritime transport of goods and passengers between ports in Iceland.

(2) “Other forms of commercial presence for the supply of international maritime transport services” means the ability for international maritime transport service suppliers of the other Members to undertake locally all activities, which are necessary for the supply to their customers of a partially or fully integrated transport service, within which the maritime transport constitutes a substantial element. (This commitment shall however not be construed as limiting in any manner the commitments undertaken under the cross-border mode of delivery).

These activities include, but are not limited to:

- (a) marketing and sales of maritime transport and related services through direct contact with customers, from quotation to invoicing, these services being those operated or offered by the service supplier itself or by service suppliers with which the service seller has established standing business arrangements;
- (b) the acquisition, on their own account or on behalf of their customers (and the resale to their customers) of any transport and related services, including inward transport services by any mode, particularly inland waterways, road and rail, necessary for the supply of the integrated service;
- (c) the preparation of documentation concerning transport documents, customs documents, or other documents related to the origin and character of the goods transported;
- (d) the provision of business information by any means, including computerised information systems and electronic data interchange (subject to the provisions of the annex on telecommunications);
- (e) the setting of any business arrangements (including participation in the stock of a company) and the appointment of personnel recruited locally (or, in the case of foreign personnel, subject to the horizontal commitment on movement of personnel) with any locally established shipping agency;

(f) acting on behalf of the companies, organising the call of the ship or taking over cargoes when required.

(3) “Maritime cargo handling services” means activities exercised by stevedore companies, including terminal operators, but not including the direct activities of dockers, when this workforce is organised independently of the stevedoring or terminal operator companies. The activities covered include the organisation and supervision of:

- the loading/discharging of cargo to/from a ship;
- the lashing/unlashing of cargo;
- the reception/delivery and safekeeping of cargoes before shipment or after discharge.

(4) “Customs clearance services” (alternatively “customs house brokers’ services”) means activities consisting in carrying out on behalf of another party customs formalities concerning import, export or through transport of cargoes, whether this service is the main activity of the service provider or a usual complement of its main activity.

(5) “Container station and depot services” means activities consisting in storing containers, whether in port areas or inland, with a view to their stuffing/stripping, repairing, and making them available for shipments.

(6) “Maritime agency services” means the activities consisting in representing, within a given geographic area, as an agent the business interests of one or more shipping lines of shipping companies, for the following purposes:

- marketing and sales of maritime transport and related services, from quotation to invoicing, and issuance of bills of lading on behalf of the companies; acquisition and resale of the necessary related services, preparation of documentation, and provision of business information;
- acting on behalf of the companies organising the call of the ship or taking over cargoes when required.

(7) “Freight forwarding services” means the activity consisting of organising and monitoring shipment operations on behalf of shippers, through the acquisition of transport and related services, preparation of documentation and provision of business information.

(8) “Other supporting and auxiliary transport services” means freight brokerage services; bill auditing and freight rate information services; transportation document preparation services; packing and crating and unpacking and de-crating services; freight inspection, weighing and sampling services; and freight receiving and acceptance services (including local pick-up and delivery).

Sector or sub-sector	Limitations on Market Access			Limitations on National Treatment			Additional Commitments
- The level of commitments in a particular sector shall not be construed to supersede the level of commitments taken with respect to any other services sector to which such service is an input or to which it is otherwise related. - CPC numbers indicated in square brackets are references to the UN Provisional Central Product Classification (Statistical Papers Series M No. 77, Provisional Central Product Classification, Department of International Economics and Social Affairs, Statistical Office of the United Nations, New York, 1991).
PART I. HORIZONTAL COMMITMENTS ¹
This part sets out those commitments that apply to trade in services in all scheduled services sectors unless otherwise specified. Those commitments that apply to trade in specific services sectors are listed in Part II.
ALL SECTORS INCLUDED IN THIS SCHEDULE	1) None			1) None except unbound for subsidies, tax incentives and tax credits. Treatment accorded to subsidiaries of third country companies formed in accordance with the law of an EEA Member State and having registered office, central administration or principal place of business within an EEA Member State is not extended to branches or

				Treatment less favourable may be accorded to subsidiaries of third countries having only their registered office in the territory of an EEA Member State unless they show that they possess an effective and continuous link with the economy of one of the EEA Member States
	2) None			2) None except unbound for subsidies, tax incentives and tax credits
	3) The establishment of a commercial presence by a juridical person (including branches) is subject to the requirement that no objection for reasons of national economy (balanced ratio of foreigners in comparison with the number of resident population; balanced ratio of total number of jobs in the economy in comparison with the number of the resident population; balanced geographic situation; balanced development of the national economy, between and within the sectors) exists.			3) None except for the following: The establishment of a commercial presence by an individual is subject to the requirement of prior residence for a certain period of time and of permanent domicile in Liechtenstein. The establishment of a commercial presence by a juridical person (including branches) is subject to the following requirements: At least one of the managers has to fulfil the requirements of prior residence for a certain period of time and of permanent domicile in Liechtenstein. General and limited partnerships have to fulfil the same conditions as corporations with limited liability (juridical persons). Trust companies: At least one member of the management authorised to manage and represent must be a licensed trustee in Liechtenstein and work full-time for the company.

			The Liechtenstein company law does not prohibit joint stock companies from foreseeing in their articles of incorporation the preclusion or limitation of the transfer of registered shares. Treatment accorded to subsidiaries of third-country companies formed in accordance with the law of an EEA Member State and having registered office, central administration or principal place of business within an EEA Member State is not extended to branches or agencies established in an EEA Member State by a third-country company. Treatment less favourable may be accorded to subsidiaries of third countries having only their registered office in the territory of an EEA Member State unless they show that they possess an effective and continuous link with the economy of one of the EEA Member States. All acquisitions of real estate are subject to authorisation. Such authorisation is granted only if an actual and proven requirement for living or business purposes is given and a certain period of residence has been completed.

	limitations and conditions on national treatment set out under the national treatment column: Entry and stay of foreign services suppliers in Liechtenstein is subject to authorisation (requirement of residency permit and work permit). Authorisation is granted subject to measures fixing overall numbers of work permits allocated. For essential personnel as defined in paragraph I below, the period of stay is limited to a period of three years. Persons staying in or entering Liechtenstein with an open-ended or extendable residence permit based on an employment contract not limited in time for Liechtenstein are not considered as persons residing in or entering Liechtenstein for the purpose of temporary stay or temporary employment in Liechtenstein. I. Essential persons transferred to Liechtenstein within a specific business or company (intra-corporate transferees) The following persons, who are employees of a business or company (hereinafter “enterprise”) of a Party providing services in Liechtenstein through a branch or subsidiary	and/or collective agreement (with respect to remuneration, working hours, etc.), measures limiting professional mobility, regulations related to statutory systems of social security and public retirement plans (with respect to qualifying period, residency requirement, etc.) and all other provisions of the legislation relating to immigration, entry, stay and work. The enterprise employing such persons shall cooperate, upon request, with the authorities in charge of the enforcement of these measures.

ATTACHMENT I

UNDERSTANDING ON THE SCOPE OF COVERAGE OF CPC 84 – COMPUTER AND RELATED SERVICES

1. CPC 84 covers all computer and related services.

(1) Technological developments have led to the increased offering of these services as a bundle or package of related services that can include some or all of the basic functions listed in paragraph 3. For example, services such as web or domain hosting, data mining services and grid computing each consist of a combination of basic computer services functions.

(2) Computer and related services, regardless of whether they are delivered via a network, including the Internet, include all services that provide any of the following or any combination thereof:

- consulting, adaptation, strategy, analysis, planning, specification, design, development, installation, implementation, integration, testing, debugging, updating, support, technical assistance, or management of or for computers or computer systems;
- consulting, strategy, analysis, planning, specification, design, development, installation, implementation, integration, testing, debugging, updating, adaptation, maintenance, support, technical assistance, management or use of or for software;⁶
- data processing, data storage, data hosting or database services;
- maintenance and repair services for office machinery and equipment, including computers; and
- training services for staff of clients, related to software, computers or computer systems, and not elsewhere classified.

(3) In many cases, computer and related services enable the provision of other services⁷ by both electronic and other means. However, in such cases, there is an important distinction between the computer and related service (e.g. web-hosting or application hosting) and the other service² enabled by the computer and related service. The other service, regardless of whether it is enabled by a computer and related service, is not covered by CPC 84.

⁶ The term “software” may be defined as the sets of instructions required to make computers work and communicate. A number of different programmes may be developed for specific applications (application software), and the customer may have a choice of using ready-made programmes off the shelf (packaged software), developing specific programmes for particular requirements (customized software) or using a combination of the two.

“Reasonable and non-discriminatory terms and conditions” means, for the purposes of multimodal transport operations, the ability of the multimodal transport operator to arrange for the conveyance of its merchandise on a timely basis, including priority over other merchandise which has entered the port at a later date.

A “Multimodal transport operator” means the person on whose behalf the bill of lading/multimodal transport document, or any other document evidencing a contract of multimodal carriage of goods, is issued and who is responsible for the carriage of goods pursuant to the contract of carriage.

(1) “Domestic transport” is defined as maritime transport of goods and passengers between ports in Norway, including locations on the continental shelf where petroleum is explored or produced.

(2) “Other forms of commercial presence for the supply of international maritime transport services” means the ability for international maritime transport service suppliers of the other members to undertake locally all activities which are necessary for the supply to their customers of a partially or fully integrated transport service, within which the maritime transport constitutes a substantial element. (This commitment shall however not be construed as limiting in any manner the commitments undertaken under the cross-border mode of delivery).

These activities include, but are not limited to:

(a) marketing and sales of maritime transport and related services through direct contact with customers, from quotation to invoicing, these services being those operated or offered by the service supplier itself or by service suppliers with which the service seller has established standing business arrangements;

(b) the acquisition, on their own account or on behalf of their customers (and the resale to their customers) of any transport and related services, including inward transport services by any mode, particularly inland waterways, road and rail, necessary for the supply of the integrated service;

(c) the preparation of documentation concerning transport documents, customs documents, or other documents related to the origin and character of the goods transported;

(d) the provision of business information by any means, including computerised information systems and electronic data interchange (subject to the provisions of the Annex on telecommunications);

(e) the setting of any business arrangements (including participation in the stock of a company) and the appointment of personnel recruited locally (or, in the case of foreign personnel, subject to the horizontal commitment on movement of personnel) with any locally established shipping agency;

(f) acting on behalf of the companies, organising the call of the ship or taking over cargoes when required.

(3) “Maritime cargo handling services” means activities exercised by stevedore companies, including terminal operators, but not including the direct activities of dockers, when this workforce is organised independently of the stevedoring or terminal operator companies. The activities covered include the organisation and supervision of:

- the loading/discharging of cargo to/from a ship;
- the lashing/unlashing of cargo;
- the reception/delivery and safekeeping of cargoes before shipment or after discharge.

(4) “Customs clearance services” (alternatively “customs house brokers’ services”) means activities consisting in carrying out on behalf of another party customs formalities concerning import, export or through transport of cargoes, whether this service is the main activity of the service provider or a usual complement of its main activity.

(5) “Container station and depot services” means activities consisting in storing containers, whether in a port area or inland, with a view to their stuffing/stripping, repairing, and making them available for shipments.

(6) “Maritime agency services” means the activities consisting in representing, within a given geographic area, as an agent the business interests of one or more shipping lines or shipping companies, for the following purposes:

- marketing and sales of maritime transport and related services, from quotation to invoicing, and issuance of bills of lading on behalf of the companies; acquisition and resale of the necessary related services, preparation of documentation, and provision of business information;
- acting on behalf of the companies organising the call of the ship or taking over cargoes when required.

(7) “Freight forwarding services” means the activity consisting of organising and monitoring shipment operations on behalf of shippers, through the acquisition of transport and related services, preparation of documentation and provision of business information.

(8) “Other supporting and auxiliary transport services” means freight brokerage services; bill auditing and freight rate information services; transportation document preparation services; packing and crating and unpacking and de-crating services; freight inspection, weighing and sampling services; and freight receiving and acceptance services (including local pick-up and delivery).

Commitments on Financial services (insurance, banking and other financial services) are in accordance with the “Understanding on Commitments in Financial Services” prepared under the GATS (hereinafter “Understanding”) and subject to limitations and conditions as contained in Part I (horizontal commitments) and as listed below. It is understood that paragraph B.4 of the “Understanding” does not impose any obligation to allow non-resident financial services suppliers to solicit business.
Insurance and Insurance-related Services	Monopoly rights as indicated in paragraph B.1 of the “Understanding”: a public monopoly on fire and natural damage insurance on buildings exists in the following cantons: Zürich, Bern, Luzern, Nidwalden, Glarus, Zug, Fribourg, Solothurn, Basel-Stadt, Basel-Landschaft, Schaffhausen, Aargau, St. Gallen, Graubünden, Appenzell Ausserrhoden, Thurgau, Vaud, Neuchâtel, Jura. In the cantons of Nidwalden and Vaud, the public monopoly on fire and natural damage insurance covers also movable property located in the buildings. 3) Representative offices cannot conduct business or act as an agent; for insurance companies incorporated in Switzerland, the legal form of a “joint-stock company” (société anonyme/Aktiengesellschaft) or a “co-operative society” (société cooperative/Genossenschaft) is required; for branches of foreign insurance companies, the legal form of the insurance company in the head office country must be comparable to a Swiss “joint-stock company” or to a Swiss “co-operative society”;	2) None 3) A minimum of three years of experience in the direct insurance business in the head office country is required

ATTACHMENT

DEFINITIONS TO THIS SCHEDULE (MARITIME AUXILIARY SERVICES)

1. “Maritime cargo-handling services” means activities exercised by stevedore companies, including terminal operators, but not including the direct activities of dockers when this workforce is organised independently of the stevedoring or terminal operator companies. The activities covered include the organisation and supervision of the loading/discharging of cargo to/from a vessel, the lashing/unlashing of cargo, the reception/delivery and safekeeping of cargoes before shipment or after discharge.
 2. “Customs clearance services” means activities consisting in carrying out on behalf of another party customs formalities concerning import, export or through transport of cargoes, whether such services are the main activity of the service supplier or a usual complement of its main activity.
 3. “Container station and depot services” means activities consisting in storing containers, whether in port areas or inland, with a view to their stuffing/stripping, repairing and making them available for shipments.
 4. “Maritime agency services” means activities consisting in representing as an agent, within a given geographic area, the business interests of one or more shipping lines or shipping companies for the following purposes:
 - (a) marketing and sales of maritime transport and related services, from quotation to invoicing, and issuance of bills of lading on behalf of the companies, acquisition and resale of the necessary related services, preparation of documentation, and provision of business information;
 - (b) acting on behalf of the companies organising the call of the vessel or taking over cargoes when required.
 5. “Maritime freight forwarding services” means activities consisting in organising and monitoring shipment operations on behalf of shippers, through the acquisition of transport and related services, preparation of documentation and provision of business information.

SERVICES

CHILE SCHEDULE OF SPECIFIC COMMITMENTS ON FINANCIAL SERVICES

Introductory note: Chile may complete the classification of financial services contained in this Schedule on the basis of the Central Product Classification (CPC) or other classification deemed appropriate for the Chilean financial sector and reclassify services already classified on the basis of a new version of the CPC or other appropriate classification.

Modes of supply: 1) Cross-border supply 2) Consumption abroad 3) Commercial presence 4) Presence of natural persons

PART I. HORIZONTAL COMMITMENTS (for financial services)
1. The conditions affecting all the services sectors as specified in horizontal commitments and Appendix 1 of Annex VIII (Chile – Schedule of Specific Commitments) apply to this Schedule except for the specific provisions of this Annex. 2. The Chilean financial services sector is partially compartmentalised, that is to say the institutions, domestic and foreign, authorised to operate as banks may not participate directly in the insurance and securities business and vice versa. However, subject to authorisation from the Financial Market Commission (“Comision para el Mercado Financiero”, CMF), domestic and foreign banks operating in Chile may set up subsidiaries, with their own and separate capital, to supply other financial services in addition to their main line of business. The main business of banks is accepting or receiving money from the public on a regular basis and granting money credits represented by securities or commercial paper or any other credit instrument. 3. The subsectors and services included in this Schedule are defined in accordance with the relevant Chilean legislation. 4. Chile reserves the right to adopt measures to regulate financial conglomerates, including the entities forming part of it. 5. Chile may restrict or prescribe on a non-discriminatory basis a specific type of legal entity, including subsidiaries, branches, representative offices or any other form of commercial presence that must be adopted by entities operating in all financial services subsectors. 6. None of Chile’s commitments apply to the social security system, including the Institute for Pension Normalisation (“Instituto de Normalización Previsional”, INP) under Law 18.689, the pension funds under Decree Law 3500, the Social Security Health Institutions (“Instituciones de Salud Previsional”, ISAPRES) under Law 18.933, the National Health Fund (“Fondo Nacional de Salud”, FONASA) under Law 18.469, the Non-Profit Social Security Benefits Administrators (“Cajas de Compensación”) under Law 18.833, Law

16.744 on work accidents, unemployment insurance under Law 19.728, and amendments to those laws, and whether those services are provided by the institutions created by law for those purposes or other financial institutions through which financial services related to the social security system are provided or could be provided. 7. The commitments do not require Chile to permit cross-border financial service suppliers of another Party to do business or solicit in its territory. Chile may define “doing business” and “solicitation” for the purpose of this commitment provided that those definitions are not inconsistent with its commitments. 8. Without prejudice to other means of prudential regulation of cross-border trade in financial services, Chile may require the registration or authorisation of a cross-border financial service supplier of another Party and of financial instruments. 9. The purchase of financial services, by persons located in the territory of Chile and its nationals wherever located, from financial services suppliers of another Party shall be subject to the foreign exchange regulations adopted or maintained by the Central Bank of Chile (“Banco Central de Chile”) in accordance with its Organic Law (Ley 18.840). 10. Chile reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure with respect to the provision of public law enforcement and correctional services, and the following services, to the extent that they are social services established or maintained for reasons of public interest: income security or insurance, social security or insurance, social welfare, public education, public training, health care and childcare. 11. In the transfer or disposal of any interest in stock or asset held in an existing state enterprise or governmental entity, Chile reserves the right to prohibit or impose limitations on the ownership of said interest or asset, and on the right of foreign investors or their investment to control any State company created thereby or investments made by the same. In connection with any such transfer or disposal, Chile may adopt or maintain any measure related to the nationality of senior management and member of the Board of Directors. A State company shall mean any company owned or controlled by Chile by means of an interest share in the ownership thereof, and it shall include any company created after the effective date of this Agreement for the sole purpose of selling or disposing of its interest share in the capital or assets of an existing state enterprise governmental entity. 12. The term “CPC” means the Provisional Central Product Classification (Statistical paper Series M, No. 77, Department of International Economic and Social Affairs, Statistical Office of the United Nations, New York, (1991)). 13. Movement of natural persons (Mode 4): Unbound, except for transfers of natural persons within a foreign enterprise established in Chile, in accordance to commercial presence, of senior and specialised personnel who have been employed by the organisation for a period of one year uninterruptedly, within the three years immediately before the date on which the application was filed, and who perform the same type of duties in the parent company of their country of origin. In any case, Chilean natural persons or foreigners with more than five years of residence in Chile may not represent less than 85% of the total staff employed in Chile, when the employer hires more than 25 persons. Senior personnel are those executives who come under the direct supervision of the board of directors of the enterprise established in Chile and who, inter alia: - conduct the management of the organisation or one of its departments or subdivisions; - supervise and control the work of other supervisory, professional or managerial employees; - are personally authorised to hire and fire or recommend hiring or firing or any other measure related to personnel.

Specialised personnel are those highly qualified persons who are indispensable to the supply of the service because of their professional knowledge or: - possession of qualifications for a particular type of work or activity requiring specialised technical expertise; - essential knowledge for the supply of the service, research equipment, techniques or management; and - the non-availability of such specialised personnel in Chile. The category of senior and specialised personnel does not include the members of the board of directors of a company established in Chile. For all legal purposes, senior and specialised personnel must establish domicile or residence in Chile. Personnel admitted under these conditions will be subject to the provisions of the labour and social security legislation in force. Length of stay for a period of up to two years which may be extended on a reciprocity basis, provided the conditions on which it is based remain in effect, without requiring that business person to apply for permanent residence. The length of stay for family dependents, including extensions, shall be the same as that of the businessperson they are accompanying. Senior and specialised personnel and their family dependents may freely enter and leave Chile without having to apply for separate re-entry permissions for the duration of their visas, on the basis of reciprocity. A family dependent (spouse, parent or offspring) will be granted a visa as a dependent but will not be allowed to undertake remunerated activities. Nevertheless, a family dependent may be permitted to perform a remunerated activity in Chile, upon a separate application under this Agreement or the general immigration rules, for their own visa as non-dependent. The application can be submitted and processed in Chile. The temporary presence of natural persons includes also the following categories: a) Persons not residing in the territory of Chile who are representatives of a financial service supplier and are seeking temporary entry for the purpose of negotiating for the sale of financial services or entering into agreements to sell financial services for that service provider, where those representatives will not be engaged in making direct sales to the general public or in supplying financial services themselves. b) Persons working in a senior position, as defined above, within a legal person, who are responsible for setting up in Chile a commercial presence of a financial service provider of an EFTA State when: - the representatives are not engaged in making direct sale or supplying services; and - the service provider has its principal place of business in the Area of an EFTA State and has no other representative, office, branch or subsidiary in Chile. Length of stay for a period of up to 90 days, which may be extended. For all legal purposes, persons not residing in the territory of Chile will be subject to the provisions of labour and social security legislation in force.

B) INSURANCE AND INSURANCE- RELATED SERVICES
1. In Chile, the insurance business is divided into two groups: the first group comprises companies that insure property or patrimony ("patrimonio") against the risk of loss or damage, while the second comprises those that cover personal risks or guarantee, within or at the end of a certain term, a capital sum, a paid-up policy or an income for the insured or his beneficiaries. The same insurance company may not be constituted in such a way as to cover both categories of risk. 2. Credit insurance companies, even though classified in the first group, must be constituted as legal entities with the sole purpose of covering this type of risk, i.e. loss of or damage to the patrimony of the insured as a result of the non-payment of a money debt or loan, being also permitted to cover guarantee and fidelity risks. 3. Insurance corporations can be legally constituted only in accordance with the provisions of the 'Law on corporations ("ley sobre sociedades anónimas")'. Branches of foreign companies that may operate in the Chilean insurance sector should be established in Chile as a 'foreign corporation agency ("agencia de sociedad anónima extranjera")' authorised for such purposes. 4. Insurance may be taken out directly or through registered insurance brokers who, to engage in that activity, must be enrolled in the registry. 5. The Chilean insurance schedule does not include insurance related to the social security system. 6. All types of insurance that Chilean law makes or may make compulsory, and all insurance related to social security, cannot be contracted outside Chile. This reservation does not apply in the event that Chilean law makes compulsory insurance for international maritime transport, international commercial aviation, space launching and freight (including satellites) and goods in international transit (includes goods transported). This exclusion does not apply to insurance for cabotage or related activities.
Insurance - Sale of direct life insurance (does not include insurance related to the social security system) (CPC 81211). - Sale of direct general insurance (CPC 8129, except for CPC 81299) (excluding the social security health institutions (" Instituciones de Salud Previsional ", ISAPRES) i.e. legal persons set up for the purpose of	1) Unbound. 2) Unbound. 3) Direct insurance services can be provided only by insurance companies constituted in Chile as corporations or as branches of foreign corporations with the sole purpose of developing this line of business, either direct life insurance or direct general insurance. providing health benefits to persons who opt to become members and financed through the statutory contribution of a percentage of taxable income fixed by law or a higher amount, as the case may be. It also excludes the National Health Fund (“Fondo Nacional de Salud”, FONASA), a public agency financed by the government and the statutory contribution of a percentage of taxable income fixed by law, which is jointly responsible for paying benefits under the optional health scheme which persons not members of an ISAPRE may join. (Does not include sale of insurance for international maritime transport, international commercial aviation and goods in international transit).	Insurance corporations can be legally constituted only in accordance with the provisions of the law on corporations. For the purposes of foreign insurance branch operations in Chile, the capital and reserves (“patrimonio”) effectively invested in Chile are considered, and not those of the main office. Such capital and reserves must be effectively transferred and converted into domestic currency in conformity with any of the systems authorised by law or by the Central Bank of Chile (“Banco Central de Chile”). The increases in capital that do not come from the capitalization of reserves will have the same treatment as the initial capital. In transactions between a branch and its main office or other related companies abroad, they will be considered as independent entities. No foreign insurance company will be able to invoke rights derived from its nationality regarding transactions that its branch may carry out in Chile. Insurance may be issued directly or through insurance brokers who, to engage in that activity, must be enrolled in the Register maintained by the CMF and must satisfy the requirements of the law.

C) SECURITIES SERVICES 1. Publicly offered securities may be traded by legal persons whose sole purpose is securities brokerage, either as members of a stock exchange (stockbrokers) or outside the stock exchange (securities agents), and they must be registered with the CMF. However, only stockbrokers may trade shares or their derivatives (subscription options) on the stock exchange. Non-share securities may be traded by stockbrokers or securities agents registered with the CMF. 2. The purpose of financial portfolio management is to diversify investments on behalf of third parties, over a range of instruments and may be provided by securities traders (stockbrokers and securities agents) as a complementary activity for their clients. 3. Publicly offered securities risk rating services are provided by rating agencies constituted for the sole purpose of rating publicly offered securities, and they must be enrolled in the Register of Risk Rating Agencies (“ Registro de Entidades Clasificadoras de Riesgo ”) maintained by the CMF. They are inspected and controlled by the CMF. On the other hand, the inspection of rating agencies with respect to the rating of securities issued by banks and financial companies is the responsibility of the CMF. 4. Securities custody consists of the physical safe keeping of securities’ certificates and may be undertaken by securities intermediaries (stockbrokers and securities agents) as

AMENDMENTS TO CHAPTER III

TRADE IN SERVICES AND ESTABLISHMENT

SECTION II – FINANCIAL SERVICES

ANNEX 14

AMENDMENTS TO CHAPTER III

SECTION II – FINANCIAL SERVICES

SECTION II – FINANCIAL SERVICES

ARTICLE 36

Coverage

1. This Section applies to measures by a Party affecting trade in financial services, including measures taken by central, regional or local governments and authorities, as well as by non-governmental bodies in the exercise of powers delegated by central, regional or local governments or authorities.
2. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to impose any obligation with respect to government procurement, which is subject to Chapter V.
3. This Section does not apply to:
 - (a) activities conducted by a central bank or monetary authority or by any other public entity in pursuit of monetary or exchange rate policies;
 - (b) activities forming part of a statutory system of social security or public retirement plans; and
 - (c) other activities conducted by a public entity for the account or with the guarantee or using the financial resources of the government.
4. For the purposes of paragraph 3, if a Party allows any of the activities referred to in subparagraph 3(b) or 3(c) to be conducted by its financial service suppliers in competition with a public entity or a financial service supplier, this Section applies to such activities.

ARTICLE 37

Definitions

For the purposes of this Section:

(a) “commercial presence” means any type of business or professional establishment, including through:

(i) the constitution, acquisition or maintenance of a juridical person; or

(ii) the creation or maintenance of a branch or a representative office;

within the territory of a Party for the purpose of supplying a financial service;

(b) “financial service” means any service of a financial nature offered by a financial service supplier of a Party.  - (bb) foreign exchange;
 - (cc) derivative products including, but not limited to, futures and options;
 - (dd) exchange rate and interest rate instruments, including products such as swaps, forward rate agreements;
 - (ee) transferable securities; or
 - (ff) other negotiable instruments and financial assets, including bullion;
 - (xi) participation in issues of all kinds of securities, including underwriting and placement as agent (whether publicly or privately) and provision of services related to such issues;
 - (xii) money broking;
 - (xiii) asset management, such as cash or portfolio management, all forms of collective investment management, pension fund management, custodial, depositary and trust services;
 - (xiv) settlement and clearing services for financial assets, including securities, derivative products and other negotiable instruments;
 - (xv) provision and transfer of financial information, and financial data processing and related software by suppliers of other financial services;
 - (xvi) advisory, intermediation and other auxiliary financial services on all the activities listed in subparagraphs (v) through (xv), including credit reference and analysis, investment and portfolio research and advice, advice on acquisitions and on corporate restructuring and strategy.
- (c) “financial service supplier” means any natural or juridical person of a Party that seeks to supply or supplies financial services but does not include a public entity;

- (d) “juridical person” means any legal entity duly constituted or otherwise organised under applicable law, whether for profit or otherwise, and whether privately-owned or governmentally owned, including any corporation, trust, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship or association;
- (e) “juridical person of a Party” means a juridical person which is either:
 - (i) constituted or otherwise organised under the law of Chile or an EFTA State, and that is engaged in substantive business operations in Chile or in the EFTA State concerned; or
 - (ii) in the case of the supply of a financial service through commercial presence, owned or controlled by:
 - (aa) natural persons of that Party; or
 - (bb) juridical persons identified under subparagraph (h)(i);
- (f) “measure” means any measure by a Party, whether in the form of a law, regulation, rule, procedure, decision, administrative action or any other form;
- (g) “measures by a Party affecting trade in financial services” include measures in respect of:
 - (i) the purchase, payment or use of a financial service;
 - (ii) the access to and use of, in connection with the supply of a financial service, financial services which are required by that Party to be offered to the public generally; and
 - (iii) the presence, including commercial presence, of persons of another Party for the supply of a financial service in the territory of that Party;
- (h) “natural person of a Party” is, in accordance with its domestic laws and regulations, a national or a permanent resident of that Party if he or she is accorded substantially the same treatment as nationals in respect of measures affecting trade in financial services;
- (i) “public entity” means:
 - (i) a government, a central bank or a monetary authority of a Party, or an entity owned or controlled by a Party, that is principally engaged in carrying out governmental functions or activities for governmental purposes, not including an entity principally engaged in supplying financial services on commercial terms; or

- (ii) a private entity, performing functions normally performed by a central bank or monetary authority, when exercising those functions;
- (j) “self-regulatory organisation” means any non-governmental body, including a securities or futures exchange or market, clearing agency, other organisation or association, that is recognised by the domestic laws and regulations of a Party as a self-regulatory organisation and that exercises regulatory or supervisory authority over financial service suppliers by statute or delegation from a Party;
- (k) “supply of a financial service” includes the production, distribution, marketing, sale and delivery of a financial service; and
- (l) “trade in financial services” means the supply of a financial service:
 - (i) from the territory of a Party into the territory of another Party (mode 1);
 - (ii) in the territory of a Party to the service consumer of another Party (mode 2);
 - (iii) by a financial service supplier of a Party, through commercial presence in the territory of another Party (mode 3); and
 - (iv) by a financial service supplier of a Party, through presence of natural persons in the territory of another Party (mode 4).

ARTICLE 38

Most-favoured nation treatment

1. The rights and obligations of the Parties with respect to most-favoured nation treatment shall be governed by the GATS.
2. If a Party enters into an agreement with a non-Party which has been notified under Article V of the GATS, it shall, upon request from another Party, afford adequate opportunity to the other Parties to negotiate, on a mutually advantageous basis, the benefits granted therein.

ARTICLE 39

Market access

1. With respect to market access through the modes of supply identified in Article 37 (Definitions), each Party shall accord financial services and financial service suppliers of the other Party treatment no less favourable than that provided for under the terms, limitations and conditions agreed and specified in its Schedule referred to in Article 43 (Schedule of specific commitments).

2. In sectors where market-access commitments are undertaken, the measures which a Party shall not maintain or adopt either on the basis of a regional subdivision or on the basis of its entire territory, unless otherwise specified in its Schedule, are defined as:

- (a) limitations on the number of financial services suppliers whether in the form of numerical quotas, monopolies, exclusive service suppliers or the requirements of an economic needs test;
- (b) limitations on the total value of financial service transactions or assets in the form of numerical quotas or the requirement of an economic needs test;
- (c) limitations on the total number of financial service operations or on the total quantity of service output expressed in terms of designated numerical units in the form of quotas or the requirement of an economic needs test;¹
- (d) limitations on the total number of natural persons that may be employed in a particular financial service sector or that a financial service supplier may employ and who are necessary for, and directly related to, the supply of a specific financial service in the form of numerical quotas or the requirement of an economic needs test;
- (e) measures which restrict or require specific types of legal entity or joint venture through which a financial service supplier of the other Party may supply a financial service; and
- (f) limitations on the participation of foreign capital in terms of maximum percentage limit on foreign shareholding or the total value of individual or aggregate foreign investment.

ARTICLE 40

National treatment

1. In the sectors inscribed in its Schedule referred to in Article 43 (Schedule of specific commitments), and subject to the conditions and qualifications set out therein, each Party shall accord to financial services and financial service suppliers of another Party, in respect of all measures affecting the supply of financial services, treatment no less favourable than that it accords to its own like financial services and financial service suppliers.²

2. A Party may meet the requirement of paragraph 1 by according to financial services and financial service suppliers of another Party, either formally identical treatment or formally different treatment to that it accords to its own like financial services and financial service suppliers.

3. Formally identical or formally different treatment shall be considered to be less favourable if it modifies the conditions of competition in favour of financial services or financial service suppliers of a Party compared to like financial services or financial service suppliers of another Party.

ARTICLE 41

Self-regulatory organisations

When a Party requires a financial service supplier of another Party to be a member of, participate in, or have access to, a self-regulatory organisation in order to supply a financial service in its territory in the sectors inscribed in its Schedule, and subject to any conditions and qualifications set out therein, it shall ensure that the self-regulatory organisation observes the obligations of Article 40 (National treatment).

ARTICLE 42

Payment and clearing systems

Under terms and conditions that accord national treatment, each Party shall grant to financial service suppliers of another Party established in its territory access to payment and clearing systems operated by public entities, and to official funding and refinancing facilities available in the normal course of ordinary business. This Article is not intended to confer access to the Party's lender of last resort facilities.

ARTICLE 43

Schedule of specific commitments

1. The specific commitment undertaken by each Party under Articles 39 (Market access) and 40 (National treatment) are set out in the Schedule included respectively in Annexes VIII*bis* (Financial Services Schedule for Chile) for Chile and VIII (Schedules of Specific

² Specific commitments assumed under this Article shall not be construed to require the Parties to compensate for any inherent competitive disadvantages which result from the foreign character of the relevant financial services or financial service suppliers.

Commitments) for the EFTA States. With respect to sectors where such commitments are undertaken, each Schedule specifies:

- (a) terms, limitations and conditions on market access;
- (b) conditions and qualifications on national treatment;
- (c) undertakings relating to additional commitments referred to in paragraph 3; and
- (d) where appropriate, the time-frame for implementation of such commitments and the date of entry into force of such commitments.

2. Measures inconsistent with both Articles 39 (Market access) and 40 (National treatment) are inscribed in the column relating to Article 39 (Market access). In this case, the inscription is considered to provide a condition or qualification to Article 40 (National treatment) as well.

3. Where a Party undertakes specific commitments on measures affecting trade in financial services not subject to scheduling under Articles 39 (Market access) and 40 (National treatment), such commitments are inscribed in its Schedule as additional commitments.

ARTICLE 44

Effective and transparent regulation

1. Each Party shall promote regulatory transparency in financial services taking into account:

- (a) the work undertaken by the Parties in the GATS and in other fora relating to trade in financial services;
- (b) the importance of regulatory transparency, of identifiable policy objectives and of clear and consistently applied regulatory processes; and
- (c) any consultations that the Parties may have between them.

2. In sectors where specific commitments are undertaken, each Party shall ensure that all measures of general application affecting trade in financial services are administered in a reasonable, objective and impartial manner.

3. Each Party shall maintain or establish, as soon as practicable, appropriate mechanisms for responding to inquiries from interested persons regarding measures of general application covered by this Section.

4. Each Party shall maintain judicial, arbitral or administrative tribunals or procedures which provide, at the request of an affected service supplier of another Party, for the prompt review of, and where justified, appropriate remedies for, administrative decisions affecting trade in financial services. Where such procedures are not independent of the agency entrusted with the administrative decision concerned, the Party shall ensure that the procedures provide for an objective and impartial review.

5. Each Party shall ensure that measures relating to qualification requirements and procedures, and licensing requirements and procedures do not constitute unnecessary barriers to trade in financial services. In sectors in which a Party has undertaken specific commitments, such measures shall be:

- (a) based on objective and transparent criteria, such as competence and the ability to supply the financial service;
- (b) not more burdensome than necessary to ensure the quality of the financial service; and
- (c) in the case of licensing procedures, not in themselves a restriction on the supply of the financial service.

6. Whenever measures referred to in paragraph 5 are prepared, adopted and applied in accordance with international standards applied by all Parties, it shall be rebuttably presumed to comply with the provisions of this Article.

7. The competent authorities of each Party shall make available to interested persons domestic requirements and procedures for completing applications relating to the supply of financial services.

8. Where a licence or authorisation is required for the supply of a financial service, the competent authorities of a Party shall make the requirements for such a licence or authorisation publicly available. The period of time normally required to reach a decision concerning an application for a licence or authorisation shall:

- (a) be made available to the applicant upon request;
- (b) be made publicly available; or
- (c) be made available by a combination of both.

9. The competent authorities of each Party shall process expeditiously applications related to the supply of financial services submitted by service suppliers of another Party.

10. If the competent authorities of a Party require additional information from the applicant in order to process the application, they shall notify the applicant without undue delay.

11. Upon request by the applicant, the competent authorities of a Party shall provide, without undue delay, information concerning the status of the application.

12. The competent authorities of each Party shall notify the applicant of the outcome of the application promptly after a decision is made. Where a decision is made to deny an application, the reason for the denial shall be made known to the applicant.

13. Where an authorisation or licence is required for the supply of a financial service and if the applicable requirements are fulfilled, the competent authorities of a Party shall grant the applicant an authorisation or licence within six months after the submission of the application is considered complete under the domestic laws and regulations of that Party. If it is not feasible for a decision to be made within six months, the competent authority shall notify the applicant without undue delay and shall endeavour to make a decision within a reasonable period of time thereafter.

ARTICLE 45

Prudential measures

1. Notwithstanding any other provision of Chapters III (Trade in Services and Establishment) or Vter (Digital Trade), a Party shall not be prevented from adopting or maintaining reasonable measures for prudential reasons, including for:

- (a) the protection of investors, depositors, policy-holders, policy-claimants, persons to whom a fiduciary duty is owed by a financial service supplier, or any similar financial market participants; or
- (b) ensuring the integrity and stability of that Party's financial system.

2. Where such measures do not conform with the provisions of Chapters III (Trade in Services and Establishment) or Vter (Digital Trade), they shall not be used as a means of avoiding that Party's commitments or obligations under Chapters III (Trade in Services and Establishment) or Vter (Digital Trade).

ARTICLE 46

Confidential information

Nothing in this Section:

- (a) shall require any Party to provide confidential information, the disclosure of which would impede law enforcement, or otherwise be contrary to the public interest, or which would prejudice legitimate commercial interests of particular enterprises, public or private; or

- (b) shall be construed to require a Party to disclose information relating to the affairs and accounts of individual customers or any confidential or proprietary information in the possession of public entities.

ARTICLE 47

International standards

Each Party shall endeavour to ensure that internationally agreed standards for regulation and supervision in the financial services sector are implemented and applied in its territory. Such internationally agreed standards are, inter alia, the “Core Principles for Effective Banking Supervision” of the Basel Committee, the “Insurance Core Principles” of the International Association of Insurance Supervisors and the “Objectives and Principles of Securities Regulation” of the International Organisation of Securities Commissions.

ARTICLE 48

Recognition of prudential measures

Where a Party recognises, by agreement or arrangement, prudential measures of a non-Party in determining how the Party’s measures relating to financial services shall be applied, that Party shall afford adequate opportunity for another Party to negotiate its accession to such an agreement or arrangement, or to negotiate a comparable agreement or arrangement with it, under circumstances in which there would be equivalent regulation, oversight, implementation of such regulation and, if appropriate, procedures concerning the sharing of information between the parties to the agreement or arrangement. Where a Party accords such recognition autonomously, it shall afford adequate opportunity for another Party to demonstrate that such circumstances exist.

ARTICLE 49

Movement of natural persons

1. This Section applies to measures affecting natural persons who are financial service suppliers of a Party, and natural persons of a Party who are employed by a financial service supplier of a Party, with respect to the supply of a financial service. Natural persons covered by a Party’s specific commitments shall be allowed to supply the financial service in accordance with the terms of those commitments.

2. This Section shall not apply to measures affecting natural persons seeking access to the employment market of a Party, nor shall it apply to measures regarding nationality, residence or employment on a permanent basis.

3. This Section shall not prevent a Party from applying measures to regulate the entry of natural persons of another Party into, or their temporary stay in, its territory, including those measures necessary to protect the integrity of, and to ensure the orderly movement of natural persons across its borders, provided that such measures are not applied in a manner so as to nullify or impair the benefits accruing to any Party under the terms of a specific commitment.³

Transfers of information and data processing

No Party shall take measures that prevent transfers of information into or out of the Party's territory or the processing of financial information, where such transfers of information or processing of financial information, are necessary for the conduct of the ordinary business of a financial service supplier of another Party. Nothing in this Article shall restrict the right of a Party to protect personal data, personal privacy and the confidentiality of individual records and accounts so long as such right is not used to circumvent the provisions of this Section.

ARTICLE 51

Sub-Committee on financial services

1. A Sub-Committee on financial services composed of representatives of the Parties is hereby established.

2. The mandate of the Sub-Committee on financial services is set out in Annex VIII^{ter} (Mandate of the Sub-Committee on financial services).

Consultations

1. A Party may request expert consultations with another Party regarding any matter arising under this Section between the requesting Party and the requested Party. The requested Party shall give sympathetic consideration to the request. The Parties shall aim at finding an appropriate solution and report the results of their consultations to the Sub-

³ The sole fact of requiring a visa shall not be regarded as nullifying or impairing benefits under a specific commitment.

Committee on financial services.

2. Each Party involved in consultations according to paragraph 1 shall designate officials of the authorities specified in paragraph 6 of Annex VIII^{ter} (Mandate of the Sub-Committee on financial services).

3. The Parties involved in the consultations shall treat any confidential or proprietary information exchanged in the same manner as the Party providing the information.

ARTICLE 53

Dispute settlement

In addition to the requirements set out in paragraph 49 of Annex XVII (Model Rules of Procedure for the Conduct of Arbitration Panels), the chair of the arbitration panel for disputes on prudential issues and other financial matters shall have the necessary experience or expertise relevant to the specific financial service under dispute.

ANNEX 15

AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLE 66

TRADE IN SERVICES AND ESTABLISHMENT

SECTION V – COMMON PROVISIONS

ANNEX 15

AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLE 66 (GENERAL EXCEPTIONS)

ARTICLE 66

General exceptions

1. For the purposes of this Chapter, Article XIV of the GATS is incorporated into and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.
 2. The Parties understand that the measures referred to in Article XIV(b) of the GATS include environmental measures necessary to protect human, animal or plant life or health.

ANNEX 16

INCORPORATION OF ANNEX VIII^{ter}

MANDATE OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SERVICES

ANNEX VIII^{ter}

MANDATE OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SERVICES

ANNEX VIII*ter*

MANDATE OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SERVICES

1. The Sub-Committee on financial services shall:
 - (a) oversee the implementation of Section II (Financial Services) of Chapter III (Trade in Services and Establishment) of the Agreement;
 - (b) exchange information, review developments and examine possibilities for improvements;
 - (c) make recommendations and report to the Joint Committee, as necessary; and
 - (d) consider any issues regarding financial services referred by the Joint Committee.
 2. The Sub-Committee on financial services shall act by consensus.
 3. The Sub-Committee on financial services shall meet as often as required, either physically or through videoconferencing. It shall be convened by the Joint Committee, by the chairpersons of the Sub-Committee on financial services or upon request of a Party. The venue shall alternate between an EFTA State and Chile, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties.
 4. The meetings of the Sub-Committee on financial services shall be chaired jointly by a representative of an EFTA State and Chile. A provisional agenda for each meeting shall be prepared by the chairpersons of the Sub-Committee on Financial Services in consultation with the Parties, and send to them, as a general rule no later than two weeks before the meeting.
 5. The Sub-Committee on financial services shall prepare a report on the results of each meeting. If requested, the chairpersons shall report at a meeting of the Joint Committee.
 6. The authority of each Party responsible for financial services shall be:
 - (a) in the case of Chile, the Ministry of Finance, or its successor;
 - (b) in the case of Iceland, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, or its successor;
 - (c) in the case of Liechtenstein, the Office for Foreign Affairs, or its successor;
 - (d) in the case of Norway, the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Fisheries, or its successor; and
 - (e) in the case of Switzerland, the State Secretariat for Economic Affairs, or its successor.

ANNEX 17

AMENDMENTS TO ANNEX XI

CURRENT PAYMENTS AND CAPITAL MOVEMENTS

ANNEX XI

ANNEX XI

CURRENT PAYMENTS AND CAPITAL MOVEMENTS

1. With respect to its obligations under Articles 61 and 62 of the Agreement, Chile reserves the right of the Central Bank of Chile to maintain or adopt measures in conformity with the Constitutional Organic Law of the Central Bank of Chile (“Ley Orgánica Constitucional del Banco Central de Chile, Ley 18.840”) (“Law 18.840”) or other legislation, in order to ensure currency stability and the normal operation of domestic and foreign payments. For this purpose, the Central Bank of Chile is empowered to regulate the supply of money and credit in circulation and international credit and foreign exchange operations. The Central Bank of Chile is empowered as well to issue regulations governing monetary, credit, financial and foreign exchange matters. Such measures include, inter alia, the establishment of restrictions or limitations on current payments and transfers (capital movements) to or from Chile, as well as transactions related to them, such as requiring that deposits, investments, or credits from or to a foreign country, be subject to a reserve requirement (“encaje”). Notwithstanding the above, the reserve requirement that the Central Bank of Chile can apply pursuant to Article 49 No. 2 of Law 18.840 shall not exceed 30 percent of the amount transferred and shall not be imposed for a period which exceeds two years.

2. When applying measures under this Annex, Chile, as established in its laws and regulations, shall not discriminate between EFTA States and any third country with respect to transactions of the same nature.

ANNEX 18

AMENDMENTS TO CHAPTER IV

PROTECTION OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

ANNEX 18

AMENDMENTS TO CHAPTER IV

PROTECTION OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

ARTICLE 67

Protection of intellectual property

1. The Parties shall grant and ensure adequate, effective and non-discriminatory protection of intellectual property rights, and provide for measures for the enforcement of such rights against infringement thereof, including counterfeiting and piracy, in accordance with this Chapter, Annex XII (Protection of Intellectual Property), and the international agreements referred to therein, and Appendix (Geographical Indications).
2. The Parties shall accord to nationals of another Party treatment no less favourable than that they accord to their own nationals. Exemptions from this obligation must be in accordance with the substantive provisions of Articles 3 and 5 of the WTO Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS Agreement).
3. The Parties shall grant to nationals of another Party treatment no less favourable than that accorded to nationals of another Party. Exemptions from this obligation must be in accordance with the substantive provisions of the TRIPS Agreement, in particular Articles 4 and 5.
4. Subject to paragraphs 2 and 3, each Party shall be free to establish its regime for the exhaustion of intellectual property rights.
5. Upon request of a Party, the Parties shall review this Chapter, Annex XII (Protection of Intellectual Property) and Appendix (Geographical Indications), with a view to further improving the levels of protection and to avoiding or remedying trade distortions caused by actual levels of protection of intellectual property rights.

ARTICLE 68

Principles

1. The Parties reaffirm the principles set forth in Article 8 of the TRIPS Agreement.
2. Taking into consideration the underlying public policy objectives of domestic systems, the Parties recognise the need to promote innovation and creativity; as well as to facilitate the diffusion of information, knowledge, technology, culture and the arts through their respective intellectual property systems, while respecting the principles of transparency, and taking into account the interests of relevant stakeholders, including right holders, users and the general public.

ARTICLE 69

Intellectual property and public health

1. The Parties recognise the importance of the Declaration on the TRIPS Agreement and Public Health, adopted on 14 November 2001 (Doha Declaration) by the Ministerial Conference of the WTO.
 2. The Parties shall implement the Amendment of the TRIPS Agreement as adopted by the WTO General Council on 6 December 2005 (TRIPS Amendment).
 3. This Chapter and Annex XII (Protection of Intellectual Property) shall be without prejudice to the Doha Declaration and the TRIPS Amendment.

ANNEX 19

AMENDMENTS TO ANNEX XII

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

ANNEX XII

PROTECTION OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

ANNEX XII

SECTION I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

Definition of intellectual property

For the purposes of the Agreement, “intellectual property” comprises, in particular, copyrights, including the protection of computer programmes and compilations of data, as well as related rights, trademarks, geographical indications (including appellations of origin), and indications of source, industrial designs, patents, plant varieties, topographies of integrated circuits, as well as undisclosed information.

Article 2

International conventions

1. The Parties reaffirm their obligations set out in the following multilateral agreements which are hereby incorporated into this Agreement, mutatis mutandis:

- (a) TRIPS Agreement;
- (b) Paris Convention of 20 March 1883 for the Protection of Industrial Property, as revised by the Stockholm Act of 1967 (Paris Convention);
- (c) Berne Convention of 9 September 1886 for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works, as revised by the Paris Act of 1971 (Berne Convention);
- (d) International Convention of 26 October 1961 for the Protection of Performers, Producers of Phonograms and Broadcasting Organisations (Rome Convention);
- (e) Patent Cooperation Treaty of 19 June 1970, as revised by the Washington Act of 2001;
- (f) Budapest Treaty of 28 April 1977 on the International Recognition of the Deposit of Microorganisms for the Purposes of Patent Procedure;
- (g) Protocol of 27 June 1989 relating to the Madrid Agreement concerning the International Registration of Marks; and

- (h) 1991 International Convention for the Protection of New Varieties of Plants (UPOV), unless the Party concerned is already a member of the 1978 UPOV¹.

2. The Parties shall ratify or accede to the following agreements before 2026, provided they are not yet a party, or comply with their substantive provisions by the same date:

- (a) Nice Agreement of 25 June 1957 Concerning the International Classification of Goods and Services for the Purposes of the Registration of Marks, as revised by the Geneva Act of 1979;
- (b) World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO) Copyright Treaty of 20 December 1996 (WCT); and
- (c) World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO) Performances and Phonogram Treaty of 20 December 1996 (WPPT).

3. The Parties shall, provided they are not yet a party, make all reasonable efforts to accede to and ensure an adequate and effective implementation of the obligations arising from the following multilateral convention:

- (a) Geneva Act of 1999 of the Hague Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Industrial Designs; and
- (b) Beijing Treaty on Audio-Visual Performances of 24 June 2012.

4. Upon request of a Party, the Parties shall promptly hold expert meetings, on activities relating to the conventions referred to in paragraphs 1 to 3 or to future international conventions on harmonisation, administration and enforcement of intellectual property rights and on activities in international organisations, such as the WTO and WIPO, as well as on relations of the Parties with non-Parties on matters concerning intellectual property.

SECTION II

STANDARDS CONCERNING THE AVAILABILITY, SCOPE AND USE OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Article 3

Copyright and related rights

1. The Parties shall, without prejudice to the obligations set out in the international agreements to which they are parties, in accordance with their domestic laws and regulations, grant and ensure adequate and effective protection to the authors of works and to performers, producers of phonograms and broadcasting organisations for their works, performances, phonograms, and broadcasts, respectively.

2. In addition to the protection provided for in paragraph 1 and in the international agreements to which the Parties are parties or which the Parties shall ratify or accede to pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article 2 (International conventions), each Party shall grant and ensure protection to audiovisual producers for their videograms or cinematographic works:

- (a) by applying Articles 11, 12, 13 and 14 of the WPPT, mutatis mutandis; or
- (b) by conferring instead an author's right to a cinematographic work to the person who took the initiative and the responsibility to realise it.

3. The Parties shall ensure that a broadcasting organisation has at least the exclusive right of authorising the fixation and the reproduction of their broadcasts. The Parties shall ensure broadcasting organisations have at least the right to receive a remuneration for acts of wireless retransmission or its communication to the public, in establishments accessible to the general public.

4. With regard to the protection of visual and audiovisual performances, phonograms, and broadcasts, the Parties may, in their domestic laws and regulations, provide for the same limitations or exceptions as they provide for in their domestic laws and regulations in connection with the protection of literary and artistic works.

5. The term of protection to be granted to performers under the Agreement shall last at least until the end of a period of 50 years computed from the end of the year in which the performance was fixed.²

6. The term of protection to be granted under the Agreement to audiovisual producers for their videograms or cinematographic works shall last at least:

² Protection begins with the performance, with the publication of the phonogram or audiovisual fixation, or with its fixation if it is not published. The term of protection is calculated from the end of the year in which the event determining the calculation occurred.

- (a) when applying Articles 11, 12, 13 and 14 of the WPPT mutatis mutandis, 50 years from the end of the year in which the videogram was published, or failing such publication within 50 years from fixation of the videogram, 50 years from the end of the year in which the fixation was made;
- (b) when conferring instead an author's right to a cinematographic work to the person who took the initiative and the responsibility to realise it, 50 years from the end of the year death of the author died.

7. The term of protection to be granted to broadcasting organisations under the Agreement shall last at least 20 years from the end of the year in which the broadcast took place.

Article 4

Trademarks

1. The Parties shall grant adequate and effective protection of trademarks for goods and services. Any sign, or any combination of signs, capable of distinguishing the goods or services of one undertaking from those of other undertakings, shall be capable of constituting a trademark. Such signs, in particular words including combinations of words, personal names, letters, numerals, figurative elements, shapes of goods, sounds and combinations of colours as well as any combination of such signs, shall be eligible for registration as trademarks. Where signs are not inherently capable of distinguishing the relevant goods or services, the Parties may make registrability depend on distinctiveness acquired through use. The Parties may require, as a condition of registration, that trademarks are capable of being represented on the register in a manner which enables the competent authorities and the public to determine the clear and precise subject matter of the protection afforded to its proprietor.

2. The Parties shall grant the owner of a registered trademark the exclusive right to prevent all third parties not having the owner's consent from using in the course of trade identical or similar signs for goods or services which are identical or similar to those in respect of which the trademark is registered where such use would result in a likelihood of confusion. In case of the use of an identical sign for identical goods or services, a likelihood of confusion shall be presumed. The rights described above shall not prejudice any existing prior rights, nor shall they affect the possibility of Parties making rights available on the basis of use.

3. Protection according to paragraph 2 shall not be limited to identical or similar goods or services where the trademark, whether registered or not, is well-known in the relevant country, provided that the use of the conflicting mark would indicate a connection between those goods or services and the owner of the well-known mark, and that the interests of the owner of the well-known mark would likely be damaged by such use. Cases of likelihood of damage may include situations such as where the use of the trademark without due cause would be detrimental to the distinctive character, or take unfair advantage, or be detrimental to the repute of the well-known mark.

4. No Party may require as a condition for determining that a trademark is well-known that the trademark has been registered in that Party or in another jurisdiction, included on a list of well-known trademarks, or given prior recognition as a well-known trademark.

5. The Parties reaffirm the importance of, and shall be guided by the principles contained in, the WIPO Joint Recommendation Concerning Provisions on the Protection of Well-Known Marks, adopted by the Assembly of the Paris Union for the Protection of Industrial Property and the General Assembly of the WIPO in 1999, and the WIPO Joint Recommendation Concerning Provisions on the Protection of Marks and other Industrial Property Rights in Signs, on the Internet, adopted by the Assembly of the Paris Union for the Protection of Industrial Property and the General Assembly of the WIPO in 2001.

Patents

1. The Parties shall at least ensure in their domestic laws and regulations that patents are available for any inventions, whether products or processes, in all fields of technology, provided that they are new, involve an inventive step and are capable of industrial application. Subject to paragraphs 2 and 3, patents shall be available and patent rights enjoyable without discrimination as to the place of invention, the field of technology and whether products are imported or locally produced. In line with TRIPS Agreement article 27(1), importation and offering on the market of a product shall be deemed to be “working of the patent” in the country of importation.

2. The Parties may exclude from patentability inventions, the prevention within their territory of the commercial exploitation of which is necessary to protect ordre public or morality, including to protect human, animal or plant life or health or to avoid serious prejudice to the environment, provided that such exclusion is not made merely because the exploitation is prohibited by their domestic laws and regulations.

3. Each Party may also exclude from patentability:

- (a) any invention of methods for treatment of the human or animal body by surgery or therapy or for diagnostic methods practised on the human or animal body; this paragraph shall not apply to products, in particular substances or compositions, for use in any of these methods; and
- (b) plants and animals other than micro-organisms, and essentially biological processes for the production of plants or animals other than non-biological and microbiological processes.

4. The Parties shall provide a patent applicant with opportunities to make amendments, corrections, and observations in connection with its application.

5. Recognising the benefits of transparency in the patent system, the Parties shall endeavour to publish unpublished pending patent applications promptly after the expiration of 18 months from the filing date or, if priority is claimed, from the priority date.

6. If a pending application is not published promptly in accordance with paragraph 5, the Parties shall publish such application or the corresponding patent as soon as practicable.

7. The Parties shall provide that an applicant may request the early publication of an application prior to the expiration of the period mentioned in paragraph 5.

8. Each Party shall adopt or maintain an exception for patents related to acts necessary for obtaining marketing authorisation or sanitary permit for a pharmaceutical product (regulatory review exception). The exception shall not unreasonably conflict with a normal exploitation of the patent and shall not unreasonably prejudice the legitimate interests of the patent owner, taking into account the legitimate interest of third parties.

9. Each Party shall make available an extension of the patent term to compensate the patent owner for unreasonable curtailment of the patent term as a result of the marketing approval or sanitary permit process.

10. Compulsory licensing of patents shall only be granted under the terms of the TRIPS Agreement and the Doha Declaration.

Article 6

Undisclosed information

1. Each Party, when requiring, as a condition for granting the marketing approval or sanitary permit of pharmaceutical or agricultural chemical products which utilise new chemical entities, the submission of undisclosed test or other data, the origination of which involves a considerable effort, shall protect such data against unfair commercial use. In addition, each Party shall protect such data against disclosure, except where necessary to protect the public, or unless steps are taken to ensure that the data are protected against unfair commercial use.

2. No Party shall permit third persons not having the consent of the person providing the information to market a product based on this new chemical entity, on the basis of the approval granted to the person submitting such information for a period of at least five years from the date of approval for a pharmaceutical product and ten years from the date of approval for an agricultural chemical product³.

Article 7

Industrial designs

³ It is understood that the Parties may, in cases where the products for which the marketing approval or sanitary permit is requested were produced by the submitter of the undisclosed data or with his consent, allow the applicant to rely on that data.

The Parties shall ensure, in their domestic laws and regulations, adequate and effective protection of industrial designs by providing in particular a period of protection of at least 15 years in total. The Parties may provide for a shorter period of protection for designs of component parts used for the purpose of the repair of a product.

Article 8

Geographical indications

1. The Parties shall ensure, in their domestic laws and regulations, adequate and effective means to protect geographical indications with regard to all goods.
2. For the purposes of this Annex, “geographical indications”, including appellations of origin as defined in the domestic laws and regulations of the Parties, mean indications which identify a good as originating in the territory of a Party, or a region or locality in that territory, where a given quality, reputation or other characteristic of the good is essentially attributable to its geographical origin.
3. Without prejudice to Article 23 of the TRIPS Agreement, the Parties shall provide legal means for interested parties to prevent the use of a geographical indication for goods not originating in the place indicated by the designation in question in a manner which misleads the public as to the geographical origin of those goods or which constitutes an act of unfair competition within the meaning of Article 10*bis* of the Paris Convention.
4. The Parties shall provide legal means for interested parties to oppose the registration or to request the invalidation of a trademark which contains or consists of a geographical indication of a Party with respect to goods not originating in the territory indicated, if such use misleads the public as to the true place of origin of the goods.
5. The Parties shall provide legal means for interested parties to prevent the use of a geographical indication for agricultural products and foodstuffs for goods of the same type not originating in the place indicated by the designation in question.
6. Without prejudice to this Article, Appendix (Geographical Indications) applies to the mutual recognition and protection of geographical indications of Liechtenstein, Switzerland and Chile.

Article 9

Country names, indications of source, state emblems and flags

1. The Parties shall provide the legal means for interested parties to prevent commercial use of country names of the Parties in a manner which misleads consumers as to the origin of such goods or services.
2. Indications of source shall be understood in accordance with the Paris Convention. The Parties shall provide appropriate legal means for interested parties to prevent the use of false indications of source for goods or services, which constitutes an act of unfair competition within the meaning of Article 10*bis* of the Paris Convention.

3. The Parties shall, in accordance with their obligations under Article 6*ter* of the Paris Convention, refuse or invalidate the registration and prohibit by appropriate measures the use, without authorisation by the competent authorities, of armorial bearings, flags and other State emblems of a Party as trademarks or elements of trademarks.

SECTION III

ACQUISITION AND MAINTENANCE OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Article 10

Acquisition and maintenance

Where the acquisition of an intellectual property right is subject to the right being granted or registered, the Parties shall ensure that the procedures for granting or registration are at least the same level as that provided in the TRIPS Agreement, in particular in its Article 62.

SECTION IV

ENFORCEMENT OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Article 11

General principles

The Parties shall provide in their domestic laws and regulations for enforcement provisions for rights covered by Article 1 (Definition of intellectual property) that shall at least be the same level as provided for in the TRIPS Agreement, in particular in its Articles 41 to 61.

Article 12

Suspension of release

1. The Parties shall adopt procedures to enable a right holder, who has valid grounds for suspecting that importation or exportation of goods infringing intellectual property rights may take place, to lodge an application in writing with the competent authorities, administrative or judicial, for the suspension by the customs authorities of the release of such goods.
2. The Parties shall enable customs authorities to act upon their own initiative and suspend the release of goods when they have valid grounds for suspecting that importation or exportation of those goods would infringe intellectual property rights, at least in the case of trademarks and copyrights. Customs authorities shall use risk analysis to identify goods suspected of infringing intellectual property rights, at least in the case of trademarks and copyrights.
3. The customs authorities of each Party shall either adopt procedures under which a right holder can record intellectual property rights with the customs authorities or maintain a regular dialogue and promote cooperation with relevant stakeholders and other authorities involved in the enforcement of intellectual property rights.
4. The competent authorities shall, in accordance with domestic procedures, suspend the release of the goods suspected of infringing intellectual property rights for which an application was filed as per the procedure under paragraph 1 or covered under paragraph 2.
5. The Parties shall authorise their customs authorities to inform the right holder in order to enable the lodging of an application according to paragraph 1.
6. It is understood that there shall be no obligation to apply procedures set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2 to the suspension of the release of goods put on the market by or with the consent of the right holder.

7. In case of suspension pursuant to paragraphs 1 and 2 with respect to importation into or exportation from the customs territory of a Party, the competent authorities of the Party suspending the release of the goods shall notify the right holder of the suspension including necessary information to enforce his or her rights, such as the name and addresses of the consignor or consignee, and the importer or exporter, as applicable, and the quantity of the goods in question.

8. Each Party shall ensure that the competent administrative or judicial authorities, upon request by the right holder, have the authority to decide that the products, the release of which has been suspended pursuant to paragraphs 1 or 2, shall be held seized until a final decision is reached in the infringement dispute.

9. Each Party shall provide that if the competent authorities have made a determination that the suspected goods infringe an intellectual property right, procedures are made available to enable the right holder to seek recovery of, and indemnify against, costs and expenses that the right holder may have incurred in connection with the exercise of rights and remedies provided in this Article.

10. Each Party may exclude from the application of the above provisions small quantities of goods of a non-commercial nature contained in travellers' personal luggage or sent in small consignments.⁴

Article 13

Right of inspection

1. The Parties shall ensure that the competent authorities provide the applicant for the suspension of goods referred to in Article 12 (Suspension of release) and other persons involved⁵ in the suspension the opportunity to inspect goods whose release has been suspended.

2. When examining goods, the competent authorities may take samples and shall grant the right holder access to such samples for the purposes of analysis and of facilitating the subsequent procedure.

3. The declarant, holder or owner of the suspected infringing goods may, in accordance with the domestic laws and regulations of the Party concerned, be present at the inspection with a view to protecting its trade secret.

Article 14

Provisional measures and injunctions

⁵ The term 'other persons involved' shall be interpreted in accordance with the domestic laws and regulations of the Parties.

1. Each Party shall ensure that its judicial authorities have the authority to order prompt and effective provisional measures:

- (a) to prevent infringements of intellectual property rights from occurring, and in particular to prevent the entry of goods into channels of commerce in their jurisdiction, including imported goods immediately after customs clearance; and
- (b) to preserve relevant evidence with regard to the alleged infringement.

2. The Parties' judicial authorities shall have the authority to adopt provisional measures inaudita altera parte where appropriate, in particular where delay is likely to cause irreparable harm to the right holder, or where there is a demonstrable risk of evidence being destroyed. Upon request for provisional measures, the Parties' judicial authorities shall act expeditiously and take a decision without undue delay.

3. Each Party shall ensure that, in civil judicial proceedings with regard to the enforcement of intellectual property rights, its judicial authorities have the authority to order a party to the proceedings to desist from an infringement, inter alia, to prevent the entry into the channels of commerce in their jurisdiction of imported goods that involve the infringement of an intellectual property right, immediately after customs clearance of such goods.

Article 15

Removal from commerce

The Parties shall ensure that the competent judicial authorities in an infringement dispute may order, upon request of the right holder, that appropriate measures be taken with regard to goods that they have found to be infringing an intellectual property right and, in appropriate cases, with regard to materials and implements predominantly or directly used in the creation or manufacture of those goods. Such measures shall include definitive removal from the channels of commerce or destruction. In considering a request for corrective measures, the need for proportionality between the seriousness of the infringement and the remedies ordered as well as the interests of third parties shall be taken into account.

Article 16

Civil remedies

1. Each Party shall make available to right holders civil judicial procedures concerning the enforcement of any intellectual property right covered in this Annex.

2. Each Party shall ensure that:

- (a) in civil judicial proceedings, its judicial authorities have the authority to order the infringer, who knowingly or with reasonable grounds to know engaged in infringing activity of intellectual property rights, to pay the right holder damages adequate to compensate for the actual injury the right holder has suffered as a result of the infringement; and
- (b) in determining the amount of damages for intellectual property rights infringement, its judicial authorities shall consider, inter alia, the actual damage, lost profits, any profits made by the infringer or establishing a fair licence fee.

3. At least in cases of copyright or related right infringement and trademark counterfeiting, each Party shall provide that its judicial authorities have the authority to order the infringer to pay the right holder the infringer's profits that are attributable to the infringement.

Article 17

Criminal remedies

The Parties shall provide for criminal procedures and penalties for wilful intellectual property rights infringements on a commercial scale.

Article 18

Security or equivalent assurance, liability declaration

In the context of Articles 12 (Suspension of release) and 14 (Provisional measures and injunctions), the Parties shall ensure that their competent authorities have the authority to require an applicant, in justified cases, to provide a security or equivalent assurance, sufficient to protect the defendant and the competent authorities and to prevent abuse. Such security or equivalent assurance shall not unreasonably deter recourse to these procedures. The Parties may fulfil this obligation by requiring an applicant to declare to accept liability towards the persons involved, instead of providing a security or equivalent assurance.

Article 19

Final judicial and administrative decisions

The Parties shall ensure that final judicial and administrative decisions relating to intellectual property rights are:

- (a) in writing and contain the findings of fact and the reasoning or the legal basis on which the decisions are based; and

- (b) published or otherwise made publicly available in a national language in such a manner as to enable interested parties to become acquainted with them, subject to protection of confidential information.

Article 20

Cooperation in the field of intellectual property

The Parties, recognising the growing importance of intellectual property rights as a factor of social, economic and cultural development, agree to enhance cooperation in the field of intellectual property.

APPENDIX

REFERRED TO IN ARTICLE 8 OF ANNEX XII

GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATIONS

APPENDIX TO ANNEX XII
GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATIONS

Article 1

Scope of Protection

1. The geographical indications of the Parties listed in Attachments I and II shall be protected against:

- (a) any commercial use with respect to goods of the same type as those to which the geographical indication applies that does not comply with the requirements set according to the domestic laws and regulations of the Party to which the geographical indication refers; and
- (b) any use which constitutes an act of unfair competition within the meaning of Article 10*bis* of the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property (1967), including any use that would indicate or suggest a connection between those goods or services and the beneficiaries of the geographical indication, and would be likely to damage their interests, or, where applicable, because of the reputation of the geographical indication in the Party concerned, such use would be likely to impair or dilute in an unfair manner, or take unfair advantage of, that reputation.

2. Protection according to paragraph 1 shall also be granted if the protected indication is used in translation, to the extent that such use would result in a likelihood of confusion for the relevant public¹. If a translation of a multicomponent geographical indication contains within it a term that is customary in common language as the common name for the product to which the geographical indication refers in the territory of the Party where protection is sought, the provisions of this Appendix shall not prejudice the right of any person to use the term customary in common language in association with the product to which the geographical indication refers.

3. The protection provided under this Appendix shall not apply to an individual component of a multicomponent geographical indication contained in Attachment I or II, if the individual component is a term that is customary in common language as the common name for the product to which the geographical indication refers, provided the term is not used with the purpose of misleading the public with respect to a protected geographical indication.

4. The provisions of this Appendix shall not prevent the use of a name of a plant variety or an animal breed, provided that such use does not mislead consumers as to the true origin of the good or constitute an act of unfair competition regarding the geographical indication.

¹ Likelihood of confusion shall not be required for the protection of single term Geographical Indications used in translation.

5. Once a geographical indication is protected under this Appendix, the use of such protected name shall not be subject to any registration of users, or further charges.
6. The registration of trademarks infringing paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be refused or invalidated at the request of an interested party, or ex officio if the domestic laws and regulations of the Parties permit.
7. The Parties shall protect geographical indications also where a prior trademark exists. The Parties shall have no obligation to protect an indication referred to in Attachments I or II where in the light of a reputed or well-known trademark, protection is liable to mislead consumers as to the true identity of the good or service.
8. Where a prior trademark has been applied for or registered in good faith before the entry into force of the Agreement, it may continue to be used and renewed notwithstanding the protection and the use of the geographical indication under this Appendix, provided that no other grounds for the invalidity of the trademark or its revocation exist as specified by the domestic laws and regulations of the Party concerned. A Party may provide that such a trademark may be subject to variations that may require the filing of new trademark applications, provided that these variations are not undermining the protection of geographical indications and there are no grounds for invalidation of the trademark under the Parties' domestic laws and regulations.
9. The geographical indications listed in Attachments I and II shall not become generic in the territory of the Parties.
10. There shall be no obligation under this Appendix to protect geographical indications, which are not or cease to be protected in their territory of origin.

Article 2

Enforcement

1. Each Party shall provide for enforcement through administrative action for the protection provided for in Article 1 (Scope of protection), to the extent provided for by its domestic laws and regulations and at the request of an interested party.² Additional administrative or judicial steps to prevent or stop the unlawful use of protected geographical indications may also be provided by the Parties, within their domestic laws, regulations and practice.
2. This Article applies without prejudice to Section IV (Enforcement of Intellectual Property Rights) of Annex XII (Protection of Intellectual Property).

² For the purposes of this Appendix, natural and juridical persons such as producers and their institutions, associations and organisations in any legal form, providers of services, traders or consumers, as well as state authorities shall be deemed to be interested parties, provided that they have a legitimate interest and that their residence, head office or domicile is located in a Party.

Article 3

Modification to the lists of geographical indications

1. A Party intending to add, remove or modify geographical indications in Attachments I or II shall notify the other Parties in writing. Within 90 days from the receipt of such written notification, the Parties shall enter into consultations with the aim of finding an agreement on the proposed modifications, which shall be submitted to the Joint Committee to amend the relevant Attachment.
2. For new geographical indications to be added, nothing shall require a Party to protect a geographical indication which is identical to the term customary in common language as the common name for the product to which the geographical indication refers in the territory of that Party.

Article 4

Transitional period

1. Goods identified with a geographical indication listed in Attachments I or II which, at the time of entry into force of the Agreement, have been legally produced, designated and presented, but which, according to this Appendix, shall not be identified with such an indication, may be marketed by wholesalers or producers for one year from the entry into force of the Agreement and by retailers of goods until stocks are exhausted.
2. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, goods whose description, presentation or packaging cease to conform to this Appendix following an amendment thereto, may continue to be marketed until stocks are exhausted.

⁶ The protection of the geographical indication “Gruyère” shall not prevent prior users, of the term “Gruyère/Gruyere” in the territory or Chile, which had been using this term in good faith and with recurrent presence on the market from 09.12.2021 to 09.12.2022, to continue using that term, provided these products are not commercialized using references (eg graphics, names, pictures, flags) to the genuine origin of “Gruyère” and are differentiated from “Gruyère” in a non-ambiguous manner as regards the origin and provided the term is displayed in a font character substantially smaller, while readable, than the brand name and is differentiated from it in a non-ambiguous manner as regards the origin of the product. The designation "Gruyère" refers, in Switzerland, to two homonymous geographical indications, respectively in respect of a Swiss and a French cheese. Switzerland will not oppose a possible application aiming at the protection of the said French homonymous geographical indication in Chile. Article 4 (Transitional Period) of Appendix (Geographical Indications) shall not apply to the designation “Gruyère”.

AMENDMENTS TO CHAPTER V

GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT

ANNEX 20

AMENDMENTS TO CHAPTER V

GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT

ARTICLE 70

Scope and coverage

1. This Chapter applies to any measure of a Party regarding covered procurement. For the purposes of this Chapter, “covered procurement” means procurement for governmental purposes:

- (a) of goods, services, or any combination thereof:
 - (i) as specified in Appendices 1 to 7 and 12 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement); and
 - (ii) not procured with a view to commercial sale or resale, or for use in the production or supply of goods or services for commercial sale or resale;
- (b) by any contractual means, including purchase, lease, rental or hire purchase, with or without an option to buy, and public works concessions as specified in Appendix 7 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement);
- (c) for which the value, as estimated in accordance with the rules specified in Appendix 10 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement) equals or exceeds the relevant threshold specified in Appendices 1 to 3 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement) at the time of publication of a notice in accordance with Article 80 (Notices);
- (d) by a procuring entity; and
- (e) that is not otherwise excluded pursuant to paragraph 2 or Annex XIII (Government Procurement).

2. This Chapter shall not apply to:

- (a) acquisition or rental of land, existing buildings, or other immovable property or the rights thereon;
- (b) non-contractual agreements or any form of assistance that a Party provides, including cooperative agreements, grants, loans, equity infusions, guarantees, fiscal incentives, subsidies and sponsorships agreements;
- (c) procurement or acquisition of fiscal agency or depository services, liquidation and management services for regulated financial institutions or services related to sale, redemption and distribution of public debt, including loans and government bonds, notes and other securities;

- (d) public employment contracts;
- (e) procurement conducted:
 - (i) for the specific purpose of providing international assistance, including development aid;
 - (ii) under a particular procedure or condition of an international agreement relating to the stationing of troops or relating to the joint implementation by the signatory countries of a project; or
 - (ii) under a particular procedure or condition of an international organisation, or funded by international grants, loans or other assistance where the applicable procedure or condition would be inconsistent with this Chapter.
- (f) financial services.

ARTICLE 71

Definitions

For the purposes of this Chapter:

- (a) “commercial goods or services” means goods or services of a type generally sold or offered for sale in the commercial marketplace to, and customarily purchased by, non-governmental buyers for non-governmental purposes;
- (b) “construction service” means a service that has as its objective the realisation by whatever means of civil or building works, based on Division 51 of the United Nations Provisional Central Product Classification (CPC);
- (c) “days” means calendar days;
- (d) “electronic auction” means an iterative process that involves the use of electronic means for the presentation by suppliers of either new prices, or new values for quantifiable non-price elements of the tender related to the evaluation criteria, or both, resulting in a ranking or re-ranking of tenders;
- (e) “in writing” or “written” means any worded or numbered expression that can be read, reproduced, and later communicated, including electronically transmitted and stored information;
- (f) “limited tendering” means a procurement method whereby the procuring entity contacts a supplier or suppliers of its choice;

- (g) “measure” means any law, regulation, procedure, administrative guidance or practice, or any action of a procuring entity relating to a covered procurement;
- (h) “multi-use list” means a list of suppliers that a procuring entity has determined satisfy the conditions for participation in that list, and that the procuring entity intends to use more than once;
- (i) “notice of intended procurement” means a notice published by a procuring entity inviting interested suppliers to submit a request for participation, a tender, or both;
- (j) “notice of planned procurement” means a notice published by a procuring entity regarding its future procurement plans;
- (k) “offset” means any condition or undertaking that encourages local development or improves a Party’s balance-of-payments accounts, such as the use of domestic content or of a domestic supplier, the licensing of technology, technology transfer, investment, counter-trade and similar action or requirement;
- (l) “open tendering” means a procurement method whereby all interested suppliers may submit a tender;
- (m) “person” means a natural person or a juridical person;
- (n) “procuring entity” means an entity covered under Appendices 1 to 3 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement);
- (o) “qualified supplier” means a supplier that a procuring entity recognises as having satisfied the conditions for participation;
- (p) “selective tendering” means a procurement method whereby only qualified suppliers are invited by the procuring entity to submit a tender;
- (q) “services” includes construction services, unless otherwise specified;
- (r) “standard” means a document approved by a recognised body that provides for common and repeated use, rules, guidelines or characteristics for goods or services, or related processes and production methods, with which compliance is not mandatory. It may also include or deal exclusively with terminology, symbols, packaging, marking, or labelling requirements as they apply to goods, services, a process or production method;
- (s) “supplier” means a person or group of persons that provides or could provide goods or services; and
- (t) “technical specification” means a tendering requirement that:

- (i) lays down the characteristics of goods or services to be procured, including quality, performance, safety and dimensions, or the processes and methods for their production or provision; or
- (ii) addresses terminology, symbols, packaging, marking, or labelling requirements, as they apply to goods or services.

ARTICLE 72

Security and general exceptions

1. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to prevent a Party from taking any action or not disclosing any information that it considers necessary for the protection of its essential security interests relating to the procurement of arms, ammunition or war materials, or to procurement indispensable for national security or for national defence purposes.

2. Subject to the requirement that such measures are not applied in a manner that would constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination between the Parties where the same conditions prevail or a disguised restriction on trade between the Parties, nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to prevent a Party from imposing or enforcing measures:

- (a) necessary to protect public morals, order or safety;
- (b) necessary to protect human, animal or plant life or health;
- (c) necessary to protect intellectual property; or
- (d) relating to goods or services of persons with disabilities, philanthropic institutions or prison labour.

3. The Parties understand that sub-paragraph 2 (b) includes environmental measures necessary to protect human, animal or plant life or health.

ARTICLE 73

Non-discrimination

1. With respect to any measure regarding covered procurement, each Party, including its procuring entities, shall accord immediately and unconditionally to the goods and services of another Party and to the suppliers of another Party offering goods or services of any other Party, treatment no less favourable than that accorded to domestic goods, services and suppliers.

2. With respect to any measure regarding covered procurement, no Party, including its procuring entities, shall:

- (a) treat a locally established supplier less favourably than another locally established supplier on the basis of degree of foreign affiliation or ownership;

or

- (b) discriminate against a locally established supplier on the basis that the goods or services offered by that supplier for a particular procurement are goods or services of another Party.

3. Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply to customs duties and other charges of any kind imposed on, or in connection with, importation, the method of levying such duties and charges or other import regulations, including restrictions and formalities, and measures affecting trade in services other than measures governing covered procurement.

ARTICLE 74

Use of electronic means

1. The Parties shall endeavour to use electronic means of communication to permit efficient dissemination of information on government procurement, particularly as regards tender opportunities offered by entities, in accordance with the principles of transparency and non-discrimination.

2. When conducting covered procurement by electronic means, a procuring entity shall:

- (a) ensure that the procurement is conducted using information technology systems and software, including those related to authentication and encryption of information, that are generally available and interoperable with other generally available information technology systems and software; and
- (b) maintain mechanisms that ensure the integrity of requests for participation and tenders, including establishment of the time of receipt and the prevention of inappropriate access.

ARTICLE 75

Conduct of procurement

A procuring entity shall conduct covered procurement in a transparent and impartial manner that:

- (a) is consistent with this Chapter, using methods such as open tendering, selective tendering and limited tendering; and
- (b) prevents conflicts of interest and corrupt practices, in accordance with relevant domestic laws and regulations.

ARTICLE 76

Anticorruption measures

Each Party shall ensure that criminal or administrative measures exist to address corruption in its government procurement. These measures may include procedures to render ineligible for participation in the Party's procurements, either indefinitely or for a stated period, suppliers that that Party has determined to have engaged in fraudulent or other illegal actions in relation to government procurement in a Party's territory. Each Party shall also ensure that it has policies and procedures in place to eliminate, to the extent possible, or manage any potential conflict of interest on the part of those involved in or having influence over a procurement.

ARTICLE 77

Rules of origin

For purposes of covered procurement, each Party shall apply rules of origin to goods that it applies in the normal course of trade to imports of the same goods.

ARTICLE 78

Offsets

With regard to covered procurement, no Party, including its procuring entities, shall seek, take account of, impose or enforce any offset at any stage of the procurement.

ARTICLE 79

Information on the procurement system

1. Each Party shall promptly publish any measure of general application regarding covered procurement, and any modification thereof, in the relevant electronic or paper medium that is widely disseminated and remains readily accessible to the public.
2. Each Party shall list in Appendix 8 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement) the electronic or paper medium through which a Party shall publish the information referred to in paragraph 1.
3. Each Party shall, upon request, provide another Party with an explanation relating to such information.

ARTICLE 80

Notices

1. For each covered procurement, a procuring entity shall publish a notice of intended procurement in the electronic or paper medium listed in Appendix 8 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement), except in the circumstances referred to in Article 88 (Limited Tendering). Such medium shall be widely disseminated, and the notice shall remain accessible, at least until expiration of the time period indicated in the notice. The notice shall:

- (a) be accessible by electronic means free of charge through a single point of access for procuring entities covered under Appendix 1 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement), as specified in Appendix 8; and
- (b) be provided, at least through links in a gateway electronic site that is accessible free of charge for procuring entities covered under Appendix 2 or 3 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement), as specified in Appendix 8.

2. The Parties, including such procuring entities covered under Appendix 2 or 3 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement), are encouraged to publish their notices by electronic means free of charge through a single point of access.

3. Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, each notice of intended procurement shall include the information specified in Appendix 11 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement).

4. Each Party shall encourage its procuring entities to publish in the appropriate paper or electronic medium listed in Appendix 8 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement), as early as possible in each fiscal year, a notice regarding their future procurement plans. The notice of planned procurement should include the subject matter of the procurement and the planned date of the publication of the notice of intended procurement.

5. A procuring entity covered under Appendix 2 or 3 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement) may use a notice of planned procurement as a notice of intended procurement provided that the notice of planned procurement includes as much of the information referred to in paragraph 3 as is available to the entity and a statement that interested suppliers should express their interest in the procurement to the procuring entity.

ARTICLE 81

Conditions for participation

1. In establishing the conditions for participation and assessing whether a supplier satisfies such conditions, a Party, including its procuring entities:

- (a) shall limit any conditions for participation in a procurement to those that are essential to ensure that a supplier has the legal and financial capacities and the commercial and technical abilities to undertake the relevant procurement;

- (b) shall evaluate the financial capacity and the commercial and technical abilities of a supplier on the basis of that supplier's business activities both inside and outside the territory of the Party of the procuring entity;
 - (c) shall base its evaluation solely on the conditions that the procuring entity has specified in advance in notices or tender documentation;
 - (d) shall not impose the condition that, in order for a supplier to participate in a procurement, the supplier has previously been awarded one or more contracts by a procuring entity of a Party; and
 - (e) may require relevant prior experience where essential to meet the requirements of the procurement.
2. Where there is supporting evidence, and provided that this is not applied in a manner that would constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination between the Parties, a Party, including its procuring entities, may exclude a supplier on grounds such as:
- (a) bankruptcy or insolvency;
 - (b) false declarations;
 - (c) significant or persistent deficiencies in performance of any substantive requirement or obligation under a prior contract or contracts;
 - (d) final judgments in respect of serious crimes or other serious offences;
 - (e) grave professional misconduct or acts or omissions that adversely reflect upon the commercial integrity of the supplier; or
 - (f) failure to pay taxes.

ARTICLE 82

Registration systems and qualification procedures

1. A Party, including its procuring entities, may maintain a supplier registration system under which interested suppliers are required to register and provide certain information.
2. A Party, including its procuring entities, shall not adopt or apply any registration system or qualification procedure with the purpose or the effect of creating unnecessary obstacles to the participation of suppliers of another Party in its procurement.
3. A procuring entity shall promptly inform any supplier that submits a request for participation in a procurement of its decision with respect to that request. Where an entity rejects a supplier's request for participation or ceases to recognise a supplier as qualified, that entity shall, upon request of the supplier, promptly provide the supplier with a written explanation of the reasons for its decision.

4. Where a procuring entity intends to use selective tendering, it shall allow all qualified suppliers to participate in a particular procurement, unless the procuring entity states in the notice of intended procurement any limitation on the number of suppliers that will be permitted to tender and the criteria for selecting the limited number of suppliers.

ARTICLE 83

Multi-use lists

1. A procuring entity may maintain a multi-use list of suppliers, provided that a notice inviting interested suppliers to apply for inclusion on the list is published annually in the appropriate medium listed in Appendix 8 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement), and where published by electronic means, made available continuously in the electronic medium listed in Appendix 8 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement). Where a multi-use list will be valid for three years or less, a procuring entity may publish the notice only once, at the beginning of the period of validity of the list.

2. The notice referred to in paragraph 1 shall include the information specified in Appendix 11 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement).

3. A procuring entity shall allow suppliers to apply at any time for inclusion on a multi-use list and shall include on the list all qualified suppliers within a reasonably short time. Where a procuring entity rejects a supplier's application for inclusion on a multi-use list or removes a supplier from a multi-use list, that entity shall promptly inform the supplier and, upon request of the supplier, promptly provide the supplier with a written explanation of the reasons for its decision.

ARTICLE 84

Tender documentation

1. A procuring entity shall make tender documentation available to suppliers that includes all information necessary to permit suppliers to prepare and submit responsive tenders. Unless already provided for in the notice of intended procurement, such documentation shall include a complete description of the information specified in Appendix 11 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement).

2. Where a procuring entity does not offer free direct access to the entire tender documents and any supporting documents by electronic means, that procuring entity shall make promptly available the tender documentation at the request of any interested supplier of the Parties. The procuring entity shall also promptly reply to any reasonable request for relevant information by any interested or participating supplier, provided that such information does not give that supplier an advantage over other suppliers.

ARTICLE 85

Technical specifications

1. A procuring entity shall not prepare, adopt or apply any technical specification or prescribe any conformity assessment procedure with the purpose or the effect of creating unnecessary obstacles to trade between the Parties.
2. In prescribing the technical specifications for the goods or services being procured, a procuring entity shall, where appropriate:
 - (a) set out the technical specification in terms of performance and functional requirements, rather than design or descriptive characteristics; and
 - (b) base the technical specification on international standards where such exist or otherwise, on national technical regulations, recognised national standards or building codes.
3. Where design or descriptive characteristics are used in the technical specifications, a procuring entity should indicate, where appropriate, that it will consider tenders of equivalent goods or services that demonstrably fulfil the requirements of the procurement by including words such as “or equivalent” in the tender documentation.
4. A procuring entity shall not prescribe any technical specifications that require or refer to a particular trademark or trade name, patent, copyright, design or type, specific origin, producer or supplier, unless there is no other sufficiently precise or intelligible way of describing the procurement requirements and provided that, in such cases, the entity includes words such as “or equivalent” in the tender documentation.
5. A procuring entity shall not seek or accept, in a manner that would have the effect of precluding competition, advice that may be used in the preparation or adoption of any technical specification for a specific procurement from a person that may have a commercial interest in the procurement.
6. For greater certainty, a Party, including its procuring entities, may, in accordance with this Article, prepare, adopt, or apply technical specifications to promote the conservation of natural resources or protect the environment.
7. For greater certainty, this Chapter is not intended to preclude a Party, including its procuring entities, from preparing, adopting or applying technical specifications required to protect sensitive government information, including specifications that may affect or limit the storage, hosting or processing of such information outside the territory of the Party.

ARTICLE 86

Modifications of tender documentation and technical specifications

Where, a procuring entity modifies the criteria or requirements set out in a notice or tender documentation provided to participating suppliers, or amends or reissues a notice or tender documentation, it shall transmit in writing all modifications, amended or re-issued notice or tender documentation:

- (a) to all suppliers that are participating at the time of the modification, amendment or re-issuance, if known, and in all other cases, in the same manner as the original information was made available; and
- (b) in adequate time and considering the nature and complexity of procurement to allow such suppliers to modify and re-submit amended tenders, as appropriate.

ARTICLE 87

Time periods

A procuring entity shall, consistent with its own reasonable needs, provide suppliers sufficient time to prepare and submit requests for participation and responsive tenders, taking into account in particular the nature and complexity of the procurement. Each Party shall apply time periods as specified in Appendix 9 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement). Such time periods, including any extension of the time-periods, shall be the same for all interested or participating suppliers.

ARTICLE 88

Limited tendering

1. Provided that it does not use this provision for the purpose of avoiding competition among suppliers or in a manner that discriminates against suppliers of another Party or protects domestic suppliers, a procuring entity may use limited tendering and choose not to apply Articles 80 (Notices), 81 (Conditions for participation), 82 (Registration systems and qualification procedures), 83 (Multi-use lists), 84 (Tender documentation), 87 (Time periods), 89 (Electronic auctions), 90 (Negotiations), 91 (Treatment of tenders) and 92 (Awarding of contracts) only under the following circumstances:

- (a) provided that the requirements of the tender documentation are not substantially modified:
 - (i) no tenders were submitted or no supplier requested participation;
 - (ii) no tenders that conform to the essential requirements of the tender documentation were submitted;
 - (iii) no suppliers satisfied the conditions for participation; or
 - (iv) the tenders submitted have been collusive according to the Parties' domestic laws and regulations;
- (b) where the goods or services can be supplied only by a particular supplier and no reasonable alternative or substitute goods or services exist for any of the following reasons:

- (i) the requirement is for a work of art;
 - (ii) the protection of patents, copyrights or other exclusive rights; or
 - (iii) due to an absence of competition for technical reasons;
- (c) for additional deliveries by the original supplier of goods and services that were not included in the initial procurement where a change of supplier for such additional goods and services:
- (i) cannot be made for economic or technical reasons such as requirements of interchangeability or interoperability with existing equipment, software, services or installations procured under the initial procurement; and
 - (ii) would cause significant inconvenience or substantial duplication of costs to the procuring entity;
- (d) insofar as strictly necessary where, for reasons of extreme urgency brought about by events unforeseeable by the procuring entity, the goods or services could not be obtained in time using an open or selective tendering procedure;
- (e) insofar as is strictly necessary where, for reasons of extreme urgency brought about by events unforeseeable by the procuring entity, such as emergency and catastrophe provided for in a Party's domestic laws and regulations, the goods or services could not be obtained in time using an open or selective tendering procedure. For the purposes of this paragraph, lack of planning of a procuring entity in relation with the available funds within a specific period of time shall not constitute an unforeseeable event;
- (f) for goods purchased on a commodity market;
- (g) where a procuring entity procures a prototype or a first good or service that is developed at its request in the course of, and for, a particular contract for research, experiment, study or original development¹;
- (h) for purchases made under exceptionally advantageous conditions that only arise in the very short term in the case of unusual disposals such as those arising from liquidation, receivership or bankruptcy, but not for routine purchases from regular suppliers; or
- (i) where a contract is awarded to a winner of a design contest provided that:

¹ Original development of a first good or service may include limited production or supply in order to incorporate the results of field testing and to demonstrate that the good or service is suitable for production or supply in quantity to acceptable quality standards, but does not include quantity production or supply to establish commercial viability or to recover research and development costs.

- (i) the contest has been organised in a manner that is consistent with this Chapter, in particular with respect to the publication of a notice of intended procurement; and
- (ii) the participants are judged by an independent jury with a view to a design contract being awarded to a winner.

2. A procuring entity shall prepare a report in writing on each contract awarded under paragraph 1. The report shall include the name of the procuring entity, the value and kind of goods or services procured, and a statement indicating the circumstances and conditions described in paragraph 1 that justified the use of limited tendering.

ARTICLE 89

Electronic auctions

1. Where a procuring entity intends to conduct a covered procurement using an electronic auction, it shall provide each participant, before commencing the electronic auction, with:

- (a) the automatic evaluation method, including the mathematical formula, that is based on the evaluation criteria set out in the tender documentation and that will be used in the automatic ranking or re-ranking during the auction;
- (b) the results of any initial evaluation of the elements of its tender where the contract is to be awarded on the basis of the most advantageous tender; and
- (c) any other relevant information relating to the conduct of the auction.

Negotiations

1. A Party may provide for its procuring entities to conduct negotiations in the context of covered procurement:

- (a) where the entity has indicated such intent in the notice of intended procurement pursuant to Article 80 (Notices); or
- (b) where it appears from the evaluation that no tender is obviously the most advantageous in terms of the specific evaluation criteria set out in the notice or tender documentation.

2. A procuring entity shall:

- (a) ensure that any elimination of suppliers participating in negotiations is carried out in accordance with the evaluation criteria set out in the notice or tender documentation; and

- (b) where negotiations are concluded, provide a common deadline for the remaining participating suppliers to submit any new or revised tenders.

ARTICLE 91

Treatment of tenders

1. A procuring entity shall receive, open and treat all tenders under procedures that guarantee the fairness and impartiality of the procurement process and the confidentiality of tenders.
2. A procuring entity shall not penalise any supplier whose tender is received after the time specified for receiving tenders if the delay is due solely to mishandling on the part of the procuring entity.
3. Where a procuring entity provides suppliers with an opportunity to correct unintentional errors of form between the opening of tenders and the awarding of the contract, the entity shall provide the same opportunity to all participating suppliers.

ARTICLE 92

Awarding of contracts

1. To be considered for award, a tender shall be submitted in writing and shall, at the time of opening, comply with the essential requirements set out in the notices and tender documentation and be from a supplier that satisfies the conditions for participation.
2. Unless a procuring entity determines that it is not in the public interest to award a contract, the entity shall award the contract to the supplier that it has determined to be capable of fulfilling the terms of the contract and that, based solely on the evaluation criteria specified in the notices and tender documentation, has submitted:
 - (a) the most advantageous tender; or
 - (a) where price is the sole criterion, the lowest price.
3. Where a procuring entity receives a tender with a price that is abnormally lower than the prices in other tenders submitted, it may verify with the supplier that it satisfies the conditions for participation and is capable of fulfilling the terms of the contract.
4. A procuring entity shall not use option clauses, cancel a procurement or modify awarded contracts in a manner that circumvents the obligations of this Chapter.

ARTICLE 93

Transparency of procurement information

1. A procuring entity shall promptly inform participating suppliers of its contract award decisions and, upon request of a supplier, shall do so in writing. Subject to Article 94 (Disclosure of information), a procuring entity shall, upon request, provide an unsuccessful supplier with an explanation of the reasons why it did not select its tender and the relative advantages of the successful supplier's tender.
2. Promptly and, in any event, no later than 30 days after the award of each contract, a procuring entity shall publish in a paper or electronic medium listed in Appendix 8 to Annex XIII (Government Procurement), a notice that includes at least the following information about the contract:
 - (a) a description of the goods or services procured;
 - (b) the name and address of the procuring entity;
 - (c) the name and, if applicable, the address of the successful supplier;
 - (d) the value of the successful tender or the highest and lowest offers taken into account in the award of the contract;
 - (e) the date of award; and
 - (f) the type of procurement method used, and in cases where limited tendering was used in accordance with Article 88 (Limited tendering), a description of the circumstances justifying the use of limited tendering.
3. Where the entity publishes the notice only in an electronic medium, the information shall remain readily accessible for a reasonable period of time.
4. Each procuring entity shall, for a period of at least three years from the date of the award of a contract, maintain the documentation and reports of tendering procedures and contract awards relating to covered procurement, including the reports provided for in Article 88 (Limited Tendering), and the data that ensures the appropriate traceability of the conduct of covered procurement by electronic means.

ARTICLE 94

Disclosure of information

1. Upon request of another Party, a Party shall provide promptly any information necessary to determine whether a procurement was conducted fairly, impartially and in accordance with this Chapter, including information on the characteristics and relative advantages of the successful tender.

2. In cases where the release of such information would prejudice competition in future tenders, the Party that receives the information shall not disclose it to any supplier without the explicit consent of, the Party that provided the information.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, no Party, including its procuring entities, shall provide information to a particular supplier that might prejudice fair competition between suppliers.

4. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to require a Party, including its procuring entities, authorities and review bodies, to disclose confidential information where disclosure:

- (a) would impede law enforcement;
- (b) might prejudice fair competition between suppliers;
- (c) would prejudice the legitimate commercial interests of particular persons, including the protection of intellectual property; or
- (d) would otherwise be contrary to the public interest.

ARTICLE 95

Domestic review procedures for supplier challenges

1. Each Party shall provide a timely, effective, transparent and non-discriminatory administrative or judicial review procedure, in accordance with the principle of due process, through which a supplier may challenge:

- (a) a breach of this Chapter; or
- (b) where a supplier does not have the right to challenge directly a breach of this Chapter under the Party's domestic laws and regulation a failure to comply with a Party's measures implementing this Chapter, arising in the context of a covered procurement, in which the supplier has, or has had, an interest.

2. The procedural rules for all challenges shall be in writing and made generally available.

3. In the event of a complaint by a supplier, arising in the context of covered procurement in which the supplier has, or has had, an interest, that there has been a breach or a failure as referred to in paragraph 1, the Party of the procuring entity shall encourage, if appropriate, the entity and the supplier to seek resolution of the complaint through consultations.

4. Each supplier shall be allowed a sufficient period of time to prepare and submit a challenge, which in no case shall be less than ten days from the time when the basis of the challenge became known or reasonably should have become known to the supplier.

5. Each Party shall establish or designate at least one impartial administrative or judicial authority that is independent of its procuring entities to receive and review a challenge by a supplier arising in the context of a covered procurement.

6. Where a body other than an authority referred to in paragraph 5 initially reviews a challenge, each Party shall ensure that the supplier may appeal the initial decision to an impartial administrative or judicial authority that is independent of the procuring entity whose procurement is the subject of the challenge.

7. Each Party shall ensure that a review body that is not a court shall either have its decisions subject to judicial review or have procedures that provide that:

- (a) the procuring entity shall respond in writing to the challenge and disclose all relevant documents to the review body;
- (b) the participants to the proceedings (“participants”) shall have the right to be heard prior to a decision of the review body being made on the challenge;
- (c) the participants shall have the right to be represented and accompanied;
- (d) the participants shall have access to all proceedings;
- (e) the participants shall have the right to request that the proceedings take place in public and that witnesses may be presented; and
- (f) the review body shall make its decisions or recommendations in a timely fashion, in writing, and shall include an explanation of the basis for each decision or recommendation.

8. Each Party shall adopt or maintain procedures that provide for:

- (a) rapid interim measures to preserve the supplier’s opportunity to participate in the procurement. Such interim measures may result in the suspension of the procurement process. The procedures may provide that overriding adverse consequences for the interests concerned, including the public interest, may be taken into account when deciding whether such measures should be applied. Just cause for not acting shall be provided in writing; and
- (b) where a review body has determined that there has been a breach of this Chapter or a failure as referred to in paragraph 1, corrective action that may include compensation for the loss or damages suffered. A Party may limit compensation for the loss or damages suffered to either the costs reasonably incurred in the preparation of the tender or in bringing the complaint, or both.

Modifications and rectifications to coverage

1. A Party may make rectifications of a purely formal nature to its coverage under this Chapter or minor amendments to its Appendices to Annex XIII (Government Procurement), provided that it notifies the other Parties in writing and no Party objects in writing within 45 days from the receipt of the notification. A Party that makes such a rectification or minor amendment does not need to provide compensatory adjustments to the other Parties.
2. A Party may otherwise modify its coverage under this Chapter provided that:
 - (a) it notifies the other Parties in writing and offers at the same time acceptable compensatory adjustments to maintain a level of coverage comparable to that existing prior to the modification, except where provided for in paragraph 3; and
 - (b) no Party objects in writing within 45 days from the receipt of the notification.
3. A Party need not provide compensatory adjustments where the Parties agree that the proposed modification covers a procuring entity over which a Party has effectively eliminated its control or influence. If a Party objects to the assertion that such government control or influence has been effectively eliminated, the objecting Party may request further information or consultations with a view to clarifying the nature of any government control or influence and reaching an agreement on the procuring entity's continued coverage under this Chapter.

ARTICLE 97

Facilitation of participation by small and medium-sized enterprises

1. The Parties recognise the important contribution that small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) can make to economic growth and employment and the importance of facilitating the participation of SMEs in government procurement.
2. The Parties also recognise the importance of business alliances between suppliers of each Party, in particular between SMEs, including the joint participation in tendering procedures, provided that this is not used in a manner that is inconsistent with this Chapter.
3. The Parties may exchange information and experiences related to their measures and policies used in order to contribute, promote, encourage or facilitate SMEs participation in government procurement.
4. To facilitate participation of SMEs in covered procurement, each Party may, if appropriate:
 - (a) share information related to SMEs, including relevant electronic portals;
 - (b) endeavour to make all tender documentation available free of charge; and

- (c) undertake any other activity designed to facilitate the participation of SMEs in government procurement covered by this Chapter.

Cooperation

1. The Parties recognise the importance of cooperation with a view to achieving a better understanding of their respective government procurement systems, as well as a better access to their respective markets, in particular for small business suppliers.
2. The Parties shall endeavour to cooperate in matters such as:
 - (a) development and use of electronic communications in government procurement systems; and
 - (b) exchange of experiences and information, such as regulatory frameworks, best practice and statistics.

ARTICLE 99

Contact points on government procurement

Each Party shall designate and notify a contact point for the purposes of facilitating communication, coordination and efforts between the Parties on matters relating to the implementation of this Chapter, such as:

- (a) cooperation between the Parties in accordance with Article 98 (Cooperation);
- (b) facilitation of SME's participation in covered procurement in accordance with Article 97 (Facilitation of participation by small and medium-sized enterprises);
- (c) consideration of further negotiations in accordance with Article 100 (Further negotiations); and
- (d) identification and resolution of any matter that may arise under this Chapter.

ARTICLE 100

Further negotiations

If, following the entry into force of the Protocol Amending the Free Trade Agreement between the EFTA States and the Republic of Chile, Done at Geneva, this 24th day of June 2024, a Party offers a non-Party additional benefits with regard to its respective government procurement market access coverage agreed under this Chapter, it shall agree, upon request of another Party, to enter into negotiations with a view to extending coverage under this Chapter on a reciprocal basis.

4. Faxaflóahafnir.

⁶ According to the Utilities Directive, a public undertaking is any undertaking over which the contracting authorities may exercise directly or indirectly a dominant influence by virtue of their ownership of it, their financial participation therein, or the rules which govern it.

A dominant influence on the part of the contracting authorities shall be presumed when these authorities, directly or indirectly, in relation to an undertaking:

- (a) hold the majority of the undertaking's subscribed capital, or
- (b) control the majority of the votes attaching to shares issued by the undertaking, or
- (c) can appoint more than half of the undertaking's administrative, management or supervisory body.

⁷ As regards transport services, a network shall be considered to exist where the service is provided under operating conditions laid down by a competent authority, of an EEA member state, such as conditions on the routes to be served, the capacity to be made available or the frequency of the service.

5. Other entities operating pursuant to the Harbour Act No 61/2003.

Water supply

6. Public entities producing or distributing drinking water pursuant to Act No 32/2004 on Municipal Water Supply.

1. Procurement for the pursuit of an activity listed above when exposed to competitive forces in the market concerned are not covered by the Agreement.

2. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to procurement by procuring entities included in this Appendix:

- (a) for the purchase of water and for the supply of energy or of fuels for the production of energy;
- (b) for purposes other than the pursuit of their activities as listed in this Appendix or for the pursuit of such activities in a non-EEA country; and
- (c) for purposes of re-sale or hire to non- parties, provided that the procuring entity enjoy no special or exclusive right to sell or hire the subject of such contracts and other entities are free to sell or hire it under the same conditions as the procuring entity.

3. The supply of drinking water or electricity to networks which provide a service to the public by a procuring entity other than a contracting authority shall not be considered as a relevant activity within the meaning of sub-paragraphs (a) or (b) of lit. A to this Appendix where:

- (a) the production of drinking water or electricity by the entity concerned takes place because its consumption is necessary for carrying out an activity other than that referred to in sub-paragraphs (a) to (d) of lit. A to this Appendix; and
- (b) supply to the public network depends only on the entity's own consumption and has not exceeded 30 % of the entity's total production of drinking water or energy, having regard to the average for the preceding three years, including the current year.

4. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to procurement:

- (a) by a procuring entity to an affiliated undertaking⁸; or
- (b) by a joint venture, formed exclusively by a number of procuring entities for the purpose of carrying out activities within the meaning of paragraphs (a) to (d) of lit. A to this Appendix, to an undertaking which is affiliated with one of these procuring entities.

provided that at least 80 % of the average turnover of the affiliated undertaking with respect to services or supplies for the preceding three years derives respectively from the provision of such services or supplies to undertakings with which it is affiliated.

5. When, because of the date on which an affiliated undertaking was created or commenced activities, the turnover is not available for the preceding three years, it shall be sufficient for that undertaking to show that the turnover referred to in this paragraph is credible, in particular by means of business projections.

6. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to procurement:

- (a) by a joint venture, formed exclusively by a number of procuring entities for the purposes of carrying out activities within the meaning of paragraphs (a) to (d) of lit. A to this Appendix, to one of these procuring entities; or
- (b) by a procuring entity to such a joint venture of which it forms part, provided that the joint venture has been set up to carry out the activity concerned over a period of at least three years and the instrument setting up the joint venture stipulates that the procuring entities, which form it, will be part thereof for at least the same period.

B. Liechtenstein

List of Entities:

All procuring entities whose procurement is covered by the European Economic Area Directive (EEA) Utilities Directive 2014/25/EU of the council of 26 February 2014 on procurement entities operating in the water, energy transport and postal services sectors and repealing Directive 2004/17/EC, which are contracting authorities (e.g. those covered under Appendices 1 and 2) or public undertakings⁹ and which have as one of their activities any of those referred to below or any combination thereof:

- (b) control the majority of the votes attaching to shares issued by the undertaking, or
- (c) can appoint more than half of the undertaking's administrative, management or supervisory body.

¹⁰ As regards transport services, a network shall be considered to exist where the service is provided under operating conditions laid down by a competent authority of an EEA Member State, such as conditions on the routes to be served, the capacity to be made available or the frequency of the service.

None

1. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to procurement which the procuring entity awards for purposes other than the pursuit of their activities as described in this Appendix or for the pursuit of such activities in a non-EEA country.

2. Chapter V (Government Procurement) does not cover procurement:

- (a) by a procuring entity to an affiliated undertaking¹¹; or
- (b) by a joint venture formed exclusively by a number of procuring entities for the purpose of carrying out a relevant activity within the meaning of subparagraphs (a) to (d) of lit. B to this Appendix, to an undertaking which is affiliated with one of these procuring entities, provided that at least 80 per cent of the average turnover of the affiliated undertaking with respect to goods, services or construction services for the preceding three years derives respectively from the provision of such services or goods to undertakings with which it is affiliated.

3. When, because of the date on which an affiliated undertaking was created or commenced activities, the turnover is not available for the preceding three years, it shall be sufficient for that undertaking to show that the turnover referred to in paragraph 2 is credible, in particular by means of business projections.

4. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to procurement:

- (a) by a joint venture, formed exclusively by a number of procuring entities for the purpose of carrying out activities of subparagraphs (a) to (d) of lit. B to the Appendix, to one of these procuring entities; or
- (b) by a procuring entity to such a joint venture of which it forms part, provided that the joint venture has been set up in order to carry out the activity concerned over a period of at least three years and that the instrument setting up the joint venture stipulates that the procuring entities, which form it, will be part thereof for at least the same period.

6. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to procurement for the purchase of water, the supply of energy or of fuels for the production of energy.

¹¹ “affiliated undertaking” means any undertaking the annual accounts of which are consolidated with those of the procuring entity in accordance with the requirements of Council Directive 83/349/EEC on consolidated accounts, or in case of entities not subject to that Directive, any undertaking over which the procuring entity may exercise, directly or indirectly, a dominant influence, or which may exercise a dominant influence over the procuring entity, or which, in common with the procuring entity, is subject to the dominant influence of another undertaking by virtue of ownership, financial participation, or the rules which govern it.

7. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to procurement by procuring entities other than a public authority exercising the supply of drinking water or electricity to networks which provide a service to the public, if they produce these services by themselves and consume them for the purpose of carrying out other activities than those described under lit. B subparagraph (a) and provided that the supply to the public network depends only on the entity's own consumption and does not exceed 30 per cent of the entity's total production of drinking water, having regard to the average for the preceding three years, including the current year.

8. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to procurement for purposes of re-sale or hire to non-parties, provided that the procuring entity enjoys no special or exclusive right to sell or hire the subject of such contracts and other entities are free to sell or hire it under the same conditions as the procuring entity.

9. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to procurement by procuring entities providing a bus service if other entities are free to offer the same service either in general or in a specific geographical area and under the same conditions.

10. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to procurement by procuring entities pursuing an activity described in this Appendix when that activity is exposed to full market competition.

¹³ As regards transport services, a network shall be considered to exist where the service is provided under operating conditions laid down by a competent authority, such as conditions on the routes to be served, the capacity to be made available or the frequency of the service.

Urban transport

Public entities which have as one of their activities the operation of networks providing a service to the public in the field of transport by automated systems, urban railway, tramway, trolley bus, bus or cable according to Lov om anlegg og drift av jernbane, herunder sporvei, tunellbane og forstadsbane m.m. (LOV 1993-06-11 100), Lov om yrkestransport med motorvogn og fartøy (LOV 2002-06-21 45) or Lov om taubaner (LOV-2017-05-22-29).

Note to Appendix 3

1. Procurement for the pursuit of an activity listed above shall not be subject to Chapter V (Government Procurement) of the Agreement when the activity is directly exposed to competition on markets to which access is not restricted.

2. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to procurement by entities included in this Annex:

- (a) for the purchase of water and for the supply of energy or of fuels for the production of energy;
- (b) for purposes other than the pursuit of their activities as described in this Appendix or for the pursuit of such activities in a non-EEA country;
- (c) for purposes of re-sale or hire to non-parties provided that the procuring entity enjoys no special or exclusive right to sell or hire the subject of such contracts and that other entities are free to sell or hire it under the same conditions as the procuring entity.

2. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to procurement:

- (a) by a procuring entity from an affiliated undertaking¹⁴; or
- (b) by a joint venture formed exclusively by a number of procuring entities for the purpose of carrying out a relevant activity within the meaning of subparagraphs (a) to (d) of lit. C to this Appendix, from an undertaking which is affiliated with one of these procuring entities, provided that at least 80% of the average turnover of the affiliated undertaking with respect to goods, services or construction services for the preceding three years derives respectively from the provision of such services or goods to undertakings with which it is affiliated.

¹⁴ “affiliated undertaking” means any undertaking the annual accounts of which are consolidated with those of the procuring entity in accordance with the requirements of Council Directive 83/349/EEC on consolidated accounts, or in case of entities not subject to that Directive, any undertaking over which the procuring entity may exercise, directly or indirectly, a dominant influence, or which may exercise a dominant influence over the procuring entity, or which, in common with the procuring entity, is subject to the dominant influence of another undertaking by virtue of ownership, financial participation, or the rules which govern it.

3. When, because of the date on which an affiliated undertaking was created or commenced activities, the turnover is not available for the preceding three years, it will be sufficient for that undertaking to show that the turnover referred to in paragraph 3 is credible, in particular by means of business projections.
4. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to procurement:
 - (a) by a joint venture, formed exclusively by a number of procuring entities for the purpose of carrying out activities within the meaning of subparagraphs (a) to (d) to this Appendix, from one of these procuring entities; or
 - (b) by a procuring entity from such a joint venture of which it forms part, provided that the joint venture has been set up in order to carry out the activity concerned over a period of at least three years and that the instrument setting up the joint venture stipulates that the procuring entities, which form it, will be part thereof for at least the same period.
5. The supply of drinking water or electricity to networks which provide a service to the public by a procuring entity other than a contracting authority shall not be considered as a relevant activity within the meaning of subparagraph (a) or (b) of lit. C. where:
 - (a) the production of drinking water or electricity by the entity concerned takes place because its consumption is necessary for carrying out an activity other than that referred to in subparagraphs (a) to (d) of lit. C to this Appendix; and
 - (b) supply to the public network depends only on the entity's own consumption and has not exceeded 30% of the entity's total production of drinking water or energy, having regard to the average for the preceding three years, including the current year.

D. Switzerland

List of entities:

1. The contracting entities which are public authorities or public undertakings and which have at least one of their activities in any of those referred to below:
 - (a) the provision or operation of fixed networks intended to provide a service to the public in connection with the production, transport or distribution of drinking water or the supply of drinking water to such networks (as specified under List of Sectors 1);
 - (b) the operation of fixed networks providing a service to the public in the field of transport by tramway, trolleybus, bus or cable (as specified under List of Sectors 2);
 - (c) the exploitation of a geographical area for the purpose of the provision of airport or other terminal facilities to carriers by air (as specified under List of Sectors 3);

- (d) the exploitation of a geographical area for the purpose of the provision of inland port or other terminal facilities to carriers by inland waterway (as specified under List of Sectors 4); and
- (e) the provision of postal services (specified under List of Sectors 5).

2. For the purposes of this Appendix:

- (a) “public authorities” means the State, regional or local authorities, bodies governed by public law, or associations formed by one or more of such authorities or bodies governed by public law. A body is considered to be governed by public law where it:
 - (i) is established for the specific purpose of meeting needs in the general interest, not being of an industrial or commercial nature;
 - (ii) has legal personality; and
 - (iii) is financed for the most part by the State, or regional or local authorities, or other bodies governed by public law, or is subject to management supervision by those bodies, or has an administrative, managerial or supervisory board more than half of whose members are appointed by the State, regional or local authorities, or other bodies governed by public law.
- (b) “public undertakings” means any undertaking over which the public authorities may exercise directly or indirectly a dominant influence by virtue of their ownership of it, their financial participation therein, or the rules which govern it. A dominant influence on the part of the public authorities shall be presumed when these authorities, directly or indirectly, in relation to an undertaking:
 - (i) hold the majority of the undertaking's subscribed capital;
 - (ii) control the majority of the votes attaching to shares issued by the undertaking; or
 - (iii) can appoint more than half of the members of the undertaking's administrative, managerial or supervisory body.

APPENDIX 7 TO ANNEX VIII (GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT)

PUBLIC WORK CONCESSIONS

Article Definitions

Chile

For the purposes of this agreement, “public works concession contract” means the contractual agreement by which a private Party assumes the execution, repair or maintenance of a public work in exchange for its temporary exploitation, consisting of the right to control and operate the work and receive income from it and/or a payment from the State.

EFTA States

For the purposes of this agreement, “public works concessions” means a contract of the same type as the public works procurement contracts, except for the fact that the remuneration for the works to be carried out consists either solely in the right to exploit the construction or in this right together with a payment.

Article Rules applicable to public works concessions

1. The provisions on national treatment and non-discrimination apply to the entities covered by Chapter V (Government Procurement), when awarding contracts on public works concessions, as defined in Article 71 (Definitions) of the Agreement. In that case, entities shall publish a notice according to Article 80 (Notices) of the Agreement.
2. Advertising shall not, however, be required when a contract on public works concession satisfies the conditions listed in Article 88 (Limited tendering) of the Agreement.
3. Beyond the provisions mentioned in paragraph 1, the Parties’ domestic legislation on concessions shall apply.
4. Public works concessions are covered by the entities of Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway of Appendices 1.B, 2.B and 3.B of Annex XIII (Government Procurement) and by the entities of Chile of Appendices 1.A, 2.A and 3.A of Annex XIII (Government Procurement).

Declaration by Switzerland

For public works concessions, Switzerland shall grant Chile a treatment no less favourable than that accorded to any third party following new obligations taken by Switzerland at the international level in the area of government procurement.

Note by Chile

For construction services, the technical specification definition set out in Article 71 (Definitions), includes the constructive methods and constructive design.

APPENDIX 9 TO ANNEX VIII (GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT)

TIME PERIODS

General Minimum Time Limit

1. A procuring entity that uses selective tendering shall establish that the final date for the submission of requests for participation shall not, in principle, be less than 25 days from the date of publication of the notice of intended procurement. Where a state of urgency duly substantiated by the procuring entity renders this time-period impractical, the time-period may be reduced to not less than ten days.

2. Except as provided for in paragraphs 3 and 4, a procuring entity shall establish that the final date for submission of tenders shall not be less than 40 days from the date on which

- (a) in case of open tendering, the notice of intended procurement is published;
or
- (b) in the case of selective tendering, the procuring entity notifies suppliers that they will be invited to submit tenders whether or not it uses a multi-use list.

Possibilities for Reducing the General Time Limits

3. A procuring entity may reduce the time-period for tendering established in accordance with paragraph 2 by five days for each one of the following circumstances:

- (a) the notice of intended procurement is published by electronic means;
- (b) all the tender documentation is made available by electronic means from the date of the publication of the notice of intended procurement; and
- (c) the procuring entity accepts tenders by electronic means.

4. Under the following circumstances, procuring entities may establish a time period for tendering that is shorter than the periods referred to in paragraph 2, provided that such time period is sufficiently long to enable suppliers to prepare and submit responsive tenders and is in no case less than ten days prior to the final date for the submission of tenders:

- (a) where a notice of planned procurement has been published at least 40 days and not more than 12 months in advance of the publication of the notice of intended procurement, and the notice of planned procurement contains:
 - (i) a description of the procurement;
 - (ii) the approximate final dates for the submission of tenders or requests for participation;
 - (iii) if applicable, a statement that interested suppliers should express their interest in the procurement to the procuring entity;

- (iv) the address from which documents relating to the procurement may be obtained; and
 - (v) as much of the information that is required for the notice of intended procurement under Article 80 (Notices), paragraph 3, as is available;
- (b) where the procuring entity, for recurring contracts, indicates in an initial notice of intended procurement that subsequent notices will provide time limits for tendering based on this paragraph;
- (c) where a procuring entity purchases commercial goods or services, or any combination thereof, it may reduce the time-period for tendering established in accordance with paragraph 2 to not less than 13 days, provided that it publishes by electronic means, at the same time, both the notice of intended procurement and the tender documentation. In addition, where the entity accepts tenders for commercial goods or services by electronic means, it may reduce the time-period established in accordance with paragraph 2 to not less than ten days; and
- (d) where a state of urgency duly substantiated by the procuring entity renders the periods specified in paragraph 2 impracticable.

5. Where a procuring entity covered under Appendices 2 or 3 to this Annex has selected all or a limited number of qualified suppliers, the time period for tendering may be fixed by mutual agreement between the procuring entity and the selected suppliers. In the absence of an agreement, the time period shall not be less than ten days.

5. The use of paragraph 3, in conjunction with paragraph 4, shall in no case result in the reduction of the time periods for tendering set out in paragraph 3 to less than 10 days from the date of which the notice of intended procurement is published.

APPENDIX 10 TO ANNEX VIII (GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT)

VALUE OF THRESHOLDS AND VALUATION

Thresholds

SECTION I: Chile

1. Chile shall calculate and convert the value of the thresholds to its national currency using the conversion rates of the daily values of the national currency in terms of SDR, published monthly by the IMF in "International Financial Statistics", over a period of two years prior to 1 October of the year prior to the thresholds taking effect, which will be from 1 January of the following year.
2. Chile shall make available the newly calculated thresholds in its national currency before the respective thresholds take effect, in accordance with Appendix 8. Thresholds expressed in the respective national currency shall be fixed for a period of two years, i.e. calendar years.

SECTION II: EFTA States

1. The EFTA States shall calculate and convert the value of the thresholds into its own national currency using the conversion rates of its respective national banks. The conversion rates shall be the average of the values of the respective national currency in terms of the SDR over the two-year period preceding 1 October or 1 November of the year prior to the thresholds becoming effective. The conversion rate shall apply from 1 January of the following year.

2. The value of the newly calculated thresholds shall be fixed for a period of two years i.e. calendar years, and shall be made available, in its respective currency, by each EFTA State, before the respective thresholds take effect, in accordance with Appendix 8.

Valuation

3. In estimating the value of procurement for the purpose of ascertaining whether it is a covered procurement, a procuring entity shall:

- (a) neither divide a procurement into separate procurements nor use a particular method for estimating the value of a procurement with the intention of totally or partially excluding it from the application of Chapter V (Government Procurement);
- (b) include the estimated maximum total value of the procurement over its entire duration, taking into account all forms of remuneration, including any premiums, fees, commissions, interest and, where the procurement provides for the possibility of option clauses, the total value of such options;
- (c) where the procurement is to be conducted in multiple parts (“recurring contracts”), with contracts to be awarded at the same time or over a given period to one or more suppliers, base its calculation of the total maximum value of the procurement over its entire duration²⁶; and
- (d) where the domestic laws and regulations allow for contracts to be concluded for an indefinite period and a total price is not specified, the basis for valuation of such contracts shall be based on the estimated monthly instalment multiplied by 48.

²⁶ For the EFTA States it is understood that this covers a period over 12 months.

NOTICES, TENDER DOCUMENTATION AND MULTI-USE LISTS

Notices

1. Except as otherwise provided in Chapter V (Government Procurement) and this Annex, each notice of intended procurement as provided for in Article 80 (Notices) of Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall include:

- (a) the name and address of the procuring entity and other information necessary to contact the procuring entity and obtain all relevant documents relating to the procurement, and their cost and terms of payment, if any;
- (b) a description of the procurement, including the nature and quantity of the goods or services to be procured or, where the quantity is not known, the estimated quantity;
- (c) for recurring contracts, an estimate, if possible, of the timing of subsequent notices of intended procurement;
- (d) a description of any options;
- (e) the time-frame for delivery of goods or services or the duration of the contract;
- (f) the procurement method that will be used and whether it will involve negotiation or electronic auction;
- (g) if applicable, the address and any final date for the submission of requests for participation in the procurement;
- (h) the address and the final date for the submission of tenders;
- (i) the language or languages in which tenders or requests for participation may be submitted, if they may be submitted in a language other than an official language of the Party of the procuring entity;
- (j) a list and brief description of any conditions for participation of suppliers, including any requirements for specific documents or certifications to be provided by suppliers in connection therewith, unless such requirements are included in tender documentation that is made available to all interested suppliers at the same time as the notice of intended procurement; and
- (k) where, pursuant to Article 82 (Registration systems and qualification procedures) of Chapter V (Government Procurement), a procuring entity intends to select a limited number of qualified suppliers to be invited to tender, the criteria that will be used to select them and, if applicable, any limitation on the number of suppliers that will be permitted to tender.

2. Where a procuring entity intends to use selective tendering, the entity shall:
 - (a) include in the notice of intended procurement at least the information specified in subparagraphs 1 (a), (b), (f), (g), (j), and (k) to this Appendix and invite suppliers to submit a request for participation; and
 - (b) provide, by the commencement of the time-period for tendering, at least the information in subparagraphs 1 (c), (d), (e), (h) and (i) to the qualified suppliers that it notifies as specified in Appendix 9 to this Annex.

Multi-use lists

3. The notice provided for in Article 83 (Multi-use list) of Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall include:

- (a) a description of the goods or services, or categories thereof, for which the list may be used;
- (b) the conditions for participation to be satisfied by suppliers for inclusion on the list and the methods that the procuring entity will use to verify that a supplier satisfies the conditions;
- (c) the name and address of the procuring entity and other information necessary to contact the entity and obtain all relevant documents relating to the list; and
- (d) the period of validity of the list and the means for its renewal or termination, or where the period of validity is not provided, an indication of the method by which notice will be given of the termination of use of the list.

Tender documentation

4. The tender documentation referred to in paragraph 1 of Article 84 (Tender documentation) of Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall include a complete description of:

- (a) the procurement, including the nature and the quantity of the goods or services to be procured or, where the quantity is not known, the estimated quantity and any requirements to be fulfilled, including any technical specifications, conformity assessment certification, plans, drawings or instructional materials;
- (b) any conditions for participation of suppliers, including a list of information and documents that suppliers are required to submit in connection with the conditions for participation;

- (c) all evaluation criteria the entity applies in the awarding of the contract, and, except where price is the sole criterion, the relative importance of such criteria;
- (d) where the procuring entity conducts the procurement by electronic means, any authentication and encryption requirements or other requirements related to the submission of information by electronic means;
- (e) where the procuring entity holds an electronic auction, the rules, including identification of the elements of the tender related to the evaluation criteria, on which the auction will be conducted;
- (f) in case of a public opening of tenders, the date, time and place for the opening and, where appropriate, the persons authorized to be present;
- (g) any other terms or conditions, including terms of payment and any limitation on the means by which tenders may be submitted, such as whether on paper or by electronic means; and
- (h) any dates for the delivery of goods or supply of services.

5. Where the tender documentation is not made publicly available from the date of publication of the notice referred to in paragraph 1 of Article 80 (Notices) of Chapter V (Government Procurement), a procuring entity shall ensure that those documents are made available at the same time to all the qualified suppliers selected in accordance with paragraph 4 of Article 82 (Registration systems and qualification procedures) of Chapter V (Government Procurement).

6. In establishing any date for the delivery of goods or the supply of services, a procuring entity shall take into account such factors as the complexity of the procurement.

APPENDIX 12 TO ANNEX VIII (GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT)

ADDITIONAL NOTES

SECTION I: CHILE

Chapter V (Government Procurement) does not apply to procurement of a good or service outside the territory of procuring Chilean entity, for consumption outside the territory of that Party.

SECTION II: EFTA STATES

A. Iceland

1. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to:
 - (a) contracts for the acquisition, development, production or co-production of programme material by broadcasters and contracts for broadcasting time; and
 - (b) contracts awarded to an entity which is itself a contracting authority within the meaning of the Public Procurement Act: “Lög um opinber innkaup” (84/2007) on the basis of an exclusive right which it enjoys pursuant to a published law, regulation or administrative provision.
 - (c) procurement of agricultural products made in furtherance of agricultural support programmes and human feeding programmes.
 - (d) procurement by procuring entities covered under Appendices 1 and 2 in connection with activities in the fields of drinking water, energy, transport, telecommunications and the postal sector, unless covered under Appendix 3.

B. Liechtenstein

1. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to:
 - (a) procurement of agricultural products made in furtherance of agricultural support programmes and human feeding programmes;
 - (b) the acquisition, development, production or co-production of programme material by broadcasters and contracts for broadcasting time;
 - (c) procurement by procuring entities covered under Appendices 1 and 2 in connection with activities in the fields of drinking water, energy, and transport sector, unless covered under Appendix 3; and
 - (d) to fund placements of insured persons conducted by public entities or undertakings such as public insurance and pensions funds.
2. The provision of services, including construction services, in the context of procurement procedures according to Chapter V (Government Procurement) of the Agreement is subject to the conditions and qualifications for market access and national treatment as will be required by the Principality of Liechtenstein in conformity with its commitments under the GATS.

C. Norway

1. Chapter V (Government Procurement) shall not apply to:
 - (a) procurement for the acquisition, development, production or co-production of programme material by broadcasters and contracts for broadcasting time;

1. The Parties, recognise that small and medium-sized enterprises, including micro-sized enterprises (SMEs), are a fundamental part of economic development, employment creation and innovation.
2. The Parties recognise that non-tariff barriers represent a competitiveness challenge for SMEs. They also recognize that, in addition to the provisions of this Chapter, there are other provisions in the Agreement that may be particularly beneficial to SMEs.
3. The Parties seek to promote dialogue and information sharing in order to enhance the ability of SMEs to take advantage of the opportunities arising from this Agreement.

ARTICLE 102

Information exchange and transparency

1. Each Party shall establish or maintain publicly and freely accessible websites containing information regarding this Agreement, including:
 - (a) the text of this Agreement, including all annexes, tariff schedules and product-specific rules of origin;
 - (b) a summary of this Agreement; and
 - (c) information for SMEs, containing:
 - (i) a description of the provisions of this Agreement that the Party considers to be relevant to SMEs; and
 - (ii) any additional information that the Party considers useful for SMEs interested in benefiting from the opportunities granted by this Agreement.
2. Each Party shall include, on the websites referred to in paragraph 1, links to:
 - (a) the equivalent websites of the other Parties; and
 - (b) websites of its government agencies and other appropriate entities that provide information that the Party considers useful to any SME interested in trading, investing or doing business in the territory of the Parties.

3. The information described in subparagraph 2(b) shall at least include:

- (a) a description of:
 - (i) trade procedures informing interested parties of the practical steps for the import, export and transit of goods;
 - (ii) regulations and procedures on intellectual property rights, including geographical indications;
 - (iii) rules on government procurement;
 - (iv) company registration procedures; and
 - (v) employment regulations, including, where applicable, collective bargaining agreements and their registration procedures.
- (b) technical regulations, standards, and measures related to importation and exportation;
- (c) sanitary and phytosanitary measures relating to importation and exportation; and
- (d) a database containing government procurement notices.

4. Each Party shall endeavour, as far as practicable in English, to include one or several links in the websites provided for in paragraph 1 to databases that are electronically searchable and that include the following information with respect to access to its market:

- (a) rates of customs duties and quotas, including most-favoured nation (MFN), rates concerning non-MFN countries and preferential rates;
- (b) excise duties;
- (c) value added taxes and/or sales taxes; and
- (d) customs or other fees, including other product specific fees.

5. Each Party shall ensure that the information and links referred to in paragraphs 1 to 4 that it maintains on its websites are up-to-date and accurate.

6. Each Party shall make the information referred to in paragraphs 1 to 3 available in English.

Activities and cooperation

1. The Parties recognise the importance of cooperating to achieve progress in reducing barriers to SMEs' access to their respective markets.
2. Cooperation between the Parties shall take the form of exchange of information and dialogue on issues of mutual interest and be channelled through SME contact points.
3. To this end, each Party shall, upon entry into force of this Agreement, promptly designate a SME contact point and notify the other Parties of the contact details as well as, thereafter, of any changes to its SME contact point.
4. Taking into account their SMEs' specific needs in the implementation of this Agreement, SME contact points shall seek to:
 - (a) exchange SME-related information, including any matter brought to their attention by SMEs in their trade and investment activities with another Party such as non-tariff measures adversely affecting trade outcomes for SMEs;
 - (b) exchange policy experiences for SMEs, including in the development of digital windows that facilitate the efforts of SMEs to establish operations in another Party, as well as in other assistance programs and tools;
 - (c) ensure that the information referred to in Article 102 (Information exchange and transparency) is up-to-date and relevant for SMEs, and recommend any additional information that the Parties may publish; and
 - (d) consider any other matters of interest to SMEs.
5. Each Party may raise any matter arising in the activities of the SME contact points with the Joint Committee.
6. The SME contact points may cooperate with experts, external organisations and SME stakeholders, as appropriate, in carrying out their activities.

ARTICLE 104

Non-application of dispute settlement

No Party may have recourse to Chapter X (Dispute Settlement) for any matter arising under this Chapter.

INCORPORATION OF CHAPTER Vter

DIGITAL TRADE

CHAPTER Vter

DIGITAL TRADE

ARTICLE 105

Definitions

1. For the purposes of this Chapter, the definitions set out in Chapters II (Trade in Goods) and III (Trade in Services and Establishment) apply.
2. For the purposes of this Chapter:
 - (a) “electronic signature” means data in electronic form that are attached to other electronic data used for authentication of the signatory;
 - (b) “electronic transmissions” means transmissions of electronic data through the Internet;
 - (c) “electronic trust service” means an electronic service consisting of:
 - (i) the creation, verification and validation of electronic signatures, electronic seals, electronic time stamps, electronic registered delivery services and certificates related to those services;
 - (ii) the creation, verification and validation of certificates for website authentication; or
 - (iii) the preservation of electronic signatures, electronic seals or certificates related to those services;
 - (d) “end-user” means a user not providing public communications networks or publicly available electronic communications services;
 - (e) “personal data” means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person;
 - (f) “processing” of personal data means any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction;
 - (g) “trade administration documents” means documents, forms or other information, including in electronic formats, as required by a Party’s domestic legislation on commercial trade transactions;

- (h) “unsolicited commercial electronic messages” means electronic messages for commercial purposes without the consent of the recipient or against the explicit rejection of the recipient; and
- (i) “computing facilities” means computer servers and storage devices for processing or storing information for commercial use.

Scope

1. This Chapter applies to measures of the Parties affecting trade enabled by electronic means.
2. In the event of any inconsistency between this Chapter and Section II (Financial Services) of Chapter III (Trade in Services and Establishment) the latter shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.
3. This Chapter shall not apply to audio-visual services.

ARTICLE 107

General principles

The Parties recognise:

- (a) the economic growth and opportunities that electronic commerce in goods and services provides, in particular for businesses and consumers as well as the potential for enhancing international trade;
- (b) the importance of avoiding barriers to the use and development of electronic commerce in goods and services; and
- (c) the need to create an environment of trust and confidence in as well as security for electronic commerce, in particular:
 - (i) protection of privacy of natural persons in relation to the processing of personal data;
 - (ii) protection of confidentiality of individual records and accounts, and commercial secrets;
 - (iii) measures to prevent and fight deceptive and fraudulent practices or to deal with the effects of a default on contracts; and
 - (iv) measures against unsolicited commercial electronic messages.

ARTICLE 108

Right to regulate

The Parties reaffirm the right to regulate in the area of electronic commerce in conformity with this Chapter to achieve legitimate policy objectives.

ARTICLE 109

Customs duties

1. No Party shall impose customs duties on electronic transmissions.
2. For greater certainty, paragraph 1 shall not preclude a Party from imposing internal taxes, fees, or other charges on electronic transmissions, provided that they are imposed in a manner consistent with this Agreement.

ARTICLE 110

Electronic authentication, trust services and contracts by electronic means

1. No Party shall deny the legal effect and admissibility as evidence in legal proceedings of an electronic document, electronic signature, electronic seal, electronic time stamp or of data sent and received using an electronic registered delivery service, solely on the ground that it is in electronic form.
2. No Party shall adopt or maintain measures that would:
 - (a) prohibit parties to an electronic transaction from mutually determining the appropriate electronic authentication methods for their transaction; or
 - (b) prevent parties to an electronic transaction from being able to prove to judicial or administrative authorities that the use of electronic authentication or an electronic trust service in that transaction complies with the applicable legal requirements.
3. Notwithstanding paragraph 2, each Party may require that for a particular category of transactions, the method of electronic authentication or trust service is either certified by an authority accredited in accordance with its domestic laws and regulations or that the method meets certain performance standards which shall be objective, transparent and non-discriminatory and shall only relate to the specific characteristics of the category of transactions concerned.
4. Except to the extent provided under a Party's domestic laws and regulations in relation to certain types of contracts, a Party shall not deny that contracts may be concluded by electronic means.

5. Each Party shall ensure that its domestic laws and regulations do not deprive electronic contracts of legal effect and validity solely on the ground that contracts have been made by electronic means.

ARTICLE 111

Paperless trade administration

1. Each Party shall make all trade administration documents publicly available in electronic form.

2. Each Party shall accept electronic versions of trade administration documents as legal equivalents of paper documents except if:

- (a) there is a domestic or international legal requirement to the contrary; or
- (b) doing so would reduce the effectiveness of the trade administration process.

ARTICLE 112

Open internet access

Subject to applicable domestic laws and regulations, each Party shall adopt or maintain appropriate measures to ensure that end-users in its territory are able to:

- (a) access, distribute and use services and applications of their choice available through the Internet, subject to reasonable and non-discriminatory network management;
- (b) connect devices of their choice to the Internet, provided that such devices comply with the requirements in the territory where they are used and do not harm the network; and
- (c) have access to information on the network management practices of their Internet access service supplier.

ARTICLE 113

Online consumer trust

1. Each Party shall adopt or maintain measures to ensure the effective protection of consumers engaging in electronic commerce transactions, including but not limited to measures that:

- (a) proscribe fraudulent and deceptive commercial practices;

- (b) require suppliers of goods and services to act in good faith and abide by fair commercial practices, including through the prohibition of charging consumers for unsolicited goods and services;
 - (c) require suppliers of goods and services to provide consumers with clear and thorough information regarding their identity and contact details¹, as well as information regarding the goods and services, the transaction and the applicable consumer rights; and
 - (d) grant consumers access to redress to claim their rights, including a right to remedies in cases where goods or services are paid and not delivered or provided as agreed.
2. The Parties recognise the importance of entrusting their consumer protection agencies or other relevant bodies with adequate enforcement powers and the importance of cooperation between their agencies in the enforcement of their respective laws and regulations related to consumer protection and online consumer trust.
3. The Parties recognise the importance of promoting effective policy frameworks relating to consumer product safety.

ARTICLE 114

Unsolicited commercial electronic messages

1. In order to protect users effectively against unsolicited commercial electronic messages, each Party shall adopt or maintain measures that:
- (a) require suppliers of commercial electronic messages to facilitate the ability of recipients to stop the sending of such messages; and
 - (b) require the consent, as specified according to the domestic laws and regulations of each Party, of recipients to receive commercial electronic messages.
2. Each Party shall provide access to recourse against suppliers of unsolicited commercial electronic messages who do not comply with its measures referred to in paragraph 1.

¹ In the case of intermediary service suppliers, this also includes the identity and contact details of the actual supplier of the goods and services.

ARTICLE 115

Cross-border data flows and localisation of computing facilities

1. The Parties commit to ensuring cross-border data flows to facilitate digital trade. To that end, cross-border data flows shall not be restricted between the Parties by:²

- (a) requiring the use of computing facilities or network elements in the Party's territory for processing, including by imposing the use of computing facilities or network elements that are certified or approved in the territory of the Party;
- (b) requiring the localisation of data in the Party's territory for storage or processing;
- (c) prohibiting storage or processing in the territory of another Party; or
- (d) making the cross-border transfer of data contingent upon use of computing facilities or network elements in the Party's territory or upon localisation requirements in the Party's territory.

2. Nothing in this Article shall prevent a Party from adopting or maintaining measures inconsistent with paragraph 1 to achieve a legitimate public policy objective³, provided that the measure:

- (a) is not applied in a manner which would constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination between countries where like conditions prevail, or a disguised restriction on trade; and
- (b) does not impose restrictions on transfers of information that are greater than necessary to achieve the objective.⁴

ARTICLE 116

Electronic payments and invoicing

1. The Parties recognise the pivotal role of electronic payments in enabling electronic commerce and the rapid growth of electronic payments. The Parties agree to support the development of efficient, safe and secure cross-border electronic payments by fostering the adoption and use of internationally accepted standards, promoting

² With respect to financial services, this provision applies as long as the financial supervisory authorities have access to the necessary data for fulfilling their supervisory tasks.

³ For the purposes of this Article, "legitimate public policy objective" shall be interpreted in an objective manner and shall enable the pursuit of objectives such as the protection of public security, public morals, human, animal or plant life or health, the maintenance of public order or other similar objectives of public interest, taking into account the evolving nature of digital technologies.

interoperability and the interlinking of payment infrastructures, and encouraging useful innovation and competition in the payments ecosystem.

2. The Parties recognise the importance of e-invoicing which increases the efficiency, accuracy and reliability of commercial transactions and agree to promote the adoption of interoperable systems for e-invoicing.

3. The Parties shall support and facilitate the adoption of e-invoicing by undertakings. To this end, the Parties shall endeavour to:

- (a) promote the existence of underlying infrastructure to support e-invoicing; and
- (b) generate awareness of and build capacity for e-invoicing.

ARTICLE 117

Protection of personal data and privacy

1. The Parties recognise that the protection of personal data and privacy is a fundamental right and that high standards in this regard contribute to the development of digital trade and trust therein.

2. Each Party shall adopt or maintain measures it deems appropriate to ensure a high level of protection of personal data and privacy, including through the adoption and application of rules for the cross-border transfer of personal data. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect the protection of personal data and privacy afforded by the Parties' respective measures.

3. The Parties shall inform each other about any measures referred to in paragraph 2.

ARTICLE 118

Transfer of or access to source code

1. No Party shall require the transfer of, or access to, the source code of software or parts thereof owned by a natural or juridical person of another Party as a condition for the import, distribution, sale or use of such software or products containing such software in its territory.

2. This Article shall not apply to:

- (a) requirements by a court or administrative tribunal;
- (b) intellectual property rights and their protection and enforcement;
- (c) competition law and its enforcement;

- (d) the right of a Party to take measures in accordance with Chapter V (Government Procurement);
- (e) requirements by competent authorities to verify the conformity of goods and services with legal requirements; or
- (f) voluntary transfer or granting of access to source code on a commercial basis by a natural or juridical person of a Party.

ARTICLE 119

Cooperation on electronic commerce

1. The Parties may engage in a dialogue on regulatory issues of mutual interest raised in relation to electronic commerce, which could, inter alia, address the following issues:

- (a) the treatment of unsolicited commercial electronic messages;
- (b) interoperability of infrastructures, such as secure electronic authentication and payments;
- (c) the use of electronic commerce by micro, small and medium sized enterprises;
- (d) digital inclusion, including participation of women, rural populations, low socio-economic groups and Indigenous Peoples;
- (e) consumer protection; and
- (f) other issues relevant for the development of electronic commerce.

2. Such a dialogue may include exchange of information on the Parties' respective domestic laws and regulations on these issues, as well as on the implementation of such domestic laws and regulations.

ARTICLE 120

General exceptions

For the purposes of this Chapter, Article XX of the GATT 1994 and Article XIV of the GATS apply and are hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

ARTICLE 121

Security exceptions

For the purposes of this Chapter, Article XXI of the GATT 1994 and Article XIVbis of the GATS apply and are hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement, mutatis mutandis.

ARTICLE 122

Review

The Parties shall review the implementation of this Chapter and assess its functioning in the Joint Committee, particularly in light of relevant changes affecting digital trade that might arise from new business models or technologies.

ANNEX 24

INCORPORATION OF CHAPTER V^{quater}

TRADE AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

CHAPTER V*quater*

SECTION I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 123

Context and objectives

1. The Parties recall the Stockholm Declaration on the Human Environment of 1972, the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development of 1992, Agenda 21 on Environment and Development of 1992, the Johannesburg Plan of Implementation on Sustainable Development of 2002, the ILO Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work of 1998, as amended in 2022, the Ministerial Declaration of the UN Economic and Social Council on Full Employment and Decent Work of 2006, the ILO Declaration on Social Justice for a Fair Globalization of 2008, as amended in 2022, the Rio+20 Outcome Document “The Future We Want” of 2012 and the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development of 2015, the WTO Joint Declaration on Trade and Women’s Economic Empowerment of 2017, the Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women of 1979 and the commitments under the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action of 1995, noting in particular those articles and strategic objectives related to women’s equal access to markets, trade, resources, information and training opportunities.

2. The Parties shall promote sustainable development which encompasses economic development, social development and environmental protection, all three being interdependent and mutually reinforcing. They underline the benefit of cooperation on trade and investment related aspects of labour, environmental and gender issues as part of a global approach to trade and sustainable development.

3. The Parties commit to promote the development of international trade and investment as well as their preferential economic relationship in a manner that contributes to inclusive economic and sustainable development.

ARTICLE 124

Right to regulate and levels of protection

1. Recognising the right of each Party to establish its own levels of environmental and labour protection, and to adopt or modify accordingly its domestic laws, regulations and policies, each Party shall seek to ensure that its domestic laws, regulations and policies provide for and encourage high levels of environmental and labour protection. Such levels of protection shall be consistent with international labour standards and the commitments of each Party under multilateral environmental agreements, as referred to in this Chapter. Each Party shall strive to further improve the levels of protection provided for in those laws, regulations and policies.

2. When preparing and implementing measures related to the environment or labour conditions that affect trade or investment between them, the Parties shall take account of available scientific and technical information, in first instance from recognised technical and scientific bodies, as well as relevant and available international standards, guidelines and recommendations.

ARTICLE 125

Upholding levels of protection

1. No Party shall fail to effectively enforce, through a sustained or recurring course of action or inaction, its domestic environmental and labour laws or regulations in a manner affecting trade or investment between the Parties.

2. No Party shall weaken or reduce the level of environmental or labour protection provided by its domestic laws and regulations in order to encourage trade or investment.

3. No Party shall waive or otherwise derogate from, or offer to waive or otherwise derogate from, such laws or regulations in order to encourage trade or investment.

4. No Party shall apply its domestic environmental and labour laws and regulations in a manner which would constitute a disguised restriction on trade or investment.

ARTICLE 126

Responsible business conduct

1. The Parties recognise the importance to promote responsible business conduct, including responsible management of supply chains by businesses. In this regard, the Parties acknowledge the importance of internationally recognised principles and guidelines, such as the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises, the ILO Tripartite Declaration of Principles concerning Multinational Enterprises and Social Policy, the UN Global Compact and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights.

2. Each Party shall:

- (a) encourage enterprises operating in its territory or jurisdiction to adopt voluntarily policies and practices of responsible business conduct that contribute to the achievement of sustainable development and are consistent with internationally recognised principles, standards and guidelines that have been endorsed or are supported by that Party; and
- (b) support the dissemination and use of relevant international instruments that have been endorsed or are supported by that Party, as referred to in paragraph 1.

ARTICLE 127

Procedural guarantees

Each Party shall ensure that administrative and judicial proceedings comply with due process of law and are accessible and available in order to allow for timely actions against violations of its domestic environmental or labour laws or regulations and to provide for effective remedies.

ARTICLE 128

Public participation, awareness and submissions

1. Each Party shall encourage public dialogue with and among non-state actors as regards the development of laws, regulations and policies covered by this Chapter.
2. Each Party shall promote public awareness of its domestic laws, regulations and policies covered by this Chapter, as well as its enforcement and compliance procedures, by ensuring that information is available to stakeholders and by taking steps to improve the knowledge and understanding of workers, employers and their representatives.
3. The Parties shall provide their stakeholders with the opportunity to share comments and make recommendations regarding the implementation of this Chapter, in accordance with domestic procedures.
4. Each Party shall provide for the receipt of and give due consideration to submissions from the public on matters related to this Chapter, including information regarding the Party's implementation of this Chapter. Each Party shall, in accordance with its domestic procedures, respond in writing to such submissions in a timely manner.

Cooperation

1. The Parties recognise the importance of cooperation on trade-related and investment related aspects of labour, environmental and gender issues in order to achieve the objectives of this Chapter, to enhance the benefits thereof and to strengthen the Parties' joint and individual capacities to promote sustainable development. Each Party may, as appropriate, invite its social partners or other relevant stakeholders to participate in relevant cooperation projects and to identify potential areas of cooperation.

2. Pursuant to paragraph 1, the Parties may cooperate in areas of mutual interest such as:

- (a) trade and investment related aspects of environmental sustainability, including efforts to promote conservation, sustainable use and restoration of biological diversity including matters related to natural resources; combat climate change; prevent land degradation including deforestation and desertification; promote trade in environmental goods and services; and ensure access to information, participation and justice in environmental matters;
- (b) promoting decent work and the fundamental principles and rights at work; best practice for labour relations, for example improved labour relations, including promotion of best practice in alternative dispute resolution; and social dialogue, including tripartite consultation and partnership; elimination of all forms of forced or compulsory labour, including forced or compulsory child labour and trafficking in persons;
- (c) gender equality and non-discrimination, including efforts to promote equal remuneration for work of equal value and equitable gender representation at senior levels in the public and private sector; to further increased economic and labour participation of women, including in entrepreneurship and innovation; to conduct gender-based analysis, the collection of gender-disaggregated data and the analysis of gender-focused statistics related to trade; experiences and best practice relating to policies and programmes to encourage women's increased participation in international trade; advancing care policies and programmes as well as work-life balance measures; and
- (d) responsible business conduct.

3. The Parties shall strive to strengthen their cooperation on trade and investment related labour, environmental and gender issues of mutual interest in relevant bilateral, regional and multilateral fora in which they participate such as the ILO, WTO, OECD, the United Nations Environment Programme and multilateral environmental agreements.

ARTICLE 130

Cooperation framework

1. Taking into account their national priorities and circumstances, as well as available resources, the Parties may cooperate on issues of mutual interest through activities such as:

- (a) dialogues, workshops, seminars, conferences, collaborative programmes and projects;
- (b) the exchange of information on best practice;
- (c) technical assistance to promote and facilitate cooperation and training; and
- (d) any other form of cooperation deemed appropriate.

2. The Parties shall, where appropriate and possible, seek to complement and use their existing cooperation mechanisms and take into account the relevant work of regional and international organisations.

SECTION II

ENVIRONMENT AND TRADE

ARTICLE 131

Multilateral environmental agreements and governance

1. The Parties recognise the importance of multilateral environmental agreements, and of the UN Environment Assembly and UN Environment Programme as a response of the international community to global, regional and domestic environmental challenges and stress the need to enhance the mutual supportiveness between trade and environment policies.
2. The Parties reaffirm their commitment to the effective implementation in their domestic laws, regulations and policies of the multilateral environmental agreements to which they are a party, as well as their adherence to environmental principles reflected in the international instruments referred to in Article 123 (Context and objectives).

ARTICLE 132

Sustainable forest management and associated trade

1. The Parties recognise the importance of ensuring conservation and sustainable management of forests and related ecosystems with the objective to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and biodiversity loss resulting from deforestation and forest degradation, including from land use and land-use change for economic activities.
2. Pursuant to paragraph 1, the Parties commit to:
 - (a) ensure forest law enforcement and governance;
 - (b) promote trade in products that derive from sustainably managed forests and related ecosystems;
 - (c) implement measures to combat illegal logging and promote the use of timber legality assurance instruments with the aim that only legally sourced timber is traded between the Parties;
 - (d) promote the protection of endangered timber species, inter alia, through the effective use of the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES);
 - (e) cooperate on issues pertaining to conservation and sustainable management of forests and wetlands where relevant through existing bilateral arrangements

if applicable and in the relevant multilateral fora in which they participate, in particular through the UN collaborative initiative on Reducing Emissions from Deforestation and Forest Degradation (REDD+) as encouraged by the Paris Agreement; and

- (f) exchange information and, as appropriate, cooperate with the other Party on trade-related initiatives to combat illegal logging, and to promote sustainable forest management, forest governance and conservation of forest cover.

ARTICLE 133

Sustainable agriculture, food systems and associated trade

1. The Parties recognise the increasing impact that global challenges, such as climate change, loss of biodiversity, land degradation, droughts and the emergence of new pests and diseases, among others, have on agriculture and food systems.
2. In this context, the Parties recognise the importance of strengthening policies and devising programs that contribute to the development of more productive, sustainable, inclusive and resilient agriculture and food systems in a holistic and comprehensive manner. The Parties recognise the importance of sustainable agriculture and food systems and the role of trade in achieving this objective.
3. Pursuant to paragraphs 1 and 2, the Parties will exchange information and experiences in the development and implementation of integrated policies, which promote sustainable agriculture and food systems and associated trade in all three dimensions of sustainable development. In order to effectively contribute to the sustainable development of the agriculture and food sector, the Parties may cooperate on areas of mutual interest related to trade and sustainable agriculture and food systems, including through conducting a dialogue on domestic initiatives towards achieving sustainable agriculture and food systems and improving agricultural productivity, considering the protection and sustainable use of ecosystems and natural resources, as well as the social dimension of agricultural production.

ARTICLE 134

Trade and climate change

1. The Parties recognise that climate change impacts are being felt and poses significant risks to communities, infrastructure, the economy, the environment and human health, and that efforts to increase resilience are required. The Parties commit to promote effective climate change mitigation and adaptation measures in order to tackle global, regional and domestic challenges and minimise harm.

2. The Parties recognise the importance of pursuing the objectives and principles of the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) and the Paris Agreement in order to address the urgent threat of climate change. Accordingly, the Parties recognise the role of trade to achieve the goals of sustainable development and to address climate change, as well as the importance of individual and collective efforts to address climate change impacts through mitigation and adaptation actions.

3. Pursuant to paragraph 1 and 2, the Parties commit to:

- (a) effectively implement their respective obligations and commitments under the UNFCCC and the Paris Agreement;
- (b) promote the contribution of trade to the transition to a low-carbon-economy and to climate-resilient development;
- (c) cooperate bilaterally, regionally and in international fora as appropriate on trade-related climate change issues;
- (d) share information and experiences on policy instruments of mutual interest to achieve multilateral, regional and local climate change objectives; and
- (e) engage in cooperative and capacity-building activities of mutual interest related to climate change adaptation and mitigation.

ARTICLE 135

Trade and biological diversity

1. The Parties recognise the importance of the protection, conservation and sustainable use of biological diversity, and the role of trade in pursuing these objectives consistent with the Convention on Biological Diversity and other biodiversity-related multilateral environmental agreements to which they are a party, including the decisions adopted thereunder. The Parties also recognise the importance of ensuring that international trade of wild flora and fauna does not threaten their survival, as set out in CITES.

2. Pursuant to paragraph 1, the Parties commit to:

- (a) take appropriate domestic measures to protect and conserve biological diversity when it is subject to pressures linked to trade and investment;
- (b) promote the long-term conservation and sustainable use of species listed in CITES, including by promoting the cooperation in the relevant CITES bodies to keep the Appendices to the CITES up to date;

- (c) implement applicable CITES resolutions that aims to protect and conserve species whose survival is threatened by international trade;
- (d) take appropriate domestic measures to protect and conserve wild flora and fauna, that it has identified to be at risk within its territory, including measures to conserve the ecological integrity of protected natural areas;
- (e) implement effective domestic measures to combat illegal trade in wild flora and fauna, including through cooperation activities with third countries, as appropriate;
- (f) enhance efforts to prevent or control the introduction and spread of invasive alien species; and
- (g) cooperate, where applicable, on issues concerning trade and the protection, conservation and sustainable use of biological diversity.

ARTICLE 136

Trade and sustainable management of fisheries and aquaculture

1. The Parties recognise the importance of ensuring the conservation and sustainable management of living marine resources and marine ecosystems and the role of trade in pursuing these objectives.
2. Pursuant to paragraph 1, the Parties commit to:
 - (a) adopt and implement effective and transparent policies and measures to combat illegal, unreported and unregulated (IUU) fishing and aim to prevent IUU products from trade flows;
 - (b) effectively implement the obligations under international agreements¹ to which they are a party in their domestic laws, regulations and policies;
 - (c) promote the use of relevant international guidelines, such as FAO's Voluntary Guidelines for Catch Documentation Schemes, that include traceability schemes.

¹ These include the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, done at Montego Bay, December 10, 1982 (UNCLOS), the United Nations Agreement for the Implementation of the Provisions of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea of December 1982 relating to the Conservation and Management of Straddling Fish Stocks and Highly Migratory Fish Stocks, done at New York, December 4, 1995 (UN Fish Stocks Agreement), the 1993 FAO Agreement to Promote Compliance with International Conservation and Management Measures by Fishing Vessels on the High Seas, (Compliance Agreement) done at Rome, November 24, 1993, and the 2009 FAO Agreement on Port State Measures to prevent, deter and eliminate illegal, unreported and unregulated fishing, done at Rome, November 22, 2009.

- (d) cooperate bilaterally and in relevant international fora in the fight against IUU fishing in areas of mutual interest, such as by facilitating the exchange of information on IUU fishing activities and building capacity;
- (e) the fulfilment of the objectives set out in the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development regarding fisheries subsidies, including by prohibiting certain forms of fisheries subsidies which contribute to overfishing and overcapacity, eliminating subsidies that contribute to IUU fishing and refraining from introducing new such subsidies; and
- (f) promote the development of sustainable and responsible aquaculture.

LABOUR AND TRADE

ARTICLE 137

Labour rights

1. The Parties commit to promote the development of international trade and investment in a way that is conducive to decent work for all.
2. The Parties recall the obligations deriving from membership of the ILO to respect, promote and realise the principles concerning the fundamental rights as reflected in the ILO Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work of 1998, as amended in 2022, namely:
 - (a) freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;
 - (b) the elimination of all forms of forced or compulsory labour;
 - (c) the effective abolition of child labour; including a prohibition on the worst forms of child labour;
 - (d) the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation; and
 - (e) a safe and healthy working environment.
3. Each Party commits to adopt and maintain such rights in its domestic laws, regulations and policies.
4. The Parties recall the obligations deriving from membership of the ILO to effectively implement the ILO Conventions which they have ratified and to make continued and sustained efforts towards ratifying the fundamental ILO Conventions and related protocols, as well as the other Conventions that are classified as “up-to-date” by the ILO.
5. The Parties recognise the importance of the strategic objectives of the ILO Decent Work Agenda, as reflected in the Declaration on Social Justice for a Fair Globalization of 2008, as amended in 2022 (ILO Declaration on Social Justice for a Fair Globalization).
6. The Parties commit to:
 - (a) develop and enhance measures for social protection and decent working conditions for all, with respect to social security, occupational safety and health, wages and earnings, hours of work and other conditions of work;

- (b) promote social dialogue and tripartism; and
- (c) build and maintain a well-functioning labour inspection system.

7. The Parties reaffirm, as set out in the ILO Declaration on Social Justice for a Fair Globalization, that the violation of fundamental principles and rights at work shall not be invoked or otherwise used as a legitimate comparative advantage and that labour standards shall not be used for protectionist trade purposes.

ARTICLE 138

Business and human rights

1. The Parties recognise that incorporating a business and human rights approach in trade aims at ensuring coherence and synergy between human rights and trade agreements.
2. The Parties recall the international policy framework regarding business and human rights and their obligations deriving from the international human rights instruments to which they are a party.
3. The Parties shall promote the implementation of the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights.

ARTICLE 139

Labour market issues

1. Acknowledging the significant transformations in the world of work driven by technological innovations, demographic shifts, environmental and climate change, and globalisation, the Parties shall direct their efforts on further developing a human-centered approach to the future of work, as reflected in the ILO Centenary Declaration for the Future of Work of 2019, while recognizing the strong, complex and crucial links between social, trade, financial, economic and environmental policies.
2. The Parties may, as appropriate, exchange information, experiences and good practice on related issues of mutual interest.

SECTION IV

INCLUSIVE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES FOR ALL

ARTICLE 140

General provisions

1. The Parties acknowledge the importance of incorporating gender equality and non-discrimination perspectives in the promotion of inclusive economic development in order to achieve sustainable economic growth, with income opportunities and prospects for all.
2. The Parties recognise that women's participation in international trade can contribute to advancing their economic empowerment and economic independence. Furthermore, they acknowledge that women's access to and ownership of economic resources contribute to sustainable and inclusive economic growth, prosperity and competitiveness.
3. The Parties commit to:
 - (a) promote policies that aim to ensure an inclusive labour market, equal rights and opportunities for all, and address systemic barriers and discrimination of any kind; and
 - (b) work towards the elimination of gender wage gaps in their respective economies.

ARTICLE 141

International commitments

The Parties commit to effectively implement the international agreements pertaining to gender equality and non-discrimination, including women's rights, to which they are party.

SECTION V
INSTITUTIONAL AND DISPUTE SETTLEMENT PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 142

Sub-Committee on trade and sustainable development

1. The Parties shall establish a Sub-Committee on trade and sustainable development composed of senior government representatives or their designees. Each Party shall ensure that its representatives have the appropriate expertise concerning the issues to be discussed, such as experts from institutions responsible for trade, labour, environment and gender issues.
2. The Sub-Committee on trade and sustainable development shall convene directly before or after the meetings of the Joint Committee unless the Parties decide otherwise. Meetings may be conducted in person or by any technological means available to the Parties.
3. The Sub-Committee on trade and sustainable development shall consider conducting meetings in consecutive sessions focused on thematic sections of this Chapter, as well as cross-cutting issues related to trade and sustainable development.
4. The Sub-Committee on trade and sustainable development may consider any matter arising under this Chapter.
5. The Sub-Committee on trade and sustainable development shall:
 - (a) oversee the implementation of this Chapter;
 - (b) oversee and assess the cooperation activities of this Chapter, including exchange of information and experience on areas of mutual interest;
 - (c) serve as a forum for dialogue on matters related to this Chapter;
 - (d) make recommendations and report to the Joint Committee regarding the implementation, and where applicable, the review of this Chapter; and
 - (e) carry out the tasks referred to in Article 145 (Consultations) and Article 147 (Review), as well as any other functions as the Parties may agree.
6. The Sub-Committee on trade and sustainable development may consult or seek the advice of relevant stakeholders or experts over matters relating to the implementation of this Chapter.
7. The Sub-Committee on trade and sustainable development shall act by consensus and publish a report on its meetings.

ARTICLE 143

Contact points

Each Party shall designate a contact point for the purposes of facilitating communication and coordination between the Parties on any matter relating to the implementation of this Chapter, including possible cooperative activities. The Parties shall exchange the contact details of their designated contact points.²

ARTICLE 144

Implementation and dispute resolution

1. The Parties shall at all times endeavour to agree on the interpretation and application of this Chapter. Should any matter arise under this Chapter, the Parties concerned shall make every attempt to reach a mutually satisfactory resolution of the matter, inter alia through dialogue, exchange of information or, if appropriate, cooperation.

2. For any matter arising under this Chapter, the Parties shall only have recourse to the rules and procedures provided therein. The Parties concerned may nevertheless, if they so agree, have access to good offices, conciliation and mediation procedures. Such procedures may begin and be terminated at any time and shall be confidential and without prejudice to the rights of the Parties concerned in any other procedures provided for in this Chapter.

3. If the Parties concerned so agree, good offices, conciliation and mediation procedures may continue while other proceedings referred to in Articles 145 (Consultations) and 146 (Panel of experts) are in progress.

ARTICLE 145

Consultations

1. A Party (the requesting Party) may request bilateral expert consultations with another Party (the responding Party) regarding any matter arising under this Chapter by delivering a written request to the responding Party's contact point referred to in Article 143 (Contact points). The request shall set out the reasons for requesting consultations, including information that is specific and sufficient, and identify the provisions of this Chapter considered to be applicable, to enable the responding Party to respond. The requesting Party shall inform the other Parties, through the contact points referred to in Article 143 (Contact points), that a request for bilateral expert consultations has been submitted.

² In the case of Chile, the contact point shall be in its Undersecretariat of International Economic Relations of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs or its successor.

2. Unless otherwise agreed by the requesting Party and the responding Party (Consulting Parties), bilateral expert consultations shall begin no later than 30 days from the receipt of the request for consultations. The Consulting Parties shall promptly inform the other Parties of any mutually agreed resolution of the matter.
3. If the Consulting Parties do not reach a mutually agreed solution through bilateral expert consultations in accordance with paragraph 2, within 90 days from the receipt of the request for such consultations, a Consulting Party may request in writing consultations in the Sub-Committee on trade and sustainable development.
4. The Consulting Parties shall enter into consultations in the Sub-Committee on on trade and sustainable development promptly, and no later than 30 days after the date of receipt pursuant to paragraph 3 by the responding Party of the request. For the purposes of this paragraph, the Sub-Committee on on trade and sustainable development shall be composed only by the Consulting Parties.
5. The Consulting Parties may agree to seek advice from any expert or body they deem appropriate to assist them in the consultations.
6. Consultations may be held in person or by any other means of communication agreed by the Consulting Parties. If consultations are held in person, they shall be held in the Responding Party, unless the consulting Parties agree otherwise.
7. The Consulting Parties shall promptly inform the other Parties of any mutually agreed resolution of the matter. Any solution or decision reached by the Consulting Parties shall be made publicly available, unless they agree otherwise.
8. Consultations shall be deemed to be concluded no later than 120 days after the date of receipt of the request for bilateral consultations unless the Consulting Parties agree otherwise.

ARTICLE 146

Panel of experts

1. If the Consulting Parties fail to reach a mutually satisfactory resolution of a matter arising under this Chapter through consultations under Article 145 (Consultations), within the time period set out in paragraph 8 of that Article, a consulting Party may request the establishment of a panel of experts. Article 167 (Establishment of arbitration panel), 168 (Arbitration panel), 169 (Procedures of the arbitration panel) and 171 (Termination of arbitration panel proceedings) of Chapter X (Dispute Settlement) and Annex XVII (Model Rules of Procedure for the Conduct of Arbitration Panels) shall apply mutatis mutandis, except as otherwise provided for in this Article.
2. The panellists shall have relevant expertise in relation to the matter referred to in paragraph 1. They shall be independent, serve in their individual capacities and shall not take instructions from any organisation or government with regard to issues related to the disagreement, or be affiliated with the government of a Party.

3. If the matter is related to multilateral instruments referred to in this Chapter, the panel of experts should seek information from the ILO or relevant bodies established under those instruments, including any pertinent available interpretative guidance, findings or decisions adopted by the ILO or those bodies. Any information obtained shall be submitted to the parties concerned for their comments.

4. The panel of experts shall submit an initial report containing its findings and recommendations to the parties concerned within 100 days from the date of establishment of the panel of experts. A party concerned may submit written comments to the panel of experts on its initial report within 25 days from the date of receipt of the report. After considering any such written comments, the panel of experts may modify the initial report and make any further examination it considers appropriate. The panel of experts shall present to the parties concerned a final report within 60 days from the date of receipt of the initial report. The Parties shall publish, or otherwise make publicly available, the final report.

5. The parties concerned shall discuss appropriate measures to implement the final report of the panel of experts. Such measures shall be communicated to the other Parties, through their contact points, within 90 days from the date of issuance of the final report and shall be monitored by the Joint Committee.

6. Any time period for the purposes of this Article may be modified by mutual agreement of the parties concerned.

7. When a panel of experts considers that it cannot comply with a timeframe imposed on it for the purposes of this Article, it shall, through the contact points, inform the parties concerned in writing stating the reasons of further delay and the date on which the panel of experts plans to deliver its report and provide an estimate of the additional time required. Any additional time should not exceed 60 days.

8. The costs of the panel of experts shall be borne by the parties concerned in equal shares. Each party concerned shall bear its own legal and other costs incurred in relation to the panel of experts. The panel of experts may decide that the costs be distributed differently taking into account the particular circumstances of the case.

9. Where a procedural question arises, the panel of experts may, after consultation with the parties concerned, adopt an appropriate procedure.

Article 147

Review

The Parties shall assess in the Sub-Committee on trade and sustainable development the progress achieved in pursuing the objectives set out in this Chapter and consider relevant international developments in order to identify areas where further actions could promote these objectives.

ANNEX 25

AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLE 179

ANNEX 25

AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLE 179 (AMENDMENTS)

ARTICLE 179

Amendments

1. Any Party may submit proposals for amendments to this Agreement to the Joint Committee for consideration and recommendation.
 2. Amendments to this Agreement shall be subject to ratification, acceptance or approval.
 3. Unless otherwise agreed, amendments shall enter into force on the first day of the third month following the date on which at least one EFTA State and Chile have deposited their instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval with the Depositary. In relation to an EFTA State depositing its instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval after the date on which at least one EFTA State and Chile have deposited their instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval with the Depositary, the amendment shall enter into force on the first day of the third month following the deposit of its instrument.
 4. Notwithstanding paragraphs 1 to 3, the Joint Committee may decide to amend any Annexes or Appendices to this Agreement. If a Party has accepted a decision subject to the fulfilment of domestic legal requirements, the decision shall enter into force on the first day of the third month following the date on which the last Party notifies the Depositary that its internal requirements have been fulfilled, unless otherwise specified in the decision.
 5. Amendments regarding issues related only to one or several EFTA States and Chile shall be agreed upon by the Parties concerned.
 6. The text of the amendments and the instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval shall be deposited with the Depositary.
 7. A Party may apply an amendment provisionally, subject to its domestic legal requirements. Provisional application of amendments shall be notified to the Depositary.

ANNEX 26

AMENDMENTS TO ANNEX XV

ANNEX XV

REFERRED TO IN ARTICLE 161(5)

ANNEX XV

DECISIONS OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE

1. In the case of Chile, the decisions of the Joint Committee may be implemented through executive agreements (“acuerdos de ejecución”), in accordance with Chilean law.
 2. In the case of the EFTA States, the final acceptance of a decision of the Joint Committee may be subject to the fulfillment of their respective constitutional requirements.
